think for yourself."—Lessing.

R H O D E S H Y M N

Dear old Rhodes High
Thy wisdom lights our path
Thy friendship true
Stays with us to the last.
We stand united
In thy purpose true
Loyal and faithful
To the white and blue.

MR. OLIVER HOFFMAN

OUR DEDICATION

To you for taking such an interest in us and in our problems
To you for regimenting so well our boys' homeroom
To you for paralleling our enthusiasm and our school spirit
To you for being the sponsor of our Junior Class
To you for not chaperoning but joining in our class activities
To you for teaching us of life through science and sociology
To you, Mr. Hoffman, for being one of our class, we proudly dedicate our Yearbook with the hope that you will always remember us as a wholesome and respectful class.

THE SENIOR CLASS
JUNE, 1952.

NEIL D. MATHEWS

To Members of the Class of June, 1952:

An executive of one of our large American industries recently was quoted as follows: "The soil of land that is on the level does not erode. The integrity of men who are on the level does not erode." It is our hope that in your four years at Rhodes High School each of you has received much that will be of value to you. It is our hope also that in the process you have in no way lost sight of the importance of being on the level.

Best wishes to you.

Sincerely,

NEIL D. MATHEWS, Principal.

MISS HIER

MR. BRYAN

We have seen Miss Ruth Hier, Dean of Girls, and Mr. W. C. Bryan, Dean of Boys, quite often during our four years at Rhodes. We shall always remember them for their friendly help and advice and for their willingness to hear our problems, not to mention our imaginative illnesses which we used to gain excuse from school. There will be a place in each of our memories for pink or green slips, for tenth periods and zero hours, for the interest which these two people, in particular, have taken in us. To Mr. Bryan and Miss Hier we owe our thanks for helping us to mold our lives into a useful pattern.

MR. FERGUSON

During our four years at Rhodes we have come to know Mr. C. B. Ferguson as an exceptionally friendly person, always willing to help us to guide our lives. We all have known Mr. Ferguson as guidance counselor, helping us to choose our vocations in the tenth grade and later helpfully suggesting jobs or colleges for the future, while our boys have known him as their homeroom teacher during the twelfth grade. To Mr. Ferguson we owe our future.

JAMES ZWOLENIK CLASS VALEDICTORIAN

We shall always remember our valedictorian, James Zwolenik, who has lead our class scholastically for four years. James has maintained an average of 94.58 through the 12B. With his definite individuality, James has always awed and amused us, joined in our activities and yet managed to be highly outstanding scholastically. We all know that our "Jimmy-James" will reach his goal in life, whatever it may be.

Class History

SEPTEMBER 5, 1948. Today is the day. Today we begin—some of us frightened, some proud, some wondering what this new life will bring. We have been taken down several pegs from our envied positions as 8A's to that of 9B's. We meet homeroom teachers who will be with us for most of our high school life, and we meet Mr. Mathews, Miss Hier and Mr. Bryan—the latter two whom we shall get to know very well through little green and pink invitations we receive in homeroom. The girls become familiar with "Don't comb your hair in homeroom," "There are announcements to be made," and "No one will leave homeroom without a written excuse." So this is it. We are in high school.

Yes, that was only four years ago—we are seniors now, and all we have left are the memories. We can't go back, but we can look back, can't we?

SEPTEMBER 6, 1948: "Elevator pass? Why no, thank you, I have one—" as I clutch my pieced program card in my hot little hand.

OCTOBER 5, 1948: We are greeted with a rumor that the school is facing an uplifting, and soon find that it is not a rumor at all. Our own J. F. R. is getting a new coat of paint—each room a pastel color!

OCTOBER 13, 1948: Our frosh footballers suffer their first loss of the season today to the same Collinwood squad which they are destined to meet and conquer in three years in a Charity Grid battle.

OCTOBER 27, 1948: Today our upperclassmen are disappointed to find that out of 212 9B's, only 12 are active in five or more activities, and 149 are not signed up at all!—Gee, we're only beginning!

NOVEMBER 24, 1948: Our sports enthusiasts turned to basketball and DON LEYRITZ, DON KASNER, JIM BALDWIN, JOHN BUDKO and CHUCK GALMARINI wore the Blue and White for the first time.

NOVEMBER 27, 1948: The first members of our class to make "Personalities" in the Review are BEVERLY MOON, JACK KERNOHAN, NANCY HAXTON, BEVERLY HART, DON EGGERT and BABS REIK under the heading of "Frosh stars of 1952."

FEBRUARY 2, 1949: An elevator pass? Why no, thank you, I'm selling them.

MARCH 2, 1949: Our ninth grade basketball quintet wound up the season with an enviable 9-3 record.

MARCH 7, 1949: Enter here the Wincos, a team consisting of HELEN MASSA, JOAN TKATCH, MARYELLEN LUKAS, SALLY KLDNEY, BEVERLY MOON, DOLLY NEUMAN, PAT LAVELLE, ANASTASIA PALLAM, MILLIE HRACH and RITA ROHDE. This team played intramurals and won championships in volleyball, baseball, soccer, basketball, and soccer again.

MARCH 10, 1949: JUNE BOESTER and JACK KERNOHAN are reported to have a good start in their high school journalism careers.

MARCH 20, 1949: METRO is one of the first 52'ers to gain membership in the Boys' Leaders. LEE RICHARDSON was also voted in at this time.

MARCH 29, 1949: The first Orchestra Festival was held tonight, a project which is destined to become an annual affair. It was held tonight at John Marshall, including musicians from Marshall, Lincoln, West, West Tech and Rhodes.

MARCH 30, 1949: The vocal solo contest held for ninth graders awarded VIRGINIA KULIK a first award, while the instrumental contest gave CAROLE GLOSNER a first award on flute, and ANNA MALINOSKY a second award on clarinet.

APRIL 1, 1949: Remember that April Fools' edition of the Review? The articles were topsy-turvy and it took twice as long as usual to read it.

APRIL 17, 1949: The "Change of Pace" was presented here today. It was written and produced by Rhodians with a few members of our class participating.

MAY 11, 1949: The Frosh cindermen rolled to the third straight win of the outdoor season with GALMARINI, NIKLAS, METRO and BRASS in the lead. These same trackmen came through with a second in the Freshmen Senate Meet at Rhodes on June 4.

JUNE 1, 1949: Homeroom 303 wins the Junior Division softball title and this inspires more boasts from Mr. Hoffman about his fine crew. With Lefty CHUCK LAURENCE and righthander DON LEYRITZ pouring into "Killer KERNOHAN," who sported a .500 batting average, how could they miss?

SEPTEMBER 15, 1949: Mr. Quayle was introduced to us at Rhodes in place of Mr. Sawyer as boys' gym teacher. Another new teacher was Mr. Scott in place of Mr. Van Kannel who took leave of absence because of illness. The third new professor was none other than Mr. VanNartwick, our choir director, whom we will always remember as being very patient, and never moody! He took the place of Miss Keller who took a position as Supervisor of elementary music at the Board of Education.

