WE WELCOME all visitors to the Cathedral and invite you to sign the guest book in the vestibule. If you are baptized and are a regular communicant in your own congregation, you are most welcome to receive communion at all services in the Cathedral. If you wish to receive a blessing, come forward and simply cross your arms over your chest when the priest approaches you.

From Archives

From the Archives - from the April 29, 1953 Prince Albert Daily Herald - "First Anglican Missionary Mrs. Annie Brown Dies At 80". "Mrs. Annie E. Brown, who had spent most of her long life in missionary work amongst the Indigenous people, died in a local hospital, Tuesday, April 28. She was sent out as the first Missionary of the Woman's Auxiliary, to Onion Lake Anglican Indian School, Sask. The late Rev. John R. Matheson was then principal of the school. She was married to the late Rev. James Brown, who was also a missionary. Mr. Brown was an expert carpenter and builder and helped in the building of the church at Stanley, and built a small church at Pelican Narrows. She was a constant visitor in Indigenous homes, endearing herself to the people." Archdeacon Paul officiated at Mrs. Brown's funeral, and she was buried at St. Mary's.
