JUNE CLASS
OF 1954

RHODES HYMN

Dear old Rhodes High
Thy wisdom lights our paths
Thy friendship true
Stays with us to the last.

We stand united
In thy purpose true
Loyal and faithful
To the white and blue.

MR. MARTIN

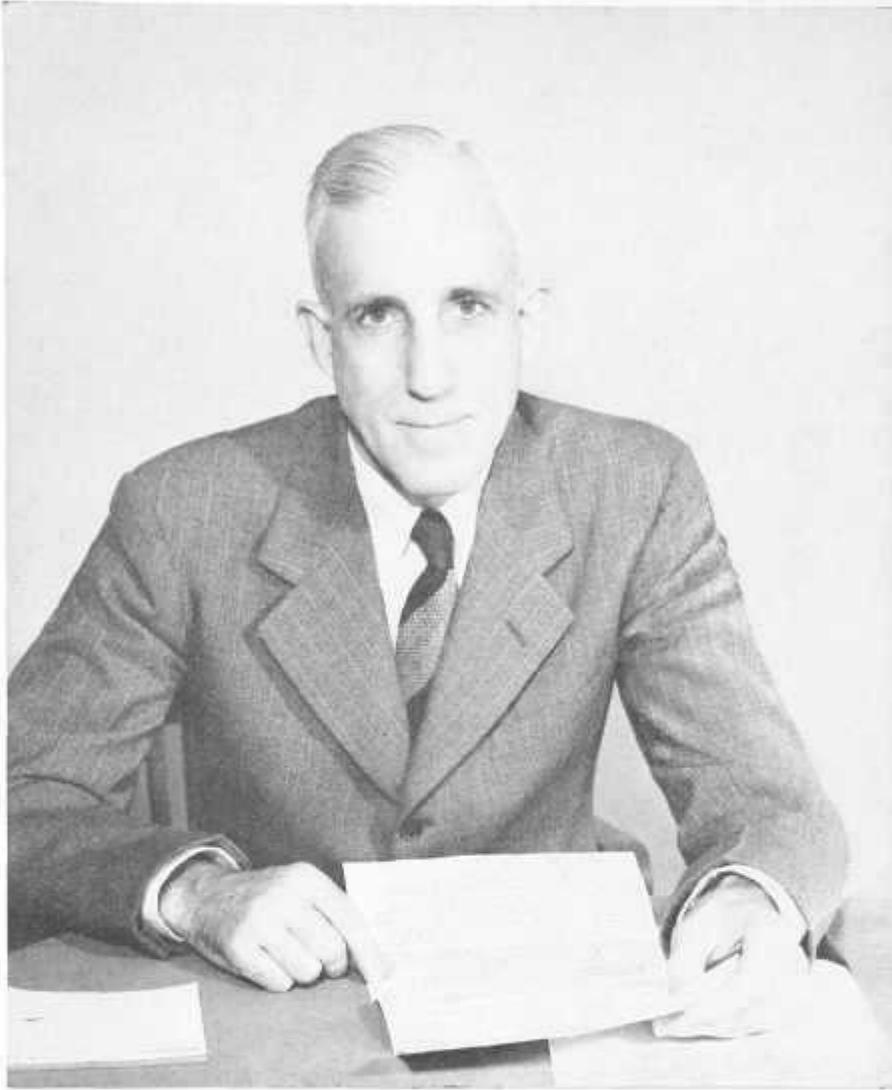

DEDICATION

To you for your guidance and interest you have shown these past years.

To you and your obvious sense of humor whether in class or outside.

To you for making our social events outstanding with your contributions.

To you Mr. Martin, we, the June Class of 1954, proudly dedicate our yearbook.

NEIL D. MATHEWS

To the Class of June, 1954:

A prominent citizen of our country recently stated that: "Given an atmosphere in which people can and will do their best, there is no limit to what may be accomplished. Never has there been a clearer demonstration of that simple theorem than in this nation's history. Never has so much been accomplished in so short a span of years. And if we preserve for the future the spur of individual initiative, the horizons will be bright indeed."