SEPTEMBER 21, 1949: Today NANCY KOLAR, SALLY KLDNEY and JOAN TKATCH started leading gym classes as girls' leaders.

SEPTEMBER 25, 1949: Our frosh gridders are now in the jayvee ranks and included on the team roster are GALMARINI, METRO, KASNER, WEISEND, BALDWIN and EGNA.

SEPTEMBER 27, 1949: DON HAAS is named captain of the cheerleading squad and this event turns up on the Review sport page as BOB TAYLOR'S first story.

SEPTEMBER 29, 1949: The Junior Journal has stopped publication starting this semester. Ho hum.

OCTOBER 7, 1949: The reserve gridders are rolling along and KASNER, METRO, GALMARINI, and WEISEND are developing into top notch players.

OCTOBER 12, 1949: Are you hungry? Do you have to suffer by eating a cafeteria purchased lunch today? Maybe you'd better invest in a lock for your locker! Does this sound familiar? Perhaps the Red Raiders got your lunch too?

OCTOBER 22, 1949: EARL BRASS placed in the senate cross country meet at Ridgewood to begin his track winnings.

OCTOBER 25, 1949: We were introduced to the new report cards today. We will now have three marking periods, and use numbers. We seemed to like this system, but it didn't last long, did it?

NOVEMBER 15, 1949: Could you have guessed that there were 11,793 tax stamps in the large jar in the center showcase? Neither could anyone else, but ELWIN ROOY came very close to guessing. He missed by only 14. He received a camera for winning this contest.

NOVEMBER 20, 1949: The practice sessions of Coach Vannorsdall's varsity hardwooders are under way, and he's very interested in a certain 10B by the name of LEYRITZ, who has been burning up the intramural circuit.

DECEMBER 12, 1949: BRASS becomes our first "R" man as he pockets a cross country monogram.

DECEMBER 21, 1949: Everyone had a good time at the Christmas formal except, of course, those who were sitting down when the last dance was played. It wasn't announced, the orchestra just packed up and left. — And why wasn't the theme song of the "Winter Wonderland" played?

JANUARY 18, 1950: While BEVERLY MOON was being accepted into the Girls' Leaders Club, BOB BURNS was printing his first (pd.) advertisement in the Review. Remember the Great Mystifier, available for all occasions?

FEBRUARY 9, 1950: The indoor track season has begun and Coach Holden's lineup has names such as BRASS, NIKLAS, RICHARDSON and METRO on it.

FEBRUARY 15, 1950: Were those girls trying to look as though they were blushing, or just as though they had just come in from the cold? Know what we mean? — those overused sunlamps the girls were looking into!

MARCH 8, 1950: DON LEYRITZ gets his first basketball award today.

MARCH 22, 1950: Jimmy Rhodes just footed a $222 bill for his students' lab fees in their wood carving classes. Well, what are you supposed to do while the teacher is talking?

MARCH 27, 1950: Little Willie Randle appeared at Canteen tonight for the first time. No comment.

MARCH 31, 1950: Our thinclads with a few nervous members of our class participating, just missed winning the Arena meet. The difference was less than one point.

APRIL 13, 1950: The troubles of a college freshman who is the mother of a college junior provide a good plot for "Mother Is a Freshman" in which CLARIECE STUEWE and PAT GENCHI played.

MAY 15, 1950: 'Midst surreptitious glances and helpful shoves, EARL met CORNELIA.

MAY 17, 1950: If you see girls walking down the hall with little crude purses hanging from long thin strings, don't worry—they aren't carrying a bullet supply in their bullet boxes, they're using them for purses!

JUNE 5, 1950: The "Hoffmanites" of 303 showed an "insubordinate attitude" by winning the school softball title from the "Seniors" of 209.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1950: PAT GENCHI and PAT GOLDENBOGEN were taken into Triple Trio, while VIRGINIA KULIK sang on at Cain Park, Play House, Music Hall, et cetera.

SEPTEMBER 22, 1950: Another pigskin season is in full swing and now we are boasting of "Varsity" men like KASNER, GALMARINI, METRO, WEISEND, and BALDWIN. JOHN BUDKO, who is playing his first year of high school football, is doing it on the varsity as a first string defensive back.

NOVEMBER 18, 1950: Now with the football season at an end, we find LEYRITZ, BUDKO, and HEMANN toiling on the basketball floor.

NOVEMBER 26, 1950: At this year's Charity game, BARBARA STARR represented us as queen, while our queen of the majorettes, NANCY HAXTON, came through with the band to bring home to Rhodes the first prize trophy. RENE STREIBEL received honorable mention in this Charity game poster contest.

NOVEMBER 27, 1950: We were awarded two weeks vacation by Mother Nature, because today she bestowed upon us what we will later become familiar with as the "Big Snow."

DECEMBER 10, 1950: Football letters are awarded to KASNER, WEISEND, METRO, BUDKO and GALMARINI. Cross Country monograms went to BRASS and RICHARDSON.

JANUARY 10, 1951: CORNELIA BRANDSTADT, PAT LAVELLE, and HELEN MASSA were elected into the Girls' Leaders Club, while BEVERLY MOON and ANASTASIA PALLAM entered the Triple Trio.

FEBRUARY 6, 1951: Once again track season makes its bow and some of the newcomers to varsity ranks include NEIL DALE, JIM KENYON and DALE BLOCK.

FEBRUARY 7, 1951: Our class today elected its first officers. We chose PAUL PREISING, president; JOHN PRYSI, vice-president; JOAN BURD, secretary; EARL BRASS, treasurer.

FEBRUARY 21, 1951: Tonight our basketball quintet met Latin on the Arena floor for the consolation title. Result, Latin 52, Rhodes 50, after an overtime period, but BUDKO and LEYRITZ had their say so.

FEBRUARY 26, 1951: BEVERLY MOON and RENE STREIBEL were awarded gold keys for their opaque water colors, which were sent to Pittsburgh to compete in the National Scholastic Art Exhibit, while VIRGINIA KULIK and BARBARA REIK entered the solo voice contest. Virginia took a second rating and Barbara, a third.

MARCH 5, 1951: At this basketball banquet, LEYRITZ is awarded his second monogram and BUDKO becomes a letterman for the first time.

MARCH 26, 1951: Our cindermen avenge last year's setback by walking away with the Western Division title at the Arena.

APRIL 11, 1951: Today five of our class were chosen to be inducted to the coveted realms of the National Honor Society. They were NANCY KOLAR, LEE RICHARDSON, PAUL PREISING, JAMES ZWOLENIK and BOB BURNS.

APRIL 12, 1951: CAROLE GLOSNER again shows us that she can really play her flute. She received a first rating as soloist in the instrumental solo contest, first rating in a trio consisting of CAROLE and BARBARA and BELINDA HARDING. A quartet that these three played in also received a first. Another trio with CAROLE and WILMA GERMUSKA received a first. Others in that contest who received seconds were BARBARA HARDING, flute; ELWIN ROOY, tuba; PAUL PREISING, trumpet.

