

Harvey Johnson, aged 12 years, died at his home in Hannibal last Sunday from lockjaw caused by burns from a toy pistol. He was a half brother to George Johnson living near the Lutheran church southeast of Lancaster. The body was brought to the Johnson home and funeral services were held at the Lutheran church on Monday. Interment was in the cemetery near by.