MR. WM. SCOTT

OUR DEDICATION

The person whom we have chosen as a dedicatee is one who is always friendly toward the students and their problems. This teacher does many favors for the school such as supervising the printing of programs and tickets for many school activities, and programs for the senior class informal and prom. So to Mr. Scott, printing instructor, we the members of the June 1951 graduating class dedicate our Yearbook.

NEIL D. MATHEWS

If you will be satisfied with nothing less than the top, you must pay the cost of the upward climb. The road will be steep, rough, frequently uncharted, and others may try to crowd you from it, but if you persevere and reach your goal, the rewards should be worth the effort. Not the least of these rewards will be the satisfaction of having done something about your own destiny. Remember that your real worth to your family and your community depends but little on what your job may be, but so much on how you do it. Those of us who are too small to do great things can do small things in a great way.

Best wishes to each of you.

NEIL D. MATHEWS, Principal.

MR. BRYAN

MISS HIER

In conference we see Miss Hier, Dean of Girls, and Mr. Bryan, Dean of Boys, who through their patience, and understanding, not to mention zero hours and tenth periods, have brought us to the last phase of our high school career . . . graduation!

OUR DEEPEST APPRECIATION

We, the senior class of June, 1951 wish to express our deepest and sincerest gratitude to Mr. G. D. Van Nortwick who was always willing to give any aid or assistance at any time our class needed it. We considered ourselves very fortunate in having Mr. Van act as our class sponsor for two semesters. During this time we always found him ready with advice and useful suggestions.

It is our hope that other classes may find that same enjoyment of working with such a friendly and helpful person as Mr. Gilbert Van Nortwick.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of June, in the year of one thousand nine hundred and fifty one, being so far of sound mind but weak body, proclaim this document to be our last Will and Testament.

During the past four years it has been our profound pleasure to roam the hallowed halls of this glorious high school, and as we make our departure we would leave this train of thought:

PULLMAN I — ATHLETICS

Compartment I

We leave the glory of breaking the school record for the mile run, set by our own Dale Bussman, to any fleet-footed underclassman who thinks he can do better.

Compartment II

To Mrs. Cwik we leave the task of filling eleven vacancies in the Girls' Leaders Club, if it's possible.

Compartment III

To Mr. Vannorsdall and his hardwooders we leave the spirit to be city champs next year.

Compartment IV

Compartment V

All left over fee tickets and tax stamps we leave to Mr. Quayle so he can buy a new pair of rhythm sticks and a bird bath!

PULLMAN II — FACULTY

Compartment I

One traffic light and a policeman's whistle to Miss Wilson.

Compartment II

To Mr. VanNortwick, Mr. Henderson, and Mr. Hartzell, we leave one jar of mustache wax.

Compartment III

To Miss Ord we leave an A-1 megaphone so she can be heard in classes.

Compartment IV

Compartment V

To Mr. Bryan and Miss Hier we leave the traditional cutslips.

Berth I

Also the patience to listen to the same old excuses.

PULLMAN III — CLUBS

Compartment I

We leave a quart of milk to Mr. Van Nortwick to aid the stomach ulcers he will get when he tries to replace the 37 talented, graduating members of the Senior Choir.

Berth I

To the Girls' Glee Club a new accompanist to replace "Alice" Brandes.

Compartment II

We leave the German Club to find some new faithful "Ritters" to replace those graduating.

Compartment III

We leave the French Club the ambition to finally organize.

Compartment IV

PULLMAN IV — UNDERCLASSMEN

Compartment I

We leave the responsibility of buying Mr. Jacob a new tie to the 12B class.

Berth I

Also to those who aren't already affected, we leave "Senioritis."

Upper I

This includes all of the headaches involved.

Compartment II

To the IIA's we leave our dear homerooms 219 and 209 complete with lockers.

Compartment III

We bequeath our homeroom teachers to the incoming 9B's.

Compartment IV

To the rest of the student body we leave anything you can find.

PULLMAN V — ODDS AND ENDS

Compartment I

To Mr. Helfer we leave a box of safety matches. We're sure he'll know what to do with them.

Compartment II

We leave the responsibility of supplying records for dances, etc. to anyone with a collection like Emma Toepfer's.

Compartment III

To the Chemistry Department we leave a "Jim Dandy" fire extinguisher to put out all fires started by future pyromaniacs.

Compartment IV

Emma Ference, Donna Jarina, Joan Jedacek, Donna Malloch and Carole Rosch, our diamond wearers, leave to the library one copy of their latest book, "How to Influence Men and Win Husbands," — for any girls to use.

Compartment V

To everyone we leave our fond memories.

Compartment VI

We Leave!

THE SENIOR CLASS.

IN MEMORIAM

In the untimely passing of a classmate, the June Class of 1951 lost a friend who will be remembered as a good natured, average, American boy. His shop teachers, namely Mr. Bereit and Mr. Jackson, will remember him as a boy who was anxious to learn and always willing to work and help others. Don Steinhoff met his accidental death on November 18, 1950, while indulging in his hobby of hunting.

Class History or "Inmates' Diary"

Here we are, seniors at last. We all say "way back when" to the days of pigtails and scarred knees, knickers and freckled faces. Amazing isn't it—how we ever managed to fit into those little red reading chairs! Recess bell rang—time to get out our sacks of peppermints and licorice sticks. Remember how funny we looked when we lost our baby teeth? Watching the high school kids stroll by, little did we think we would ever grow so big.

Junior high served as a stepping stone to the real thing. We had the thrill of being upperclassmen; yet it was on a smaller scale. Graduation held its share of excitement, but caps and gowns flashed through our dreamy minds. In the early fall of '47, we would walk through the lively halls of J. F. R.

Our first high school days were lonely ones. We were outsiders looking in on a world at work. Some of us longed to be back in the friendliness of junior high. After a week our sentiments did a quick change. We became a part, an inseparable part, of the wonderful new atmosphere. We were ready to stand behind our school forever as loyal sons and daughters.

Hardly had we got acclimated, when we discovered that a big shindig for the freshmen (that's us) was to be held in the boys' gymnasium. As the skinny, squeaky, giggling girls glided down the steps, the boys ran into corners where they held their own conversations. However, under the auspices of several of the upperclassmen, we were finally persuaded to play such games as passing the orange, musical chair, and for those who had enough courage, dance to the popular record of the day.

We discovered that JO ANN SLOTE, DOROTHY KEERAN, and JANE MUSCHNA of Girl Scout Troop 52 had volunteered to usher at the annual North Eastern Ohio Teachers' Association Convention at the Public Auditorium on October 31, 1947. We wonder if they were trying to polish the apple or trying to obtain a merit badge.

The freshmen football squad of CHARLES MISSIG, JIM CRITES, ROGER LAWRENCE, BILL SCHIEVE, GLEN BORDEN, RON WARZEL, GILBERT LARSEN, BOB CASE, EDMUND RETYCH, JOE ONDICH, CLYDE SIMPSON, JOE DELMONICO, and GIL REIS traveled to Kirk Junior High School in East Cleveland on Wednesday, October 22, 1947 to be beaten by a score of 19-7. They put up a stiff battle but failed to halt the very well-organized Kirk team.

Officers pro tem of the now defunct '47 class of drum majorettes were DONNA MAE REESE, president and JEAN BEVACQUA, secretary.

The RHODES REVIEW held a Fall Frolic Dance on November 7, 1947 to raise money to buy a movie projector for the English Department. Although no freshmen that we know of participated in the planning of the activities, we were entertained by that harmonious Polka Band and a juggling act.

On November 27, 1947 people like JUDITH GOMPFF and SHELIA GALLAGHER bought their mums and tickets for the annual Plain Dealer Charity Football Game in which our football team competed against Cathedral Latin. The score of 12-0 in the favor of Latin was a heartbreaker for us.

We were surprised to discover the names of JEAN LYTLE, JIM STAFFORD, and BOB SUDYK in the personality column of the RHODES REVIEW under the caption "Frosh Stars of 195?" It was learned that Jean—don't look now, Mr. Howard—loved to eat pretzels in the noon movies. Jim Stafford had aspirations for becoming a runner, wrestler, and like the rest of the boys, a member of the Girls' Leaders Club. Bob Sudyk's ambition was to follow in the footsteps of his bigger brother—that of becoming editor of the sports page of the REVIEW. He not only fulfilled his wish but also did it well and effectively.