APRIL 13, 1951: Tonight the Triple Trio, Octette, and Madrigal Singers sang in the ensemble contest at West High. Although they did not get ratings, they were given constructive criticisms.

MAY 9, 1951: After not leaving one room without a "Richardson-Budka" sign, and after a successful campaign, LEE RICHARDSON and JOHN BUDKO became president and vice-president, respectively, of the Student Council.

MAY 23, 1951: Today we went back to the letter method of grading. In addition to the letter, we will get attitude marks, one, two, and three. Popular poll reveals that pupils do not like the letter method as well as numbers.

MAY 24, 1951: We held our class informal today. Our newly appointed social committee, headed by PAT GOLDENBOGEN planned this, as they had planned our picnic at the new picnic grounds at the Snow Road site.

JUNE 7, 1951: The Holdenmen are completing a very successful season, and yes, Mr. Hoffman is talking of his softball champs again.

SEPTEMBER 15, 1951: We again find a new teacher for the boys' gym class—Mr. Moritz, who will also serve as assistant grid coach.

SEPTEMBER 16, 1951: With seventeen seniors on the football team, eight of 'em ours, it looks like a "big" season and the boys start off with a 31-6 rout of Findlay.

OCTOBER 10, 1951: We held our 12B class picnic today. Too bad we couldn't dance afterwards, — too dark.

OCTOBER 12, 1951: Too bad we can't all have two pretty faces, Mr. VanNortwick!

OCTOBER 14, 1951: We find this semester, JUNE BOESTER as head of the Review staff. Another familiar name following the dotted line is that of BOB TAYLOR who has become sports editor.

OCTOBER 15, 1951: Again leading our class as president is PAUL PREISING. Vice president is BILL HEMANN; secretary, NANCY HAXTON; treasurer, BONNIE KOPEN. PAUL PREISING also leads the National Honor Society which inducted this semester, SALLY KLDNEY, BARBARA HARDING, BELINDA HARDING, NANCY HAXTON, JOHN PRYSI, ELWIN ROOY, ANDRE ERDMAN, LEROY CERNY and JOHN BUDKO.

OCTOBER 27, 1951: Rain, mud, football game. Outcome, Rhodes 13, West Tech 12. Too close for comfort!

NOVEMBER 3, 1951: This is it! Today we can win the West Senate title!

NOVEMBER 5, 1951: Mr. Schmidt was delighted today with a small bundle of joy. To be more specific, Heidi Lea was born at 11:54 P. M.

NOVEMBER 8, 1951: We are now watching with interest the progress of Mr. Mathews who has been absent since the beginning of the semester. Returned, he can't stay the whole day, yet, through orders of his doctor, but he is improving slowly, and that's how it's done.

NOVEMBER 8, 1951: We are indeed saddened today by the sudden death of Miss Barhyte who was known to many of us, if not through higher mathematics, through algebra or geometry.

NOVEMBER 19, 1951: Pandemonium rained and the roof fell in from the downpour of autograph seekers! Occasion: the Charity Game rally (June's downfall). Stars of the show were the Four Aces and the oft welcomed Willie Randle.

NOVEMBER 24, 1951: Remember when you would say, "I go to Rhodes," and people would look at you and say, "Rhodes? — where's that?" That doesn't happen any more, for today, an untied, undefeated football team entered the Cleveland Stadium and upset Collinwood 21-14 for the City Grid title. Wasn't BUDKO'S run a beauty? Along with this smash win, NANCY HAXTON brought the band close to a second consecutive win. They were only one point away from first place.

DECEMBER 12, 1951: BOB BUSHA, leading the cast of "For Old Times' Sake" brought a delightful show to Rhodes auditorium which also included VIRGINIA KULIK, TONY SARRIS, JACK THOMAS, JAMES ZWOLENIK, JILL WHITE, the Glee Club, Orchestra, Triple Trio, Octette, and Latin Club.

DECEMBER 14, 1951: HELEN RUCKY headed a committee for the Y-Teen, which sent Christmas chocolates to children of Europe. Others on that committee were BONNIE KOPEN, RUTH PRYSTASH and JOAN BOGUSH.

DECEMBER 19, 1951: About now, the students of Rhodes are becoming disgusted with "conditions" in the cafeteria, and have just decided to do something about them. How many of us will remember the "Bring your Lunch Campaign"? Well, it did get results!

DECEMBER 27, 1951: We had the biggest Football Banquet in history and the entire team was awarded gold football tie clasps. Earning "R's" this time were BALDWIN, BUDKO, EGNA, GALMARINI, KASNER, LAURENCE, METRO and WEISEND.

JANUARY 10, 1952: 'Midst sleighs and snow we held our informal today. Our social committee did a good job of decorating the "Senior Sleighride" with the "Harlemaires" providing music.

JANUARY 22, 1952: With the midterm commencement came a new first string on the basketball squad. Included among the new starters were BUDKO, BALDWIN, HEMANN, and WYNN. LEYRITZ, the only veteran first stringer, was chosen to co-captain the quintet along with BUDKO.

FEBRUARY 4, 1952: If Mr. Henderson has always had pupils like RED MASON and KERNOHAN, no wonder he tore out all of his hair! — and anyone interested in a protective measure for their domicile, see MASON, KERNOHAN, or PRESTON for the best line of fire extinguishers!

FEBRUARY 15, 1952: We have chosen for the third time, PAUL PREISING as president to lead us through our last semester of unity. Assisting him are JOHN PRYSI, vice president; NANCY KOLAR, secretary, and BONNIE KOPEN, treasurer.

MARCH 3, 1952: Coach Holden is pretty happy over his team's winning streak which now stands at four straight and BRASS is pacing the squad to victory as well as co-captain it, as he did with the '51 cross country team.

MARCH 3, 1952: How are your proofs?

MARCH 4, 1952: How are your retakes?

MARCH 5, 1952: With such cooperation from the homerooms, attention to announcements, etc., here lies the yearbook committee. Deadline today! June prefers roses.

APRIL 26, 1952: We danced tonight 'neath the stars of Paris at our 12A Informal.

MAY 14, 1952: Today we held our 12A picnic. It was planned by our social committee which is again headed by PAT GOLDENBOGEN.

JUNE 6, 1952: Class day — we say good-bye to Senior Choir and 315, to Chem Lab and to its abominable odors, to the misty underground track, to 219 and 209, to the AAA Pontiac, to the underclassmen, to the band uniform fund, of course to the cherry pie, and to our classmates. We now go forth into this big wide world, wondering, hoping, some looking to a new college life, and some to work. Yes, today we dress up and say good-bye to the underclassmen.

JUNE 7, 1952: Pink mist — jewelled stars — a passing look — a sweeping gown — our prom.

JUNE 10, 1952: Commencement — the fulfillment of a dream. The end of four years — the beginning of the future, and who knows what that will bring?

THE CLASS OF JUNE 1952.

