1895 Japan defeated China in First Sino-Japanese War. China ceded Taiwan to Japan by treaty.

1895-1945 Japan ruled Taiwan as a colony.

1927-1950 Meanwhile, China Civil War. Republicans (Chiang Kai Shek) vs Communists (Mao Zedong).

Japanese Occupation of Taiwan 1895-1945 1600s-1800s Japan tried several times to obtain Taiwan by force. Unsuccessful.

1871 Japanese ship with 69 people washed ashore by storm in Southern Taiwan (independent kingdom not controlled by Chinese Qing). Taiwanese killed most of them. Japan demanded compensation. Taiwan (Qing) refused.

1874 Japan sent 3,000 soldiers to Taiwan. Qing sent soldiers to Taiwan. Standoff for 20 years War finally happened 1894-1895. China lost. 50,000 total casualties. China ceded Taiwan to Japan.

- Some call 1895-1945 the "Colonial Period".
- Others call it "Occupation Period"

Brief History of Taiwan - 3

World War 2 Cut short Japan's harsh efforts to impose its culture, language, names in Taiwan.

- 1945 Japan surrendered.
- 300,000 Japanese expelled from
- Japan renounced sovreignty over Taiwan.

But to this day it is debatable who got sovreignty over Taiwan.

Brief History of Taiwan - 4

1927-1950 While WW2 battles raged in China, China was in a Civil War!

- Republicans under Chiang vs. Communists under Mao.
- Estimated 15,000,000 casualties.
- 1949 Communists chased Chiang and his army onto Taiwan.
- From Taiwan, Chiang proclaimed he was still leader of all of China.

Brief History of Taiwan - 5 Sovreignty over Taiwan

- A few say Japan's 1945 surrender created a new country: Taiwan.
- PRC says Communist victory in 1949 gave it control of all of historic China, including Taiwan.
- Others say no. In 1949 ROC had control of Taiwan (and a few other islands) and it remains a separate Republic of China.

Brief History of Taiwan - 6

1971: ROC lost its United Nations seat as "China" - replaced by PRC. Jan 1, 1979: US broke relations with ROC. Embassy closed.

- But maintains relations through a "representative office"
- Formed a nonprofit to issue visas, accept passport applications, and assist Americans in Taiwan.

Only 17 countries today recognize ROC:

Africa

- Eswatini

Europe – Holy See

Nauru

Tuvalu

Caribbean

- (Swaziland)
  - Haiti Saint Kitts and Nevis
  - Saint Lucia
    - Saint Vincent & Grenadines
- Oceania Kiribati Central America

  – Belize
- Guatemala Marshall Islands
  - Honduras
- Palau Solomon Islands
- Nicaragua South America Paraguay

57 more countries have "representative offices" that function like embassies.

Today, 148 countries plus Hong Kong accept the ROC passport for entry without need for a visa.

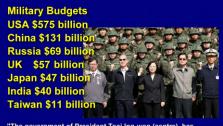

Some of the 148 do not stamp the ROC passport to avoid implying that ROC is a "country".

Mainland China (PRC) does not accept ROC passport for entry.

But ROC "citizens" can get a special "Mainland Travel Permit" to travel to PRC. And vice versa.

ROC's traditional political and military allies are:

- United States of America.
- Canada.
- Japan.
- Australia.
- New Zealand.

"The government of President Tsai Ing-wen (centre), approved a 5.6% increase in military spending next year, to US$11.34 billion, with plans for further incremental rises over the next 10 years, mainly in response to threats from mainland China." South China Morning Post 15 Apr 2019. In 2005, PRC (Mainland China) passed a controversial Anti-Secession Law" stating conditions for military invasion of Taiwan:

- Change of ROC name to eliminate the word "China".
- Political action by Taiwan to demonstrate separation from China.
- If all possibility of peaceful unification is lost.

That's the status quo today.

But Taiwan government argued:

- We were NOT acknowledging that Taiwan was a province of mainland
- Rather, by saying "Taiwan Province (Sheng)" we were saying that we are the rightful government of China and Taiwan is one of our provinces.
- Nonetheless, to avoid the issue "Taiwan Province" was removed from the license plate.

Taiwan's 2020 Presidential Election Two main parties:

- Incumbent: Democratic Progressive Party (DPP). Traditionally pro Taiwan independence.
- Historically main party: Kuomintang (KMT). Also nationalist.

But now commentators speak of a "massive gravity shift toward China" in both parties. Leading candidates:

- DPP: Foxconn chief Terry Gou (Foxconn is TW company that makes 40% of electronic devices sold worldwide. 500,000 employees in China.)
- KMT: Han Kuo-yu, popular mayor of Kaohisung. US$5 billion trade deal with China.

New Taiwan Dollar

Currency of Taiwan since 1949, when it replaced the Old Taiwan dollar, at a rate of 40,000 old dollars per one new dollar. Inflation under Japanese rule had made the old dollar nearly worthless.

National Palace Museum History – 1

1925 – National Palace Museum established in Forbidden City by China's new Republican government. To hold former Imperial collections.

1931 - Japan invades China.

1933 – To prevent the artefacts from falling to Japanese hands, collection was moved to Shanghai in 20,000 crates. Included some items from other museums.

National Palace Museum History – 2
1936 – Collection moved to new warehouse in Nanjing.
1940s – As Japanese advanced,
collection moved to 3 other locations.
1945 – Japan surrendered.
1947 – Shipped back to Nanjing.
1948 – Communists pushed Republicans to Taiwan in China's Civil War. They took with them 3,000 crates with over 600,000 of the most prized items. Thus Taiwan National Palace Museum was created.
