MISS MCGINNESS

OUR DEDICATION

To you for making English grammar easy.
To you for being the sponsor of our Junior and Senior classes.
To you for all the time you have spent
At our dances, parties and picnics.
To you for being strict only when necessary.
To you, Miss McGinness, we proudly dedicate our class yearbook with the hope that we shall stand out in your memory as a courteous, respectful senior class.

THE SENIOR CLASS
JUNE, 1950.

NEIL D. MATHEWS

To Members of the Class of June, 1950:

Benson Ford, Vice-President of the Ford Motor Company, recently made the following statement: "It seems to me that what makes the world go round is ambition—an itch to get something better—plus an opportunity for ambition to operate." In America the opportunities for ambition to operate are not limited to a favored few. If you have the ambition, you will find plenty of opportunities to satisfy this urge to improve the conditions under which you live. If you have caught the true spirit of this great land of ours, each of you will assume much of the responsibility for improving your own lot, and that of your family, as well as your full share of responsibility for improving the lot of all mankind.

Best wishes to each of you.

NEIL D. MATHEWS.

Will

State of Ohio,
County of Cuyahoga,
City of Cleveland.

We, the June Class of James Ford Rhodes High School, 1950 A. D., being of reasonably sound mind, do hereby set down our last will and testament.

ITEM I

To our beloved homeroom teachers Miss McGinness, Miss Ballash, Miss Manning, Mr. Sifritt and Mr. Tanko, we give our everlasting respect, esteem and gratitude.

ITEM II

To all the honorable members of our faculty we bequeath extreme praise for the many hours of arduous labor spent in improving our feeble minds.

ITEM III

To the January class of Rhodes High School, 1951 A. D., we give all the possessions and privileges of our dear school — — — — — namely, the soft-toned chimes in the Modern Problem classes which enable the students to be awakened gently, senioritis, the command of lower classmen, and the right of being first class after ours to graduate.

ITEM IV

To the forthcoming freshmen we leave our famous elevator so that they may ride from floor to floor in perfect ease, our used gum parked on the underside of desks, and any of our pencils less than two inches in length.

ITEM V

To our outstanding baseball team we leave ten new cracked bats in the hope that they may win the World Series.

ITEM VI

To next year's yearbook committee we give plenty of long hours, hard work, and lots of fun.

ITEM VII

To all underclassmen we bequeath our popularity with the librarians.

ITEM VIII

To all Miss Wilson's biology classes we leave a music box. (Please keep in step there!)

ITEM IX

To Mr. Gaiser's future photography classes we bequeath the photo club.

ITEM X

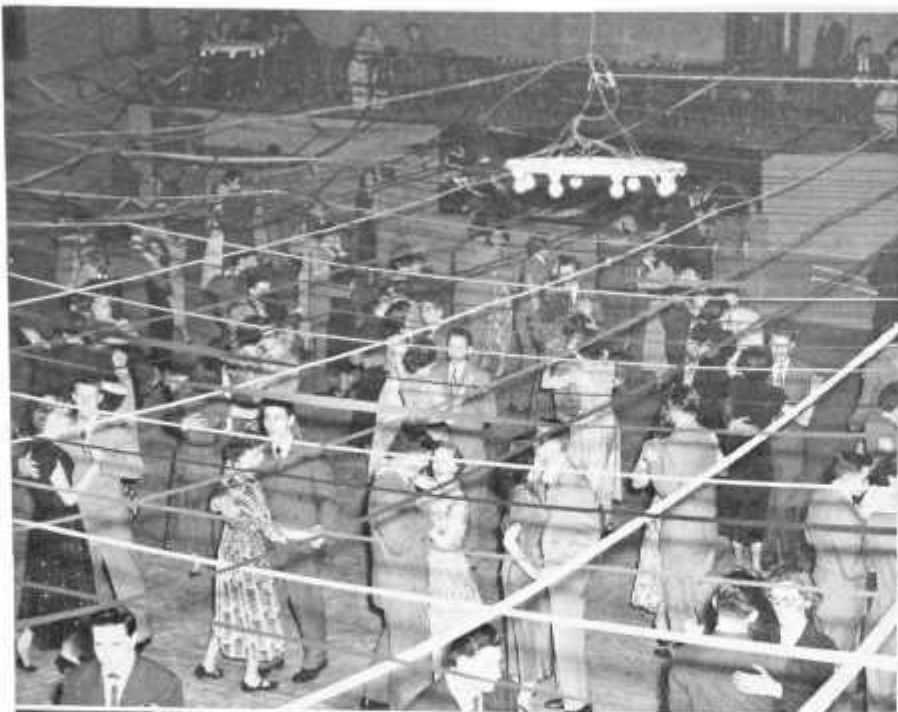

And last of all we leave the building, a building which has seen many classes come and go, but never has a more honorable class than ours dared receive diplomas.

