Grand Knight Report – Robert Malnati

Dear brother knights, March 2025

Beautiful New England snowstorms plus some holidays and school vacations, have caused the shortest month of the year to fly by. Planning meetings in January and February held virtually were very successful and enabled most officers and program directors to participate without risking bad weather travel and with an economic use of their time. We intend to occasionally continue virtual planning meetings.

The February 10 members meeting was opened by Grand Knight Bob Malnati, then the gavel was handed over to Deputy Grand Knight. This load-sharing is good for the health of our council leadership.

Lots of behind-the-scene work has been going on to prepare for upcoming events such as St. Patrick's dinner; Anniversary dinner; Pilgrim Icon prayer service (see page 7); July 4th Chelmsford Town Fair; Polar plunge; Special Olympics bowling; new branding and promotional videos; two membership drives; Soup and Stations; Scholarship program; Night of Reflection at the Abbey; Family and Knight of the Year; pancakes for supper; exemplification ceremony. The Bishop Ruocco council will "hit the ground running" in March.

The charity grant from State K of C was approved. Funds have been received from State charity account and work is authorized to start as soon as weather permits. THANK YOU, Ken Desilets for leading this effort.

The most important event on the near horizon is the Membership drives. Be prepared to tell prospective knights about how much you enjoy being part of a community of catholic men, dedicated in serving others and having a positive impact on the world around us. Each knight is unique and enriches both the council and our Hold Church. Our commitment to Charity, Unity, and Fraternity bring to each knight a sense of peace and self-worth, personal growth, fellowship, and the satisfaction of knowing that we are making a difference. We are KIND. Reach out to your friends and neighbors and new acquaintances. INVITE them to become knights.

Watch your emails for sign-up opportunities (Signup Genius) and try your best to participate in one or more than fit you.

I am privileged and honored to lead the Bishop Ruocco council and be your brother.

A reflection from our council Chancellor Adam Rypinski

The Humility of Jesus

Recently our council was blessed to hear the beautifully written essays from two participants in the Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest. Interestingly, both Theresa and James Hudelson selected humility as one of the virtues that they believe a president should possess. Listening to their work got me thinking, how did our greatest leader, Jesus Christ, demonstrate humility? Humility, of course, is the quality of having a modest view of one's own importance and putting others before oneself (humbleness). As I thought about His life on earth, I recalled example after example of this quality. Indeed, humility is a cornerstone trait that makes Jesus so very loved.

Humility – Francesco Ciccolella Studio for NY Times

Although he was divine, he came to Earth to live as human. This start to his Earthly journey is a beautiful demonstration of humility. His birth, in a manger, among barn animals, was of course very humble. Through His many acts of selflessness, helping others, raising the dead, feeding the hungry, forgiving sins, and more, he showed us humility. In the Beatitudes, he said, "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth" (Matthew 5:5), directing us to put others before ourselves. And, most profoundly, Jesus' willingness to suffer and die on the cross, while possessing the power to avoid it, was the ultimate act of humility. The examples are countless.

Alas, demonstrating humility in today's world is challenging. It is overwhelmingly easy to succumb to the opposing qualities of arrogance, self-centeredness and disrespectfulness that are so prevalent in society. However, throughout his life on Earth, Jesus showed that people who possess humility will have stronger relationships, be more resilient, become better leaders, have stronger reputations and, of course, be closer to God.

Please join me in praying that each of us as well as our church and government leaders strive to be humbler and grow the quality of humility within ourselves.

God Bless, Adam Rypinski

Humble quotes from brainyquote.com

I'm always asked, 'What's the secret to success?' But there are no secrets. Be humble. Be hungry. And always be the hardest worker in the room – Dwayne Johnson

Talent is God-given; be humble. Fame is man-given; be thankful. Conceit is self-given; be careful.

Membership Drive, St. Margaret Church March 9 Membership Drive, St. Anne and St. Catherine churches March 16

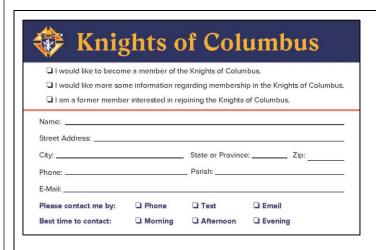

From Gene Bartos

We are hosting a membership drive March 9 at Holy Rood Collaborative's St. Margaret Church at the 10:00AM Mass and on March 16 Blessed Trinity Parish's St. Anne and Catherine churches at the 8:30AM and 10:30AM Masses, respectively.

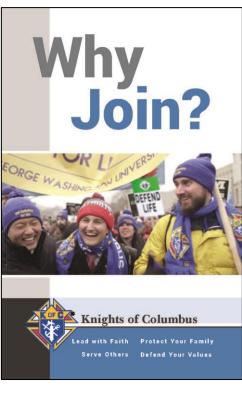

We need your help in making this a successful event inviting men from the parishes to join our council. Unlike church drives of the past, our new way of inviting men is much simpler with the Delta Church Drive. We need "ambassadors" to place material in the pews before Mass, greet families as they arrive, and collect completed prospect cards as people leave. It's that simple! Prospects will then receive an email invitation to join online.

We will be conducting the drive at the Sunday Masses at these locations. We need at least 6 brothers per Mass to help and your family is welcome to be part of this effort

Please contact membership director Gene Bartos in advance that you will help. Contact information is farmergb@aol.com or 508-517-5677.
