

Presents
The A. Philip Randolph
Gentle Warrior Awards

Dear Friend of Labor History and Culture,

On February 22, 2025, the National A. Philip Randolph Pullman Porter Museum (NAPRPPM) will celebrate its 30th founding Anniversary and will host the 2025 A. Philip Randolph "Gentle Warrior Awards" Gala. This is our annual primary fund-raiser. The event will take place on Saturday, February 22, 2025, from 5:00 to 10:00 pm at the Wintrust's Grand Banking Hall, located at 231 S. La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois 60604.

We are excited to invite you to join us and support a fantastic celebration! As the labor community honors and celebrates individuals on the national and local level from labor, politics, public service, and the community. The 2025 Honorees include: Gentle Warrior Award Recipients: April Verrett, who was elected the first Black President of SEIU, the 2nd-largest union in America, US Congressman, Representative of New York Hakeem Jeffries, and Posthumously, William Bill Lucy, founding member of CBTU and former President Emeritus of AFSCME.

Change Agent Recipients: Labor: Kevin McLaughlin – Executive Secretary-Treasurer. Mid America Carpenters Union, and Politics: for 2025, introducing the inaugural category Descendants of Distinction, and its first honoree, Cook County Commissioner Donna Miller, who continues the standard of integrity, activism, and excellence of her grandfather, who was a member of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, the first Black Labor Union in America to be chartered under the American Federation of Labor. and in Public Service: Bernardo Gomez - Chairman of the City of Chicago's first-ever Disability Employee Resource Group.

This year's honorees in both A. Philip Randolph Gentle Warrior Award and Change Agent, have not only invoked change but have demanded change throughout their community, politics, and policies.

A Philip Randolph organized the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, the first Black labor union in America chartered under the American Federation of Labor (AFL). Randolph was one of America's foremost labor and civil rights leaders, who became known as the "Gentle Warrior." The Gentle Warrior Award is presented to individuals who exhibit the similar commitment, focus, and tenacity that Randolph displayed throughout his career.

Founded in 1995, the NAPRPPM is the only museum of its kind worldwide. The NAPRPPM is a 501(c)3 cultural institution located in the Pullman National Historical Park District, designated as such in 2015 by President Barack Obama.

The museum is a public, independently operated Black labor history museum that promotes critical lessons that cross age, class, color, and gender boundaries, carrying messages critical to our society. Successful "Gentle Warrior Awards" events play a significant role in our operational budget and enables us to continue this vital work!

We ask that you consider support of the museum, fundraising event in a substantial way. It will contribute toward the extra push that we need for the expansion project. All of the funds generated will go toward the project. This event is the vehicle for the labor community to help in a major way that can be seen, in museum's expansion project, for decades to come.

In Solidarity,

Dr. Lyn Hughes, Founder
