Self-Certification of COVID-19 Vaccine Status

WBE Traffic Control continues to strive to maintain a workplace that is free from recognized hazards and to promote the health and well-being of our employees, their families, those who visit our facilities, as well as the public at large. As part of this effort, the Company has implemented certain safety protocols. Consistent with a certain state, CDC, and OSHA guidance, those employees who have been fully vaccinated against COVID-19 will be excused from some of these protocols. For this reason, the Company is requesting that you provide us with your COVID-19 vaccination status.

For purposes of this inquiry, an individual is considered “fully vaccinated” when it has been at least two weeks since receiving the final dose, as recommended by the manufacturer, of a vaccine that has been authorized by the FDA for use in the United States, including vaccinations that have been approved pursuant to an Emergency Use Authorization.

Please note that you are required to provide accurate information about your vaccination status, or you may decline to provide your vaccination status. If you decline to provide information about your vaccination status, we will assume you are unvaccinated for purposes of rules or requirements in the workplace that are different for fully vaccinated or unvaccinated persons.

When responding to this inquiry about whether you have been vaccinated, provide no more information than is contained on a COVID-19 Vaccination Record Card (i.e., if you have been vaccinated, the provider that administered your vaccine; which vaccine you received; and date(s) on which it was administered). Please do not submit any additional medical or family history information in response to the Company’s inquiry, including a reason for deciding to be vaccinated or not to be vaccinated.

In lieu of this Self-Certification, employees may present a copy of their completed COVID-19 Vaccination Record Card. All information provided will be maintained in compliance with all applicable laws.

I understand I am required to provide accurate information in response to the questions below and that failure to do so may result in disciplinary action. By signing below, I certify that I have accurately and truthfully answered the questions. I also understand that if I stated that I am fully vaccinated, the Company may request documentation of my vaccination status (e.g., a copy of my vaccine card). I also understand that if I do not follow the required safety protocols consistent with my vaccination status, I am subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Purpose: The Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (DE 4) is for California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding purposes only. The DE 4 is used to compute the amount of taxes to be withheld from your wages, by your employer, to accurately reflect your state tax withholding obligation.

Beginning January 1, 2020, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (Form W-4) from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will be used for federal income tax withholding only. You must file the state form DE 4 to determine the appropriate California PIT withholding.

If you do not provide your employer with a DE 4, the employer must use Single with Zero withholding allowance.

Check Your Withholding: After your DE 4 takes effect, compare the state income tax withheld with your estimated total annual tax. For state withholding, use the worksheets on this form.

Exemption From Withholding: If you wish to claim exempt, complete the federal Form W-4 and the state DE 4. You may claim exempt from withholding California income tax if you meet both of the following conditions for exemption:

- 1. You did not owe any federal/state income tax last year, and
- 2. You do not expect to owe any federal/state income tax this year. The exemption is good for one year.

If you continue to qualify for the exempt filing status, a new DE 4 designating exempt must be submitted by February 15 each year to continue your exemption. If you are not having federal/state income tax withheld this year but expect to have a tax liability next year, you are required to give your employer a new DE 4 by December 1.

Member Service Civil Relief Act: Under this act, as provided by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act and the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018, you may be exempt from California income tax withholding on your wages if

- (i) Your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in California in compliance with military orders;
- (ii) You are present in California solely to be with your spouse; and
- (iii) You maintain your domicile in another state.

If you claim exemption under this act, check the box on Line 4. You may be required to provide proof of exemption upon request.

The California Employer's Guide (DE 44) (edd.ca.gov/pdf\_pub\_ctr/de44.pdf) provides the income tax withholding tables. This publication may be found by visiting Payroll Taxes - Forms and Publications (edd.ca.gov/Payroll\_Taxes/Forms\_and\_Publications.htm). Notification: The burden of proof rests with the employee to show the correct California income tax withholding. Pursuant to section 4340-1(e) of Title 22, California Code of Regulations (CCR) (govt.westlaw.com/calregs/Search/Index), the FTB or the EDD may, by special direction in writing, require an employer to submit a Form W-4 or DE 4 when such forms are necessary for the administration of the withholding tax programs.

