From the Archives

Did you know that the Cathedral is properly referred to as "the Bishop McLean Memorial Church of St. Alban the Martyr"? It was declared this by a special service on Wednesday, June 28, 1944 at 8pm. The title deeds and mortgage were presented to the Bishop by the People's Warden. This service celebrated the mortgage being paid in full, and the change from the Pro-Cathedral (money still owing) to the Cathedral (paid in full). The processional hymn was an old favourite, "Christ is made the sure Foundation".