James Ford Rhodes Alumni Association 2022

An Evening in Paris

June 1952 Class Prophecy

Into the deep mysterious fog of the far, far, future, we race, until finally we reach our destination: HEAVEN! Year, 2010, A.D.: Location, the city of JFR on Cloud 52. Here we find a contemporary civilization of the dear departed souls of the Rhodes Class of June 1952, who found Olympus, souls who are happily pursuing the identical paths they had followed in the life below, who eagerly are welcoming all new arrivals to their domain.

Away we now go through JFR looking in on our friends of long—long—LONG—ago . . .

* * * * *

Our course takes us deep into the delicious cloud mist, into a glistening city built entirely of money. (Who said you can't take it with you?) We begin very early in the pink-colored morning, for we have a very long tour to make, and oh, look! There's the T. S. & T. Pharmacy. And there're HARRY THOM and BOB THIESS still arguing the percentage of Hadacol! Could that be why they went into business together? Over at the soda-fountain the third partner and fountain-boy, JOHN SCHOSSLER is getting a high powered sales talk from SHIRLEY SCOUTTEN, super sales-woman of "Wow-em!" cosmetics.

Why, heaven's bells! There's SHIRLEY ONUSKA, girl steam shovel operator buying a large economy size of "Mighty Midget Vitamin Pills."

In the corner we are amazed to see, complete with long black cloak, ELROY REUBER, attempting to sell black-market copies of "Wimoweh."

We leave the drug-store, and right next door observe the "Find and Faint Super-Market," successor to "Pick-an'-Pay." EILEEN O'DELL, dog-pound-dietician, is there stocking up on JAHNheart Dogfood, manufactured by ARLENE JAHN.

In the office sits DON DROLLINGER, botanist, who crossed the tomato with the cumquat and called it the "Drollamato," selling his product to "Find & Faint" manager, ROLF LAMMER.

At the rear of the store we find MARY ANN DUMAS, selling her hair to the "Chameleon Girl." Looking in on the scene is DONALD RODER, who, on Earth, got tired of life and took to the hills.

Well, here's a cozy little gathering. Peering into its midst, we observe ED GERDING, distinguished superintendent of the Bored of Education; JOANN BRIGGS, noted cosmetologist; and ROSELYN SABO, OPS inspector, discussing the career of earthling CHUCK LAURENCE who is still at Ohio State studying printing - - - license plates.

With another gust of a heavenly breeze, we fly through the cloud right into the Celestial Court of Appeals. Shh---court's in session! On the bench trying the case is presiding judge CLARIECE STUEWE. There's the famous criminal lawyer JIM KITKO cross-examining the defendant, BILL HE-MANN, who is accused of selling MOONshine to the natives of Mars.

With a haughty sneer on his face sits JOHN PRESTON, reviver of the nickel beer and president of P. O. C. (Preston's Over-spiked Cokes), who represents the plaintiff.

Serving on the jury we find JOAN SEKERAK, merchandiser at Preston's; JOYCE SHAKER, popular beer-cancan dancer at P. O. C.; and DICK LEHMAN, Cloud 52 Liquor Commissioner. The verdict? Guilty, and 2,000 years as fire-tender at an extremely warmer location.

Outside the courthouse, on Angel Avenue, we are just in time to see DR. JOHN JARRETT, professor of etiology, bouncing along on his pogo-stick to his morning calls. He discovered the long-awaited cure for the dread disease, "Senioritis."

Close on his heels follow contemporary Florence Nightingales MARY LOU BOEHM, JOY MEYER and THERESA McCREARY, whose combined efforts once saved the life of Mr. Henderson's favorite Doberman who suffered from carbon-monoxide poisoning.

We stop to give the "ol' handshake" to EARL BRASS who is installing his latest invention, the automatic pop-cornelia machine on the corner.

Waiting in line with nickel in hand are CAROLYN BERKICH, who had once operated a ferry-service across Big Creek, and the dashing movie-star, romantic Gorgeous GARY LEWIS.

Walking arm-in-arm down the Avenue, we meet August '52 graduates, MARILYN SPAK, former psychiatrist who replaced the traditional couch with a love-seat, and JANET KAPL, writer of that lovely ballad, "I Cried Last Night, Because My Love Told Me He Wan't Want Me Tomorrow Morning."

In the distance we can just make out BILL NECZYPOR, formerly an importer of Hindu water pipes.

Stopping on our tour to soak up some culture, we enter the Heavenly Art Museum and are greeted by curator, ELAINE SACHARA, who presents us to modernistic painter BONNIE KOPEN and her model, beautiful, curvaceous DOLLY NEUMAN.

Our group is joined by the successful illustrator of Esquire, RENE STREIBEL, and by BOB (Pierre) MEISNER, ex-proprietor of Cleveland's most exclusive beauty salon. Pierre spies JOAN SOIKA, alias Madame LaCurle, hair stylist who originated the "Crewdle" cut, half crew, half poodle.

Admiring the works of wealthy, eccentric painter, TOM KUNDRAT, are ANDY CHRISTOPHER, star professional bowler who took the place of Andy Varapappa; and HELEN RUCKY, spectacular Olympic shot-put champion, escorted by DICK NIKLAS, Olympic track champ. Also watching the exhibit are art collector and critic, MIRIAM SCHUMAN, and NANCY HAMMERSCHMIDT, who clutches a billboard size portrait of herself under her arm.

On the Museum steps we are stopped by FRANCES POPOVICH who is still taking collections for JOHN EGNA'S "Save-a-Soul" Mission House on St. Clair Avenue.

Standing by, taking notes on her activities, is "Preacher" CLIFF CALLAHAN, fifth assistant secretary to St. Peter.

We find ourselves inadvertently drawn by BEVERLY MOON'S plush jewelry establishment, specializing in moonstone rings for steady boyfriends' noses. ANASTASIA PALLAM and BETTE LOCH are there to greet us. We hear that they are universally famous designers of fraternity pins.

While we are there discussing old times and near-forgotten escapades at "dear old Rhodes," a customer enters. On a closer look we find it is "Big" JOHN (Diamonds) PRYSI, noted racketeer and horse-player, who informs us that he intends to buy a diamond tiarra for gorgeous NANCY HAXTON, who, on Earth, went West and became the favorite white squaw of the Cherokee Indians. (She lost her baton crossing the Rockies.)

Looking through the window are JANET STOCK, who had been head tuba player in the Marine band, and JULIA RAVIA, optician, specializing in making eyeglasses for baseball umpires.

Upon looking at our hourglass, we decide that our apparitions could stand some nourishment, and wander into the "Tango Tearoom." We are more than a little startled to discover that the proprietress is FLORENCE WOLFF. And to think that we expected Flo to go into the ministry! She leads us to a table, and we begin to dine on an exquisite meal consisting of a nectar cocktail and steak a-la-ambrosia.

While guzzling these delicacies we notice private-eyes BEV (Brooklyn Beverly) HART, who solved the case of "Who filched the skeleton from Mr. Gaiser's closet," and CHUCK GALMARINI, who is still hot on the trail of the missing picnic pans. Both are scrupulously watching their coats and halos.