Penalty: You may be fined $500 if you file, with no reasonable basis, a DE 4 that results in less tax being withheld than is properly allowable. In addition, criminal penalties apply for willfully supplying false or fraudulent information or failing to supply information requiring an increase in withholding. This is provided by section 13101 of the California Unemployment Insurance Code (leginfo.ca.gov/faces/codes.xhtml) and section 19176 of the Revenue and Taxation Code (leginfo.ca.gov/faces/codes.xhtml).

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2024 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2023 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2024. You had no federal income tax liability in 2023 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2023 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2024 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2025.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
3. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2024 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 . . . . . 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
  - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a . . . . . 2a $ _____
  - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b . . . . . 2b $ _____
  - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c . . . . . 2c $ _____

What Are My Benefits During Pregnancy?

Your disability period begins the first day you are unable to do your regular work. DI benefits are based on the period of time your licensed health professional certifies you are unable to do your regular work. You can file a DI claim for your pregnancy-related disability, and recovery from delivery.

Without medical complications, you can receive benefits up to four weeks before your expected delivery date and up to six weeks after your delivery. For cesarean section, you can receive benefits up to eight weeks after delivery.

After your DI pregnancy claim ends, you may be eligible to receive up to eight weeks of Paid Family Leave (PFL) to bond with your new baby. A PFL bonding claim form is automatically sent with the final DI benefit payment.

What If I Require Care During My Disability?

If you require care during your disability, your child, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, spouse, or registered domestic partner may be eligible to receive up to eight weeks of PFL benefits to take time off work to care for you. For more information visit California PFL (edd.ca.gov/PaidFamilyLeave).

What Is Disability?

Disability is an illness or injury, either physical or mental, which prevents you from doing your regular work. Disability includes elective surgery, pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions.

What Is Disability Insurance?

Disability Insurance (DI) is a part of the State Disability Insurance (SDI) program. DI helps replace your income when you can't work as a result of a non-work-related disability. The program is funded through your SDI tax withholding. You are most likely eligible if you've paid into the SDI program (noted as "CASDI" on paystubs).

Elective Coverage is a plan where employers, the self-employed, and general partners may choose to be covered under SDI. Benefits and eligibility are determined differently between these plans. Find the annual cost of participating at your local Tax Office (edd.ca.gov/office_locator) or by visiting Disability Insurance Elective Coverage (edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Disability_Insurance_Elective_Coverage.htm).

Citizenship and immigration status do not affect eligibility for SDI benefits.

How Do I Apply for Disability Insurance Benefits?

1. Use SDI Online (edd.ca.gov/SDI_Online) to file for benefits.

OR

You can request a paper claim form by:

- Visiting Forms and Publications (forms.edd.ca.gov/forms).
- Calling 1-800-480-3287.

California state government employees covered by SDI should call 1-866-352-7675.

2. After you complete Part A – Claimant’s Statement, have your licensed health professional complete Part B - Physician/Practitioner’s Certificate online or by using a paper claim form. If you are filing online, SDI Online will provide you a receipt number once Part A is submitted. Your licensed health professional will need your receipt number to complete Part B.

A claim cannot begin more than seven days before you were examined by or under the care of a licensed health professional.

3. File online or submit your paper claim form within 49 days from the date your disability begins. If your claim is late, you may lose benefits. Visit Appeals (edd.ca.gov/Disability/Appeals.htm) for more information.

What Happens Next?

- A properly completed claim takes two weeks to be processed.
- We will mail you a Notice of Computation (DE 429D) confirming we received your claim and providing your estimated benefit amount.
- You will know we approved your claim once you receive an Electronic Benefit Payment (EBP) Notification (DE 2500E).
- If more information is needed or if the claim has been denied, we will contact you.

How Are My Benefits Sent to Me?

You have two payment options:

1. EDD Debit Card<sup>SM</sup> through Bank of America. (You do not have to accept the EDD Debit Card.)
  2. A Check. (Allow 7 to 10 days for delivery of checks in the mail.)
- Most completed claims are processed within 14 days.
  - The first seven days of your DI claim are a non-payable waiting period. If a claim is filed for the same or related condition within 60 days of the first claim, it will be added on as a continuation of the initial claim. There is no additional waiting period.
  - Benefits are paid once all information is received and you are approved. Benefit periods are two weeks at a time. If you are eligible for additional benefits, you will be sent the needed forms to complete and return. Allow 10 days for processing. If your benefits end midweek, that week will be paid at the daily rate. This rate is one-seventh of your weekly benefit amount.