Signed and sealed the Thirty-second day of March, 1950 A. D.

Class History

In August 1946 strange disc-like shapes appeared in the heavens. They were first reported as hoaxes, but we soon gave them the name of flying saucers.

Although the National Air Races were over by September 2, the strange discs were still being reported all over the country. Some people thought that the discs came from another planet, and we young students, having broad minds, liked to believe this fantasy (?) and to jeer at our totally indifferent parents.

On the eve of September 2, 1946 we grade-school graduates were looking forward to four years of unknown occurrences that, we were told, could be made into advantageous opportunities, depending entirely on us. Sleep was scarce, but dreams were many that evening and . . .

Upon regaining consciousness the following morning at 11 A. M., we suddenly realized that everything was strange and different, like another planet. We were soon told by other creatures of this world that we had arrived at Cross-Rhoades, a place where life can begin or end. Faintly we remembered sneaking through long, noisy tunnels, misdirected by seemingly helpful "creatures," in order to find a place to assemble and register for a stay of four years or perhaps longer. Now we had finally, after eight easy years in grammar school, arrived at Cross-Rhoades.

In October the "creatures and teachers" showed us how much they adored us by throwing a "tremenJUS" whirl of a party in the gym. We have never recovered from the effects of the musical chairs.

Flying "saucers" were seen more often in December. We were looking forward to a vacation from the drudgery, for even Christmas was celebrated at Cross-Rhoades. While the delightful story of Santa Claus was repeated in our classes, the weather became colder.

Except for the literary pains suffered while writing about our being good little "Americans All," our first year passed uneventfully until—Melody Fair. We suddenly found theatrical talent in a little skit called, "Her Fatal Beauty." Dolores Sereta played a shop girl, while Warren Swasey portrayed a frightful villain and Kathleen Kaul sold gloves.

During the fall of 1947 our class discovered football, and we were especially happy when Cross-Rhoades was termed champ of the Western Senate. We found John Brainard, George Manson, and Carl Kramer mashing up the front line while manager Bill "Peanuts" Charvat, carrying a bucket of water, soaked up the blood with a sponge.

Spring of 1948 found our class members budding forth in a stage production of "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." In the spotlights were Noreen Bonk, Madge Hook, Carol Danchuk, Betty Lou Sadlowski, and June Toth.

The "creatures and teachers" decided to make us work by taxing our little brains with shorthand and physics. Most of us staggered on.

The Indians were hot on a pennant race in the fall of 1948. The "creatures" and oh, yes, the teachers too, brought portable radios, ingeniously smuggled into study halls, history classes, and teachers' workrooms. Those who didn't have radios simply "ripped" . . . ahhh, Baseball!

Then came the Fall Frolic with its long line of zealous boys in front of the Fortune Teller's tent. (What if fortunes were told ten times? Those girls weren't bad!)

Into every life a little rain must fall. There came the squirt guns flooding our halls. FLASH! Bubble gum suddenly smeared "creatures" in a fantasy of colors. (WATCH OUT! Too late—I'm stuck!)

In the 11-A we had the privilege of electing officers. We did. They were Dan Rok, president; Mike Zaretsky, vice president; and Joan Schugard, secretary.

ANOTHER FLASH! Everyone was seen nodding his head. The Yo-yo craze rose and fell.

That spring also brought another play, "Dear Ruth," with Arleen Haxton as Mrs. Wilson and Joan Zabor as Martha Seagrave.

The most "stupenJUS" production during our four-year hangover at Cross-Rhoades was "Change of Pace," partly written by our own Noreen "Sack" Bonk and co-starring Melvin Lowe, Miss Cherrington's literature class presented its portrayal of a bus station. Left over from the Civil War were Mike Blickensderfer and Dick Lembke, while Jay Leety was still feuding among the Martins and the McCoy's. Warren Swasey mastered the master-of-ceremonies job. Ahhhhhhh, that chorus line! Pat "Passionate" Kuhns, Mary Ann "Curlers" West, Ruth "horsey" Bryan, and Kathleen "Charleston" Kaul were other members of the cast.

