

FINAL RITES FOR MRS. MAMIE BERGMAN

Mary Elizabeth (Mamie) Bergman, 95, of Queen City, died Friday morning at the home of her son, Ivy Bergman, in Queen City. She had been in failing health for several months.

She was the daughter of Nicholas and Kathleen Arnie and was born May 27, 1866 in the southwest part of Schuyler County and lived her entire life in and near Queen City. On Jan. 1, 1890 she was married to Lou Bergman and to this marriage two children were born.

Surviving are one son, Ivy Bergman of Queen City; one sister, Mrs. Flo Ward of Hamilton, Ohio; three grandchildren; nine great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband; one son, True Bergman who died in an Army camp during World War I; two brothers, one sister and one grandchild.

She was a member of the St. John's Lutheran Church east of Queen City.

Escorts were Alfred Ikerd, Ben Bergman, Paul Van Meter, C. C. Figge, Junior Snowbarger and Ed Snowbarger.

Music was furnished by Carrie Lincoln, Grace Mohr, Andrew Miller and Glen Yearns, accompanied by Karen Van Meter. Selections were "Home Over There," and "Sweet Bye And Bye."

Floral escorts were Gwenda Bergman, Sandra Yates, Geneva Yearns, Onalee West and Lynn Brenizer.

The body is at the Dooley Funeral Home in Queen City where it remained until the funeral which was held Monday afternoon at 1:30 in St. John's Lutheran church. The Rev. A. O. Althafer of Liberty, Ill., conducted the services and burial was in the Germania cemetery east of Queen City.