Do you remember the "I Chew Bub Bubble Gum Because It Blows Bigger Bubbles Fan Club"? What? You say no? Why that was a "tree-main-jous" fad.

Christmas of '47 arrived quickly. The JUNIOR JOURNAL revealed that JUDITH GOMPFF wanted a pigskin for Christmas and that ROSEMARIE HUSAK didn't have much trouble getting a gift for her three-year-old brother. She made a pair of blue trousers for him. Both HELEN KRAYNAK and JUNE KUHNS wanted a roomful of clothes for Christmas, whereas ROSE LITTURI only wanted an angora sweater. We wonder if GERALDINE MAZUREK ever got those eight wheels for her rink skates.

MARY WOLFF wanted the picture of Guy Madison, which was posted on her locker, to come to life. Of all things ALLEN DALL wanted an Alaskan sleeping bag. ARTHUR VAN DYKE wanted a motor scooter, but RICHARD KADLECK had bigger aspirations—he wanted a motorcycle. It would be nice to know how many of these wishes Santa actually fulfilled. If you didn't get what you wanted, did you look back to see if you were a good little boy or girl? Uh Huh!

The indoor track season began on February 4 with the regular running of the Discovery Day meet. Rhodians such as DALE BUSSMAN, JOE ONDICH, BOB MEEHAN, and CHUCK MISSIG displayed their running ability.

In our 9A semester ROBERT FELTES edited the first issue of the JUNIOR JOURNAL. New members to be added to the post were JACK BELCHER and DAN GRAF.

On February 8, 1948, JIM STAFFORD won the 220 and 440 to become Junior Boys' Champ in the Great Lakes Open Skating Championship held at Jamestown, New York.

On Monday, February 2, it finally happened. The girls' new gymnasium was finally opened. That ended the girls' gym periods in the boys' gymnasium.

Miss Forrey's homeroom 106 and Miss Ord's homeroom 206 tied for first place for perfect attendance.

On March 12 and 13 DAVID KEARNS and ALAN BRANDES participated in the city-wide music solo and ensemble contests; Dave playing the violin and Alan the piano. Incidentally both received first ratings.

In the March 16 issue of the RHODES REVIEW, we saw the valley ball team of the faculty "bloomer boys" in action. Such celebrities as MIRACULOUS MORAN, FLASH FOLKMAN, JOVIAL JACOB, JOLTING JOE STEVENS, BATTLING BOB SIFRITT, SMASHING SCHMIDT and HOP-A-LEG CASIDY (Oops, we mean HOFFMAN) had their picture plastered on the sports page. They had the audacity to say that they could play and beat any group that had the fortitude to stand-up against them.

LOUISE ANN HAROLD and MARTHA HUNTER had to collect 100 pennies before the formal initiation of the Library Club.

Publicity charman for the Band and Orchestra Club for the 9A semester was JUDY MALLO.

The April 1 edition of the "Roads Revoo" was a humdinger of a paper. It took quite a bit of time to read that issue. Stories were upside down, sideways, backwards and, oh, all ways.

The Applachikolas made up of JEAN BEVACQUA, SHIRLEY BOCKLUND, JUDY GOMPFF, JOAN JEDACEK, PAT LEINE, GERRY MAZUREK, DONNA MAE REESE, VIRGINIA RUFFING, ELLEN SMITH, and EMMA TOEPFER were defeated by a score of 60-24 by the Pocomocos on Wednesday, April 6 in the girls' gym.

GIL REIS was the only one from our class to be elected into the Boys' Leaders Club, April 9, 1948.

Then, of course, you remember the Duncan? Maybe this will give you a hint, "If it isn't a Duncan it isn't a — — — —."

One day during the month of April a select group of Mr. Gaiser's biology class laid their books aside and went to Clark's Aquarium to study the flora and fauna in hydrogen hydroxide.

The Spring Carnival of 1948, after many rehearsals, finally got under way on May 20 and 21. The boys from Miss Keller's musical production "Nine Period Daze" changed scenes and sang simultaneously. From our class the boys were BOB MIDLIK, JOE ONDICH, EMIL POLKABLA, DON MCKAY, JOHN CHONACKI and DON ARNDT.

Did you try your skill at the "Bean Bag Toss"?

The quartet of HENDERSON, TANKO, SCHMIDT, and HARTZELL was entertaining at the performance also.

VIRGINIA RUFFING was the only Girls' Leader to be taken into that club from our 9A class.

Three members of our class became REVIEW reporters at the beginning of the 10B semester. They were JUDY MALLO, DONNA MAE REESE, and SALLY WEIN. BOB SUDYK switched to Calvert. Oh, no!—he switched to sports reporting.

The first officers of the Speech Club, sponsored by Mr. Spargrove, were BOB MEEHAN, president; DON KINZER, vice-president; BEVERLY DIXON, secretary; BOB DZIAK, treasurer; VIVIAN ALLEN and DALE BUSSMAN, social co-chairmen.

MAESTRO KEARNS won a scholarship to the Cleveland Institute of Music we discovered on October 13, 1948. The violin he played was a Vuillaume worth $2000.

SALLY WEIN and DOLORES CHITESTER were elected into the Library Club on October 19, 1948.

JOE ONDICH suffered a broken arm in the opening reserve football game of the '48 season.

The Bronze Room is still housed in Hotel Cleveland; the Blue Room is only a song title; Hotel Carter has its Rainbow Room, and the Green Room is at the White House, but in the month of October of '48, Rhodes' students began to boast of the various colored rooms throughout the school. That was the time Jimmy Rhodes finally got his badly needed washing.

The Appalachikolas consisting of CAROLE ROSCH, ELAYNE SAHLEY, JO ANN SLOTE, and other volley-ball enthusiasts clinched the Senior League volley ball championship by defeating the Lucky Nine.

By being initiated into the Latin Club on October 28, 1948, ROSE LITTURI and DAN GRAF proved themselves worthy citizens of Rome.

We are proud to reveal that EMILIA and EMMA MANCINI were one of the six sets of twins attending Rhodes that semester.

LOIS MIZANTY represented Rhodes in the pageant of queens at the 18th annual Plain Dealer Charity Football Game on Saturday, November 27, 1948.

The girls' modern dancing classes voted NANCY MASCHUCK as one of the best polkateers.

We attributed that "lean look" either to the high priced food in the cafeteria or the wrestling team.

In our 10A semester we were pleased to see a new kind of report cards.

RON WALSH lost no time in getting into the Rhodes Bowling Club.

The following were initiated Saturday, May 21, at the Y. W. C. A. into the German Club: DALE BUSSMAN, MARY JANE COPSHAKE, SHIRLEY CUMMINGS, JOAN DOMBEY, ROBERT MEEHAN, ROBERT MIDLIK, JANE MUSCHNA, ED RETYCH, and EMMA TOEPFER.

Honors went on June 1 to JEANETTE POLENSCHAT for the baseball throw; PAT LEINE, for the 50-yard dash. The relay team of POLENSCHAT, LEINE and JURINA, triumphed in the relays.

Then, of course, we all remember that fluent anthropologist, Dr. Ethyl Ampenfels, who spoke to Rhodians on Thursday, June 2 with respect to inter-racial relations.

The "adopted" school in Oostburg, Holland was to send tulip bulbs to us in appreciation for our sending clothing and school supplies to their school.

At the close of our 10A semester we said good-bye to "Dear Ruth" and "Change of Pace" and the picnics with the Big Creek "drench."

JOE KOSTAL was off to New York for a three day stay just as soon as the doors of Rhodes had closed for the summer. He went in co-operation with the Sokol Organization of America to compete in the national track and gymnastics meet.

The initial start of our junior year found RON WARZEL and KATHLEEN PIETRAS assisting on the B-R Canteen Committee, and three new teachers, Mr. Quayle, Mr. Scott, and Mr. Van Nortwick, having been added to the faculty.