How Are My Benefits Calculated?

They are based on your paychecks during a specific 12-month period (called a base period) 5 to 18 months before the start of your claim. To qualify, you must have earned at least $300 in your base period.

California's DI provides approximately 60 to 70 percent of your weekly salary. Visit the Disability Insurance and Paid Family Leave Calculator (edd.ca.gov/PFL_Calculator) to get an estimate.

What Affects My Ongoing Benefits?

You cannot be paid more than your normal weekly salary while receiving benefits. DI benefits are not affected by vacation pay you may receive.

Is There a Maximum Amount to My Benefits?

The maximum amount is 52 times the weekly rate of your benefits, but not more than your total base period wages earned when you were employed.

Exception: For employers and self-employed individuals who elect SDI coverage, the maximum benefit amount is 39 times the weekly rate.

Keep in mind that benefits are payable only for a limited period to a resident in an alcoholic recovery home or drug-free residential facility that is both licensed and certified by the state in which the facility is located. However, disabilities related to acute or chronic alcoholism or drug abuse, being medically treated, do not have this limitation.

What Are My Rights If My Benefits Are Denied?

- You can know the reason and basis for any decision that affects your benefits.
- You can appeal any decision about your eligibility for benefits. Appeals must be sent to the DI office in writing.
- You can request an appeal hearing before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). You may further appeal the ALJ’s decision to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board and the courts.
- Your privacy – all claim information will be kept confidential except for the purposes allowed by law.

How Are Benefit Amounts Calculated?

California Paid Family Leave provides approximately 60 to 70 percent of your weekly salary.

The Employment Development Department (EDD) has an online calculator that can help you estimate your weekly benefit amount. Visit the Disability Insurance and Paid Family Leave Calculator (edd.ca.gov/PFL\_Calculator) to estimate your benefit.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

FACT SHEET

DFEH

Sexual harassment is a form of discrimination based on sex/gender (including pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions), gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation. Individuals of any gender can be the target of sexual harassment. Unlawful sexual harassment does not have to be motivated by sexual desire. Sexual harassment may involve harassment of a person of the same gender as the harasser, regardless of either person's sexual orientation or gender identity.

THERE ARE TWO TYPES OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

1. "Quid pro quo" (Latin for "this for that") sexual harassment is when someone conditions a job, promotion, or other work benefit on your submission to sexual advances or other conduct based on sex.
2. "Hostile work environment" sexual harassment occurs when unwelcome comments or conduct based on sex unreasonably interferes with your work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment. You may experience sexual harassment even if the offensive conduct was not aimed directly at you.

The harassment must be severe or pervasive to be unlawful. A single act of harassment may be sufficiently severe to be unlawful.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT INCLUDES MANY FORMS OF OFFENSIVE BEHAVIORS

BEHAVIORS THAT MAY BE SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

1. Unwanted sexual advances
2. Offering employment benefits in exchange for sexual favors
3. Leering; gestures; or displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons, or posters
4. Derogatory comments, epithets, slurs, or jokes
5. Graphic comments, sexually degrading words, or suggestive or obscene messages or invitations
6. Physical touching or assault, as well as impeding or blocking movements

Actual or threatened retaliation for rejecting advances or complaining about harassment is also unlawful.

Employees or job applicants who believe that they have been sexually harassed or retaliated against may file a complaint of discrimination with DFEH within three years of the last act of harassment or retaliation.

DFEH serves as a neutral fact-finder and attempts to help the parties voluntarily resolve disputes. If DFEH finds sufficient evidence to establish that discrimination occurred and settlement efforts fail, the Department may file a civil complaint in state or federal court to address the causes of the discrimination and on behalf of the complaining party. DFEH may seek court orders changing the employer's policies and practices, punitive damages, and attorney's fees and costs if it prevails in litigation. Employees can also pursue the matter through a private lawsuit in civil court after a complaint has been filed with DFEH and a Right-to-Sue Notice has been issued.

EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITY & LIABILITY

All employers, regardless of the number of employees, are covered by the harassment provisions of California law. Employers are liable for harassment by their supervisors or agents. All harassers, including both supervisory and non-supervisory personnel, may be held personally liable for harassment or for aiding and abetting harassment. The law requires employers to take reasonable steps to prevent harassment. If an employer fails to take such steps, that employer can be held liable for the harassment. In addition, an employer may be liable for the harassment by a non-employee (for example, a client or customer) of an employee, applicant, or person providing services for the employer. An employer will only be liable for this form of harassment if it knew or should have known of the harassment, and failed to take immediate and appropriate corrective action.