May each of you do your part in promoting and preserving an environment in which all will have the freedom and the will to do their best. In so doing, you will help insure the continued strength and prosperity of our "Sweet land of liberty." Best wishes.

NEIL D. MATHEWS

MISS HIER

MR. BRYAN

MR. FERGUSON

TO MISS HIER, MR. BRYAN, AND MR. FERGUSON

Our thanks to you for being the guiding lights of our high-school careers. A good example is always an incentive to follow. Although at times you had to be strict, we are sure that it was for our own good. We will long remember and appreciate your help and guidance whether our problems were large or small. To you we again wish to express our thanks.

KATHRYN KUENNINGER

VALEDICTORIAN

One of the highest honors one can receive is that of being valedictorian of his high school graduating class. We are proud to recognize Kathryn Kuenninger as having attained that position in our class. We know she will continue her record after graduation and will succeed in anything she attempts to do.

AL KEHOE

None of us will forget the bright-eyed cheerful smile of Al Kehoe, who went about his football managerial duties with lively zest. After being stricken with polio, he used this same zest to keep his spirits up during a long and painful recovery. As this picture was taken, Al had progressed to the point where he was able to move both arms and all his fingers. We, as a class, send Al our very best wishes and the hope that he'll be up and around soon.

CRAZY MIXED-UP KIDS!!

CLASS HISTORY

In September of the year 1950, a group of 162 bare-footed hillbillies came out from dem hills and went a seeking sum larin at good ol James Ford Rhodes. Banded together we war sat on bein the graduatin class of 1954.

Comin from dem thar hills we natcherly didn't know what ta expect at this hi-falootin hi skool, but we soon got into the groove at that shindig they called the Freshman git-aquainted.

Bein are "Glamor Gal of '50" "Emy" Morris war one of the first of us hillbillies ta bee menshuned in the Rhodes Review.

Some of are bigger bak-hill brothers—"Klem" Stibora, "Zeke" Kaercher, "Jerimiah" Hartman, and "Abe" Miller—led are Frosh Feetsball team ta an undefeeted season.

Durin that '50 Snow Storm we had quite a bak brak in time diggin areselves out-uv are shacks ta git bak ta that thar place of larnin.

We skun round are first semester with a musket bang by havin five of are brothers and sisters, "Ben" Bugay, "Klein" Gross, "Sally" Krstein, "Kati" Kuenniger, and "Daisy Mae" Lysaght, all on that thar Honor Roll.

Havin a vary talented class we natcherly had many brothers and sisters enter into the musik contest. Among those comin out on top, was "Annie" Reiland on the pyany and "Yodi" Young on that horn of his'n.

With a hole skool yeer behind us and the promises of the future we went bak ta the hills fer a three month rest.

Before acomin bak ta this hi-falootin hi-skool we went down Missouri way and cotched up "Coz" Osburn.

Now that we're not the unlearned hillbillies we wuz when we comed; and no longer considered the shoeless class, we wuz well on are way to being Sopomors.

We now had the qualificashuns of enterin the club shacks of are choice. Them as who culd take it wuz inishiated into Girls Leaders "Daisy" Schubert, "Caroli" Green, and "Sally" Krstein. Boys Leaders got "Dell" Keller, "Jamie" Chochola, and "Jerimiah" Hartman as new members. In the Audio Visual department we found "Abner" Lock, "Klem" Kunz, and "Luke" Stahley. "Daisy" Schubert war are only Citizen Clubber.

"Gee whiskers," wuz we confoozed when we done got letters an attude marks on are next markin cards.

At this time we went ta are first "Hard-Up" game and romped the Railroaders, 21-14.

"Ned" Newman war the first of are brothers ta win a letter on his leg ability.

