

Hey there

I believe in fun, I live for laughter, I'm obsessed with light, and I breathe for real moments.

There's nothing formal in my method. When I meet your children, we play and act goofy. I'll swap out eye-roll-worthy dad jokes and dance like a fool for good smiles. We will talk like friends and compare parent stories.

My goal is to be by your side and guide you through the process. From our initial meeting, we will plan out your session so it's custom to you. You'll have complete access to the Client Closet, we can text/message/email to perfect your wardrobe choices, and we pick the location that fits your style. If you have a location in mind, great!

After your session, we meet up again at the studio a week or two later for your gallery reveal and Ordering Session.

This is where you'll invest in quality prints and products to last a lifetime.

Once again, I'll assist you in the right prints and products for you. There's no sales pitch and no pressure to buy high dollar items. You get what fits your home.

I can't wait to meet you!

Welcome

What To Wear

COORDINATE - DON'T MATCH

The easiest trick is to find one piece you really love, either for yourself or a member of your family, and then coordinate colors off the main color of that item.

My personal favorite trick is to find a color I love and Google search that color pallet.

For example:

My favorite color is burgundy, so I'll Google "burgundy color pallet" and select one I love.

It's that easy!

Newborn Session Prep Guide

- •Newborn sessions are a waiting game, especially since every baby is different!
- •Plan to be at the studio at least 3 hours.
- Bring enough diapers, wipes, and (if it applies to you) enough formula and bottles. A hungry baby will not pose!
- •Do not bring outfits for them to be photographed in. Crochet items may look cute, but they're very bulky and usually overtake the images.
 - Bring sentimental items instead! A blanket you or grandma made is more special. A parent's work uniform or a sibling's favorite stuffed animal.
- The studio is equipped with a TV and DVD player if you're bringing siblings that have a favorite movie!
- Feel free to nap when you arrive, you deserve it and you're certainly not the first.

Maternity, Children, & Family Prep Guide

• A Session consult is required with each session to ensure the style, timeline, and wardrobe is perfect for you. This can be completed via in-person, phone, or Facetime/Skype.

•All clients have full use of the Client Closet. Gowns work for both maternity and non-maternity sessions and fit sizes 2-16. Some gowns fit differently in the arms and chest, so it is encouraged to try them on prior to your session at the studio.

- Sessions can last 1-2 hours depending on your needs and session layout.
 - The best way to get children excited about the session is NOT TO BRIBE OR THREATEN THEM.

Instead, talk about all the fun things that will happen.

"Miss Marie is going to the creek with us to take pictures! She loves to make silly faces and play games!"

If they associate bribes/threats with the session, they'll be afraid of me and the camera.

- If you're worried your child/children will be very shy/scared, please notify me and we will arrive early so they can get use to me before the camera comes out.
 - Make sure you've at least had a good snack before the session. No one gives a good smile when they're hungry!
- Keep a positive attitude and bring a backup outfit for the little ones. Accidents happen and a calm voice keeps them relaxed and happy.

As always, feel free to email or call/text me if you have any questions! info@mariedianephotography.com 513-202-3186
