

FINAL RITES FOR MR CORA HELEN ANDERSON

37, Cora Helen Anderson daughter y, of Jacob and Emma (Bergman) ts- Snowbarger was born March 5, ad 1890 seven miles east of Queen ll, City, Missouri and passed away ce October 16, 1964 at her home at near there at the age of 74 at years, seven months and eleven in days. he She was married to L. H. Ander- erson September 24, 1911. To er this union six children were xt born, and dying in infancy. Sur-to- viving are her husband Lora, to three sons; Robert of the home, es Ralph and Max C. of Downing, nd Mo., two daughters, Mrs. Max R. in (Anna Louise) Anderson of he Downing, Mo., and Mrs. Ted rid (Margorie) Kazy of Washington, J., D.C., five grandsons, four grand-ch, daughters and three great grand-he children, three brothers, J. A. to Snowbarger, Englewood, Colo., in Albert Snowbarger of Ottumwa, he Iowa, and Edward Snowbarger of Queen City, Mo., two sisters Mrs. Louise Schubert of Queen City, Mo., and Mrs. Lee (Pearl) Eiffert of LaPlata, Mo., several nieces and nephews, cousins and many friends. he Her father and mother, two brothers, Robert and Henry, two sisters Caroline Gregory and Clara Hathaway preceded her in death.
to She had been in failing health in the past three years.
She was a member of the St.
Johns Luthern Church.
Johns Luthern Church.
op, She was a kind and loving at- mother, neighbor and friend and nd will sadly missed by all who ar- knew her.
w- Funeral services were conduct-y, ed Sunday October 18, 1964 at in the St. Johns Luthern Church at 2:00 p.m. by Rev. Kenneth Campbell.
ns Music was furnished by a of quartet from the St. Johns er church.
m- Bodybearers were Ralph Jr.
Anderson, James Simerl, Donald Snowbarger, Junior Schmitter, Alfred Ikerd and Denzil Snowbarger.
nd Burial was in the Germania m- cemetery.
at Funeral arrangements were in- under the direction of the Moore tel Funeral Home.