Those of us who made are ma's and pa's reel proud wuz, Lock, Cutting, Schubert, Benditz, Kelly, Morris, Garner, Young, Wieland, Minto, Kuhn, and Vargo, who appeared in the musikal "For Old Times Sake."

"Louie" Lorek got a Writers Award for usin his hands and head for a short story. Also in head and hand awards for their art ability wuz "Ro" Kracoe, "Yokum" Pawul, Wolf "Girl," "Lulu" Costa, "Lulabelle" Novy, and "Janie" Hahn.

"Clarence" Matousek, squeeekin on his fiddle and "Nany" Keihl, poundin away on her pyany, won musikal awards.

"Zuzu" Zimmerman and "Lonie" Brandenburg went afeudin for the title of Posture Queen.

Bein among dem nimble fingered critters "Mazi" Orack and "Katy" McCann wuz the only typists on the Review.

We're told that interstin things happen down in swimmin holes, so "Loukie" Allen, "Klem" Pinnow, and "Louie" Lorek begun to investigate and organized the Terraqua Club.

Hoping fer some fun with are bakwood cozins, we decided to see Ma and Pa and started out ta are three months vacashun bak home.

Now us 'ns bein Juniors, we begun takin are place among the officers of clubs. They wuz: FTA "Klein" Gross, President, "Janie" Hahn, Vice President, and "Sally" Krstein, Secretary. Along a these wuz: Terraqua Club, "Loukie" Allen and "Oggie" Linderman, President and Vice President, respectively. Girls Glee Club boasted "Daisy" Schubert, Vice President and "Pretzie" Pecl, Treasurer.

October of '52 brought in a hole shebang of are cozins into the nooly formed Boys Glee Club. Also in October are own "Emy" Morris becum one of the first gal cheerleaders at Rhodes.

Risin the curtain on the Great Big Doorstep, "Lauri" Vargo and "Gugo" Kuhn distinguished themselves.

Lookin mightie purti in thar new robes the Senior Choir made its annual Christmas concert a jumpin success.

Because of that barefetted experienc in the hills, "Ned" Neuman, "Al" Tomek, "Clem" Mackulin, and "Zeke" Hood distinguished themselves up the hill n down dale.

"Mae" Sikorski and "Sally" Krstein won honors in ping pong and badmitton respectively, while "Pretzie" Pecl, "Amy" Minto, and "Daisy" Schubert enjoyed swimmin in the YWCA swimmin hole to corn jug musik.

Our first brothers and sisters ta hold public office of are class wuz "Jodi" Gercle, President, "Yodi" Young, Vice President; "Janie" Hahn, Secretary, "Lulabelle" Stazione, Treasurer; "Daisy" Schubert, Social Chairman.

Dem kids that went ahead in slookarship, service, leadership, and character wuz inducted into the N.H.S. They wuz: "Melly" Stevens, "Louie" Lorek, "Klein" Gross, "Glo" Mohnacky, "Daisy Mae" Lysaght, and "Lukie" Van Court.

Bout this time we had are first Jambouere that war like bein in dem hills bak hom cauz it war "This Is Heaven," held on April 22. Right after this we all took ta the wood and had a swell time at are pickunick on May 20.

In April the musik department put on the oppretta "Waltz Dream" with many of us 'ns takin part in the chorus, "Lukie" Van Court had one of the leads playin Leutenant Niki.

One of are top gals, "Lonie" Brandenburg, runned away with the award of Track Queen.

Now with are Junior yeer over we are lookin taward are last yeer at that skool of larin.

Now that we wuz bak at 5100 Bidulph, we felt areselves being pulled taward graduatshun.

Ta lead us brothers and sisters on ta are 12B semester wuz "Jodi" Gercle, President; "Del" Keller, Vice President; "Amy" Minto, Secretary; "Annie" Bertin, Treasurer; and "Daisy" Schubert, Social Chairman.