Let's now take a look at the boy's gym activities. We found that RON WALSH and NEIL KUHN possessed high scores in bowling. GIL REIS, who is more commonly known as "Gildo," was written up as a personality in the REVIEW under the title "Ram Football Players."

This semester the lollipops displaced the Ye-Ye-Yo-Yo and bubble gum. Everywhere one looked he saw frustrated freshmen, silly sophomores, jerky juniors and studios seniors merrily licking their lollipops. And according to the Lollipop Unlimited Fan Club, "Lollipops are the best (shlurp) candies on the market."

Mr. Martin's 11B boys led in the Community Chest drive with an average gift of 77 cents per person. Miss Ord's 11B girls homeroom ranked second as a result of their successful bake sale.

The Y-Teen held a doll auction at which Mr. Hoffman was the auctioneer on November 17, 1949, for the benefit of the World Fellowship Fund. GRETCHEN WILSON and JANE MUSCHNA dressed dolls that represented Hawaii and Holland.

The Speech Club decided to increase their membership by admitting DON MILNE, MARY JANE COPSHAKE, NADINE KOVEL, and JOY LOUDON into the club. Probably the Boys' Leaders and the Girls' Leaders had the same idea since BOB MEEHAN, RON MENCINI, ED RETYCH, DICK KADLECK, DOROTHY McAULEY, and JOAN DOMBEY were elected into those clubs.

By now DALE BUSSMAN joined the ranks of boys and girls who were written up as personalities in the REVIEW.

The German Club elected EMMA TOEPFER and CAROLE ROSCH, secretary and social chairman respectively.

In a poll that was taken by the RHODES REVIEW for the purpose of obtaining more news, RICHARD GWAREK and GERRY STAUSE declared that the REVIEW was interesting in general and that there is little to be done to improve it.

An engraved metal serving tray, designed by EUGENE LEWAŃDOWSKI, on which is pictured a typical farm scene, was awarded a place in the National Industrial Arts Contest. Another contest winner was GLENN BORDEN who took second place in the Tax Stamp Guessing Contest, sponsored by the Student Council.

We peeked in a note book which contained the excuses of pupils who were late that semester. Some of the various excuses were: "Our ceiling fell in," "There was no one at home to wake me," and "I had to feed the goldfish before I left home." We discovered in the REVIEW personalities on movie attendants that HELEN KRAYNAK dislikes people who shorten her first name and that DONNA MALLOCK can't stand chicken.

Before the close of the 11B semester, PAT LEINE, VIRGINIA RUFFING, and EMMA TOEPFER received their second award, a chanille "R," for achieving 300 points in athletics.

During our 11A semester the idea of using "bullet boxes" as purses was the fad among the girls. Peering through the "purses" with ex-ray eyes, we saw the ammunition which included: pancake make-up with a dripping sponge, a brilliant shade of "Cozy Rozy" lipstick, a cake of ultra-violet rouge, mascara, tooth brush, comb, a bulging billfold, glasses, and various other incidentals.

HELEN ROHDE, BETTY MANN, GERRY STAUSE, and DOLORES MALINOSKY were added to the REVIEW staff as typists.

On February 27, we elected our first class officers. They were RON WARZEL, president; DALE BUSSMAN, vice-president; JANE MUSCHNA, secretary; GIL REIS, treasurer; and VIVIAN ALLEN, social chairman. The social committee was composed of VIRGINIA RUFFING, JEAN BEVACQUA, JUNE BRYKNER, NANCY MASCHUK, RICHARD KADLECK, RAY KARP, and ART VAN DYKE.

PATSY MORTACH'S name appeared in the "Did You Know?" column of the REVIEW. At that time she had three pedigreed collies and about sixty canaries of different types.

Various clubs elected members of our class to the ranks of membership. PETE VERCHIO became a member of the Foreman's Club, while CHARLENE BEBO and IRMA HARTEL become members of the Library Club on April 13. MARILYN MILLER, LOIS MIZANTY, LYDIA NIKISHIN, GERALDINE STANCZYK were initiated into the Home Economics Club about the same time.

On March 2, JANET PINKLEY and LYDIA NIKISHIN were two of the four Rhodes students who gave a panel on etiquette for teen-agers at the South Brooklyn Branch Library.

CLYDE SIMPSON was the lone Rhodian to reach the finals of the State Wrestling Tourney in 1950. A posture contest for girls was held during March. MARY JANE COPSHAKE, SHIRLEY BOCKLUND, and HELEN ROHDE represented the three 11A homerooms.

BOB MEEHAN received a certificate of merit for his auto-biographical sketch that he entered in the Regional Scholastic Writing Contest.

VIRGINIA RUFFING was elected president of the Senior Y-Teens. Other officers were MARY FORREST, vice-president; VIVIAN ALLEN, secretary; and DONNA REESE, treasurer.

A spring play was presented April 13 and 14. In the play "Mother Is a Freshman" BEVERLY DIXON, ED RETYCH, ELAYNE SAHLEY, JEANETTE POLENSCHAT, and ELLEN SMITH portrayed various parts. Two operettas, "Trial by Jury" and "Cox and Box," and a German play, "Wirrwarr Fuhrwahr," which is adapted from the Shakesperian play "Comedy of Errors," were also presented by the students. DAVID KEARNS, ELAYNE SAHLEY, MARY JANE COPSHAKE, NADINE KOVEL, DOROTHY McAULEY, GLENN BORDEN, DON McKAY, JOHN CHONACKI, JOY LOUDON, JANE MUSCHNA, VIRGINIA RUFFING, VIVIAN ALLEN, JOAN DOMBEY, DONNA JARINA, EMILIA MANCINI, PAT MATE, GERALDINE MAZUREK, MARILYN NEUZIL, DON MILNE and JOE ONDICH appeared in the cast of "Trial by Jury." DONNA MAE REESE, JANE MUSCHNA, DON McKAY, ROBERT FELTES, RAY KARP, JO ANN SLOTE, and EMMA TOEPFER had roles in the German play.

After a primary vote, the Student Council race for president narrowed down to BOB FELTES and DALE BUSSMAN with Dale winning out. Dale's campaign promises were to revive the track and football queen contests, to have a soda fountain in the cafeteria, and to have a fund raising campaign for new auditorium curtains.

The Hayseed Hop, sponsored by the Student Council, was the first record dance held at Rhodes in five semesters.

Along about this time ROSEMARIE FREIHEIT transferred to Parma Schaaf but transferred back to Rhodes two days later (Guess she didn't like it there).

According to a poll that was conducted at Rhodes in May, 435 of our 1,229 scholars were being schooled in the higher learning of television. These fans can be divided into four categories. First, there were those who were determined to see a favorite show and let nothing stand in their way; secondly, there were those who became richer every night by charging admission; thirdly, there were those who possessed a T. V. set but hogged it to themselves; and lastly, there were those who had given up and just dreamed about "Kukla, Fran, and Ollie." DON KINZER said he possessed a long list of T. V. owners within a mile radius of his home. He wouldn't miss wrestling for anything. "Toast of the Town" ranked high with JERRY RIFFLE and JANET PINKLEY.

Orchestra members who received five semester pins were ALAN BRANDES, DAVID KEARNS, and JUDY MALLO; band members who received five semester letters were DON ARNDT, MICHAEL KERESMAN, TOM LAMOUREAUX, PAT LEINE, JOY LOUDON, and BOB VAN DYKE.

ELAYNE SAHLEY was quoted in the REVIEW as saying that after graduation she hoped to make "oodles of money."

On May 26, the Citizens Club held their annual banquet, financed by the Student Council. New members who were present were BARBARA HOYER, NADINE KOVAL, JANE MUSCHNA, JOE ONDICH, and ED RETYCH.

GIL REIS pitched two shutouts in softball on June 2, 1950, to give room 308 the softball championship. He gave up three hits in the first game and one hit in the second game. Also, he led the school in earned run average with 1.9.

Pastel-colored roses and streamers decorated the boys' gym for our first informal, "The Junior Rose Festival," in June. This ended our junior year.

The 12B semester marked the lowest enrollment of 1182 that was ever recorded at Rhodes.

