AND A WONDROUS THING!

We have learned since members of our brotherhood have been suffering various illnesses that an amazing 68% of the people in our parish have top-grade medical degrees (all except about two of them women), and we have been inundated with advice, medications, pills, and books on the subject. This despite the fact that here in nearby Pirbright we have the very best GP Surgery that has ever existed on any of the territories of the now nearly extinct British Empire, and that there we have the very best doctors that can be found in any of those territories - yet this 68% think they know better than them! I have been given 47 different pills to betaken by them - having about ten prescription ones too, I wondered how to cope with them all so decided to put all 47 given by the experts in a glass each day and pour on hot water and stir - it makes a rather unpleasant soupy mess with oily patches that did not smell very nice and tasted awful - afterwards I felt queasy for a few hours but it does not seem to have improved my wellbeing! I am not sure whether I should thank you for that. I confess I have greater trust in the doctors at Pirbright.

“WHEN our good and all-gracious Lord and Master sees people too lazy in their exercises, He lays their flesh low with sickness, an asceticism with less toil; and sometimes it also cleanses the soul from evil thoughts or passions.”