Are social doins brought in by: "Evvie" Boehm, "Janie" Hahn, "Daisy Mae" Lysaght, "Melly" Stevens, "Nori" Repp, "Yodi" Young, "Coz" Osburn, "Luke" Ingersoll, and "Hiram" Biggs, wuz are Metropolitan Park Feed and that dancin shindig, "By the See."

"Amy" Minto and "Lee" Riddick had quite a time at those Red Feather Agencies. They war so good they had ta give a talkin ta the hole student body at one of those doins they call an assemblay. Well, fact of the matter is, "Amy" Minto did so well that she war voted the best of dem thar student speakers.

Nooly selected members of that N.H.S. Club wuz: "Lani" Praznick, "Noni" Naujoks, "Annie" Bertin, "Lee" Riddick, and "Abraham" Pinnow, after which a feed war held in their honor.

Marnin after marnin outer that thar raddyo com the derndest yalpin's 'n caterwallin's from "Coz" Osburn on a programme us 'ns call "Dog Patch Scratchins."

The Big Shots of clubs this yeer wuz: "Louki" Allen, President of the German Club; "Pretzie" Pecl, President; "Noni" Rowe, Vice President; "Lulabelle" Stazione, Treasurer. In the Home Economic Club wuz: "Lonie" Brandenburg, President; "Bobbi" Dacek, Vice President, and "Caroli" Green, Secretary-Treasurer. F.T.A., "Klein" Gross, Vice President, and "Sally" Krstein, Secretary. "Noni" Naujoks, President; "Lauri" Vargo, Vice President; "Annie" Reiland, Secretary, and "Jani" Kautz, Treasurer; wuz the F.N.A. officers. In Senior Choir we took all the places of distingshun with "Yodi" Young, "Mat" Garner, "Daisy" Schubert, and "Al" Tomek as President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer respectively. "Daisy" Schubert war Secretary and "Amy" Minto war Social Chairman of Citizen Club. We also sported "Jani" Kautz as Senior Y-Teen President.

Us hillbillies felt purrti proud of are feetsball team when they won the "Hard-Up" game in '53, beetin the Bengals, 40-14, especially since are own brother "Lil Abner" Burke distinguished himself by throwin that thar watermellen around quit a lot. Other brothers of distingshun playin war: "Jerimiah" Hartman, "Klem" Kearcher, "Yokum" Pawul, and "Joly" Saunders.

"Order! Order in dis here court." Dis war the line openin the play "Night of January 16" presented on December 3-4. Thespians of are class takin part wuz: "Lauri" Vargo, "Luki" VanCourt, and "Lovi" Schillinger.

Now with are 12B semester over we wuz lookin taward are very expensive 12A semester. This war it, are last semester, we all wuz lookin ta graduashun with hi hopes. Sum of us even had that twittery feelin in are stomachs already.

Takin the reins of are all class war "Big Brothers": Mr. Tanko and Mr. Ferguson and "Big Sisters" Miss McGinness and Miss Balash.

We got under way with elections again. When completed, the office of President war filled by "Yodi" Young; Vice President, "Coz" Osburn; Secretary, "Annie" Bertin; Treasurer, "Lulabelle" Stazione; Social Chairman, "Melly" Stevens; and "Amy" Minto war are Yearbook Chairman.

We war well represented in the All City Choir with "Bea" Lily, "Luki" VanCourt, "Clarence" Matousek, "Daisy" Schubert, "Nany" Keihl, and "Elli" Mathias.

Bout now it war time ta order name cards and pikaturs, with the biggest problem bein the money ta pay for dem.

In are last semester, "Loukie" Allen, "Amy" Minto, "Daisy" Schubert, "Yodi" Young, "Lauri" Vargo, "Anni" Sekerak, "Ike" Klepitch, "Maxi" Walzak, "Sherri" Mahany, "Dorry" Leser, and "Bobbi" Clark wuz elected into the N.H.S.

