NEIL D. MATHEWS

Members of the Class of June 1948:

No system of government involving fallible human beings will ever attain perfection. But measured against any rival system, American democracy is so far superior as to justify our whole-hearted support against all enemies and subversive influences either foreign or domestic. We hope that your experiences at Rhodes High School have been such that you will be encouraged zealously to dedicate yourselves to the preservation of the best in our American way of life. Best wishes to each of you.

Sincerely,

Neil D. Mathews

OTTO A. SCHMIDT

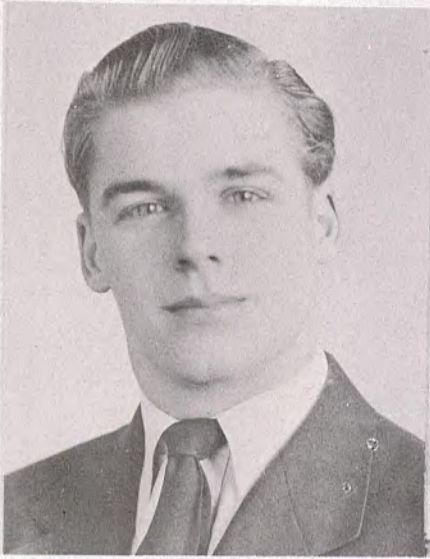

As members of the graduating class of June, 1948, we proudly dedicate our Yearbook to Mr. Otto Schmidt. In the short time he has been here, Mr. Schmidt has won the respect and admiration of the entire student body. As director of the band and orchestra, he has worked with zealous enthusiasm to forward greater musical appreciation. Music, however, is not his only interest. Mr. Schmidt has shown enthusiasm in other school affairs. He is a familiar figure at all sports activities, and his vibrant personality inspires the spirit of the school.

Now that graduation is near, our only regret is that we were not able to know Mr. Schmidt better. We hope that those following us will come to know and admire him as much as we do.

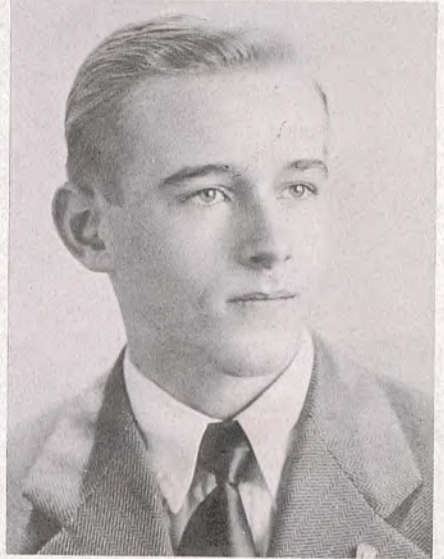

Members of the 12A Class

Last Will and Testament

Class of June 1948

We, the Senior Class of June in the year one thousand nine hundred forty-eight, being of sound mind and sober purpose, do hereby proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

In the true spirit of fellowship, with our glasses raised on high, we do propose a toast to the good fortune of the future while reminiscing over the remnants of the past.

Drink I: To those sports-minded individuals who aspire to glorify the fair name of Rhodes we leave:

Taste I: Battered cleats and new two-way stretch football pants to be used in seeking a second senate Grid crown.

Taste II: The shorts and shirts of the basketball court for the purpose of winning a championship.

Taste III: The first two perfect scores of Rhodes Cross Country history as a goal for future harriers.

Taste IV: All the old track records we couldn't break. See what you can do with them.

Taste V: The hope for a baseball team and tennis courts on which the racketeers can get much-needed practice.

Taste VI: The Girls Leaders Club to sell tickets to sports events.

Taste VII: The hope for a winning speedball team to the girls.

Taste VIII: The girls' gymnasium minus baskets, mats, and other apparatus, As well as the bit of varnish we wore off by dancing during the noon hours.

Taste IX: The new scoreboard, buzzer and all.

Drink II: On the Music Department we bestow:

Gulp I: The numerous vacancies in the ranks of the A Capella Choir

Gulp II: Newly-scrubbed walls in Room 315 cleaned through the courtesy of the members of the Boys' Octette.

Gulp III: A "diminished" Triple Trio with triplets remaining.

Gulp IV: A little song "lento con espressione" for Miss Keller to reflect her heaviness of heart at the loss of her able student director.

Gulp V: Vitamin pills from which the band can obtain enough vim and vigor to support the team in rainy, snowy football weather.

Drink III. To the agents who labor unceasingly in the Office of Education we offer.

Sip I: A Rhodes beanie to the dog-loving El Capitan.

Sip II: The problem of getting into George's shoes to O. J. Sawyer.

Sip III: The memory of the Senior Girls' smiles to Mrs. Cwik.

Sip IV: The incentive to hand out more letters to the tennis team to "Earnest Abe."