New officers of the Library Club were MARTHA HUNTER, president; LOUISE HAROLD, vice-president; and IRMA HARTEL, secretary.

On September 13, JUNE BRYKNER was elected to the position of secretary to the Student Council.

The Boys' Leaders elected GIL REIS, president; RON WARZEL, vice-president; DALE BUSSMAN, treasurer. This club started a younger chapter, the "Junior Leaders."

During the summer of '50, Mr. Mathews was appointed head of the Senate Athletic Council.

According to the Girls' Leaders initiation a new race had appeared. Everyone was fuschia, especially CAROL OLSON.

We welcomed heartily the new cheerleaders. They were marvelous, stupendous! But where were the cheers?

DALE BUSSMAN was elected president of the National Honor Society in October of '50. MARTHA GREGOR was elected secretary of the Latin Club; BOB MIDLIK and RAY KARP, were treasurer and social chairman of the German Club respectively.

IRENE CHIPINKA and DAN GRAF went to the Cleveland Junior Chamber of Commerce in October to give five-minute talks on democracy.

Mr. Jacob's modern problems class visited the Payne Avenue police station on October 23 and 24.

JOHN SPYAK'S name was seen in the personality column of the REVIEW in the November 8, '50, issue under the caption "Quiet Joes."

Remember the time DON KINZER backed the car of the driving class into a snowbank?

A science program by the General Motors Co., brought here through the efforts of Mr. Merriam, physics teacher, was given the 8th period, November 7.

The National Honor Society inducted SALLY WEIN, JO ANN SLOTE, ROSE LITTURI, JUNE BRYKNER, DON KINZER, and DAN GRAF into its organization on November 14.

Remember that Thanksgiving Party the German Club scheduled for November 24 which was during the "big snow"? It was canceled too late to prevent MISS THIEME and BOB MIDLIK from holding the bag. Miss Thieme had cooked potatoes for forty people and Bob had to use 8 dozen of A & P's best donuts in some way or the other.

BOB MEEHAN, president of the Citizens' Club, with the help of JO ANN SLOTE, RON WARZEL, and others led an assembly to bring to the attention of the students the rules which the Citizens' Club has had to carry out.

The 12B Chemistry class looked forward to find out what new horrors would happen to JEAN BEVACQUA in lab.

When the first issue of the RHODES REVIEW came out on February 14, 1951, it was learned that SALLY WEIN was the new editor. Other seniors on the staff were BOB SUDYK, sports editor; PAT MATE, exchange editor; JUDY MALLO, reporter; LOUISE HAROLD, MARILYN MILLER and DOLORES CHITESTER, typists; ALLEN SCHROEDER, staff photographer; and BOB CAMPBELL, staff artist.

On January 24, the girls athletic awards assembly was held. MARTHA GREGOR, DONNA JARINA, and JEAN LYTLE received their second awards, a diamond shaped "R" for earning 200 points. VIRGINIA RUFFING was awarded the gold Girls A. A. pin for making 500 points in gym activities.

GREGOR, and DAVID KEARNS were elected vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively. The Library Club elected SALLY WEIN for president and MARTHA HUNTER for vice-president.

On February 9, 1951, the seniors voted on their class officers. RON WARZEL was elected class president for the third consecutive time, which, incidentally, has happened only three times before in the history of Rhodes. ART VAN DYKE, JO ANN SLOTE, and CLYDE SIMPSON were elected vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively. VIVIAN ALLEN was chosen social chairman, and her committee consisted of ELAINE ALBERS, MARTHA GREGOR, RAY BICKIMER, DICK KADLECK, and LARRY BRENNER.

ELAYNE SAHLEY was the only soprano, and also the only Rhodian who took first rating in the Senior High Vocal Contest on February 24, at West High. JANE MUSCHNA and DON McKAY received second ratings.

CLYDE SIMPSON and DICK MACK entered the State Wrestling Tournament in March, but Clyde came in third in his class. ELAINE ALBERS, ROGER LAWRENCE, and JOAN NEILSON received keys in the North Eastern Ohio Regional Scholastic Art Exhibition, which made them eligible for national competition.

On February 21, 1951, the girls' sewing circles and the boys' brotherhood societies, having bought their tickets, attended the senate playoff for the city championship in basketball. We saw TED ZOLA, RICHARD LOREK, and BOB MEEHAN warming up before the game which was to run into extra time. Wasn't that an exciting game? At the end of the fourth quarter, Rhodes and Latin were tied 49-49. However, in the extra time Latin netted a shot and won 52-50. That was surely a swell game.

The Home Economics Club initiated JEAN SLATER, JEAN SCHMALTZ, RUTH SCHWEITZER, RUTH DZANDONY, and ELEANOR PETERS into its organization. On March 14 the National Honor Society held an impressive ceremony at which DONNA MAE REESE, DOROTHY McAULEY, RAY KARP, CHARLES MISSIG, BOB MEEHAN, FREIDA NOSS, and MARTHA HUNTER were inducted.

After pictures were collected from LA VERNE SEDLACEK, DOROTHY SHOWVER, MARCILYN WINCHILL, BERNICE INAMAN, RICHARD UHER, JOYCE BUNCH, and a host of others the activity pages for this yearbook finally got started.

