Ben Snowbarger, who was taken to the asylum at Fulton a few weeks ago, died last Saturday morning. His remains were brought home Monday and funeral services were held at the German Lutheran church Tuesday, after which interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery. Mr. Snowbarger was an upright, industrious farmer about 47 years old and comes from one of the old and prosperous German families who settled in the southeast part of the county. He leaves a wife and three children and numerous relatives and friends to mourn his death.