Sip V: A stage prop (the couch) to be used in future rallies to Ollie Hoffman.

Sip VI: Not only bugs, but shutter bugs to Mr. Gaiser.

Sip VII: An economy box of Kleenex to mop the tears shed by the entire faculty in gratitude for the prestige we have brought to them by putting Rhodes in the headlines.

Drink IV: To the entire school we bequeath:

Hic I: One or two remnants of the Citizens Club.

Hic II: The hope for the organization the Varsity R Club.

Hic III: Clunge . . . the universal word that means nothing in particular and everything in general.

Hic IV: To underclassmen "a couple-three-five" story that Mr. Merriman never had time to tell us.

Hic V: The crowns of queens to coming beauties.

Hic VI: We leave the school . . . pass the bromo!

Here's a final toast of appreciation to all those who have attempted to guide us along the straight and narrow path to success. Now, as the past begins to fade into a hazy oblivion, we look forward to the sobering effects of graduation.

CLASS HISTORY

DEAR DIARY,

SEPTEMBER 9, 1944: We'll never forget this day as long as we live. We were excited, confused, eager, and a little frightened all at once. We wondered very much what the next four years would hold for us. From being "tops" at Benjie, Harper, and Good Counsel, here we were the very lowest a Rhodian can be, with the horrible word "flat" tacked to us. Today we saw the principals, Mr. Mathews, Miss Hier, and Mr. Effron. We also saw a crew of teachers, hoards of strange faces, millions of green monsters called lockers. Some silly seniors thought we could be fooled by that old gag about elevator passes but we weren't. Tonight we went home and dreamed about numbers and program cards and swimming pools on the roof and numbers and fee tickets and numbers.

SEPTEMBER 23, 1944. Those darn upperclassmen have been sending us everywhere but the right place. The hardest thing to find is the shop corridor!

SEPTEMBER 26, 1944: This afternoon was the freshman party in the gym. Some seniors helped the livewire gym teacher, Mr. Seedhouse, feed us on pop and pretzels. We played musical chairs and raced around in a lively game of black and white.

SEPTEMBER 28, 1944: We elected 9B Student Council representatives today. This is the first time any of us "flats" will have a voice in the school. Those elected were Luella Syroski, Ruth Imhof, Elva Rogers, Ed Carter, Ralph Schmotzer, Steve Mahoney, and Mike Kraynak.

SEPTEMBER 30, 1944: One month of being a flat is gone! We know now that the auditorium is on the big right wing, the cafeteria is on the second floor and the gym right beneath it. We even know enough not to triapse through the inner offices!

OCTOBER 3, 1944: Today we had a nice football rally in the auditorium. Joel Bahner made his debut in the abbreviated garb of Cupid!

OCTOBER 14, 1944: Coach Holden held the Discovery Day track meet today. Dan Katt, Harvey Richardson, Gordon Hunter, Jim Lilly, and Skip Pierie showed up well.

OCTOBER 20, 1944: In Orientation classes we have been urged to join as many clubs as possible. A lot aren't open to us but we are joining those that are: Leora Dandoy, Arlene Tischler, and Ralph Wolff joined the orchestra with Ralph Schmotzer and Gordon Muthersbaugh in the band. Some of us work on the Junior Journal and some sing in the choruses. Many girls have joined the Junior Friendship Club.

OCTOBER 31, 1944: Tonight was the "First Annual Kick-Off" and our first school dance. The girls wore skirts and sweaters and loafer, and the boys wore sport suits. We danced to "I'll Be Seeing You" and clapped to "Deep In The Heart Of Texas."

NOVEMBER 15, 1944: We're suffering through the rigors of  $x$  times  $y$ , the Neolithic Man, Cleveland's laws, T-Squares, and "amo-amas-amat" in our classes now.

FEBRUARY 1, 1945: We're 9A's. Now we can have at least a few people to look down upon.

FEBRUARY 4, 1945: Our class promises great things in the sports future. Putich, Bahner, and Kraynak are freshman cagers to watch. Our own Ed Carter skated his way to win honors in almost every Northeastern ice contest.

MARCH 20, 1945: We're spending a lot of our juke box nickels for War Stamps. They may call us "bobby-soxers" but here at Rhodes we put the Sixth War Loan Drive over the top. We're humming "One Meatball" now which is about as close to meat as we get these days.

APRIL 1, 1945: These days we're struggling through Scott's "Ivanhoe," and since we're all victims of spring fever it makes it doubly hard.

APRIL 4, 1945: When we got our Junior Journal today we saw that a P-51 Mustang bought by our dimes is flying over Germany. Also, we saw that in a poll, Van Johnson is the favorite pin-up boy.

APRIL 9, 1945: This was National Hobo Week. We celebrated by wearing jeans and saddle shoes at least one day this week.

MAY 7, 1945: Nazis Quit! This bold-face headline which we had all been hoping for, became a reality today . . . V-E Day it was called.