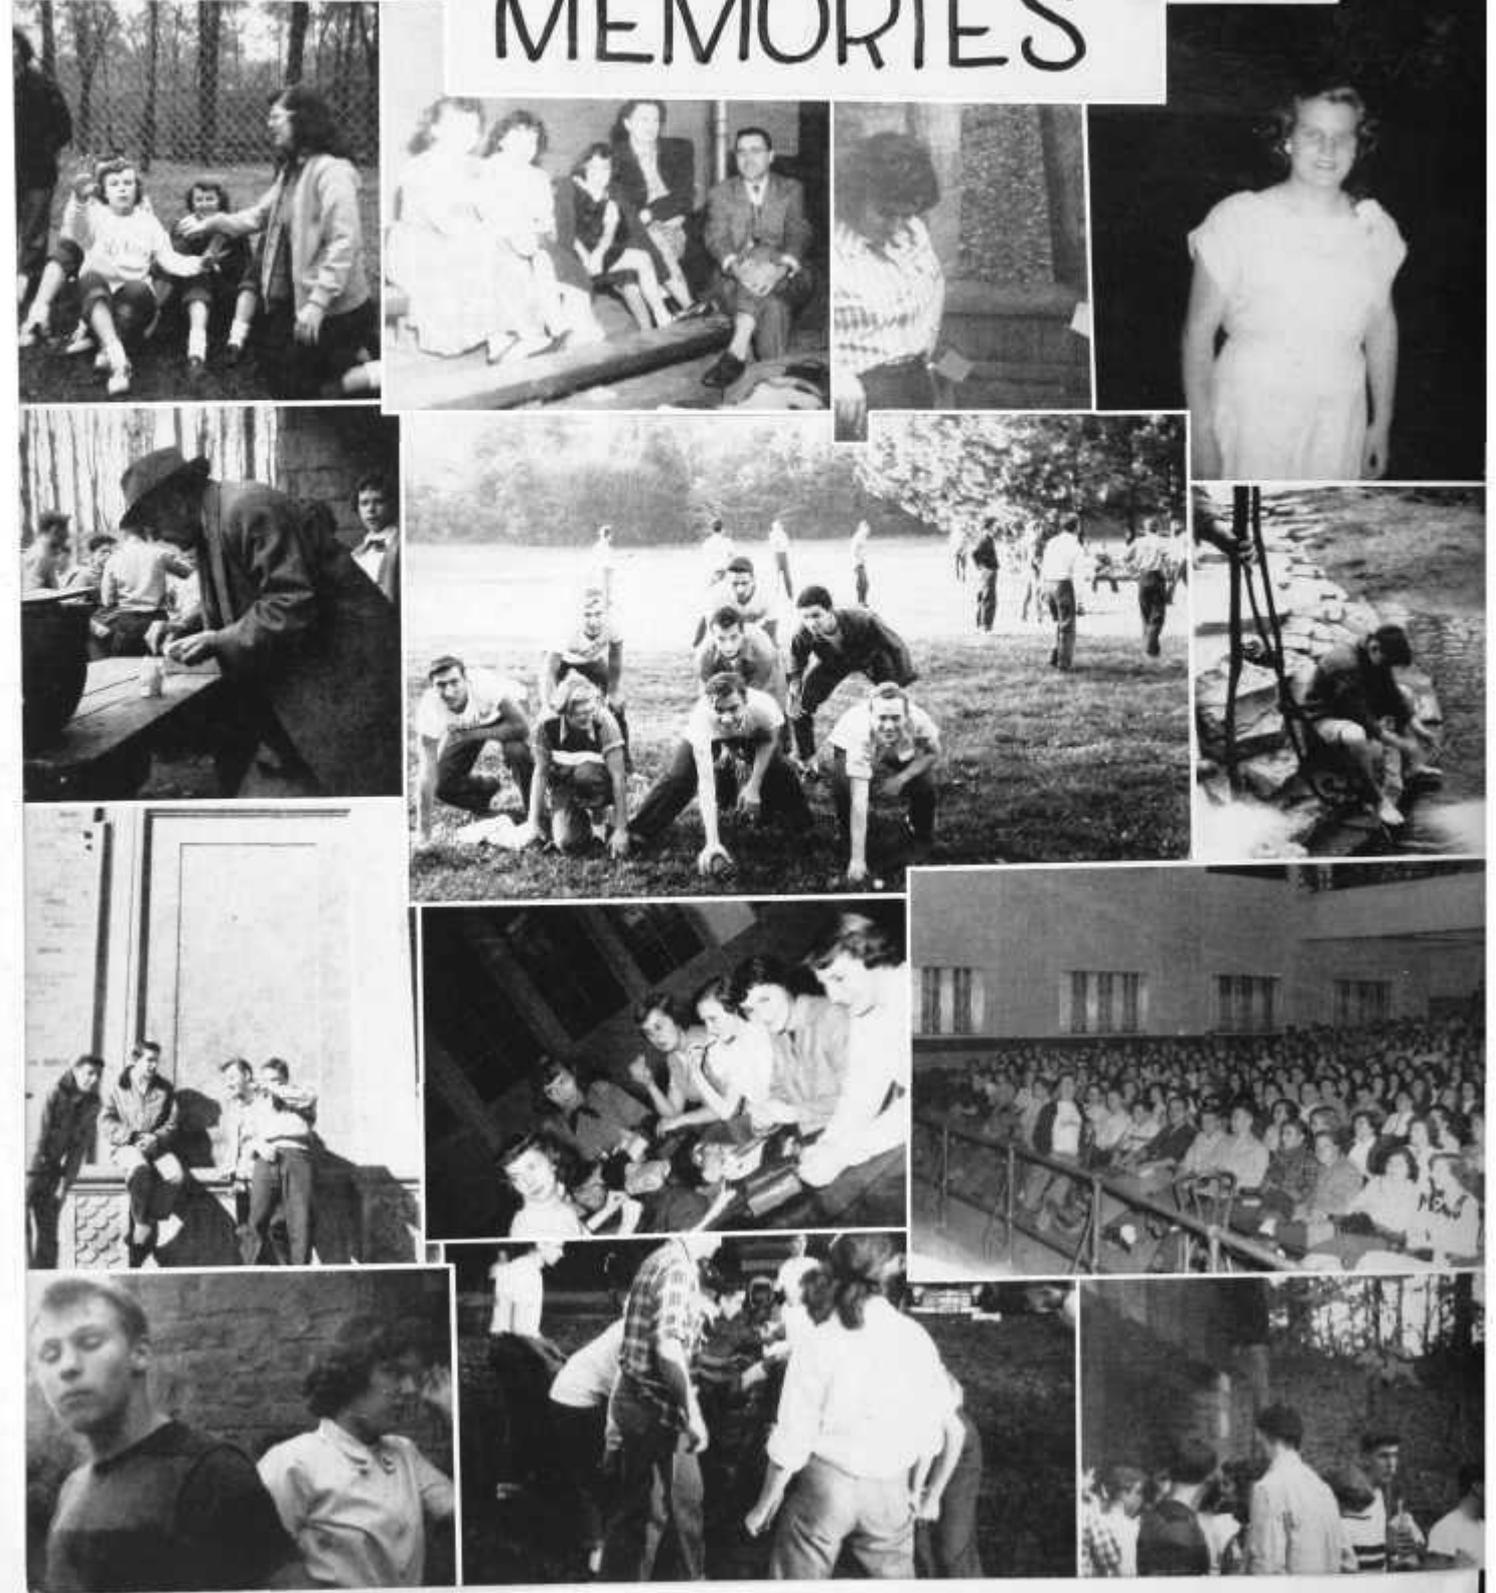

The senior class held its informal on April 7, its picnic on May 9, its prom on June 2, and its class day on June 8. Graduation, which was held at the Masonic Temple on June 12, meant work for some, college for others, and marriage for still others. But we musn't forget the other members of the class whom we haven't mentioned as yet. They are ROBERT BECKMAN, EARL BETTINGER, BARBARA THIERGARTNER, ALICE WERBA, PAUL DZIAK, EDWARD FERTAL, RONALD GREINERT, JUNE MICKOL, BETTY HREHOCIK, LAVERNE KISS, MICHAEL TOMASHESKE, JESSE VAN BUREN, JAMES WALZAK, JOAN BIGGS, HELEN CHRISTENSEN, FRANCINE GIRARD, PHYLLIS HARBART, JUNE NOTTKE, CARITA RUSSELL, LAVERNE RYBACK, JOHN HOMOLA, JOHN KOTHANEK, WALTER LEIGHT, JACK MUSSELMAN, ROBERT NEDRICH, JOAN PERRELL, LOIS BRANNON, EMMA FERENCE, LOIS KRIEDMAN, JOAN NIELSON, and JOE ONDUS.

APPROXIMATELY

MR. BILL SCOTT

Mr. William Scott, faculty manager here at James Ford Rhodes, was an eight letterman in high school. He won two monograms as a West Tech gridder, three as a Warrior thinclad and another three on the hardwood squad. Bill's career culminated when he graduated from Tech in 1929, for it was in that year he became State 220-yard low hurdle champ. He started his teaching career in 1937 at William Dean Howell Junior High where he taught printing. Early in the war he was asked to help out in coaching basketball at his Alma Mater. So, beginning in 1941, he started the day at W. D. H. Junior High and finished up by coaching basketball in the West Tech Gym. Then, in 1946 he moved to West High to act as assistant-coach for the Cowboys' gridiron and thinclad squads and as head basketball coach. This faculty manager and coach has a great future ahead of him at Rhodes or wherever he may be.

FOOTBALL

Left to right, front row: Case, Dall, Rocco, Dosky, Reis, Revilock, Buescher, Galmarini, Leyritz. Second row: Kasner, Winkleman, Warzel, Wenz, Sotak, Metro, Schenk, Budko, Weisand, Egna. Third row: Kothanek, Crjsafi, Schieve, Guzik, Tekesky, B. Platt, R. Platt, Kratovil, Lawrence, Baldwin. Fourth row: Coach Moran, Coach Stott, Coach Quayle, Kurtz, Managers Bryanton, Jenkins, Wilke.