Criticizing the food we view TONI MIRENDA, who inherited her uncle's pizza house, and JOE BALL, brilliant atomic physicist who foolishly threw a match on a carton of TNT.

Reuniting at the next table we see CAROLE GLOSNER who won the first Nobel Prize ever awarded a musician for her performances as solo flautist at the Nuernberg Symphony, and BARBARA and BELINDA HARDING, who have been lecturing and conducting two-sided round tables on their latest book, "The Derivation of Spiritual Factors Due to Environmental Conditions," or "Why Mix Gin in the Bathtub to get the Sarny Flavor."

Dashing up to join them flies ANNA MALINOSKY, former instructor of woodwinds at Der Schmutzig School of Music, accompanied by MARGIE SAUNDERS, author of "Plundering Down the Highway without Pot and Pan," or "What Happened to Lucy when She was Caught with her Pans Down."

DIANNA ROTH strolls in sociably tardy, as usual. She took her name seriously (goddess of chaste), never married and raised a whole cloudful of bachelor buttons.

Feeling that our invisible bellies were comfortably filled, we decided a nice stroll would help to digest our invisible meal. Around the corner, on Gabriel Court, we see to our right O'HEARN'S Haberdashery, owned, managed and proprieted by BOB O'HEARN.

To the left stands the impressive establishment of JAMES BALDWIN, Inc., metallurgist, who is attempting to extract platinum from iron ore.

Straight ahead of us we view the GENCHI and GERMUSKA Joint Home for the Sisterhood and Companionship of Retired Despondent Bassoonists, PAT Genchi and WILMA Germuska, proprietresses in charge.

Picking up an old cigar butt we find CLARENCE SCHULTZ, all-night disc jockey better known as "Soupey" Schultz.

Our peaceful meandering is disturbed by a flashing figure who turned out to be NANCY MELZER, Head Legwoman for "Bogush's Bikini Bathing Suits, Inc.," JOAN BOGUSH, President. We recall hearing how Nancy sent the firm into bankruptcy for attempting to sell the product to the Eskimos.

Jaunting past, not recognizing us, goes DAN FORCE, ex-Czar and President of the American Hockey League. He's looking for DAVID MATEJKA, interior decorator, who combined striped upholstery with flowered walls and checked rugs.

Well, here we are at East Cumulous University. Might as well attend some classes while we're here. There's Professor EDWINA ZEBROWSKI, Ph.D., B.A., B.S., and P.U., giving instructions in the necessity of the use of fact.

Strolling down the Campus we catch up with guest instructor, JIM KENYON, professor of Dis-comboobalation at Itsatossup U.

CRASH!! We just knocked down the great scientist, JEANETTE KOSKEE, who once developed an acetylene torch capable of blowing a hole through the Iron Curtain. She tells us that she is on her way to give Mr. Henderson a refresher course in hydro-carbons.

Apparently sight-seeing on the Campus, also, is newcomer (we can tell by the little sprouting wings) DON KASNER, valiant Naval officer, who, like John Paul Jones proclaimed "Don't Give Up the Ship!"

Don tells us that he was just talking to KEN GRAF, master of calculus, who was concentrating on how many light years away from the Earth was the star, Asterodimuscadus.

We are instantly attracted by the beautiful new student union built entirely of brand new silver dollars. Inside we observe the wall-size television screen that everyone was talking about. On Station WJFR-TV we stop to view the great television discovery, TIMMY WEISEND, successor to Red Skelton, doing his terrific characterization of Billie Dump-Dump.

On another channel, we decide to watch BOB BUSH, Cloud 52's filibustering senator orating upon whether America should admit Germany as the forty-ninth state. What happened? Who cut him off?

The next program brings into focus ANDRE ERDMAN as Chairman of the Celestial Senate Investigating Committee, examining the subversive activities of high school teachers and rubbish collectors.

On our way back to the Square we meet DAVE BROCK, who has invented a new-type bathysphere with built-in television set and bar. He is discussing the high cost of living with CAROLE MALICKY, well-heeled dress designer for heiress LUCILLE ROBERTO, whose favorite uncle once left her a billion dollars of stock in Antarctic uranium deposits.

MARTHA BEATOR is also included in the discussion. On Earth she was known as "Mortifying Marty," and vocalized for Capitol.

On the corner of Angel Avenue and Gabriel Court we see CLARENCE FRIEDEL sharpening and selling old phonograph needles to VIRGINIA SPILLAR, who read every book in every library and is now starting on the universe's greatest literary masterpiece, the phone book. She is accompanied by PAT SLACK, ex-airline hostess who came up early after she crashed in New Jersey.

Looking on the scene is PAUL METRO, ex-halfback of the Cleveland Cannibals, and author of the best-selling book, "How to Kiss in One Easy Lesson."

Doing road-work we notice RITA ROHDE, record setting swimmer who swam the length of the Panama Canal under water and backwards.

Well, heaven's bells! There's a movie set. Let's go peek. Scriptwriter, SHIRLEY LANE, who wrote "Beauty Revealed," and "Cover Up," is directing the production.

BILL WRIGHT, long-awaited successor to Valentino, and MARY ANN JAKUBKO are just about to begin a torrid love scene.

We wander into the projection room just in time to view the screen test of MARY ANN GALARDI, former Powers' high fashion model famous for her two foot long platinum cigarette holder. Co-starring with her is the ex-Grotto Circus slap-stick clown, CHARLOTTE PAWUL.

Far above us we stop to watch the fearless leap of stunt-man EDDIE SCHMIDT, who is about to dive from a seventy-two story building into a pail of water two feet deep. Well, you can only die once!!!

With tears in our eyes, we watch the sad departure of BARBARA BENDALL, who just lost her job as fat-lady when someone punctured her - - - ?

NANCY KOLAR, who was inspired by becoming basketball queen at Rhodes went on to greater heights by becoming in succession, Miss America, Mrs. America and Mother of the Year, 1962, enters with EMMA ENGEL, who is still patiently embroidering "his" and "hers" towels for her hope? chest.

We stop to chat with BABS REIK, whose record of "Solitude" sold two million copies since she sang both the soprano and the bass parts.

Off the set again, we find RUSSELL BRISKY, a hard-boiled Marine sergeant, talking to KARLENE ANSHUTZ. Karlene couldn't bear to leave Rhodes, and for fifty years operated a successful jitney service down Biddulph Avenue.

The wealthy tobacco magnate, ALEXANDER GLAVINOS, lurches into view, and approaches ANDY GUBA, organizer of the International Lovers of Literature Club, and MARILOU REES, original frog-woman sent into the subterranean depths to photograph Davy Jones in his natural habitat.

Walking on we come to the only suspension draw-bridge in existence, designed by super-engineer JOHN BUDKO.

Beneath us in the water we spy DON HABERMAN who is demonstrating modern fishing methods using SHIRLEY NOBLE as bait.