MAY 12, 1945: Standard's is the standard hangout for most of Rhodes and we are no exception. We go there in cotton dresses, saddle shoes, and tee shirts and slacks.

MAY 30, 1945: Jack Ferguson, Gordon Hunter, and Myron Walzak were initiated into the Latin Club. They are the only ones to be admitted to a language club this year.

JUNE 8, 1945: We saw our first spring play, "Sky Roads." In school, the girls in the clothing classes are rushing to finish their skirts before school closes. The track season has come to a close. We daydream through our last freshman days.

SEPTEMBER 12, 1945: Back to school as sophomores and much had changed. During the summer the Japanese had surrendered and the bombing of Hiroshima has launched us on the atomic age. The casualty lists decreased and our interest turned to the returning vets. In our class, Chuck Copp returned from the Army and joined up. Capt. Clyde Henderson has returned to teach chemistry. The girls' gym teacher, Miss Thompson, came back as Mrs. Neff. Mr. Bryan is the new assistant principal in Mr. Effron's place.

SEPTEMBER 15, 1945: Mike Kraynak, Ruth Eberling, Dorothy Theodore, Elva Rogers, and Irene Martin are the new Review members from our class. Our boys are joining the Rhoda-, Sigma-, and Alpha-, Hi-Ys thick and fast. Most of the girls have joined the Senior Friendship Club.

SEPTEMBER 26, 1945: The long-awaited mirrors appeared in the washrooms today.

OCTOBER 17, 1945: Rhoda Hamilton, Mary Schar-sella, Dick Velotta, and Parm Ellsasser were the first of us to become French Club members and Don Paul and Ralph Schmotzer are doing the honors in the German Club.

- OCTOBER 23, 1945: Luella Syroski and Arline Tischler had their pictures on a War Chest Drive poster.
- OCTOBER 29, 1945: Smile for the birdie! We had our pictures taken for the permanent record cards today.
- NOVEMBER 8, 1945: Earl Harper of WJW came today to auction off prizes and dates with cute senior fellows and girls. All this was to sell Victory Bonds.
- NOVEMBER 20, 1945: We're all confused with angles and compasses, Miss Wilson's biology classes, and how Coach Holden's 10B homeroom wins every drive in the school.
- NOVEMBER 30, 1945: Today brought a close to the Rhodes Victory Bond Drive. We went to the Victory Loan Hop to see Mr. Gerkowski, the band director, play his trombone, and watch Miss Simpson ride her bicycle.
- DECEMBER 6, 1945: Tonight brought the operetta "The Emperor's Clothes" to our stage. From our class, Tom Gerstacker, Clare Strung, Gene Fullington, as well as those in the Glee Clubs, and Choral Club took part.
- DECEMBER 8, 1945: The flu epidemic left an absence mark of 227 today.
- DECEMBER 14, 1945: Myron Walzak became the first of our class to enter the Thespian arts. He was the only underclassmen in the play.
- JANUARY 12, 1946: Our girls in 207 came back to find Miss Jenney on sick leave and the new football coach, "Andy" Moran as homeroom teacher. Mr. Moran, just returned from the Navy, is busy ducking powder puffs.
- JANUARY 20, 1946: Those of us who are in Miss Simpson's Writers' Workshop class are trotting out to WRU every so often to get information for the history of Brooklyn booklet being prepared. It will be Rhodes' contribution to Cleveland's Sesquicentennial Celebration this year.
- FEBRUARY 20, 1946: The girls are crazy about biology now that Mr. Gaiser is back. Recently returned from the Army Medical Corps, Mr. Gaiser can even make cutting up a worm seem nice!
- MARCH 4, 1946: Typing is wearing us down. The letters never are in the right places. The girls have been dashing down the hall, with dripping fingernails, the result of personal reg classes.
- MARCH 27, 1946: The new All-High Band boasts Laurel Wagner, Ralph Schmotzer, Helene Siennicki, and Catherine Dorko from our class.
- APRIL 10, 1946: Spring's a'coming again. All we do now is worry about passing geometry. We say "whamo" and "open the door, Richard," and we spend week-ends at Snow Road park.
- MAY 17, 1946: Helene Siennicki, beat all those mighty seniors to reign as track queen at the meet today. It poured outside, but we were happy!
- JUNE 12, 1946: Mr. Hoffman, complete with his wonderful personality, returned from the service to teach civics. We ended this semester with Don Haug, Frank Soika, Skip Pierie, and Harvey Richardson as the charter members of the new Citizens' Club.
- SEPTEMBER 13, 1946: Carter, Putich, Bahner, Martin, and Velotta play football, with the opening of school yesterday.
- SEPTEMBER 20, 1946: Ray Dreger and Gordon Hunter will be our cheer leaders.
- SEPTEMBER 21, 1946: Rhodes defeated Lincoln for the first time in five years.
- SEPTEMBER 28, 1946: Chuck Kiehl is president of the newly-formed Library Club and Myron Walzak of the Latin Club. The Senior Friendship is now called Y-Teen Club.
- OCTOBER 16, 1946: Styles are looking up! Every boy who is anybody is sporting a pair of royal blue or maroon "drapes." The girls are discarding skirts and sweaters for "smoother" clothes. Gone are the jitterbugs; we like Guy Lombardo now.
- OCTOBER 20, 1946: Janet Mackey is entertaining friends in her room at Deaconess Hospital where she is recovering from an appendectomy.
- NOVEMBER 1, 1946: Lena, the Hyena and her pal Kilroy leaned down from the walls of the school dance tonight. "Prisoner of Love" is all the rage.
- NOVEMBER 6, 1946: We all got culture today. We saw Maurice Evans in "Hamlet."
- NOVEMBER 20, 1946: Charity Game ticket purchasers saw a three-hour rally today.
- JANUARY 19, 1947: Tonight we had a Thanksgiving dance that was postponed because of the coal shortage in November. "LS-MFT" is the latest saying.
- FEBRUARY 4, 1947: Steve Polkable and Gordon Hunter are the wrestlers of our class to make the headlines.
- MARCH 12, 1947: Rhodes has a new "music man." Mr. Otto Schmidt will take over our band and orchestra. Already he has won many friends. Our class is very musically inclined. Gerstacker, Strung, Velotta, Dreger, made boys' Octette, while Polenz, Gutsky, Hamilton, Fridrich, Tischler, and Hilty are in the Girls' Triple Trio.
- MARCH 26, 1947: Today was Cleveland's worst blizzard in years. It was also the day that IAs, Soldat, Syroski, Pauloski, Theodore, Neu, Rogers, Hunter, Walzak, Dreger, Kraynak, Putich, and Bahner were inducted into the National Honor Society.
- APRIL 24, 1947: After weeks of rehearsals "Melody Fair" was presented. This show caused so much excitement that one issue of the Review went yellow! Joan Hassell and her grass skirt made the boys dash for a lawn mower.
- MAY 7, 1947: Barbara Renker will represent Rhodes at a meeting of the YWCA in Grinnell, Iowa this summer.
- MAY 11, 1947: We became a real organized class with the election of officers. Joel Bahner, Steve Polkable, Ruth Martynowski, and Luella Syroski take over the leadership.
- MAY 20, 1947: No great authors we, nevertheless, we are required to pour out our inner souls through the medium of diaries, and autobiographies. Oh!

