EXECUTIVE COACH BIOGRAPHY

Kristy Busija

Kristy is a gifted coach and facilitator with a comprehensive background in leadership and team development. She has been involved in international executive development for more than 17 years in the capacity of coach, facilitator, and workshop leader. Her work is highly individualized, promotes sustained behavioral change, and is aligned with the strategic goals of the organization.

She has dedicated herself to helping individuals and teams get “unstuck” and find their optimal potential, which results in motivated employees, customer commitment and bottom-line performance. She is known for quickly getting to know her clients and creating a safe environment of trust, which allows her to lead her clients into uncharted territories. Her powerful intuition, blended with her ability to shift perspective, opens the door for others to successfully and comfortably bring their ideas to light.

Kristy’s areas of expertise are Leadership Development, Team Facilitation, Executive Coaching, Performance Management and Employee Engagement, Culture Transformation, Conflict Resolution, and Change Management.