Are social doins begun with a swimmin hole in the middle of the gym floor with palm trees and pillars around it. Us hillbillies went a steppin on April 24th in an "Arabian Night" setting. Next we had are usual feed at are pickunick on May 12.

The biggest jambouree of are four years war are Prom on June 5.

And now with the Prom over and commencement on its way we'll soon be goin are separate ways. Some of us hillbillies will return ta dem thar hills, some off ta higher larnin and some off ta the big city. But wherever we go we 'un 'll alluz be bounded together by the ties of friendship which we hev made here at dear ol Rhodes High.

CLASS PROPHECY

This prophecy is a "red herring" — we do not believe that the world will go Communist! But, if it did, we believe this is what the June Class of 1954 would be doing. This prophecy is meant to be taken only in fun—so please, Senator McCarthy, don't investigate.

The date is June 10, 1984; the place, Clevelandgrad. The capitalistically oppressed peoples of the world have been gloriously liberated by the glorious communist armies for the glory of comrade premier John Youngski, beloved dictator of the world.

This world revolution was carried out by the use of state physicist Dick Lindermanovich's invention—The Tell-a-Traitor, a television device which enables the communists to spy on any person in the world, at any time, anywhere, and in any condition!

From within the high forbidding stone walls of the American Kremlin (formerly the Fascist High School Rhodes) the Tell-a-Traitor is scanning the world to find the whereabouts of some capitalistic fugitives of the June Class of 1954.

These traitors have already been tried, convicted, and sentenced according to the best communist methods. Only two jobs have yet to be done, apprehension and liquidation.

On hand to carry out these two dangerous assignments are the biggest, strongest, roughest groups of the Clevelandgrad secret police: Phillip Pinnowski, Jim Kammerov, Irene Klepichski, Gloria Monockyovich, and Jean Zimmermanstoi. As the Tell-a-Traitor finds a Rhodes "Trotskyite," "Bryanite," or "Titoist," these officers with ruthless cunning will capture him, arrest him, and drag him off to the deep, dark, dank, and dusty dungeons of the cellars of the Kremlin where he will get a treatment of communist liquidation.

It will be remembered that here one of the most glorious victories of the revolution was won when 50 Rhodes teachers were exterminated by "red" infiltrators Harry Hartellovich, Earl Boggski, and Judy Mathiastoi before the advancing armies of the "Russian Confederacy" led by Field Marshall Danny "Robert E." Riddickov.

The Tell-a-Traitor controls are all set — comrade electrician Bob Klimov is taking care of all mechanical problems and comrade boss inquisitor Jacqueline Vargoski is directing the investigation. Now, the camera will find the unsuspecting traitors in awkward positions.

Comrade Ron Drachenburgovich and his wife are celebrating 31 years of happily married life with their 39 communist kids.

Red Prima Donna Nancy Mintov is starring in author Harrold Kautzski's new musical comedy, "Where's Charlie?" . . . Osburnovich???

What's this? — The Clevelandgrad Common Hospital! There's the eminent commie doctor, Welzie Allenov, discovered of the new miracle drug "marilynium" that cures "pular" disease. And there is comrade doctor Glenn Bugayovich giving some "businessovich" to comrade undertaker Thea Shirakstoi. Thea's embalmer is commie Gloria Buchtelov, who uses hydrochloric acid as an embalming fluid (a habit she acquired in chem lab). Harry Arnoldstoi is in charge of all in-coming victims of this 100% death rate hospital. It saves the state money this way.

What country is this? Why it's Communist China and there is missionary Marge Kristeinstof. What's that she's preaching? The Doctrine of Lenin! Huh?

In China's Peking University is the Communist "Brain" Katie Kuennengerski teaching the Communist Manifesto, of course.

