

JAMES FORD RHODES HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS OF JUNE 1947

Published by Senior Class June, 1947

James Ford Rhodes Alumni Assocation 2013

Members of the Class of June, 1947:

May each of you so plan your life now and in the years ahead that the things you do will contribute most to your own welfare and to your usefulness as a member of your community. It is our hope that your high school experiences have been of value to you and that they will serve as a foundation on which you can build an effective and worthwhile future. Best wishes to each of you.

> Sincerely, NEIL D. MATHEWS

We, the Senior Class of June, 1947, dedicate our year book to Mr. Theodore Roberts, who gave us immeasurable assistance in both our academic and extracurricular activities throughout our years at Rhodes High.

Rocket-bikes parked here. Space-ship 6-13647 leaves upon your arrival. You're passenger number 196, you know. All right, take your seat, and as we call the roll we'll tell you just what happened and is happening since we last met, so long ago. Comfortable? All right, here goes!

Paul Mason came through and invented a rocket-scooter.

Lois Leahy, Geraldine Kleinfeld, Marge Gibson, and Ethel Frantz are all teaching school in the basements of dear old Rhodes High.

Carol Sellars finally becomes a professional "car-wrecker."

Rudy Bauer and Ethel Pavlik are taking over Mr. and Mrs. America's duet at the Arena. Maxine Selnau finally sits on Mr. Jacob's Jap after 20 years.

Lenore Stoker is now running an orphanage for all those poor fish who got lower grades than she did when she was in school.

Shirley Wellman is still a quiet girl.

Betty Jane Sundermeier married for five years to Einstein. Donna Van Buren is still acting like the young innocent type. Carol Toomey exchanged diamond for gold wedding band.

Our class has two very famous people in it. We are fortunate to be able to do a little advertising for them. They are the twin undertakers Kormos and Likowski.

Don Rearich still writing Christmas Carols (Launcelot Limberlip)

The greatest inventor of times is Ray Rocco. His latest is a Pin Setting Machine.

Dolores Mizanty knitting bundles for Richard Harbart.

After traveling to Paris, Berlin, Rome, and London to study dress designing, Gerry Gross finally gave up and got married.

Elaine Svonava taking over for Kate Smith with Kip Andrus as Ted Collins.

James Kaul, John Augustine, Eddy Adamczyk finally learn about the birds and bees from Jim Sudyk, sports editor, is still on the chief's black list.

Dow Drukker finally hired by Conover Modeling Agency; now he can take all the bathing suit snaps he wants.

Calendar: Handsome Fulius O'Skeebo of the movies divorces sixth wife in haste. It is rumored that Joanne Macuga is next.

Richard Jordan opening the friendly Chinese Laundry. Jean Irons.

Marion Carey teaches school of twelve-eleven of her own! The Met Opera finally hires Dick Dunn-moving scenery!

Having dealt with such a "problem," Donna Gustawes becomes female Mr. Anthony! The latest rage from Paris is purple hair. Alice Giroski, Celia Kempka, and Lenore Houseman have now made the green stage.

Bulsiewicz, Wisniewski, Swizynski, and Hrehocik have finally taken out citizenship papers.

Hank Luinski playing second fiddle in Ken Biller's all-girl orchestra.

Doris Schmock disillusioned because of the long skirts era in 1948.

We hear that Tess Chonacki has been wired.

Gene Kovacs becomes Vic's understudy.

It's been 20 years now, but we can still hear the echos of Wayne "Doberman" Grant in the halls of Rhodes. "Bow, wow!"

Jinx Soltis rides in on the latest Ford creation.

Irene Repasky introducing latest styles in New York's elite clubs.

Joe Reis trying to keep his family up with the Rabbits.

Ray Miller outdoes father, becomes mayor.

Paul Marcus officially taking over Mr. Seitz's driving class at Rhodes.

Stan Boros talks his way into a four-minute mile.

George Drazdik is dying from the "Young Widow" Brown Plague. Elaine, that is.

Jack Smith and Dorothy Stocks form the new Government.

Walt Barna still turning down professional offers. Vernon Klinect Admiral—Sea Scouts. Junior that is!