Zoommmmm! There goes JOHN MAENNER, former General Motors designer in his Super-Maenner 16, 400 horsepower automobile, nearly running down RUTH GROUP who is still "playing the field," even after she acquired her C. O. D. (come over dear) degree.

With notebook and slide-rule in hand is DOLORES NEESON who is trying to solve the problem of the trigonometric construction of the bridge.

We pause for a moment at the "Stardust Star," leading newspaper. At her desk, smudged with printers' ink we find JUNE BOESTER, ex-managing editor of the Daily Worker. June had a difficult time convincing St. Peter that she wouldn't try to communize Heaven.

CAROL PIERCE, coal miner, is at the want-ad desk applying for a cleaner occupation, while KEN GESCHKE, daredevil winner of the Indianapolis Speedway, who gained experience on the Biddulph Hot-rod Track, enters for an interview.

Pattering by us goes GILBERT REPP, head columnist for the lovelorn, and we view at the sports department MILLIE HRACH, replacement of Marion Motley, and MARY EBERHARDT, star center basketball player at East Cumulous U. being interrogated by universally famous sportswriter and sports-caster BOB TAYLOR.

Leaving the sports-desk we bump into GLEN "Gutenberg" WALKER, ex-printer for the Cleveland Citizen.

Out on the street discussing whether the "gentleman with the horns" could invade Heaven, we find BILL KOZIE, founder of a mattress factory in a tribe of fuzzy-wuzzies, and CORNELIA BRANDSTADT, one-time owner of several Texas "earl" fields, with BEVERLY LAMPE, inventor of the first successful freckle remover made of a sulfuric acid and sodium carbonate mixture.

Strutting by, nose-in-air, goes DON LANAGAN, who, ever since receiving a promotion at Brookside Zoo, putting him in sole-charge of Monkey Island, has been snubbing all his old friends.

Across the street we find DAVID PINCH, lumberjack from the wilds of New York City, arguing politics with JOAN TKATCH and CAROLYN ANDRUS, who once toured the country as a famous debating team arguing pro and con the subject of sarcasm versus pure humor.

Attracting much attention in the cloud mist is "Boy Wonder" JIM MASUGA, wearing homemade wings, flying to his conservation tower. Looking on his departure are DON EGGERT, fearless big game hunter, and JOAN BURD, recently elected head of the conservation of empty spaces in Metropolitan Park.

On another corner we see VIRGINIA KULIK, Met Star who is being employed by the city until air raid sirens are installed, listening to ART SCHUH, who made a fortune stripping mufflers and selling them to Rhodes students telling "Can You Top This" stories.

Another glance at our hour-glass tells us that we are just in time to catch the early show at the "Komfy Kosher Klub," famed nightspot, owned by torchsinger, JILL WHITE. Heaven's bells! All the patrons appear to be wealthy debonair socialites.

We leave our halos and wings with halo-check girl, LESLIE SCHUSTER, and wind our way through the crowd to a ring-side table.

Already warbling his number, "Laugh," is "Mr. Emotion," TONY SARRIS.

After purchasing a package of "Olympifields," the cigarette that leaves your throat, from cigarette girl, JOAN WOJCIK, we notice a large gay party in progress.

Why, there's lovely millionairess SALLY KLDNEY, who made her millions perfecting her delicious secret recipe for Italian spaghetti and MEATBALLS, escorted by handsome LEE RICHARDSON, who developed a sensational scientific farm seeder.

Across the table is the much-in-demand sophisticated marriage counsellor, PAT GOLDENBOGEN, holding hands with her sixteenth bridegroom.

Looking lovely in her Roy Roger's gunbelt and Hop-a-long Cassidy hat is PAT LAVELLE, famous horse breeder who sold her favorite stallion, "King Louie I" to MGM, deep in conversation with PAT SCULLY, who made a fortune selling parking space and popcorn outside the airport.

Floating by the table taking pictures is "Flashbulb" DON HAAS, attired in Bikini swimming trunks. He clumsily runs into NEIL DALE, botanist, who reduced nature's magic deodorant, chlorophyll to crimson, so that at last, it, too, can be used on Thursdays.

MARYELLEN LUKAS, former head football coach for the Yale Bulldogs enters on the arm of DON LEYRITZ, author of the book, "How to Skin and Shrink a Human Head."

They have arrived just in time to catch the number of BARB STARR, combination bubble-dancer, fan-dancer and bouncer.

We are told that the flashing figure dashing out of the club was JAMES ZWOLENIK, ex-ambassador to the Vatican, and present crusader for Heavenly decency. Could it be that Jimmy James doesn't appreciate Barb's talents?

In the powder room we meet HELEN MASSA, originator of the successful industry of cutting the sleeves out of vests, and JACKIE McGRAIL, whose drive-in, "McGrail's Grilled Grubs," still caters to the high school set.

We observe, entering stag, JOE STEDRONSKY, inventor of the first economical mousetrap consisting of twenty-seven feet of platinum plated chicken wire, four gallons of dilute 70-proof scotch, and ninety-five highly polished goobers.

He is greeted by DALE BLOCK, one time casino owner and big time gambler, and RAY KLEPITCH, who had been America's greatest contemporary poet.

At the bar, we find BOB BURNS, ex vice-admiral of the Third Fleet. He always did have an affinity for liquids. Barmaid ELEANOR KEPLER is finding it quite a task to keep him satisfied.

So—we leave the nightclub, and trudging along find ourselves at Milky-way Airfield. Some new arrivals are milling their way to the Pearly Gate. Holy Toledo! There's our old buddy, ROGER MASON. Well, old Red finally made it! He lost his life after blowing up his college chem lab, and his gorgeous tan proves that he had been living in that—we can't say it. Running to greet him with open arms, ox in one hand, bagpipes in the other, is JACK (Koo-ootch) KERNOHAN, who was with him in the disaster, but got lost on the way down. What a happy reunion!!!

There, trudging along under the weight of new wings is that fugitive from the West Tech summer resort, HARVEY WYNN, who in his spare time originated the new parlor game "Wynn-O" and made a mint. We hear that GEORGE MACK and LEWIS NOTTKE went broke on parlor games, however.