Employers have an affirmative duty to take reasonable steps to prevent and promptly correct discriminatory and harassing conduct, and to create a workplace free of harassment.

A program to eliminate sexual harassment from the workplace is not only required by law, but it is the most practical way for an employer to avoid or limit liability if harassment occurs.

The benefit is paid every two weeks at a rate of at least $224 per week. In addition, workers' compensation provides a burial allowance.

OTHER BENEFITS

You may file a claim with the Employment Development Department (EDD) to get state disability benefits when workers' compensation benefits are delayed, denied, or have ended. ## WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I HAVE AN INJURY?

Report your injury to your employer

Tell your supervisor right away no matter how slight the injury may be. Don't delay – there are time limits. You could lose your right to benefits if your employer does not learn of your injury within 30 days. If your injury or illness is one that develops over time, report it as soon as you learn it was caused by your job. If you cannot report to the employer or don't hear from the claims administrator after you have reported your injury, contact the claims administrator yourself.

Workers' compensation insurance company or if employer is self-insured, person responsible for handling the claim is:

Address: _____

Phone: _____

You may be able to find the name of your employer's workers' compensation insurer at www.caworkcompcoverage.com. If no coverage exists or coverage has expired, contact the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement at www.dir.ca.gov/DLSE as all employees must be covered by law.

Get emergency treatment if needed

If it's a medical emergency, go to an emergency room right away. Tell the medical provider who treats you that your injury is job related. Your employer may tell you where to go for treatment.

Emergency telephone number: Call 911 for an ambulance, fire department or police. For non-emergency medical care, contact your employer, the workers' compensation claims administrator or go to this facility:

Fill out DWC 1 claim form and give it to your employer

Your employer must give you a DWC 1 claim form within one working day after learning about your injury or illness. Complete the employee portion, sign and give it back to your employer. Your employer will then file your claim with the claims administrator. Your employer must authorize treatment within one working day of receiving the DWC 1 claim form. If the injury is from repeated exposures, you have one year from when you realized your injury was job related to file a claim.

In either case, you may receive up to $10,000 in employer-paid medical care until your claim is either accepted or denied. The claims administrator has up to 90 days to decide whether to accept or deny your claim. Otherwise, your case is presumed payable. Your employer or the claims administrator will send you "benefit notices" that will advise you of the status of your claim.

MORE ABOUT MEDICAL CARE

What is a Primary Treating Physician (PTP)?

This is the doctor with overall responsibility for treating your injury or illness. He or she may be:

- The doctor you name in writing before you get hurt on the job
- A doctor from the medical provider network (MPN)
- The doctor chosen by your employer during the first 30 days of injury if your employer does not have an MPN or
- The doctor you chose after the first 30 days if your employer does not have a MPN.

What is a Medical Provider Network (MPN)?

A MPN is a select group of health care providers who treat injured workers. Check with your employer to see if they are using a MPN. If you have not named a doctor before you get hurt and your employer is using a MPN, you will see a MPN doctor. After your first visit, you are free to choose another doctor from the MPN list.

What is Predesignation?

Predesignation is when you name your regular doctor to treat you if you get hurt on the job. The doctor must be a medical doctor (M.D.), doctor of osteopathic medicine (D.O.) or a medical group with an M.D. or D.O. You must name your doctor in writing before you get hurt or become ill.

You may predesignate a doctor if you have health care coverage for non-work injuries and illnesses. The doctor must have:

- Treated you
- Maintained your medical history and records before your injury and
- Agreed to treat you for a work-related injury or illness before you get hurt or become ill.

You may use the “predesignation of personal physician” form included with this notice. After you fill in the form, be sure to give it to your employer. If your employer does not have an approved MPN, you may name your chiropractor or acupuncturist to treat you for work related injuries. The notice of personal chiropractor or acupuncturist must be in writing before you get hurt. You may use the form included in this notice. After you fill in the form, be sure to give it to your employer.