Wanda Jankowski still pulling the plow for John.

Robert Wood touring the country on his 105 appearance as Hamlet.

Richard Winn and Marilyn Dipple settling down and raising little French Horns.

Frank Tracy has been pomoted. He now has a whole red suit! Ruth Malenky raising "peeps."

Con Wingleth was voted Mr. Five by Five of 1960.

Has Wanda changed her name or is she still on the Ball?

Ann Cassell and Ronald Lege still having their names mis-pronounced.

Chuck builds his Castle's in the air, and takes a long-awaited trip to Mars.

Ken Buser still wondering why Mr. Gaiser moved his paraphernalia out of the dark room

Doris Busato is the first soprano soloist on "Hart's Mountain Food" program.

Janis Krause, Isla Mims, and Doris Biggs open a poultry farm because they were such clucks with Doris selling Eg-ner.

Betty Jane Peters teaching a course in cosmotology.

Eleanor Berish advertising Dutch Cleanser for the face you love to touch.

Grace Fenrich has taken over "Fanny's" business. Mel Holzman, the Tyrone Power of 1960, wins the Academy Award for his performance in "Forever Walking Free" (Bachelor).

Roger Doering wins the Adolph Menjou Award of 1960. "Peggy" Huebner has just published her 20th edition of "How to Win Friends and Influence People." Steve Stibora competing in the 1952 Olympics in the "Shot Put." Shirley Treder still recuperating from her role in "Lady Macbeth." Flash: Pat Gower becomes the first woman student to enter John Carroll University. Barbara Wittich, now Mrs. J. R., is still the "Little Miss Fix-it" as long as there are a boy and girl who don't know each other - well. Joy Overly and John Cehlar become champion tomato eaters. The Neumann-Welke football team finally opposing the Marick-Reta aggregation. The gals still swoon over Ray Geiger's car — and how does Ray feel about that????? Arlene Roth and June Mokry are still having retakes. Schellhardt, Priebe, and Kittelberger are still hunting for neon signs for the Honor Society inductions. Pat Hoenig is still trying to talk her sister into changing her wedding date so she can go to the Prom. Al Grunau becomes an obstetrician and is now taking care of "Babes" the same as he did in high school. Bob Hope chooses Jane Burke "My Favorite Red-Head." Don Piatak is building up his thumbs to take over his father's meat market. Lownita Palmeter is still trying to spell her name for the public. Betty Speter is still using the class bells for an excuse to end those short letters. Wayne Farrar is now selling aprons — Strings, that is. Dick Schuller is now replacing Orsen Welles as the Great Orator. June Rahlfs comes back from Florida with a newly acquired southern accent. Gayle Young, opening her saloon. Body-building courses offered. Roger Holan opening his own book store with Wanda Peters as salesgirl. Dick Allen and Joanne Fleder trying to pass Chemistry in their last years. Dick Ptacek starting a local Charles Atlas establishment. Dick Shope is looking yet for an informal date. Alice Pretzer, an old married woman, settles down to raise 4H recruits. Jean, at thirty-eight, Skowron around to be a bride. Norm Visich grows long tresses to sell for women's wigs. Wilbert Janke studying his collection of dinosaurs (Octhysauors). After pitching woo Boston style, Art Cross moves 2 inches closer to Carol Bergen on the love seat. Dorothy Samosky, Louise Brink, and Corky Flowers do sister acts with electric fans. Have you seen him? He pulls girls out of hats instead of bunnies. James Woolf has become a famous hypnotist. Elsie Andres has resigned to teach her children the answers to the Psycho Test. Dolores Friedle that once quiet girl, has now settled down to farm life - raising cain. Stationery companies go out of business as Irene Kaminski's boyfriend comes home. Dick Polenz goes on relief as refrigerators come in and ice-houses go out. Earl still looking forward to the Dey that he will become a man. Eileen is no longer a "Niece," she's now a "Mama." Carol Barth's theme song still "Oh, Mr. Gallagher"! Richard Rieker, Pete Glavinos, Glenn Wiese, and Pat Book are publishers of the true life experiences and informative article, "One Thousand Different Ways to Cut a Class and Other Tails." Martha Edwards, Betsy Buer, Marion Khoelke, and Alva Mason still looking down on the Dorothy Yost marries Roger Aschmeyer so her children can sit in the first rows in class. Mike Solar and Ed McIntyre still at Rhodes became doormen at the second floor girls' washroom. Betty Fissel, Steffie Kuczek, and Jenny Hodapp filling whirls at the Russian Ballet. Velma Griffin still boxing 'em, The Walshes still confusing the boss. One married him, one works for him. Who keeps house? The boss. Miss Stencil of 1970 - Pat Kuebler. Obojski is editor of the Press. One-man staff is Norella Lee Jedlick. Don Banks, after seven months in service, proves variety is spice of life. Georgia, "mail order" Krause, gets married the same way. Ronald Reese, George Huth, and Clarence Krupp are seeing world premiers at the Memphis Cinema. Doris Donahue and Betty (Stearn) White dye their hair three different flavors! Strawberry Blackberry, and Peroxide. Faye "how-de-do-de" Kelsch hasn't let the grammar school spark die. Living in the shelter of the YMCA, we find Marge Kadar. Even though their last names have changed, Dorothy Drake Dorothy Gabriel Dorothy Hasek Dorothy Shuba Dorothy Hemann still have something in common!

