ILL A DAY, Bettina Girard Dies in a Hospital. Famous for Beauty, Acting, Diamonds and Divorces. Seventh Husband With Her When She Succumbed. TENTS. The first of the new tents for the summer season will be erected at the General Hospital of Arctic patients, now under construction at the village of Brude, a mile and a half from the village of Uraed. Within our limited terms a winter tent has been erected at the hospital, which is to be used during the winter months. The hospital is to be completed in time for the opening of the new year. NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Bettina Girard, famous for her beauty, acting, diamonds and divorces, died yesterday morning at the General Hospital of Arctic patients, now under construction at the village of Brude, a mile and a half from the village of Uraed. The hospital is to be completed in time for the opening of the new year.	CONTINUOUS STORMS, BUT URAED NEVER IN DANGER Capt Brude, Inventor of Strange Craft, Tells of His Long Voyage From Norway to Pavilion Beach, Gloucester. LIFEBOAT URAED ON THE SAND AT PAVILION BEACH Believes His Football-Shaped Lifeboat Makes Good His Claim to Award of $193,000—Coming to Boston. GLOUCESTER, Jan. 8.—Wrote—Rushed and received what not there. The answer is one consecutive, in which he has given his name and address, and the date of his arrival in Boston.	Handwriting Exam Will be on for Three Days Prepares to Examination Every one of the gentry parties on the Tidwell train entered a $25 bet that Capt. Brude would not be prepared to face the scrutiny. The girls were equally anxious to see him home. Atty. Gen. Herbert Parker of Boston, who is to preside over the examination, said: "I am sure he will pass." Brude's courtly open port of call was a success. He was profiting their present position by the time he reached Gloucester, where he had a long talk with Capt. Parker, who explained the examination to him. The two men then went to the office of the master of like his boat, Capt. John C. Tidwell, and the two old salts, who are both 60, had a good laugh over the situation. Brude's lawyer has shown O'Brien a copy of the letter of his wife, the parents and his attorney, which he says is much shorter than the past six days. Many persons have asked him if he is afraid of the trial. "No," he says. "I am not afraid of it. I am not afraid of the law. I am not afraid of the public opinion. I am not afraid of the press. I am not afraid of the world. I am not afraid of anything." The Gloucester papers believe that at the end of the trial Capt. Brude will be a rich man again. They say he is worth $193,000 and losing it in testimony was a small sacrifice to make. Jury Attends Church. The Gloucester jury, which was to have been impaneled at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, did not get to the courtroom until 11 o'clock. The delay was due to the fact that the judge, Justice John J. Murphy, was absent from the city. He had been called away to attend a church service. He is a member of the First Congregational Church, and he had intended to attend the service this morning. However, he was unable to do so because of the weather. He had to leave the city early this morning to attend the service.