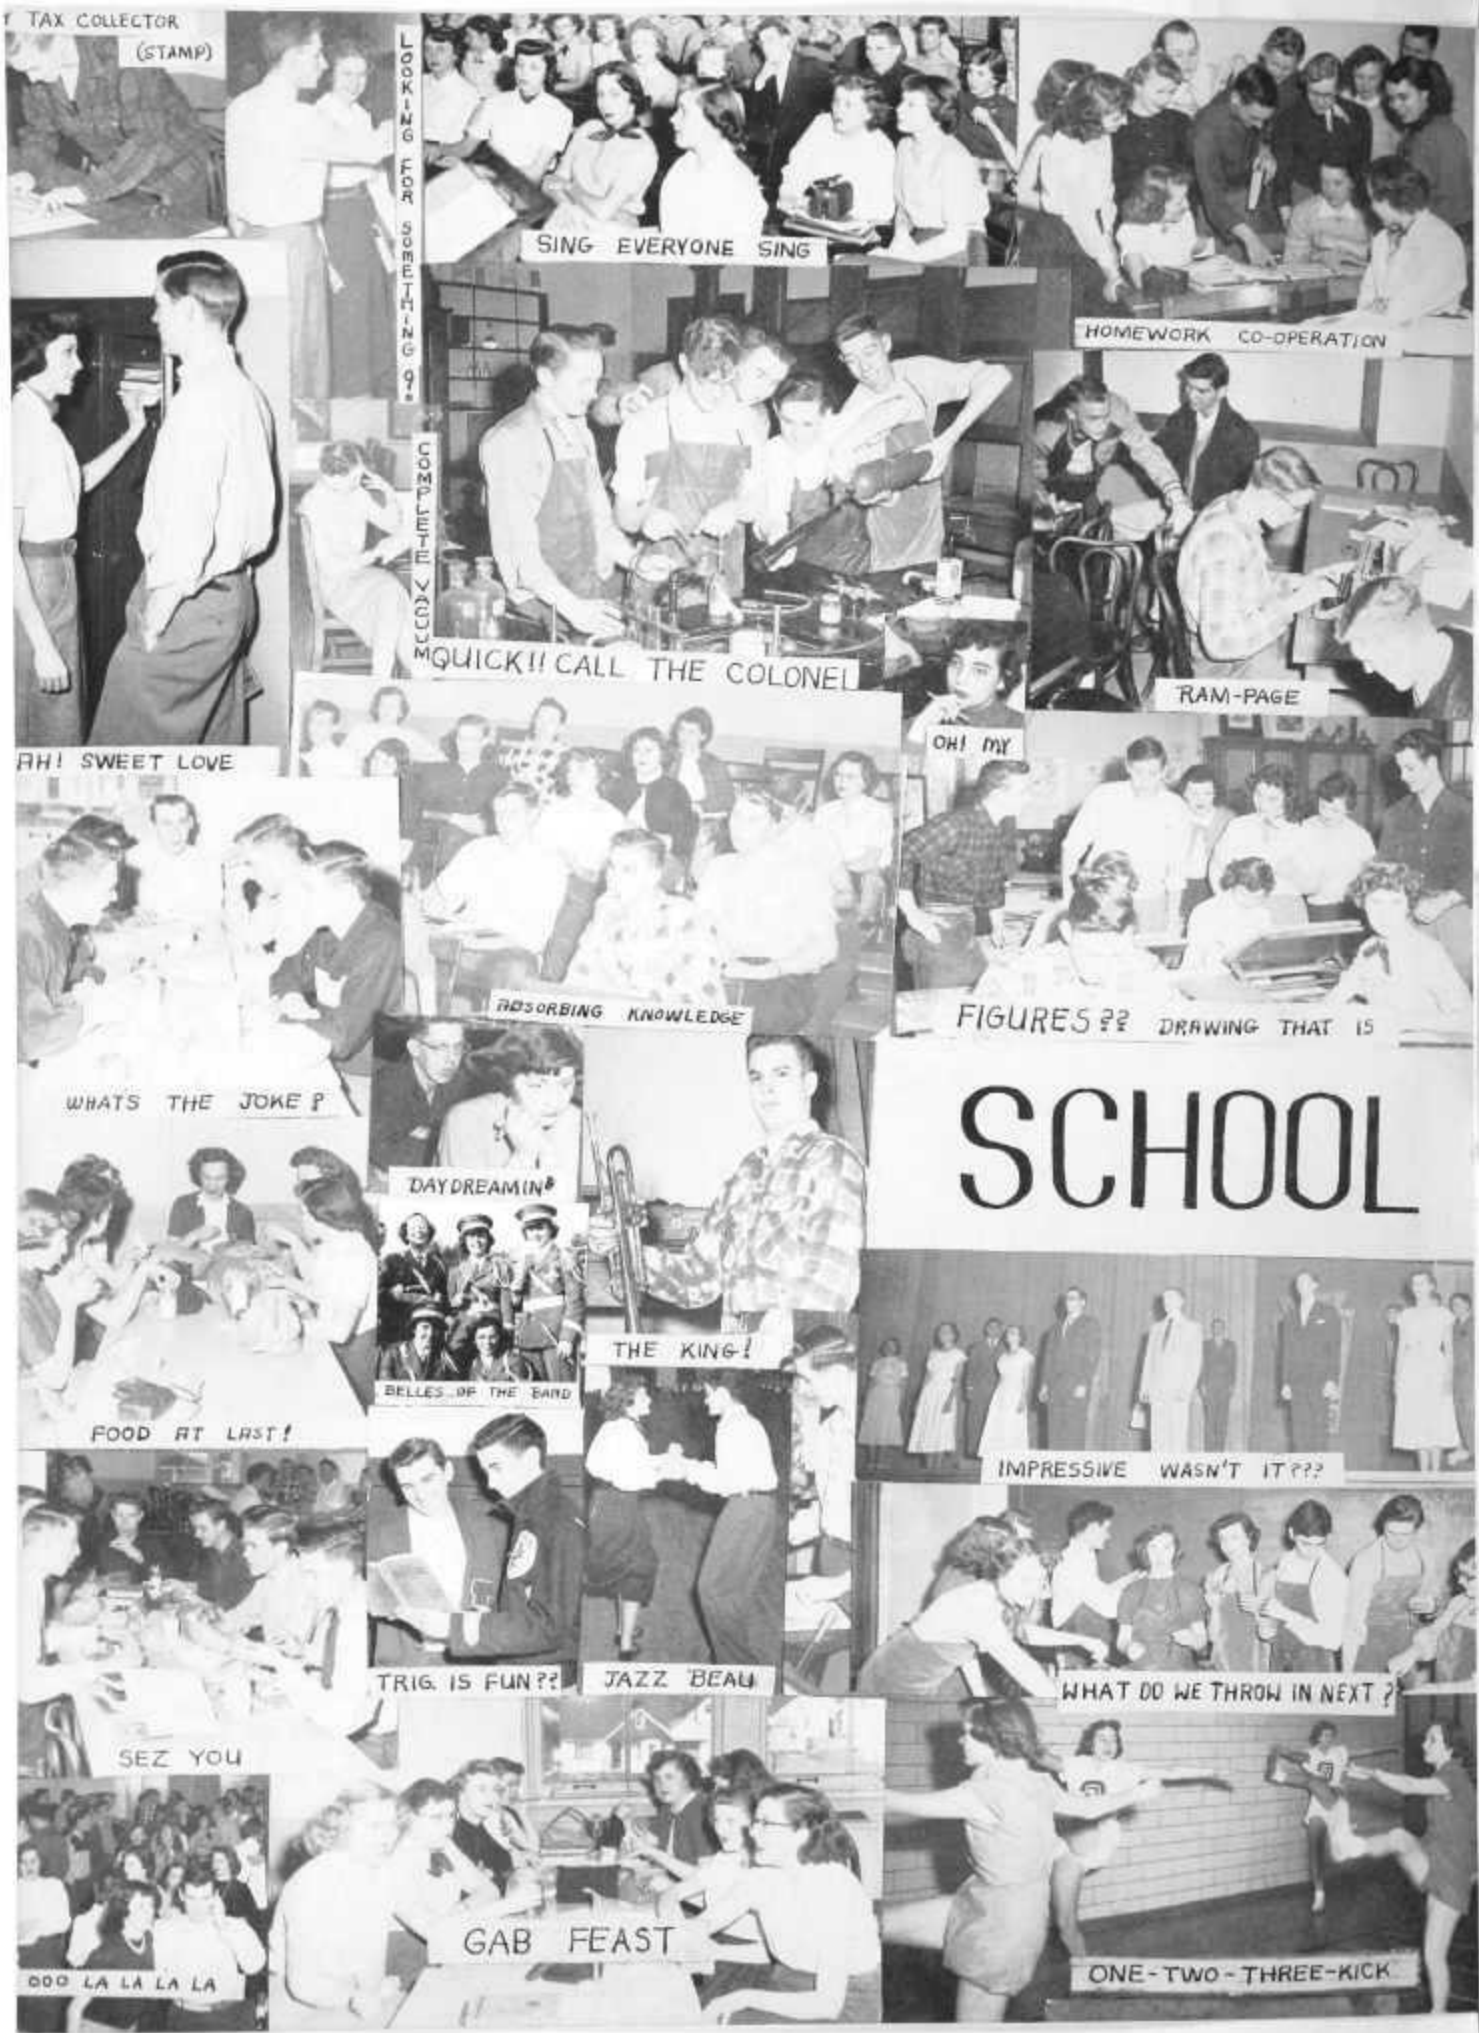

It seems our tour is now completed. But, wait, we have to find out what happened to our friends who haven't arrived yet. Walking to the edge of Cloud 52, we peer down through the fog toward Earth, and see first, RUTH PRYSTASH, flag-pole sitter, who won't come down till Rhodes wins another Charity Game.

In our perilous position we crouch, and observe that LEROY CERNY is just beginning his tenth term as barber at Sing-Sing.

There on Lake Erie our gaze focuses on CHUCK MITTELSTAEDT, who is still swabbing the deck.

At last we see the ruins of dear old Rhodes! But, what's that? Heaven's bells, it's PAUL PREISING still working on the Ohio State Psychological Test. Good luck, Paul!!

Well, our mission is completed, and we, ELWIN ROOY, and DIANE ECKERT, the libelous authors of the Class Prophecy must go to the place below, the spot the outcasts must go. But we don't know the way, and looking around we see a guide - - - - - come on, Mr. Hoffman, let's ooooooooooooooooooooo.

Last Will and Testament

We the brilliant hayseeds, who are on the wagon (hay), being of sound mind but slightly crushed body, do hereby bequeath the following to the remaining hayseeds who have not yet completed their ride.

THE FIRST STRAW—FACULTY:

To Ollie Hoffman we leave any and all food crumbs, so as to provide some work for his Gestapo of little boys and girls, the Citizens' Club.

To Mr. VanNortwick we humbly bequeath one slightly oversized toothpick, purely for comparative purposes.

To Miss Palmer, we leave Caesar, Cicero, Virgil, and the Latin Club, because we can't take them with us.

We fondly endow one small grizzly bear to Uncle Ray Merriman, so that he may successfully determine the components of its diet.

To E. H. Hartzell, we will an automatic shade regulator for the yellow blinds which are to be adjusted according to specifications.

To Miss Jenney, we leave all the spheres, prisms and solids we laboriously constructed in solid geometry.

We leave Mr. Seitz any and all bashed fenders and stripped gears, available to date, as well as a pat on the back for his patience and understanding with those excellent women drivers of the 12A Class.

To C. B. Ferguson, we leave a fully equipped sewing room, complete with needle and thread, for those seniors who can't finish the psychological test in three periods.

To Mr. Bereit, we provide the task of finding someone to fill the shoes of Harry Thom—use lead preferably.

To Mr. Schmidt and the band fund, we will a tax stamp printing press. We'll get those uniforms yet.

Uncle Bob Sifritt receives any and all notions he can get—combs, bobby pins, hooks, and straight pins.

To Mr. Howard, we bequeath one man-sized box of sanitary Cuetips.

To Mr. Folkman, we leave an autographed album of the Four—Aces.