Donna Andrus just finishing her latest memoirs, "Forever Andrus." Lucille Cismar has finally out-done Sonja. On ice with rollers!

Mike (Friar) Ondo discussing the attributes of clean living.

Richard Meyer has a growing concern at Brookside Park. Monkey Business. Jim Barb, super-salesman of the "You Sell It" Company, finally sells a ping pong paddle to Bob Chiletz so Bob can carry on this career.

The interest on all of George Thomas's penny bets at the rate of .01% would finance the swimming pool of the now crumbling Rhodes High.

Don and Normie Nuezil usher at the New Y as the summerseason opens again.

Phyllis Cantieny and Booby Schmidt swap silhouettes.

Jack Bindernaaaaaagle and John Chikik are now coaching basketball at Bloberg's Academy for Girls.

Earl Franklin still uses his 60-second workout, (Kreml that is).

Gene Krupa quits the business because Vince McKeon is too much competition. The Bakers' Convention recently nominated Jennie Colino as Miss Pretzel Bender of 1970. She's really making dough!

Arlene Novak retires as lady wrestler - competition too tough!

Gerry Matheson pawned her engagement ring to help with honey-moon expenses. Marge Kress owner of "Nippers Noodle Shop" on the present site of the Dust Bowl. Pat

Jim Winter has been engaged as a model for Kreml before ad, and Earl Franklin for the after-effects.

Starr Galloway and Shirley settle down and start raising little violinists.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of June, 1947, being of dubious mental capacity (in spite of the frantic efforts of the faculty), and uncoordinated physical condition (thanks to G. E.'s Military Prep and Miss Stanley's Danish Exercises), do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament. (903—shhhhhh!)

PLANK I

Chip 1. We humbly express our gratitude to the greying members of the faculty, who have borne the brunt of the load, which our parents abandoned.

Chip 2. To Mr. Henderson, who laboriously worked against superior odds and indifference, we leave Chuck Castle's charred lab desk, and a sadly depleted stock of glassware.

Chip 3. We leave to Mr. Bryan the lower classmen, who, we trust, will get as square a deal as we did. (We understand that those little pink slips are going to be square next semester!)

PLANK II

Splinter 1. We leave to Miss Keller a "holy" choir, due to the holes left by Senior graduates.

Splinter 2. We also leave the Glee Club, the Band, the Orchestra, the Octette, and the Triple Trio devoid of many good (?) musicians.

PLANK III

Sliver 1. To Mr. Seedhouse, the Billy Rose of Rhodes, we leave the broken ranks of the Boys' Leaders.

Sliver 2. To the Boys' Leaders we leave the exorbitant schemes of extortion — if the student body has any money left!

Sliver 3. To Miss Stanley we leave the Girls' Leaders, reduced with the graduation of Seniors, and saddened by the graduation of chauffeur Marilyn Dipple.

