

DC BATTER UP! COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

DC Batter Up! is a non-profit corporation that seeks to promote youth baseball and softball in the District of Columbia.* In 2025, DC Batter Up! intends to award college scholarships of $1500 each to several eligible high school seniors. These scholarships are designated as the “Koczela Scholarships,” in honor of Jack Koczela, a founder of our organization. The money shall be applied to books or other supplies and expenses necessary to college study. To be eligible for a 2025 Koczela Scholarship, a student must:

1. be a high school senior who will enroll as a first-year student at an accredited two-year or four-year college in fall 2025;
2. be a member of a Varsity baseball or softball team during the spring 2025 season at a high school located in the District of Columbia;
3. be a resident of the District of Columbia who requires financial aid in order to attend college or university;
4. submit all application materials required by DC Batter Up! by May 16, 2025.

However, relatives of members of the Board of Directors of DC Batter Up! are ineligible even if they fulfill the requirements listed above.

The scholarship recipients shall be selected by the Board of Directors of DC Batter Up! based on an evaluation of academic and other accomplishments as well as financial need. DC Batter Up! shall provide to each recipient formal written notification of his or her scholarship. DC Batter Up! reserves the right to withdraw any scholarship that it concludes will not be used, or is not being used, in accordance with the goals and purposes of the program.

*DC Batter Up!, incorporated as the D.C. High School Baseball Classic Inc., is a District of Columbia 501(c)(3) corporation, EIN 26-2054599.
