

Died.

Mrs. Catherine Sweikert, mother of Lewis Sweikert of this city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harle, in Kirksville, Wednesday of last week, aged about 82 years. She had been quite feeble for some time and her death was not unexpected. She leaves six children, one girl and five boys.

Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church northeast of this city last Thursday, conducted by Rev. A. A. Marohn, pastor of the Lutheran church here, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery.

The Leader extends condolences to the bereaved children.