Some of the students who were inducted into the National Honor Society in the 11-A semester are Marilyn Lang, Dan Rak, Mike Zaretsky, Billie Serpas, John Brainard, Ruth Bryan, Marrison Pasek, Laurel Fuelling, and Janet Sommer. (And we can't forget that little man who blew the horn, Ron Weber.)

Our first planet prance was our 11-A informal. The walls were strongly supported that afternoon. Wasn't that a lovely tuba solo?

In the spring young students' fancies lightly turn to thoughts of picnics. Our first picnic was held at the popular Snow Road Metropolitan Park. (The place where students "accidentally" fall into the creek.)

Upon returning to "the school," we elected the Student Council officers to lead us. John Brainard and Bob Hilty were elected the president and vice president of the council.

Another year rolled around and we suddenly realized that it was our last one at Cross-Rhoades.

More of the boys went into sports. In football the Burke to Brainard passes became famous. Tony Mencini and Joe Sestito broke other peoples' bones in wrestling. Paul Rhode and Don Burke dribbled a basketball around the floor. John Brainard chased up and down a little track, and Al ("Muscles") Wisniewski was the little man that went out for tumbling.

Some more people decided that the Honor Society couldn't do without them, so Bob Hilty, Jane Rebuck, Chuck Nauman, Dolores Sereta, Joan Eirich, Ray Smola, Kathleen Kaul, and Jean Smith joined the gang.

Athletic ability and brains weren't the only talents our class had, for some people could sing. The Triple Trio boasted of Donna Gierman, Joan Eirich, Arleen Springer, Lois Lade, Carolyn Fix, and Joan Schugard. Alan Altnauer, Harry Maruschke, Mike Zaretsky, and Jim Boehm were in the Boys' Octette.

Because we behaved ourselves, we were allowed two privileges—electing officers and having a picnic.

The officers for the 12-B class were Mike Zaretsky, president; Tony Mencini, vice president; Billie Serpas, secretary, and June Toth, treasurer.

The picnic was a rough house. "Football for all" was the motto of the day. We'll never forget the scrape Joan Zabor's car gave Stan Gorski's.

How will we ever forget the tax-stamp drives of the Student Council, and the boys of our class discussing the merits of this little organization?

One day George Manson wanted some publicity, so he broke the football practice machine. Later, just to prove that he could do the same thing twice, he broke the machine again.

Chemistry gave many people a hard time, but the person affected the most was Mr. Henderson. But then who wouldn't become terrified when Ruth Bryan and Rosie Anderson mix up some chemicals?

Our second informal was also the debut of the Ink Blotters. In the group were Al Altnauer, Jim Boehm, Bob Hilty, "Peanuts" Charvat, Mike Blickensderfer, Roy Eyerdam, Ron Holzman, and "Choppy" Borden.

A few days later we entered room 209 supposedly brilliant 12-A's. We left hours later mumbling cave-man grunts. Oh! That psychological test!!!

At the helm of the 12-A class were Dan Rak, president; Mike Zaretsky, vice president; Jean Smith, secretary; and Billie Serpas, treasurer.