Stationed in China are the glorious heroes of the Clevelandgrad Airforce, Airborne Division, Ray Hrabokov, Bill Sanderstoi, Bob Tamburrov, Ed Paceovich, Harmon Millerovich, and Dick Pawulski. Their original assignment was Siberia, but their commanding officer "Big Bill" Moritzovich side-TRACKed them on their journey.

The Tell-a-Traitor is now focusing on the high towers of the Moscow Foreign Affairs Council. Comrade officer Marie Kiehlov is the hit of the committee meeting with her capitalistic jokes. A special treatment is advocated—"brain washing."

Having a "foreign affair" is Wanda Beboski. Seems she won't have anything to do with men from the American Peoples Republic ever since her "Benedict" turned traitor.

Walter Onyxski is in a Moscow concentration camp starving to death; his jailers won't let him eat during homeroom anymore.

Comrade Ron Fortuneovich is on the screen, emptying a bottle of antifreeze into his jalopy—the same one that broke down on the way to “Youngs’” skis.

Brian “Bullet” Burke was shot—that’s right—from a gun.

Focusing on the good ship “Rose Marie,” the Tell-a-Traitor finds comrade captain John Matousekstoi. From its deck Comrade Dolores Fischerov is fishing. She’s caught something! Why it’s a copper fish! And there’s comrade Noreen Reppov still attached to it.

Among the passengers on board are three single girls of the classy comrade spinsters, Joan Kaminski, Lois Sikorski, and Carol Widowski—all the other girls had their last names changed.

Comrade Judge Richard Habustaovich, upon examining the record of party member, Bob Tomekov, has given him a full pardon. He was a real Red—in fact during his four years of high school he was always “red.”

There’s comrade photographer Paul Spohnovich in his studio finally developing those rolls and rolls of film he took during his term at Rhodes. His partner is ace movie operator—Dave Stahleyov.

The Tell-a-Traitor has found a real capitalist. It’s furrier Glenn Tessmanski trying to pin a mink label on a squirrel pelt. He will learn not to pin a label where it doesn’t fit when the secret police are through with him.

Norma Muellerstoi has a job in a pretzel factory, so she can get her supply at reduced prices.

And there’s Jackie Peclovich in a dilemma. She’s still trying to figure out why “Ca” is called Pretzelovich in chemistry lab.

The Russians like ballet so much that Nancy Kellyski has become the star in their own show. “Interpretations of Modern Dance.” Is that the stuff they taught in Rhodes gym classes?

Speaking of dancing, Robert Dacekov is now an A-1 wallflower; or, in other words, she’s a flower of “Wally.”

A big bookkeeping problem for the secret police is comrade Larry Cshanyovichskitoiov. Who’s he? He used to be called Larry Cshany, and was that hard to pronounce!

“Big Boy” in the drive-in restaurant business is Norm Maennerski.

There’s Ma’s! No! it’s the home of Sandie Mileski and her brood of 263. She started off with just 17 when she was very “young.”

Comrade Movie Star Jim “Valentino” Kaecherov is a big dream-boat matinee “idle.” He’s still the same old Kaecherov.

Commissar of Education Jack Kehnovich has liquidated all English classes—just his love for “Roosian.”

Comrade Model Rita “Woof” Wolfski is starting in the dogpatch funnies. She’s warming up for the Sadie Hawkinski Day Race.

Speaking of “woofs,” Louise Mengski has gone to the dogs—running Mengski’s Kennel.

A sad case is John Gerdelovich, a psychopath who demands quiet. Seems he killed a guy just for “singing in the bathtub.”

WOW! On the screen is Leona Brandenburgovich in a bathing suit, trying to be queen for some swimming team.

Comrade promoter Dick Frantzski is in a big brawl with Communist Wrestling Commissioner Dave Neringstoi in the ring at Madison Square Gardenoff. He says his rassler, Ron Chocholavich wasn’t pinned by Red Devil Don Geniecov. Oh, well, the Reds win everything in a communist world.

