

Mrs. Cora B. Snowbarger, 90, Is Dead

Cora B. Snowbarger, 90, of Greensburg, Kan., died Friday in a Greensburg hospital. She had been in failing health three years.

The daughter of B. D. and Edmonia (Coons) McElroy, she was born Oct. 9, 1875 in Schuyler county. She was married to Benedict Snowbarger on Nov. 16, 1893 in Schuyler county and to this marriage three children were born.

Surviving are her children Mrs. W. R. (Sylvia) Johnson and Mrs. Elmer (Pauline) Breedon, both of Greensburg, and Melvin ("Jake") Snowbarger of Lancaster; four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, three brothers and one sister. Mrs. Snowbarger had resided in Schuyler county until the death of her husband when she moved to Greensburg, to make her home near her daughters.

She was a member of the Greensburg Methodist church, the Royal Neighbors of America, the Triple O and the DMC.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the Fleener Funeral Home in Greensburg. The body arrived Sunday evening at the Norman Funeral Home in Lancaster where funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:00 p.m. The Rev. John Gifford, pastor of the Lancaster Methodist church, conducted the services and burial was in the Germania cemetery south of Lancaster.

Bearers will be: Henry Kethe, Raymond Schaffer, Harmon Schupbach, Frank Warner Werner, Ray Starrett and Donald Shubert.