From Archives

From the Archives - from the Prince Albert Daily Herald January 25, 1919 - "A memorial service will be held in St. Alban's pro-cathedral tomorrow evening when a bronze tablet will be unveiled in the church in memory of the late Lieut. R.D. Strickland who was killed in action at Mont St. Eloi on May 20, 1917. The tablet is being placed in the church by the deceased Lieutenant's mother, Mrs. H.L. Reid of Vancouver. Lieutenant Roland D'Arcy Strickland was the only son of Superintendent Strickland of the R.N.W.M.P." January 24 - "This is the first memorial of this nature to be unveiled in Prince Albert." January 27 - "The pro-cathedral of St. Alban's was filled to overflowing to take part in a memorial service to one who lies there there (Mont St. Eloi military cemetery). The local branch of the Great War Veterans turned out in full force to do honor, and representatives were present from the detachment at the Armory and the R.N.W.M.P., the latter appropriately so, Lieut. Strickland's father having been at one time superintendent here." (See photo on Mailchimp).