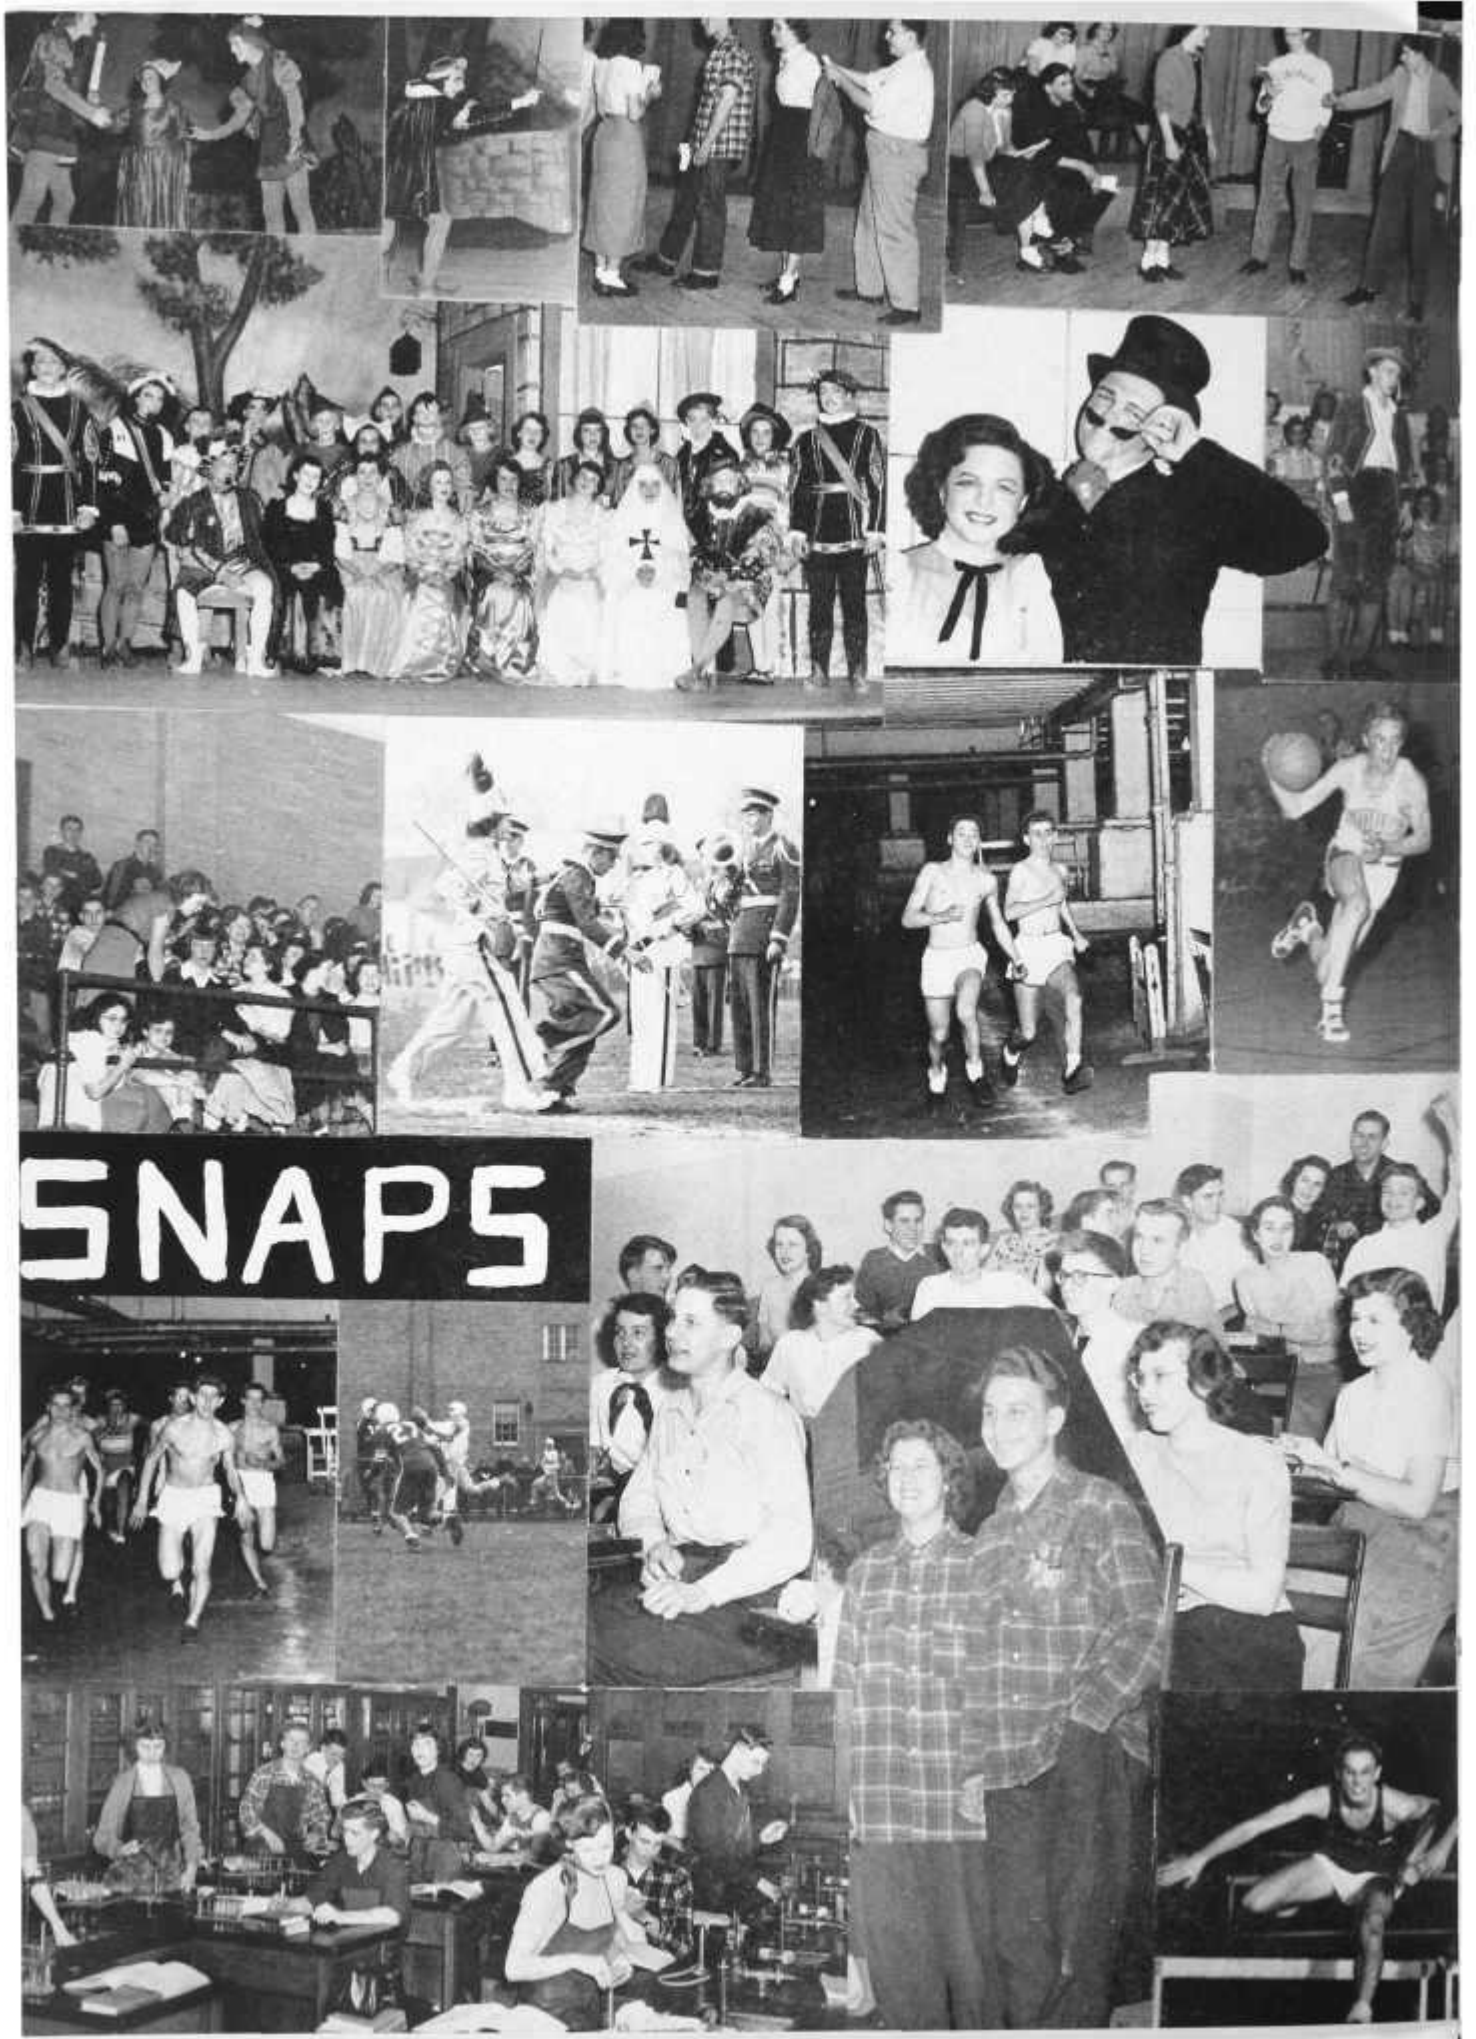

With the spring play came "Mother Is a Freshman" with Arleen Hoxton, Jay Letty, Louis Csontos, Ann Kovacs, Ron Dixon, Pat Kuhns, Betty Pristas, Tommy Tom, Laurel Fuelling, Vera Baker, and Jim Tupper in the limelight.

Some more people were inducted into the National Honor Society: Alan Vermilye, Paul Rhode, Lynn Hogue, Gene Weakland, Marilyn Berger, Ed Schwin, and Don Praht.

Our school days were flying fast now. Before we knew it our final informal, our picnic, and our prom were gone. The biggest night, of course, was June 13, our Commencement at Masonic Auditorium.

