

Long Time Resident of Lancaster Dies

William Sloop, commonly known to Lancaster and Schuyler county people as Bill Sloop, passed away at his home in Lancaster, Saturday morning, Feb. 6, 1932, at the age of 77 years, after a long illness.

Mr. Sloop was born and had lived in this county all his life and was very active in buying stock and farming. He served his county as collector one term and at one time was engaged in the garage business where the Danford garage is now.

He had been a very active business man up until his illness which began July 15, 1929. Funeral services were conducted at the home on Sunday at 10 o'clock by Rev. H. E. Keltner and interment was in the Germania cemetery.