- MAY 23, 1947: This afternoon was our informal, "May Fair." Since the girls outnumbered the boys, many of the fairer sex joined the flowers which decorated the walls. We danced and ate cookies and ice cream.
- MAY 30, 1947: The sparkplug of all our assemblies, Mr. George Seedhouse left today. The pint-sized gym teacher will be succeeded by 6' 2", O. J. Sawyer.
- MAY 31, 1947: More honor for our class. Bill Putich was elected Student Council president.
- JUNE 10, 1947: Mr. Hoffman umpired a baseball game at our picnic today. We finished off the day with a hike and plenty of eats.
- SEPTEMBER 7, 1947: We had to pinch ourselves to believe that we are actually seniors! Alice Hilty came back to thrill us with talk of her summer trip to Europe.
- SEPTEMBER 12, 1947: The football season got off to a swell start with a 20-0 victory over Newark.
- SEPTEMBER 24, 1947: A battle of the sexes is on! The girls have heeded the call of Dame Fashion by wearing long skirts and dark stockings. The fellows groan long and loud.
- SEPTEMBER 26, 1947: Jack Ferguson took over as head of the Latin as well as the German Club. Rose Gavel is the drum majorette from our class. Jack Goellner heads the Work and Win Club, and Mike Kraynak the Honor Society. Ruth Eberling and Mike Kraynak are editor and sports editor of the Rhodes Review.
- OCTOBER 15, 1947: Alan Roll is our 12B president with the officers: Bill Loeb, vice president; Ruth Martynowski, secretary; and Art Martin, treasurer.
- OCTOBER 22, 1947: The Cleveland Browns have nothing on our class! Today at the class picnic, the boys played the girls in football and we learned how to make enemies of our friends.
- NOVEMBER 12, 1947: The Petrillo record ban bothered us for a while but we went right on buying "How Soon" and "Near You." Some girls bleached a blonde streak in their hair. Standard's gave way to Becker's as "the place to go. We started saying "yo" and "schnook" and "clunging" to certain places.
- NOVEMBER 14, 1947: All Rhodes migrated to John Adams this afternoon to see the climax of this thrilling football season. When our beautiful team left the field with a 18-6 victory over Holy Name, we yelled ourselves hoarse. We will play the Charity Game for the first time!
- NOVEMBER 22, 1947: Today was damp and dreary in more ways than one. Even with all our optimism jamming the Stadium and our wonderful team playing a grand game, Cathedral Latin was just too good for us. We lost 12-0. Boo! Hoo! But so what, we played anyhow.
- DECEMBER 3, 1947: Chem lab and all its ill-smelling concoctions have us in its clutches.
- DECEMBER 21, 1947: Tonight was the Y-Teen formal, "Winter Wonderland" and it was.
- JANUARY 12, 1948: Our class voted down a 12B informal. Chalk it up to experience.
- JANUARY 26, 1948: Now that we've learned all about human nature via modern problems and made Hamlet even more tragic, we're all set to be 12As.
- FEBRUARY 2, 1948: We all have acquired the up-turned noses now that we are the tops. Hunter is the new Citizens Club prexy, while Dorothy Theodore became the first girl president of the World Affairs Council. Miss Stanley becomes "Mrs." soon, so we have a new gym teacher, Mrs. Cwik.
- FEBRUARY 18, 1948: Joel Bahner once again heads our class as president. The other officers are: Hunter, Martynowski, Loeb, and Doris Neu as social chairman. Signs of the times: What is your head size? Have your pictures come back yet? Is the class prophecy done? Puulease, pay your class dues!
- MARCH 3, 1948: A few 12As got the idea of a class paper. This resulted in "The June Bug," a Rhodeo on a large scale.
- MARCH 7, 1948: Dorothy Theodore returned from a UN meeting in New York City and told us all about the "tall buildings."
- APRIL 10, 1948: Tonight was our informal. It certainly was an improvement over the one in the 11A.
- APRIL 20, 1948: Joan Hassell starred in "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."
- MAY 12, 1948: Another class picnic. Baseball should have been the leading sport, but we rushed the season a bit with a game of football. Our class has set that game back one-hundred years.
- MAY 19, 1948: The circus came to Rhodes with amateur shows much like last fall.
- MAY 20, 1948: The 12A commencement speakers walk around looking worried.
- MAY 29, 1948: This was it. Our prom night! Need more be said? 'Sigh . . .
- JUNE 4, 1948: Today we all dressed up in our best bibs and tuckers and strutted before the underclassmen. We worried about what to write in other people's yearbooks. We said goodbye to cherry pie, the homeroom bulletin, Mr. Folkman, the oval track, the Leaders' offices, Hancy's room, 218, the chem lab, the noon movies, the band room, the study halls, the football practices, and musty underground track meets, Miss Kenyon, our homeroom teachers, and all our friends in the lower grades.
- JUNE 8, 1948: We'll never forget this day as long as we live. We were excited, confused, eager and a little frightened all at once. We wondered very much what the next four years,—and those following—would hold for us.