Looking back on our school days now
Our hearts begin to soften;
If only time hadn't passed so fast
And we had passed more often.

J. L. & L. F.

Class Prophecy

We, the Prophecy Committee (all two of us) have been cordially invited (by brute force) to a prolonged vacation at the balmy summer resort commonly known as the Sunny Siberian Salt Mines. After reading this document, the Class of June '50 bestowed this honor upon us. It seems they didn't appreciate our noble gesture, therefore we find ourselves aboard the good ship "Slumgullion," about to walk the plank.

"All right, all right, don't shove. We're going!" Closer and closer we get to the edge. The water grows near. The . . . "Tune in next week to find out . . . (no, no, off the track) . . . as we were saying, 'Closer and closer we came to the edge. The water came nearer and nearer. Soon it would be all over.'"

"Goodbye, MEL."

"Goodbye, NOR."

"Here"

We Go!

Simple things come first, so we'll start with AL. Good ole ALTZNAUER finally stowed away his knickers and electric train and grew up.

After receiving her degree at Johns Hopkins University, MARILYN PASEK has returned to dear old J. F. R. to psycho-analyze Mr. Hoffman.

We find CAROL DeJEAN, PAT LUCAS, GENEVA CALDWELL, BETTY SCHEEL, DOLORES SERETA, and BETTY LOU LENARTH looking around for something old, something new, something borrowed, etc.

BOB HILTY has been shaving nigh onto three years and cut himself both times.

ARLENE SPRINGER'S favorite piece of furniture is the kitchen "Sink . . . o."

At Central Armory we see "Hot-Pin" BEVERLY ESTOCK watching her favorite rassler, "Two-Ton Tessie," alias "Bone Crusher Briggs," alias Martha Briggs; while at the Arena there's LOUISE KOVACH cheering on "Nature Boy" GAULT . . . Flash: He finally won.

Starring in their latest movie release ROBERT TAYLOR and ANN SHERIDAN will soon be seen in "Fuzz on the Peaches."

ART NABINGER is opening up a Baby Sitters' Club . . . babies over twenty-one.

MARY ANN LASZKO becomes "The woman in white."

"Hot Lips" RASMUSSEN takes over Phil Spitalny's all-girl orchestra . . . BOB BENSON plays second fiddle.

All wrapped up in herself is DORIS VALENTINO. Never did get over the 12B Picnic.

TERRY CRAIGS is working in collaboration with the Ohio Bell Telephone Company. "Bets placed at all times. Info right from the horses' mouth."

ELAINE NUGENT, with a rose in her mouth, sings the lead in "Carmen."

A new chorus line in the famous Ballet Russe features CHUCK BUCKHOLZ, DICK KMECIK, CARL KRAMER, GEORGE MANSON, WALLY RATKA, and HOWARD JORDAN. Please throw us a rose, fellas.

After getting his degree in mechanical engineering, "FRED" WENDT opens up a barber shop on the corner of West 48th and Memphis.

ARLENE CULP, RUTH BARISS, STELLA EBERHARDT replace Kukla, Fran, and Ollie, on Channel Four.

Good old "STOSH" BILL is still giving the pedestrians a break—in the arm, leg, neck . . .

JEAN SMITH and JULIA WELKE are sponsoring "Be Kind to Men Week." Julie is still being kind to Harry.

Those interested in joining the junior chapter of the Women's Temperance Union, see MADGE HOOK, CAROL WARTH, JIM BOEHM, DIXIE LEE SCHIEBLER, or ART HECHT, executives at large.

JANET ZOUL is writing an encyclopedia all from her own knowledge. Is there anything she doesn't know?

HELEN BRANDT has a "Case" on Pete.

EUGENE WEAKLAND and JIM TUPPER are posing for Charles Atlas ads; before and after respectively. If you want to look like Charlie, stop in the middle.

Congratulations to MARILYN BORGER for being chosen "Miss Fit of 1965"; to VIOLET SAMOURIS who took first place in the discus throw at the 1960 Olympics; to EUGENIA GERAK who was voted "Most Likely to Recede"; to the Reverend EDWARD Q. HARRISON, who was awarded the "Church in the Wild Wood."

JOE HREHOCIK is all thumbs these days; he's a carpenter.

Playing first "string" on the varsity Yo-Yo team (Duncan, of cuss), are DOLORES MUST, MARGARET TOTH, DOROTHY ZIMA, and MARION VIECHA.

