LISTING TO SELL OR PURCHASING

Hi, I'm John Enxing – a Ramsey Trusted Pro®

I'm excited about the opportunity to work with you, whether it's listing, marketing, and selling your property or helping you find and purchase your dream home. My commitment is simple: deliver maximum value with a fast and smooth transaction.

Here's how we'll do that: We'll start with a detailed Macro & Micro Real Estate Market Analysis to ensure we secure the right pricing and strategically position you for the fastest possible sale.

I offer closing cost incentives, reimbursed to you at the Act of Sale, as a personal thank-you from my team and me.

You'll receive a custom strategy tailored to your goals—and I'll guide you step-by-step through the entire escrow process, worry-free.

I'd like to invite you to a no-obligation online consultation, where we can map out your next steps and build a clear, actionable plan.

- ✅ Simply text me a date and time that works best for you.
- ✅ Then join me at ReagMeeting.com at your scheduled time.

My absolute guarantee is to represent your interests with integrity, diligence, and full fiduciary responsibility—while keeping you educated and confident every step of the way.

Thanks again for the opportunity to be part of your real estate journey. I look forward to helping you turn your goals into reality.

Kind Regards,

John Enxing, Broker