CLASS PROPHECY

Following the pattern set by most students, the June grads of '48 will choose various paths along Life's way. For a peek at the futures of these varied characters, let us hop our magic puddle-jumpers ahead 27 years, 6 months, 3 weeks, and 2 days after our parting words, and WHHHUUUUUUUUZZZZZZzzzzzz out across the vast expanse of the Middle-West to Iowa—the home of a well-known hostess, B. J. Renker. Barbie has good-naturedly lent us the run of her 1,000 acre farm, complete with modern shopping center, atomic pool table, and miniature airport for the convenience of her many guests.

Hmmm—it seems the planes are beginning to jam up traffic trying to land all the guests who have arrived to take part in this joint reunion and barn dance. Quite a few of the kids are making the headlines lately:

Madame Pauloski, renowned woman chemist, has discovered a new element. She has labeled it accordingly—Rhodentum.

Also smashing headlines is Jack Ferguson, who is beginning to see the light for the first time in 27 years as he crawls out from under his beloved Terraplane.

Too bad . . . at long last, Ray Ott has been revealed to the world as every girl's secret lover.

Felicitations to Ardel Vodvarka, who was selected queen of the Charity for Disabled Grads of '48.

Ever since commencement, Senator Alan Wenz has been filibustering, to prevent the passage of a stiff curfew law, which will probably affect his female interests.

Ann Donley is starting a new movement against the A.A. Anyone want to join?

Elaine Cook has entered the midget auto races.

Joy Hitz has won the title "Joy to the World."

Rosemary Jankura suddenly committed bigamy and was duly "strung" up.

Carole Schimkola has informed us that she cannot attend because she has transferred to "Marshall."

Harvey Richardson has left the groundwork on his scientific farm to join the party.

And Lois Esper is hopefully seeking to revolutionize Shakespeare.

On the agenda for today is a program of band music led by Violet Davidson and her baton.

Speaker of the day, Rose Marie Fien, giving the class an oration on public speaking with nothing (but Hank) as subject. Line forms on the outer lobb . . . outer lo . . . . .