DONNA GIERMAN opened a used car lot. Now featured . . . "Kelly" green Model T's. PAT KUHNs paints them on Thursdays, which is a legal holiday in her books.

Ushering at the big "R" these days, RALPH LAMPARTER becomes head man.

"Madames' Beauty Shop" is owned and operated by MIKE ZARETSKY and DICK MAKAHUSZ. Specialties: Toni's.

The law firm of WISNIEWSKI, MARUSCHKE, SLUMKOWSKI and HESS are bitter rivals of the firm of NOVAK, NOVAK, GRAFF, GRAFF, FRIEDLE, and FRIEDEL.

JOHN BRAINARD and NOREEN BONK settle down to raise little half-backs. BETTY SCHALL and DON LAUX settle down and raise little green-backs.

OTTO HEINEMEYER ha-ha, ho-ho, hee-hee-hee.

LOIS LADE is spending her time running from SWASEY, while JUNE WEATHERBEE runs from TUPPER.

Class Prophecy - - - continued

MAGGIE SNOWDON, MARILYN WALZAK, and JOAN MARTIN have been appointed official boosters of the Ben Franklin baseball team.

JEAN WOLFF is working at Halle's in corsets.

THERESA BLONCHEK has finally given up smoking (cornsilk), drinking (pepsi), and going out with men.

Question of the week: "Did RAY KORP get a date to the informal yet?"

The children of RUTH BRYAN and ROSEMARIE ANDERSON have joined forces to drive Mr. Henderson utterly and completely insane.

The "Share the Man Plan" has been legally adopted by SUSAN SLEDZ and DOROTHY BOBKA, MIKE DERRICK being the lucky one.

JOAN ZABOR is still trying to answer those questions, "they are too, they are not!"

The new singing waiters, LOUIS BORDEN, BILL "Peanuts" CHARVAT, RON HOLZMAN, and ELI ELIEFF, can currently be seen at the Tick-Tock.

TONY MENCINI has become a mortician. His motto is, "Try Our Lay-Away Plan."

MARY ANN WEST a teacher?????

PAT MAUND will still do or die for dear old Pick and Pay and BILL GREGOR takes over the F. B. I. (Fisher Brothers' Inc.)

VERA BAKER joins Ringling Bros. as a trapeze artist.

PAT TAMBURRO, paperweight champion, now trains at DENNY GRAND'S Gym.

A Lonely Hearts Club is being sponsored by LEONA MOON, but KATHLEEN KAUL is one customer she'll never have.

MARILYN LANG is still a good head . . . just ask her, she'll tell you.

DR. NORMAN OLSEN, D.D.S., is feeling down in the mouth lately. He became a dentist.

ALICE TOGNON wants to settle down and raise little Katts. ARLENE BENDER just wants to settle down.

Flash: DAN RAK has changed his name to NED D. BOOGLE.

WARREN SWASEY is living on his Afghanist, Afganisanian, afghanastnian, Afgan, afaganis, afganistania . . . (oh heck) Alaskan Wheat farm.

Pledging for the Tu-Shays, MARY LOU BRIGGS, JOAN BURNSIDE, and CAROLYN FIX are dyeing their hair to a vile green, but JOAN SHUGARD prefers orange.

LOUIS CSONTOS and JACK HOUSEMAN have become B. T. O.'s (translation: Big Time Operators). They own a slot machine outright.

PAUL ROHDE got a job in the match company, tasting burnt matches.

Smiling "JOSEPP!" SESTITO has a booming business selling yo-yo's made from a piece of spaghetti and a meatball.

HERB LIEBERMAN and LENORE REICH still look as if they stood too close to the scissors.

If you're lucky, JANET HELLRIEGEL, CAROL LEYRITZ, and LOIS KYLER might sell you a dance at the canteen.

Tune in Thursday night at 7:30 for "Flash Bulb FLEMING, Crime Photographer," brought to you by the Amalgamated Male Company, DOROTHY LINDER and DOROTHY MIHALKO, managers.

And then there is ALICE MALINOWSKI who is still trying to register at John Carroll.

JOHN LONGFELLOW LEETY and WILLIAM WADSWORTH PISKOS have taken over one of the greatest literary digests of our time, Esquire.

BETTY PRISTAS has been putting iodine on her pay checks, because her salary has been cut. Yak, yak, yak!

Variations Dept. . . . Have you heard of "Anna and the King of Simon" or is it "SAMMON"? What about RAY who wants Som mula, better known as SMOLA . . . (oh no, how desperate can you get?)

