Prayers and Intentions for May 2021

The Confraternity of Eucharistic Adoration for Life (CEAL)

Dedication:
Mary, Our Mother
and Mother of the Church
May 2021

CEAL is an association of lay faithful, clergy and religious from different parishes and institutes. CEAL members pray for Life causes during Eucharistic Adoration.

This guide to Eucharistic Adoration includes suggested readings, prayers, hymns, devotionals, and prayerful images upon which to reflect to make your experience a greater blessing.

If you are not able to attend your church's scheduled hours of Eucharistic Adoration, but your church is open, you can still worship the Lord. Even though the tabernacle is locked, He is present in the Tabernacle 24/7. Therefore, worshipping the Lord before the Tabernacle is acceptable.

In special situations, you may be unable to pray in the presence of the exposed Sacrament, such as in the current health pandemic or if you are confined to home without any access to Church. In these cases, you can take part in the Eucharistic Adoration online offered by various sources such as:

Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

All: Amen

Leader: O God, come to my assistance

All: O Lord, make haste to help me.

Leader: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

A Novena for Life for the Feast of the Visitation

DAY ONE Reading (Lk 1:35-37):

The angel said to Mary in reply, "The holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God. And behold, Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren; for nothing will be impossible for God."

Versicle: My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
– My spirit rejoices in God my Savior.

Prayer: O God, nothing is impossible for You. Send Your Holy Spirit upon us, that the power of the Most High might overshadow us. Grant us the grace of evangelization and conversion, so that all may know the sanctity of human life. Amen.

DAY TWO Reading (Lk 1:38-40):

Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her. During those days Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

Versicle: For the Lord has looked with favor on his lowly servant, – from this day all generations will call me blessed.

Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, Your mother was obedient to the Divine will amid trembling and awe. Through her intercession, we pray You, look kindly on all expectant mothers. May any trials they now endure yield in the joy of new life. Amen.

DAY THREE Reading (Lk 1:41-42):

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb."

Versicle: The Almighty has done great things for me, – and holy is His Name.

Prayer: Draw near, we beseech you, O Lord, to those contemplating abortion. As John leaped for joy in the womb of his mother when You came near, may struggling women, and the children they bear, experience Your presence. Fill them with Your Holy Spirit, that they, too, may cry for joy at Your coming. You who live and reign for ever. Amen.

DAY FOUR Reading (Lk 1:43-44):

Elizabeth said to Mary, "And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy."

Versicle: He has mercy on those who fear Him,
– in every generation.

Prayer: Your mercy, O Lord, extends to the thousandth generation. Show forth Your mercy and love to those who have had an abortion. Through the intercession of Your mother, may they know Your compassion, and may they announce Your love to the nations. Amen.

DAY FIVE Reading (Lk 1:45, 56):

Elizabeth said to Mary, "Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled." ... Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

Versicle: He has shown the strength of His arm,
– He has scattered the proud in their conceit.

Prayer: Father, You know us even before we are formed in our mother's womb. May Your plans for all the unborn be fulfilled, and may we have the grace to be obedient to Your word. Amen.

DAY SIX Reading (Lk 1:57-58):

When the time arrived for Elizabeth to have her child she gave birth to a son. Her neighbor and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy toward her, and they rejoiced with her.

Versicle: He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
– and has lifted up the lowly.

Prayer: O God, all life is Your gift of love. In the joy that comes with the birth of a child, may we recognize Your great mercy, and so come to know the love You have for all people. Amen.

DAY SEVEN Reading (Lk 1:59-61):

When they came on the eighth day to circumcise the child, they were going to call him Zechariah after his father, but his mother said in reply, "No. He will be called John."

Versicle: He has filled the hungry with good things, – and the rich he has sent away empty.

Prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, we pray You send Your Holy Spirit upon all parents. May the birth of their child rouse their hearts. Approaching the sacrament of baptism, may they recommit to faith in You, who live and reign for ever. Amen.

DAY EIGHT Reading (Lk 1:62-64):

So they made signs, asking his father what he wished him to be called. He asked for a tablet and wrote, "John is his name," and all were amazed. Immediately his mouth was opened, his tongue freed, and he spoke blessing God.

Versicle: He has come to the help of His servant Israel, for He has remembered His promise of mercy, – the promise He made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever.

Prayer: Father, grant that all men may find in You the source and model of their fatherhood. May they aspire to know Your will for their children, and live in righteousness and truth. Grant them the grace to be men of virtue, and the reward of children faithful to You. Amen.

DAY NINE Reading (Lk 1:66):

All who heard these things took them to heart, saying "What, then, will this child be?" For surely the hand of the Lord was with him.

Versicle: My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
– for He has looked with favor on His lowly servant.

Prayer: Lord, so often we cannot recognize Your work in the lives of others. Grant that, like John's relatives, we may see You working in all, and, freed from envy, we may give You glory. For You live and reign for ever. Amen.

Mary, Mother of the Church May 24, 2018

We all have a physical mother, but Christians also believe we all have another spiritual mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. Jesus willed to give Mary as a mother to the early Church, when, from the cross, he said, "Woman, behold, your son" (John 19:26). And to the beloved disciple, "Behold, your mother" (John 19:27).