Crash . . . Bang !! !P-Ppppppppppppp . . ppppp . . .
whew, what was that? . . Aha, we have just been informed that Eleanor Gutzky, eminent female crooner, and her comrade in arms, LaVerne Kriews, have arrived in Gutz's horseless carriage. Wouldn't ya know, Kriewsie had to push.

News from the business circles finds:

Mary Plymak still working as Mr. Hirt's assistant at Standards.

Frank Mika is living a life of luxury and ease from the royalties accumulated by his hydraulic scrubbing machine.

Rose Marie Klein has turned magnat—has taken over the gigantic Klein News Corporation.

Jeannine Kosmahl and Patricia Kosmider have opened a tasty sweet shoppe for their friends. Cut rates for buddies.

Vivian Short has graduated with the years from selling Junior Miss clothes to old women's apparel at Lindner Coy.

Marion Bedell has now risen to chief saleslady at Faflik's.

Walter Ficyk opens chain of gas stations.

Parm Ellsasser installs taxi-meter in his zooty Pontiac job.

Jean Unger now Proprietress of Brooklyn, Exclusive, Fashions. Discount for Pals.

News . . . Danny Kaye understudying Danny Beetler. Paul Guba gets job as gag writer for Beetler.

Don Haug gets job as five o'clock shadow.

Rol Heege opens school for prospective Casanovas.

Alan Herr still manufactures party records.

Betty Polenz has a well-paid "position" furnishing sound effects for "Good Humor" ice cream advertisements.

Also in the advertising end of business is Rose Johanni, posing her pretty eyes for Maybelline ads.

And Ralph Schmotzer was last seen in a currently popular magazine posing for the "after" pictures in Wildroot Cream Oil ads.

Milton Mueller is currently modeling T-shirts for Harry Schwartz.

Rosemary Oldack acquired a fortune by bottling her tears and selling them as "Essence of Heartbreak."

Beverly Heichel is the first girl to take over the "numbers" racket in Cleveland. Quite a business!

Also in a sort of business world is Anna Mae Chizmar, who has recently opened another C.A.C.—Chizmar Athletic Club.

Jeanne Cavanaugh, Shirley Claus, Dorothy Demyan, Marie Kvaska, Mary Ann Mikulak, and Mildred Vyskocil, the Big Six, have formed the Amalgamated Male Corps . . . Letters sent to all parts of the universe.

In the literary end of business is Alice Hilty, madly scribbling cartoons while Doris Neu bangs out the manuscript, 70 words per to crash the deadline on their latest brainstorm, "Forever Old Maids," the history of the gang. Maybe this will teach them to go back to playing piano duets. More relaxing . . .

Success shines upon Misses Hirsching, Petrak, and Greschel's newest, "How Not to Drive No-Handed." This is a tribute to Mr. Oliver of the A.A.A. without whose advice this book would have been more impossible.

Another lucrative proposition comes to the fore—Gerry Dugay, with the backing of wealthy Carole Schneider, and Helen Kelly, of Scotland Yard, has decided to buy out the Victorian Room and settle down to "old-fashioned" comfort.

Then there's Janette Kaminski who has been racking up dough on the side by retouching those graduation pictures.

And Mary Scharsella who has been netting at least one million per annum since 'way back when, manufacturing the rage, Perfume Camellia, No. 219.

Bill Bunevich becomes lumberjack and changes his name to Paul Bunyanvich. Don Wodgik becomes care-taker of the sawmill.

Industrious Chuck Copp, when last heard of, was slaving away on volume 135 of the travelogue which offers accounts of his journeys during his year(s) in service.

Jeanne Buckley opens the J. B. Wood-Carving Company. Success be with you!

Notice to pals: Alan Meder has become a prosperous merchant—owns pawnshop. Good ol' Ed Verhovitz—pawnbroker's best friend.

And now, we hear by the growls of neighboring gizzards that it's time for chow. Rae Claire Wilke sounds off by banging her symbols to announce that "dinnah is served" in the Grecian Room. Very fitting (?) Pardon the interruption: Telegram from Barbara K. to notify us that she's bringing along a fine Kropp of kids. Well, put on another kettle of stew, Charlie!

Ruth Eberling brings us the news of the theater world. As the first woman editor of Esquire she is able to track down klieg-light personages.

Ray "Hot Lips" Dreger taking trumpet lessons to keep in condition. Recent billboard at the New Y:

"Captain" Rabbi Strung singing, "I Feel So-o-o Smoothy." Also on the bill after years of seclusion is Nancy Shepherd, playing the lead in, "Voodoo Woman of the Everglades." Helene Siennicki charming her lovers with the hypnotic strains of her oboe.

Catherine Dorko has landed a position playing bass clarinet while Arline Tischler tickles the ivories in the orchestra pit at the "Y".

Carole Roth's voice has changed so she can sing a bass solo to "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

They've signed crooners Knapik and Soika as a duet specialty in their holiday show.

