Foot technique that scores to a legal head area is worth 3 point in division with head shots

Foot technique for spinning technique to legal body area is 2 extra point

Legal Techniques (Duk-jeom)

One (1) point shall be awarded for each closed fist or kicking technique delivered accurately and with sufficient power to the entire colored area of the torso protector, in the absence of any violations. Sufficient power is defined as abrupt displacement due to the impact of the strike.

Two (2) points shall be awarded for legal strikes to the trunk protector by foot.

Three (3) points being awarded for legal kicks to the head. In division with head shots

Two Extra points awarded for a valid turning kick to body

No Extra points awarded for valid turning Kick to Head.

No punching to the head is allowed.

When a score is awarded for legal techniques which result in staggering or a knockdown. (A knockdown consists of an 8-count required by the Referee due to the strike impact of a valid technique, where upon any part of the body other than the foot touches the ground.) A competitor must demonstrate the ability to continue the match safely, or the referee will continue the count to 10, there upon declaring the winner.

Scoring techniques shall not be delivered to unauthorized areas including directly to the spine. Foot sweeps and throws are not allowed.

Safety Rules regarding contact to the Head

No contact to the head is allowed for ages 11yr and under. Light controlled head contact is allowed for All belt levels age 12-14yr, Color Belts 15 – 17, 18 to 32 and "Ultra" divisions age 33+. Full Contact rules apply for 15 to 17 Black Belts and for 18 to 32 Black Belts only.

Point scoring system, with one (1) or two (2) points awarded for each legal Hogu scoring technique, (3) points awarded for head shots and a 2 extra point for a valid turning kick to the body, No extra point for spinning techniques to the head and Excessive contact to the head will stop the time in order for a penalty to be issued, rather than for an 8-count. No extra point for knock down,

NOTE: Inability or lack of desire to continue the match due to a legal technique is not grounds for the disqualification of an opponent.

The winner is determined by superior point totals of successful hits using hands and feet.

With an Electronic scoring system, a point must be confirmed by a majority of the corner judges within a one (1) second "scoring window" in order to be recorded onto the Scoreboard. Penalty points will be taken into account at the time they are recorded, and will appear on the scoreboard.