Throughout the centuries, Christians have called upon and honored Mary as their mother. Titles emphasizing her motherhood has been used throughout the ages, dating back to St. Augustine and St. Leo the Great. St. Isaac of Stella (died 1169), a Cistercian monk, wrote about the inseparability of Mary and the Church.

In modern times, St. Pope Paul VI declared Mary the Mother of the Church. St. Pope John Paul II asked Mary to be a mother in a very personal way, especially in times of grief. In 2018, Pope Francis proclaimed the Monday after Pentecost as the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of the Church. Through Scripture and tradition, we clearly see how Mary has been "Mother of the Church."

Mary, Help of Christians May 24

On May 14, 1862, Don Bosco dreamed about the battles the Church would face in the latter days. In his dream, the Pope of those days anchors the 'ship' of the Church between two pillars, one with a statue of Mary (Auxilium Christianorum or 'Help of Christians') and the other with a large Eucharistic Host.

St. John Bosco wrote about his congregation, the Salesians: "The principal objective is to promote veneration of the Blessed Sacrament and devotion to Mary Help of Christians. This title seems to please the august Queen of Heaven very much." The Salesian Sisters of St John Bosco or Daughters of Mary, Help of Christians, are the sister order of the Salesians of Don Bosco.

St. John Bosco, himself, on June 9 1868, dedicated the mother church of his congregation at Turin (Italy) to Our Lady Help of Christians. The Salesian Fathers and their Sisters have carried the devotion to their numerous establishments.

Our Lady of Fatima - May 13

Our Lady of Fatima is the title given to the Blessed Virgin Mary in connection with her apparitions to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. Our Lady of Fatima told the shepherd children to pray the rosary daily for the end of the war (World War I). Mary continued to appear once a month for 6 months to the three children, Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco. In October of 1930, the Bishop of Leiria-Fátima approved the visions as "worthy of belief."

In response to Our Lady's requests:

- The faithful begin praying the Fatima Prayer at the end of each decade of the Rosary following the approval of Fatima by the Church – October 1930
- Pope Pius XII consecrates "the world and Russia" to the Immaculate Heart of Mary – 1942
- Pope John Paul II consecrates "the world including Russia" to the Immaculate Heart of Mary – 1984.

Our Lady of Fatima urgently desired for all of faithful to pray daily for the salvation of poor sinners, and for the whole world.

The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary - May 31

by St. Pope John Paul II

In the Visitation episode, St Luke shows how the grace of the Incarnation, after filling Mary, brings salvation and joy to Elizabeth's house. The Savior of men, carried in his Mother's womb pours out the Holy Spirit, revealing himself from the very start of his coming into the world. The Gospel text also reports that Mary made the journey "with haste" (Lk 1:39). Even the note "into the hill country" (Lk 1:39), in the Lucan context, appears to be much more than a simple topographical indication, since it calls to mind the messenger of good news described in the Book of Isaiah: "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings, who publishes peace, who brings good tidings of good, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion: 'Your God reigns'" (Is 52:7).

Like St Paul, who recognizes the fulfillment of this prophetic text in the preaching of the Gospel (Rom 10:15), St Luke also seems to invite us to see Mary as the first "evangelist", who spreads the "good news", initiating the missionary journeys of her divine Son. Mary's visit to Elizabeth, in fact, is a prelude to Jesus' mission and, in cooperating from the beginning of her motherhood in the Son's redeeming work, she becomes the model for those in the Church who set out to bring Christ's light and joy to the people of every time and place.

The Solemnity of the Ascension

May 13 or 16, 2021

On the Ascension - by Pope Francis

Dear brothers and sisters,

The Ascension does not point to Jesus' absence, but tells us that he is alive in our midst in a new way.

He is no longer in a specific place in the world as he was before the Ascension.

He is now in the lordship of God, present in every space and time, close to each one of us.

In our life we are never alone: We have this Advocate who awaits us, who defends us.

We are never alone: The Crucified and Risen Lord guides us.

We have with us a multitude of brothers and sisters who, in silence and concealment, in their family life and at work, in their problems and hardships, in their joys and hopes, live faith daily and together with us bring the world the lordship of God's love, in the Risen Jesus Christ, ascended into Heaven, our own Advocate who pleads for us.

The Solemnity of Pentecost - May 23, 2021

The way in which the Lord established the New Law, written upon the hearts of His people, is reminiscent of the way He approached the Israelites in the Old Testament. They celebrated Pentecost long before the Holy Spirit ever descended upon the disciples. The word “Pentecost” comes from a Greek word that means “50th day,” because this Jewish festival was always celebrated 50 days after Passover. It commemorated the Lord giving the Torah to Moses on Mt. Sinai.

Like the Israelites, the disciples were “all in one place together,” waiting to encounter the Lord (Acts 2:1). They expected His coming because before Jesus ascended, He told them God would send down upon them a “power from on high” (Lk 24:49). So on the ninth day after the Ascension, from the sky came a “noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were” (Acts 2:2). Then tongues of fire rested on each one of them. “And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim” (Acts 2:4).