To Mr. Henderson, we donate a life sized portrait of Dagmar (J. W.). He can dream, can't he?

To Miss Kenyon, we leave replacements for all the talented artists in our class, and the sincere thanks of all the girls for being such a wonderful home-room teacher.

To Miss Efficiency Davis, we, in all humility, bequeath one gold-plated, Swiss movement, and jeweled five second timer.

We leave Miss Wilson a bunch of daisies and a silencer for her telephone.

We leave Miss Brooker, one electric knuckle-cracker, so she'll never know Don Leyritz and Jim Kitko have gone.

To Mr. Tanko, we will a little red pencil to be used in censoring future wills and prophecies.

THE SECOND STRAW—UNDERCLASSMEN:

To the underclassmen we leave Bow Tie Day otherwise referred to as National Folkman Day.

To all those privileged girls, who are going with our handsome senior boys, we donate one box of Kleenex and a tear vial.

We leave that terrible psychological test to you, you lucky, lucky 12B's.

To all future sufferers of our cafeteria food (?), we offer our fond memories of the "Bring Your Lunch Campaign."

We leave all the underclassmen the laborious task of discovering who stole the hambone from Mr. Gaiser's skeleton.

THE THIRD STRAW—ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT:

To Mr. Moran we bequeath the most exciting and honor laden football season, our first charity game championship!

We leave Mr. Vannorsdall the problem of finding five hardwooders to replace our persevering quartet.

To Mr. Holden we give the publicity and student support that will help him win a few more meets.

Mr. Jacob can keep any outstanding racketeers still roaming the hallowed halls of J. F. R.—Tennis that is!

We graciously endow Mr. Moritz with a directional gadget for those boys who find it difficult to distinguish between right and left.

To Mrs. Cwik, we leave the half drowned swimmers and the out of step dancers to replace our intramural teams.

THE FOURTH STRAW—MISCELLANEOUS:

To the Social Studies Department, we wish to introduce the word terrific to replace that widely mispronounced word, tremendous, better known as tremen'jus.

The Triple Trio wills a dictionary to Mr. Van. They say either Mr. Van will have to broaden his vocabulary or the next Triple Trio shall have to broaden their minds.

Pat Scully leaves Jack McKenna.

Emma Engel leaves Rhodes to go to Frantz.

Beverly Moon bequeaths a four year subscription to Charles Atlas's body building course, to any female underclassman who wishes to build herself a he-man.

John Prysi, president of vice in our fair class, leaves his vice to the next vice president.

We leave our once bright and glittering halls dark once more. The engagees are taking their diamonds with them.

THE LAST STRAW—

We leave!