HEAD COACH

Coach Moran

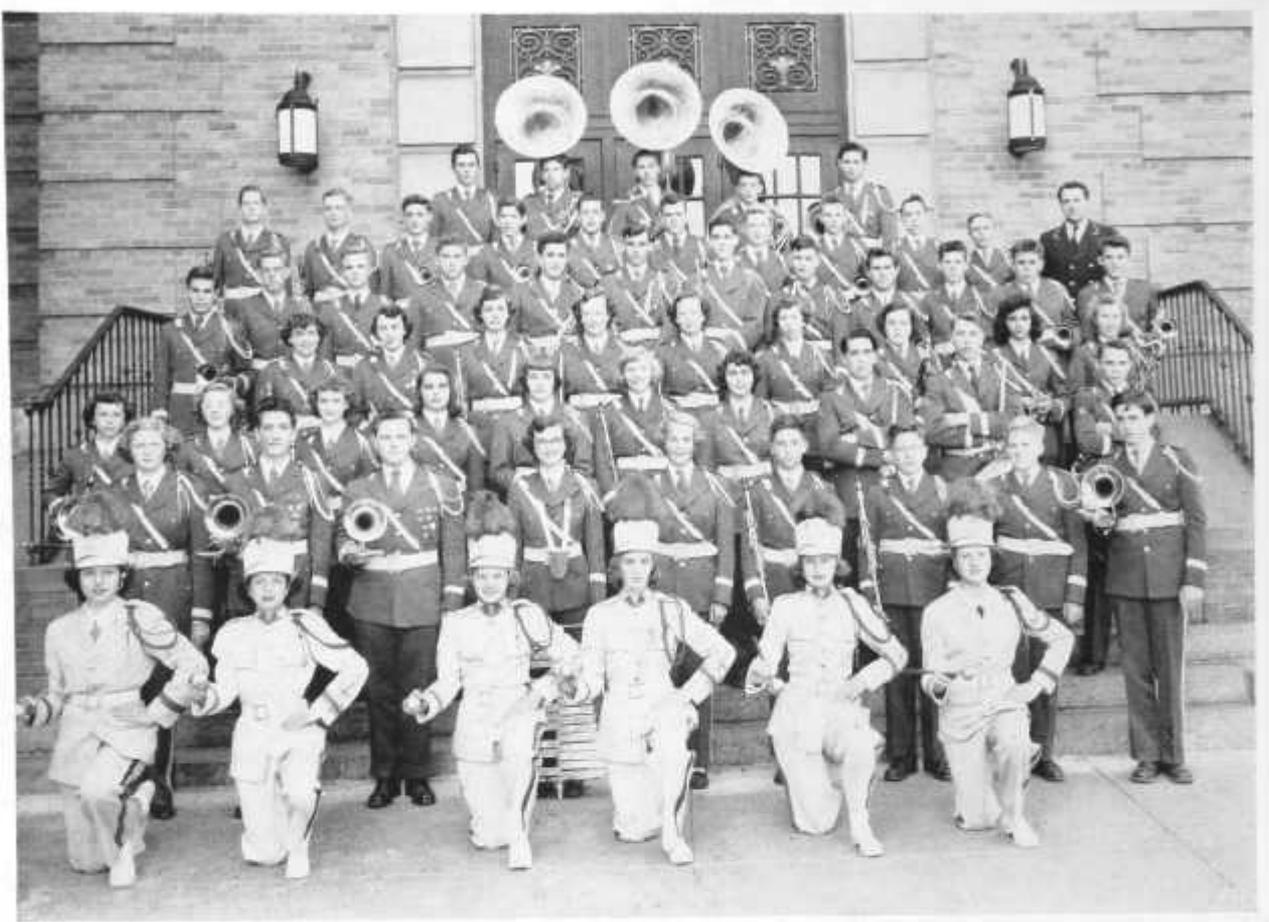

Veteran Coach Andy Moran has been head coach since 1946 when he returned from the U. S. Navy. Before he entered the navy he was assistant football and basketball coach here at Rhodes. He attended West High School here in Cleveland where he won eight monograms on the gridiron and hardwood. He also played basketball and football at Wittenberg College in 1938. The high point of his high school coaching career was 1947 when he led the squad to the West Senate Championship.

REMARKS

The local gridgers completed a .500 season last year and finished third in senate competition. The squad was a young one with nineteen fellows eligible for next fall's squad. Senior members graduating this June are Case, Dall, Reise, Winkleman, Warzel, Kothanek and Schieve. Mr. Moran, head coach, is looking forward to a championship for next year. Mr. Scott is faculty manager and helps Mr. Moran and assistant coach Quayle with the squad. Although the squad failed to win a championship they have gained both physically, mentally and morally.

The 1950-51 hardwood season will be well remembered by Coach Vannorsdall and our class as one of the outstanding in his long coaching career. Mr. Vannorsdall immediately commenced to show his coaching ability in 1919 at Fremont High School where they were twice champs of the Little Big League. Then he transferred to Washington High where his basketball team won the title in the Central Ohio League. Next he pulled up stakes and took over football, track, and basketball at Akron East High. Coach Van lost only four grid battles in his four years there. He also led the track team to two city titles and his basketball teams were runners-up twice for the State Championships and tied twice for city laurels.

Then Van came to Cleveland West Tech in 1930 and built up a team which tied for the Senate Basketball title. In 1935 he came to Rhodes.

From 1936-1938 the Ram pigskin teams were unbeaten in 22 games when West Tech broke the string 20-0 before 18,000 spectators here at Rhodes field. He coached such stars as Les Horvath, All-American from Ohio State and former halfback for the Cleveland Browns, and Bill Putich, presently the Michigan quarterback captain, and Ralph Armstrong, Ohio State end.

What factor has made Van successful in his years of coaching? It has been his keen interest in sports, a wealth of knowledge, and his many years of experience.

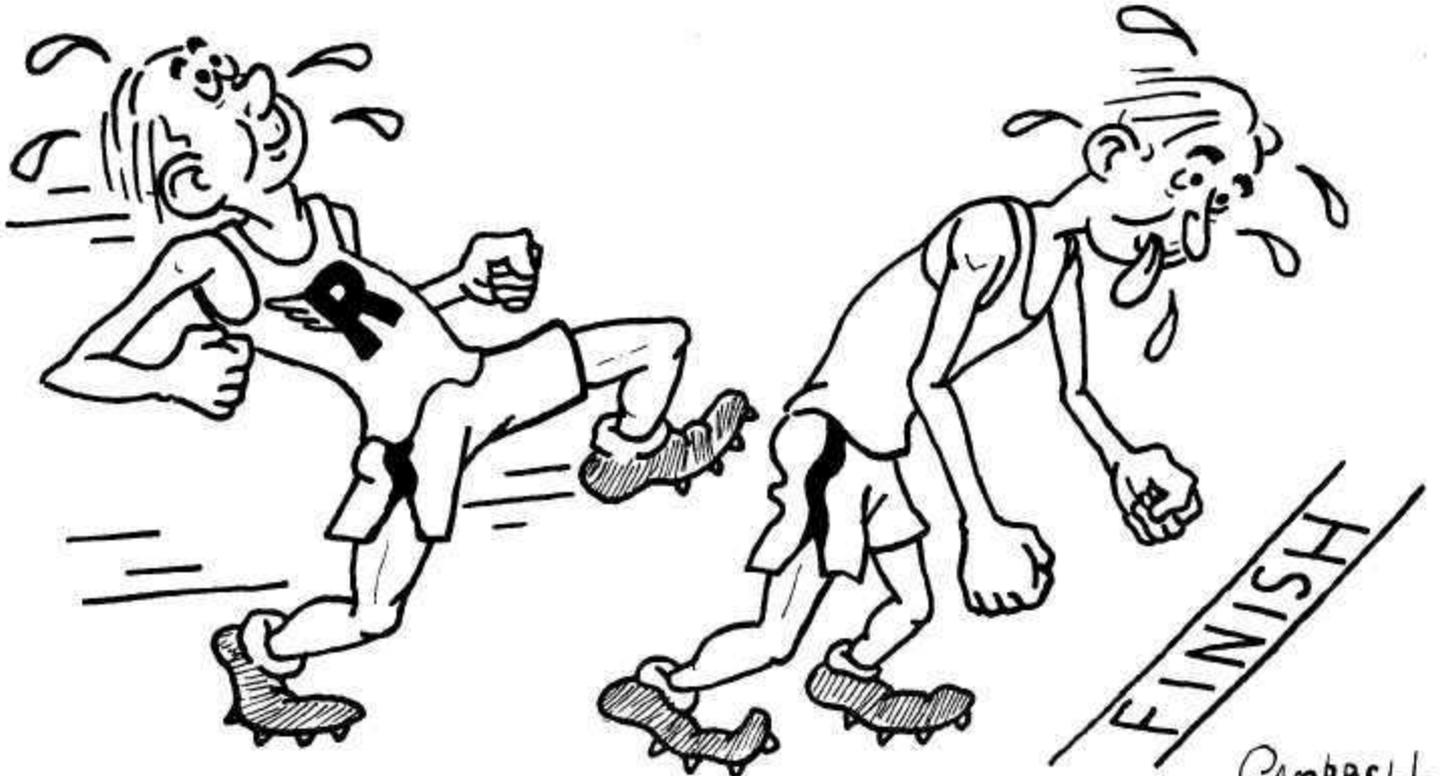

He graduated from Antioch College with 12 letters in the three major sports: football, basketball, and baseball.

