

LONG BIO

Chris and Cait are a guitar–vocal duo whose sound blends the warmth of Americana with the subtle sophistication of jazz-shaded harmony. Partners in life and in music, they bring emotional depth, authenticity, and an intuitive connection to every performance.

Their repertoire spans six decades of beloved music — Pop, Jazz, Blues, Rock, and the Great American Songbook — alongside their own original material, all reimagined through their intimate, expressive style. Their performances invite listeners to settle in, unwind, and experience familiar songs — and new ones — in a fresh, heartfelt way.

Rooted in Americana but enriched by Chris’s harmonic nuance and the duo’s natural improvisational chemistry, Chris and Cait create music that transcends genre. Their sound explores themes of humanity, love, and hope with warmth, clarity, and a signature that is unmistakably their own. Americana with a twist!

SHORT BIO

Chris and Cait are a guitar–vocal duo blending the warmth of Americana with the subtle sophistication of jazz-shaded harmony. Performing originals alongside reimagined favorites from across six decades of great music, they bring emotional depth, authenticity, and an intuitive connection to every performance — a sound that’s unmistakably their own.

Americana with a twist!

Chris and Cait are a guitar–vocal duo blending the warmth of Americana with the subtle sophistication of jazz-shaded harmony. Performing originals alongside reimagined favorites from across six decades, they bring emotional depth, authenticity, and an intuitive connection to every show. Their intimate, expressive sound creates a welcoming atmosphere for audiences of all ages.