RON WEBER has a new slogan: "If you eat Weber's Breakfast Bread, you'll never want any other breakfast bread, brother, you'll never want any other breakfast!"

CONCETTA CONLINO is trying to smash the atom, but ROY EYERDAM'S up and atom! (double yak!)

The great orators of the class have turned out to be BOB LUCKWITZ, JOE RUDISCHUM, and EVELYN MIRKA.

MIKE BLICKENSDEFER hick (country, of cuss.)

Doing their specialty at the Alumni Spring Show, held annually at Rhodes called "Change of Underware" we see DONNA SCHWEIER, NANCY BANNASCH, and MARY LOU JEDLICK singing, "If I knew You Were Coming I'd Have Brought My Gun" . . . EUGENIA KORYTA imitates Jose Iturbi, LeROY JEFFERY plays the hero and RON RUSINKO moves the scenery.

ED SCHWIN is selling Bicycles Built For Two, and BOB SCOTT says he'll beat them any day with his Ford.

Working at Arthur Murray's now are JOAN OUTZ, ANNETTE KOLLAR, and RAENELLE PRIVER. They sweep up.

JOAN EIRICH is still lugging around Gone With The Wind. Now intends to read Disintegrated in the Smog.

Unusual Occupations Dept.: BILL HUNTER sells suits to midgets; JOAN TIFFT is modeling enaaagement rinas over T. V.; LYNN HOGUE acts as stand-in for a May Company mannikin; DON PRAHST is a Schaaf Rd. Horticulturist.

FRAN OLECH works for the Civil Service Dept. . . . becomes street cleaner.

Still arguing about the merits and evils of their Hot Rods are MYRON PAVLIK and CHUCK NAUMAN, but GEORGE RAHLFS swears by his Pontiac.

JUNE TOTH has become a one man Boosters' Club for the B. W. basketball (swISH) team.

BLANCHE BOSTWICK . . . their's someone!! . . . There's someone????

BETTY SADLOWSKI marries Mr. Lindner and JOAN LOOMIS marries Mr. Davis and they raise some little department stores.

Troubles Dept.: ELEANOR EWANKO makes sure she never marries anyone with bow ties. STAN GORSKI leads a revolt against the Communists in the State Department.

DONNA GALETOVICH still studying Chemistry at good ole J. F. R. but LAVERNE BOCZEK continues to take life as it comes.

Sports Department: BOB GELSKI turns wrestling promoter, tries to sign "Argentino" HARNER and "Gypsy John" EMIGHOLZ; ROSY KUCHTA plays baseball with the Bloomer Girls, position, left out; Playing Way Back for the Browns, MAT GRESKO becomes Pro; and there's nothing DON BURKE can't do . . . ANN KOVACS bowls on the championship Hawkins team, with BILL NEUMANN setting the pins.

Usual Occupations Dept.: PAT TWITCHELL, CAROL TONSING, AUDREY REEVE, and DORIS RYMELL . . . housewives. MARY ANN BERLON and GERRY GAFFNER are appointed delegates to the U. N. (United Nuts).

And then there's KATHLEEN THOMPSON who finally gives back Steenstra's sweater.

LAURELL FUELLING is aiding JANE REBUCK in her writing. They start a hobby collecting new money.

Here we find DOLORES JURCZYK standing, period.

BOB BENNETT who started the "Hasely School for New Casanovas" uses Playboy VERMILYE as example.

TOMMY TOM opened a restaurant, commonly known as "The Greeks' Greasy Spoon Grill."

DORIS SIKORSKI is now putting plaster of paris in her brownies instead of flour.

BILLIE SERPAS finally got her college boys to dance with.

After graduating from the "Soo Lung School for Chinese Missionaries," ARLENE HAXTON flies to China to teach. DON DUREY pilots her.

ANDREW WALKO becomes stand-in for Shuffle-Along Cassidy.

ELAINE PALLAM works as a manicurist in a barber shop. She always nails her man! (single yak).

MARILYN SCHNEIDER teaches sewing at Purdue University.

DON JANKURA . . . He plays the drums!!! . . . He plays the drums???

RON DIXON is awarded a one way ticket to Oregon.

JACK WALSH becomes excavator . . . builds houses with tooth picks.

MEL LOWE is still "just right" . . . signed, Mel Lowe. (Paid advertisement.)

Well, GWEN HOOD and CAROLYN GRABE . . . Congrats, you're last in our Prophecy. To you we give "a shot in the head!"

SPLASH . . . blub, blub, blub.
