

Your California Privacy Rights and Practices

The California Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA) grants rights to certain California residents to access or delete personal information Tri County Puzzlers collected about them. CCPA also allows California residents to opt out of the sale of their personal information to third party vendors. CCPA also ensures that California residents will not be discriminated against for exercising these rights.

- You have the right to request what personal information was collected, used and distributed by Tri County Puzzlers within the last 12 months.
- You have the right to request deletion of your personal information that Tri County Puzzlers collects and maintains
- You have the right to opt out of the sale of your personal information to third parties.

Once Tri County Puzzlers receives your request and verifies your identity, we will delete the personal information you requested from our records except in cases where personal information is necessary to complete a transaction or provide goods and services to you. All information that is required to be maintained to comply with laws will be exempt from deletion as well as information retained for internal business purposes that directly relate to the services you received