With some exceptions, state law does not allow a chiropractor to continue as your treating physician after 24 visits. Once you have received 24 chiropractic visits, if you still require medical treatment, you will have to select a new physician who is not a chiropractor. The term “chiropractic visit” means any chiropractic office visit, regardless of whether the services performed involve chiropractic manipulation or are limited to evaluation and management.

Exceptions to 24 visits include postsurgical physical medicine visits prescribed by the surgeon, or physician designated by the surgeon, under the postsurgical component of the Division of Workers’ Compensation’s Medical Treatment Utilization Schedule, or if your employer has authorized additional visits in writing.

WHAT IF THERE IS A PROBLEM?

If you have a concern, speak up. Talk to your employer or the claims administrator handling your claim and try to solve the problem. If this doesn’t work, get help by trying the following:

Contact the Division of Workers’ Compensation (DWC) Information and Assistance (I&A) Unit. All 24 DWC offices throughout the state provide information and assistance on rights, benefits and obligations under California’s workers’ compensation laws. I&A officers help resolve disputes without formal proceedings. Their goal is to get you full and timely benefits. Their services are free.

To contact the nearest I&A Unit, go to https:// www.dir.ca.gov/dwc/ianda.html or call 1-800-736-7401.

The nearest I&A Unit is located at:

Address: _____

Phone number: _____

Consult with an attorney

You may also get a list of attorneys from your local I&A Unit by calling 1-800-736-7401.

MÁS SOBRE LA ATENCIÓN MÉDICA

¿Qué es un médico tratante principal (Primary Treating Physician, PTP)?

Es el médico responsable del tratamiento de su lesión o enfermedad. Él o ella pueden ser:

- El médico que nombra por escrito antes de lesionarse en el trabajo.
- Un médico de la red de proveedores médicos (Medical Provider Network, MPN).
- El médico elegido por su empleador durante los 30 primeros días de la lesión si su empleador no dispone de una MPN.
- El médico que haya elegido después de los primeros 30 días si su empleador no dispone de una MPN.

¿Qué es una red de proveedores médicos (MPN)?

Una MPN es un grupo selecto de proveedores de atención médica que tratan a trabajadores lesionados. Consulte a su empresa si utiliza una MPN. Si no ha nombrado a un médico antes de lesionarse y su empleador utiliza una MPN, acudirá a un médico de la MPN; después de su primera visita, es libre de elegir otro médico de la lista de la MPN.

¿Qué es la designación previa?

La designación previa es cuando nombra a su médico habitual para que lo trate si se lesiona en el trabajo. El médico debe ser doctor en medicina (Medical Doctor, MD), doctor en medicina osteopática (Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine, DO) o un grupo médico con un MD o DO. Debe nombrar a su médico por escrito antes de lesionarse o enfermarse; puede designar previamente a un médico si tiene cobertura de atención médica para lesiones y enfermedades no laborales. El médico debe:

- Haberlo tratado.
- Haber mantenido su historial y expedientes médicos antes de la lesión.
- Haber acordado tratarlo por una lesión o enfermedad relacionada con el trabajo antes de que se lesionara o enfermara.

Puede utilizar el formulario de "designación previa de médico personal" incluido en este folleto. Después de rellenar el formulario, no olvide entregárselo a su empleador; si su empleador no tiene una MPN aprobada, puede nombrar a su quiropráctico o acupunturista para que le trate las lesiones relacionadas con el trabajo. El aviso del quiropráctico o acupunturista personal debe hacerse por escrito antes de que se lesione. Puede utilizar el formulario incluido en este folleto; Después de rellenar el formulario, no olvide entregárselo a su empleador;

Con algunas excepciones, la ley estatal no permite que un quiropráctico siga siendo su médico tratante después de 24 consultas. Una vez que haya recibido 24 consultas quiroprácticas, si sigue necesitando tratamiento médico, tendrá que elegir un nuevo médico que no sea quiropráctico. Por "consulta quiropráctica" se entiende cualquier visita a un consultorio quiropráctico, independientemente de que los servicios prestados impliquen manipulación quiropráctica o se limiten a evaluación y gestión.

Las excepciones a las 24 consultas incluyen las consultas de medicina física posquirúrgicas prescritas por el cirujano, o el médico designado por el cirujano, en virtud del componente posquirúrgico del Programa de Utilización de Tratamientos Médicos de la División de Compensación por Accidentes Laborales, o si su empleador ha autorizado consultas adicionales por escrito.