Since Rhodes took up basketball in 1933, the local teams have won 52 percent of their encounters. Eleven of these battles were lost by one point. In the last seven years the locals have copped 50 out of 78 games in that span for a percentage of 64.

To show you the power of our cage squads in the past five years, Rhodes has won 28 Senate battles and lost only 7.

Class Prophecy

Wissssssh! We're stepping into our atomic time machine which will take us into the future. The dials are set for June 12, 1975. Herrrrr we gooooooooooooo.

The destination is the now famous restaurant, "High Heaven"—six months, two weeks, and four days' journey. This now fabulous place adorned in crepe paper and cut slips, with isinglass windows is open wide in expectation of this great event—the reunion of the class of 1951.

First to dent the threshold is TOM LAMOUREUX with pad and pencil in hand—he's finishing the final draft of the 1951 class prophecy.

GIL "Big Swede" LARSEN tries to pack his lumber ax away before he starts reviewing old acquaintances.

DON KINZER, the famous M.D., has just arrived with a large display of bi-carbonate of soda which he will administer to each guest upon leaving.

"BERNIE" INEMAN has come to show us her ring. Is this the one she started at dear old J. F. R.?

The fabulous arm chair strategist especially appointed to assist General MacArthur is none other than CAPTAIN GERALD RIFFLE.

ELAYNE SAHLEY, famous songwriter, has come to thrill us with her finally completed blues ballad, "My Johnny."

BOB DZIAK is looking for a new job, television seemed to be the Nemesis of the Broadvue Theater.

Still crying is JACK BELCHER because of the 99 he received in sewing.

We see "MARTY" GREGOR, head of 33 nursing schools still complaining, "Gees Man, the prices are high"; as she pays her taxi fare.

Trigger-finger GWAREK and associate Baby-face GREINERT are now top men in the Chicago underworld; both spend most of their time keeping away from the Kefauver Committee.

LAVERNE "LILLY" RYBAK has taken leave from her school of Fundamentals in Modesty (??) to accompany her three best pupils, ELEANOR FANSLAU, ROSEMARIE HUSAK and DOROTHY SHAWVER.

LARRY BRENNER has just established himself as Einstein's predecessor by his revolution of the theory of nuclear fission.

MARY JANE COPSHAKE, ace pediatrician, is asking, "Has anyone seen Mr. Hoffman?"

GIL REIS arrives with his 8 year old son who has just been expelled from the third grade for not shaving.

PAUL (Morton) DZIAK goes back to Uniontown, Pa., decides that, after 25 years, big-city life is not for him.

BOB "SOCKS" MIDLIK, Uniontown kid, has just completed his onion town dictionary defining 'youns,' 'did ju-ever,' etc.

The two gold dust twins—NEIL and JUNE KUHNS arrived kind of late, but they're still ready to entertain us.

In walks BOB CASE who has worn out six pairs of size 13D's, as he decided to walk all the way from his Dogpatch home.

The late VIVIAN ALLEN has willed her class ring to anyone who can find it. (Clue: in the proximity of May Company.)

RICHARD MACK and RICHARD UHER are seeking their fortune by supervising activities at JOHN CHONACKI'S Gymnasium.

Multi-millionaire JOHN HOMOLA makes it a point to hand out "C"-notes with every handshake as he greets old classmates.

Little CHARLENE BEBO peep, has lost her sheep and don't know where to find them.

After 25 years of study the class just has found out ARNDT ain't in the dictionary. There's a switch.

Footballer BILL SCHEIVE took time out to wash off the last piece of mud from the West High game just so he could attend our reunion.

We notice that MISS VIRGINIA ROSE G. G. RUFFING'S face turned a pretty crimson as she hears that Mr. Hoffman is to be our guest speaker.

DICK LOREK arrives all smiles because the long drink of water he took during the arena cage tilt (strictly on the level) has finally reached his feet.

A big commotion is heard outside—BOB FELTES, now director of the Smithsonian Institute, is offering JOE ONDICH one million dollars to donate his car. (By the way, that is the same car which we all made fun of back in '51.)

PAT LEINE is making her home in Florida due to many unfortunate incidents in her hometown. Her homecoming was requested by BEVERLY DIXON whose newest trailer has arrived.

All eyes focus on the door as LOIS KRIEDMAN enters. Although she has completed several modeling courses she is still the same old Lois.

BOB BECKMEN has just come up with a reply to Mr. Hartzell's question on wit and humor.

NANCY REYNOLDS has a lifetime contract with Cleveland Zoological Park keeping house on monkey island.

Put on your sales resistance because the famed Fuller Brush salesman, RAY "FOX" BICKIMER is here to entertain us with his sample case and a few selected traveling salesman's jokes.

A little late, but not last, DALE BUSSMAN comes jogging in from South America building bridges all the way. JOE "THE HUNK" KOSTAL has just completed a gymnastic tour of Czechoslovakia which was made via hot rod.

MIKE KERESMAN and JOHN KOTHANEK, reformed pyromaniacs, have been elected to the positions of president and vice-president respectively, of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees.

JOAN BIGGS comes in with a book in her hand. At long last she's learned the first word in the Word Wealth Book.

News has arrived from the famous Berlin zoological garden that "DER THIERGARTNER" will be unable to attend due to a sick lion. Any relative to BARBARA?

RON MENCINI has just been let out of the bird house after 25 years in captivity.

SHIRLEY BOCKLUND drives up in her father's car. After 25 years of hearing her voice he finally gave in.

DAVID KEARNS and ALAN BRANDES just came in, however they will not be able to stay long. They have to catch a plane, as they have an engagement at Carnegie Hall.

MANAGER JIM CRITES is wearing his whites, and is expected to help DR. KINZER with the psychoneurotics.

ROGER "THE LODGER" LAWRENCE is still soliciting orders for name cards by God.

Congratulations are in order for the trio of CHITESTER, FERRENCE, and JEDACEK who are celebrating silver wedding anniversaries this year.

The contented kid, GLENN BORDEN, has just arrived with the last thing in cows—they're pasteurized. ALLEN DALL, the foreign interpreter, has just arrived with his universal greeting "morti baba-titti lala."

FRIEDA NOSS has given up telling Personal Regimen classes about St. Luke's Hospital and is now talking to JUNE BRYKNER who is an avid listener. She in turn wants to talk about Dave's expedition.

Another one of the BUNCH has just arrived—JOYCE that is.

After 25 years SHIRLEY CUMMINGS has finally earned a master's degree in her life's work—stagecraft.

We see RUTH DZADONY must have been shopping—she's loaded down with packages. Taking advantage of Consumer Education, eh, Ruthie?

The sports fans at this confab are currently being seen mobbing BOB "WHITEY" SUDYK, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Press, trying to get the latest word on the hometown Indians.

The heavy word is that ROSE MARIE FREIHEIT has won a job as secretary for JOHN D. LEWANDOWSKI, Plastics millionaire.

BARBARA HOYER is employed at a pet shop. As you may remember, she had a lot of experience working with birds.

Hey gang, if anyone wants to step out in style, here's your chance. In the distance we see MADMAN DELMONICO and his string of convertibles.

Unable to tear herself away from the familiar surroundings, LOIS BRANNON has accepted the job of waitress at "High Heaven."

IRENE CHIPINKA surprised us. She arrived late but the fact remains that she was never late 25 years ago.

MARY FORREST'S presence is immediately noted because of the fact that everyone now possesses a new pair of shoes. "Sis" has a partnership in Harden's.

Eyes turn toward the entrance in time to see Washington bound RON WARZEL, sparring a few hours from his presidential campaign, arrive to meet his old constituents.