Backstage, Bob Kalna is setting up the scene for "jivey" Joan Hassel's Hawaiian number.

Jean Curlo is making a living as a specialty dancer of nationality numbers at this famous hang-out of the stars. And there's Laurel Wagner who's keeping all the musicians knee-deep in slush from her "slush-pump."

Mike Kraynak stubbornly refuses to write anything but sports so now Rhodes events occupy the front half of Esquire. Guess that'll show the other papers who rates publicity around here.

Don Borowske, Eunice Bender, and Jim Friedel are going to enter a contest to try to out-holler the Sphinx.

Eugene Grodzinski losing weight from making too many appearances at "Humphrey" fan clubs.

Ruth Martynowski is personal secretary of the Edward Carter Skating Association.

Laverne Korp gets big break as bat-girl for Class F champs . . . whoever they may be.

Sports news—Bill Loeb, who has made a fortune in the world of baseball, has convinced his father to change to managing Jim Lilly's Cleveland Indians.

Lucky Ed Smolko just had a radar set installed in his helmet for use while booting for the Cleveland Browns.

And there's Dorothy Hasson snatching first honors for catching the greased pig in the mock Junior Olympics held here this afternoon.

Indoor Sports:

"Passionate Pierre" Pierie, the mad French lover, is still breaking the hearts of the world's most desirable women.

Joe Lasovsky has finally achieved his goal—is now testing mattresses for some famous mattress company. Sweet dreams.

Some sports—Don Paul and Gordon Price are still fighting over possession of "Lois."

Goings and short-comings about other June, '48 bugs . . . Dan Midlik is taking a post-grad course at Rhodes trying to learn "Cleveland talk."

Morton Dziak goes back to Uniontown, Pa. Decides that, after 27 years, big-city life is not for him.

Cliff Fisher gets yellow sport jacket to match his favorite pair of drapes.

Don Katt is spending most of his time raising little "kitties." Joan Ballinger has switched from "Kools" to "Kiehls." (Chuck, that is).

Peggie Jones has had trouble starting her own gym—probably due to lack of experience. Guess she'll approach the idea of writing pamphlets on health.

Gordon Muthersbaugh . . . Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha . . . Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha . . . Ha, Ha . . . Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha . . . Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha . . .

A poll made among several of the outstanding females reveals that it is safer to dance with Tom Gerstacher than near him. That'll teach ya. And Virginia Gatz was supposed to play the flute at his funeral. Tough luck . . . some other time maybe.

Dick Barnick has been using his mathematical mind to locate his class ring. (He hasn't found it, yet.)

Elva Rogers and Dorothy Theodore are transferring their "Personalities" to the Police Gazette with Bette Paचाud as chief typist.

Barbara Moon and Georgia Pivceвич have come as carbon copies—the black and blonde of it.

Wessler and Wolff, the inseparables, are looking for a girl who will marry both of them. They don't want much . . .

City Smoke Ordinance curtails activities of Bernice Mager and Jim Burianek.

Eleanor Masek is petitioning for a five-day week end so she will have time for all her admirers.

JoAnne Oper is still waiting for Bill Putich to complete filling out his scholarship applications.

Janet Mackey has just had Pullman compartments built into her new Buick for all her kids.

Jeanne Brannon is wrapped, as yet, in the tatters of that blue and white "R" sweater.

Tillie Krieger has hired a private "eye," LaVerne Johnson, to trace that man, Roy Hendershot.

Wanda Lee Schmidt still being tagged with alias, "Lee Lee Poo." . . . nuff said.

Well, well, Wally Nottke has finally discovered a pair of maroon socks to go with his maroon shirt, tie, and drapes.

Steve Polkable is sitting pretty—retired . . . on his Coast Guard pension.

Pat Palmer and Ed Scalzetti have just acquired a new bus to transport all their girls.

Seems some "tootsie" is still calling "Roll." Alan, that is.

Alvin Stephenson and Marge Richter, a pair of good skates.

Dick Velotta finds tough travelling on the Rhoda of Life—Hamilton Ave., to be correct.

Bob Williams starts colony of little "beavers."

Myron Walzak, the great philosopher, is building air castles and suspending them from cables.

Gertie Amato is in the hoosegow again, taking the rap for one of her gang.

Leora Dandoy and Virginia Klimkiewicz are running a pool hall so they can stay behind the "8" ball.

Rose Gavel, Helen Demos, and Joan Wanda have been promoted to co-sponsors of the Lincoln canteen.

What luck! Arabella Gardner received a snazzy blue car as a gift from one of her boy friends . . . . He got tired of her driving his.

LaVerne Grove and Jean Mortach are demonstrating cosmetics for Kresges'.

Millie Unger is now raising another crop of dimples.

Ruth Imhof's greatest ambition is to be promoted to senior hostess. She will remain a junior hostess until she grows a bit more.