Sliver 4. In leaving, we take with us much of the offensive punch of the football and basketball teams, the strangling holds of the wrestling squad, and the wings of the track team, but leave to the underclassmen the hope and the challenge of putting Rhodes in first place in all sports — and keeping her there. (Let's hope the Sports writers find a place for Rhodes in the headlines soon!)

PLANK IV

Sawdust 1. We leave vacant officiary positions in the multitudinous clubs of the school. (Whatever will they do without Secretary Jack Rohrbach? !!!)

Sawdust 2: We leave a depopulated state — — — half of the girls are rushing to the state of Florida, and the other half to the state of matrimony.

Sawdust 3. For any foolish underclassmen who might wish to follow — heaven knows why or where — we take along those two characters of rallies — Schmidt and Dunn, Inc.

Sawdust 4. We leave the smokey haven of "Rippers' Heaven," Hancy's to anyone who wants to know the office better.

Sawdust 5. We leave a vacant parking space where Ray Geiger's electric-blue coupe used to wait (?).

Sawdust 6. Speaking of wood, not Robert, we leave to underclassmen the chips of education where we let them fall.

Open the door, Richard — we're going! (The End of the Bored)

CLASS HISTORY

Ever since that first vigorous, sun-shiny day, four years ago, the majority of those "flats" who noisily crowded the auditorium have stuck to their guns and now will receive their hard-earned diplomas. As we look back, we must admit it was a lot of fun.

That first week of confusion over room locations, program changes, gym uniforms, lockers and just plain getting acquainted, should long be remembered.

Our future star varsity athletes started early to strain in sweat in the Freshman sports.

Do you recall the first members of our class to play on the athletic field? Of course you do. They really looked good in their blue and white band uniforms.

By the way, did you know that Herb Hutter's dynamic career began when he scattered sneezing powder in his 9B Algebra class?

It was in this first semester that boys and girls began to notice each other. Those who've had a different "steady" during each of the four years will have a lot to remember.

Those first report cards certainly caused many shocked and pleased looks.

Then when the 9B semester ended, we acted like first-class veterans.

All the screwy initiations that our members have had to suffer through — everything from dresses on boys to misplaced make-up on the girls!

Didn't you just grieve for a haircut like the boys' leaders got? How long did it take for that hair to grow back, boys?

Then there were the ambitious people who transferred to other schools, only to come back to the old stamping grounds.

Boy, did that first summer vacation seem like a pleasure! How did all the little mermaids fare in their first trials?

As one of our athletes started out on the varsity, the rest of the pig-skin lovers were being dragged around by Latin to the tune of 70-0.

How about all those bond-selling campaigns we had, and how the same people always were on top?

Speaking of bonds, that was a nice picnic the girls gave the boys for beating them in our class contest.

Remember the fine spring day when we were so shocked to hear of Mr.

Schultz being dead, and how we all stood up in reverence?

Then, there's the fateful spring when six daring people admitted their intentions of becoming teachers and braved their schoolmates' laughter to form F.T.A.

Then the two days Dick Dunn swooned (?) us in the Emperor's Clothes. That was some 11A class picnic we had, but why didn't Mr. Henderson like it? Wet, wasn't it.

Then there's the immortal fame of Jack Rohrbach, the football star. Will this class ever forget the twinkles in Miss Cherrington's eyes?

We should all remember the solemn Honor Society induction that literally brought the roof down, with the letters.

As seniors, the boys certainly found out what senior gym and rough-house were like.

Kilrov surely got around.

Some people are still asking who the Huthists and the Tay Ama's are.

Who thought up the Fun House at our Hallowe'en party?

Where did all the cake and cocoa come from at the 12B-A informal?

After admiring distinguished Mr. Jacob for years, no senior girl can take him to the Prom — he's married.

What a shame we have to leave just when we're becoming reacquainted with Mr. "Ollie" Hoffman.

Rhodes High is going to seem grim after it loses Janie Burke's bubbling humor.

That Ohio State Psychological test made some people wonder if they really should graduate.

Well, this doesn't seem like much, but it is our history — can we help what happened?
