

Creativity is Revolutionary

SEASON'S GREETINGS FROM THE PEOPLE'S PEDAGOGUE

“Poems have serious business to do
They need to bring down presidents who Start wars they themselves wouldn't go to”

- Nikki Giovanni, Acolytes

While the focus is on freedom and how to regain it, we are encouraged to use our imaginations to build a better existence. Please accept this message as a poetic seed to plant for your incoming creativity. May you enjoy a fresh start sprouting somewhere in your New Year soon!

With warmth,

Mairead