Janice Dempsey has begun reversing the process on her hair. Good luck!

Bernice Ziemski and Darlene Graff are about to end their engagements. Congratulations! ! !

Dolores Linhart expects to become assistant nurse at Rhodes—when Rhodes becomes an all-boys school.

Dorothy Sekarek has received the distinguished title of S.S.B.—chief librarian of the South Brooklyn Branch.

Jeannette Makula brings all her little kids to the dance via Rainbow.

By now, Norma Stavely should be an advanced "Latin" student.

Gerry Walters and Billy Walters have been endeavoring to prove a possible relationship.

Something for variety was introduced by Lucille Soldat when she built her first home out of all the books she has read. This is known as applying one's knowledge.

Vivian Fabry finished her studying so she decided to drive over in the dual-control job.

Joel Bahner, prominent lawyer, politician, etc., has begun campaigning for the 1976 Presidential elections.

Jack Goellner has upheld his staunch reputation as Lord Ha-Ha, promotor of good will.

Art Martin buys out Hancy's to use as a front for his chain of bookie joints which profits by taking bets on Rhodes games. Line forms to the right. No more yearbooks, eh, Art?

Don McDaniels and his car join the Navy.

Emil Raabe has changed his name again to just plain "Joe."

Muriel Bokmiller, in newer and more abbreviated outfits, is backing track queens. Wonder which draws the most comments?

Irene Martin has finally chartered the Fulton Bridge bus to take her home instead of the Express.

From the world of fashion come the reports of Mary Ann Yunich's capturing the title of most outstanding-ly dressed woman of 1975.

Included in fashion, too, is Leonard May, coiffeur's delight, who has been awarded a medal at the cosmetologists' convention for the most colorful hair-do.

Some activity is going on with Jean Fridrich nailing first place in the Haug-calling contest with Gloria Wright a close second.

Lois Cox forget to get out of the path of the hogs in the contest so now she is scrapping chunks of Iowa mud off her . . . . shoes.

Back home, Gary Greene's long experience has earned him a promotion to chief engineer on the miniature railroad at Brookside Park.

Also at Brookie is Clem Cable, who has been a permanent resident since the last time she wore her "zebra" dress.

Passing through, one might be able to see Janice Benes busy at her work operating her half-interest in Monk-ey Island.

And then we spy Joanna Loepp trying to decide "weber" she should or "webber" she shouldn't.

Jim Lishko and Bill Banks, Co-Gang Leaders of Cleveland's Skid Row.

Frank White is selling Sloan's Liniment to ailing members of the Rhodes' track team.

Carole Frank and Vivian Schmieley send their regrets for being unable to attend because of another one of those parties.

Thanks to Kathleen Egna and Dolores Gedeon who, though oceans away, send greetings and good news of progress on their plans for a welfare society of Rhodes' grads for today, as do Catherine Miller and Eileen Matchett, who are scouting for eligibles.

Florence Gleske couldn't make it because she's still taking attendance in Homeroom 200.

Dorothy Preston sends regrets of her absence but she is pursuing the books trying to distinguish the connection between Robert Preston of Hollywood fame and her branch of the family. Someday, maybe.

Clare Lorenz sends regrets from Chippewa, he just couldn't leave the little brown cottage.

The credit for furnishing food for our thoughts goes to the M. & W. Meat Market, operated by Ida Rose Mertes and Joanne Weiss. Special rates were given to us Rhodes grads for today.

Then, too, Louis Spontelli had given us special permission to use his spaghetti sauce.

Karl Heinemeyer, the shoulders of the crowd, is lending his aid buddy Fred Knall, who is monkeying with P. A. system, but without whose help there would be no report on the state of this reunion. Thanks, fellas.

A vote of praise goes to Anna Lozinak and Hilda Malek, who volunteered to help pass out the eats.

Lois Manthey, and Mildred Krupka as chief cooks and bottlewashers supervised the cooking done by Phyllis Coleman, Marge Weber, and Betty Olsen.

Don Obermiller, Tom Sachara, and Dick Wickman have formed a posse to hunt down all the strays . . .

Poor Joan Thompson with her recurring amnesia lost her way "around."

Ruth Tolowitski is making her usual late entrance, but this time it's from a certain small town out West.

And here comes Luella Syroski, who almost forgot to come. Glad you made it, kids.

Whoops, we almost forgot cinder-boy Tom Meehan, who jogged all the way from Cleveland.

Last, but not least, Gordon Hunter leads the final cheers of the Class of '48's reunion of aged scholars and what-not, until we meet again someday—within the next half-century.

We hop our magic puddle-jumper once again just in time to see the kids all "clinging" around waiting for their various forms of transportation to take them home. As we sail over the prairie lands at sunset, we note that even nature has turned the sky into a motley of blue-and-white ribbons—nothing like it elsewhere.