JOAN DOMBEY and SHEILA GALLAGHER are now combining their talents to operate a first aid station in Berea.

Unfortunately, ED. FERTAL will be unable to stick around for the second round of Skudburgers, he has a heavy date tonight.

FRANCINE GIRARD doesn't know too much about boats but she can sure recognize a Skipper when she sees one.

JUDY GOMPF is sporting a complete R. R. outfit. It's a bonus for 25 years of loyal service.

RON WALSH, the now famous Kegler, has just defeated Andy Varapapa in the National Bowling Congress finals.

The Sewing Circle says that LOUISE HERALD married the wealthy John D. Tribune and is now part owner in a famous Scandal sheet.

We find JOHN SPYAK now employed at the Toe-Knee-Chest-Nut Lumber yard. He is still looking for the Board of Education.

The boys at the soda bar say that classmate, the Honorable Judge JOSEPH ONDUS, will be the new commissioner of baseball in 1975.

Tearing himself away from the Rat Hole where he is currently engaged against Willie Hoppe for the National Billiard Championship we find cue stick DON MILNE.

Librarians MARTHA HUNTER and SALLY WEIN are currently telling of the elbows they rubbed in the library of congress.

Is that the sun setting? Oh, no. IRMA HARTEL just walked into the room. (Her hair is just as red as it ever was.)

In one secluded corner we find PHYLLIS HARBART, JEANNE SCHMALTZ, RUTH SCHWEITZER, and GERRY STAUSE sitting quietly watching the festivities, but then, the quiet ones are the ones to watch.

Well, look who's coming in now. DICK KADLECK, in his usual green and white uniform, is now managing a Fisher Brothers Store.

LITTLEFIELD says, "Tinkle, tinkle little stream, how I wonder who has the squirt gun."

DR. JEAN LYTLE, noted chemist announces the discovery of a new element—Rhodium.

We find that the noted columnists of the syndicated column "Rhodeo of the Nation," PAT MATE and JUDY MALLO, are here gathering facts.

The wealthy DOLORES MALINOSKY who gained fame and fortune by selling insurance policies to the class of '51 draftees has just arrived.

RAY KARP, now wrestling coach at Otterbein University, just came in with BOB NEDRICH who has attained all the prestige an advertising manager may attain.

DON HUBBEL, graduate of the Haffman School of Law, is presently making his debut in politics, his publicity agent is DAVE SLIVKA.

Just seen stepping into the bar is applesause king JACK MUSSLEMAN. Tailing close behind is that cool character acting as chauffeur is BOB VAN DYKE.

Well, well in walks MIKE TOMASHESKI who has just replaced Oscar Bergman as fashion editor of the Plain Dealer. (Good old 11A Personal Regimen.)

EMIL POLKABLA and his customary crew cut just arrived with the Mrs. and all the little Polk's.

ART VAN DYKE, who is currently setting outboard racing records, is also still a favorite with the girls.

ALAN "FLASHBULB" SCHROEDER unable to be here today, is an aerial photographer for the good old U. S. Navy.

CLYDE SIMPSON who represented the U. S. in the 1972 Olympics splurged on a bottle of cream soda and a bag of Fritos.

ELLEN SMITH and DONNA JARINA are still pretty busy living because of the fact that they are not dead yet.

Three o'clock in the morning.

GRETCHEN WILSON just flew in from the Empire State worried very much that she missed the reunion.

Lovers of old records have found a friend in NANCY MASCHUK, especially her old favorite, There'll Be Some Changes Made.

Word through the grape vine has arrived that LYDIA NIKISHIN and JANET PINCKLEY just couldn't quit serving the teachers in the lunch rooms for they are now found at the home for the aged still nursing the teachers.

JIM STAFFORD, millionaire ship builder, is passing out free samples—autographed kiddy-craft sail boats.

Talking with the boys in the backroom is "sharpie" ED. "DOC" RETYCH, who is currently eluding Cleveland police for not getting an M.D. License to go along with his nickname.

Getting in kind of late is DON McKAY and not far behind chasing the noted Mortician, his Lab assistant, DAN GRAF. McKAY started to swipe test tubes of CH₃CHO (formaldehyde) in high school in preparation for his career.

JO ANN SLOTE has arrived to take her place among the throng. Taking notes of course.

We see that after 25 years PATSY MORTACH has finally set the styles with her long hair.

Seeing GERRY MAZUREK again proves that the roomers are true—she never attained her hearts desire.

At the reunion banquet CAROL OLSON finds herself settled in front of J. ONDICH again. What a fate after 25 years of peaceful living.

DOROTHY McAULEY has finally reached the goal she has always desired. She is our good will ambassador to Ireland.

To entertain us EMMA TOEPFER, the star of stage and screen, has just arrived to give us a preview of her latest stage hit, "Jolly Emma."

JEANETTE POLENCHAT is pouting again. Could her favorite song still be "Fudin', Fussin', and Fightin'" after 25 years.

So tired — — — — it's 4:00 in the morning — — — —

MARILYN MILLER has said absolutely nothing. Her motto must still be, "Mums the word."

With the arrival of JUNE MICHOL, the room is scented by the fragrant aroma of perfume Repulsive, two bits an ounce.

The Queen of the past, basketball, is still a queen—jellybeans. MISS KOVEL has become quite the candy magnate.

We find KATHLEEN PIETRAS home on a furlough. It seems somebody called her Pete in front of a draft board and the next thing she knew—Korea.

The word around the Hollywood and Vine section of the back room is that GERALDINE STAN-CZYC the 1962 Mrs. America is a sure bet to be elected the Reunion Queen.

The life of the party as usual was the humorous quartet of BETTY HROCIK, BETTY MANN, LA-VERNE KISS, and DOROTHY KEERAN. These girls are available for wedding, parties, etc.

Through the doors of High Heaven has just passed JESSE VAN BUREN, the Smiling Sociologist, whose motto is, "A picture is worth a thousand words."

Everyone is astonished by the fact that JAMES WALZAK transportation accomplishment which started with a motor Scooter—then a car and now he's landing his V-2 rocket.

I guess the marines have landed as far as HELEN KRAYNAK is concerned.

ELEANORE PETERS and JUNE NOTTKE being quite readily adapted as hostesses have made every-one feel quite at home.

CARITA RUSSELL, LAVERNE SEDLACEK, and ALICE WERBA just walked in attired in navy blue. The Red Cross claims them as members.

Speaking of crosses JOAN NEILSON is doing all right for herself by making Hot Cross Buns.

Is that dime-store jewelry that JEAN SLATER has on? Well, it's no wonder, she is only a manager of one of the Woolworth's establishments.

JEANETTE POPCHAK and MARILYN NEUZIL have become quite famous with the green nail polish fad although we fail to catch the St. Patrick's day tie-up.

Greetings from the Five A. M. Club.

If you are ever down in May's Basement and you should see two blue eyes and a head of blond hair peeking out from behind some gloves, just say "Hi, LOIS." (MIZANTY that is.)

Just returning from Czechoslovakia, while carrying on an extensive study of juvenile delinquency, is HELEN ROHDE.

Cinder boy CHUCK MISSIG just jogged in with the news that "Gramma" MALLOCH has finally earned enough money to bring her hubby and family to the Reunion.

Up above we see some crazy pilot doing nose dives, it must be our Amelia Earhart—CAROLE ROSCH.

BOB CAMPBELL is doing some fancy commercial doodling. By the way he is noodling on the side (for Campbell Soup that is).

MARY (the wolf gal) WOLFF has just informed us that she can not attend our reunion because she's in training for the annual Sadie Hawkins Day.

On the absence sheet is JOAN PERRELL; she is still at home studying her Shakespeare.

Here comes JANE MUSHNA, a little late, oh well, she has had her share of trouble.

Now we've had a glimpse of what's to come,

So let's get back to 51.

P. S.—Don't forget your reunion suits.

Although we're not short order cooks,
We do a good job when it comes to yearbooks.
The Class Will and History were all very fine,
It was the Class Prophecy that gave us the hard time.
Along came a group who accepted the chore,
But when we were through it was long past four.
Les set the challenge—The challenge was met,
And this we hope we will never regret.

THE SLEEPY SIX.