Cathy McCannovich has gone in for philosophy in a big way. She’s on the tell-a-traitor screen reading Platov’s “Apology.” Well, pardon us!

There’s a new hair style—a crew cut for girls. Looks like Comrade Barber Mary Stazinnovich was practicing and got carried away.

Still working on the first draft of the Class Prophecy is Comrade writer Dave Lorekov.

On the Tell-a-Traitor screen is pictured Cellblock 11 of the Rhodes penitentiary (just coincidence). Here are some traitors who have already been caught:

In Cell One is Pat Steinstoi, who was arrested for fishing out of season (she caught a karp.) Leah is her cellmate. Leah was caught using vile and villainous language on Ovich—Leah Swearsovich.

Nobody knows why Fred Jacksonov is in Cell Two. Fred still will do anything he's dared to do. They dared him to —! He did it!

In cell three, for three years, is Willie "Sutton" Andrewstoi, left over from the days when he was caught burning "Big Bill's" cut slips. He just got tired of seeing so many of the little green things.

Trusty Jerry Nyzykov is prison librarian. He's a graduate of South Brooklyn Branch.

Commie warden of the jail is Dolores Leserovich. She runs it like she ran her chemistry class at school—tries to get extended terms for jail breakers.

Ed Newmanski and Bob Mackulinov were caught by Mr. Holdenovich. He wants them to go out for track in the Olympic Games.

Comrade Russ Arndtov is head of the Salvation Army Drum and Bugle Corps which Senator Carole "McCarthy" McCahillski investigated as a capitalistic front—there's a switch.

Comrade printer George Hoodovich is under surveillance for printing a subversive pamphlet, "The Capitalist Manifesto," which was written by Millionaire Auto Manufacturer Bob Johnsonov.

Johnsonov made his $$$ by selling cars to Comrade Autowrecker Bob Powellski.

An odd looking building is in the Tell-a-Traitor monitor. It's the house with the two way stretch designed by Comrade Joy Praznikov.

Ingride Blusski and Sandra Benditzov are still hanging around together—any old joint will do.

Daisy Brasski and Carol Lillyovich have gone into partnership and opened a flower shop.

Fulfilling a life's ambition, Comrade Tom Garnerstoi has invented a perpetual motion machine and is in outer space trying it out.

Comrade Jeanette Mackov has bought a pair of elevator shoes so she can see her boyfriend.

Serving only Russian food in their restaurant, two comrade cooks have this sign above their door, "Hazinakiski Pizza, by Angela and Miritza, fine Polish cooks."

Attending communist driving school after 31 years of trying for their licenses are Eunice Brookerof, Sylvia Naujolkski, Marilyn Groosovitch, and Lillian Costastoi. They have just ruined their 2,931 dual-controlled driver training car and their 2,931 dual-controlled driver training teacher.

Detective Tom Timkov just found all those books he missed in high school.

The Tell-a-Traitor has discovered Carol Greenovich ruining the economic system by passing out free bakers' samples.

Author Marie Freitagski has written a new book on party-games. She calls it "How to Play King and Keep Warm."

Comrade Carol Okeson has found the perfect boy friend. He has a car, money, position, and most important of all, he's not too bright.

Government agent Don Kellerovich has talked himself into a position on the Politbureau and is trying to get off before they "pull it."

Comrade Anita Bertinov is "kind to her web-looted friend."

On screen, the official communist newspaper, Rhoda (named after the Russian Pravda and not because Allen Ingersolovich owns it.) It features sarcastic and scathing editorials by Janice Hahnski, who always had an answer for everything. On the front page are pictures of some Clevelandgrad personalities who are working hard for the state. There's Janet Cuttingov with the 300 pound tomato she raised; Darelen Collovich with the new system of short-hand she devised; Comrade Auto Mechanics Bob Lockski and Fred Kunzstoi with the external disbus-tion engine they invented; and Gloria Kuhn-ovich with a "Rainbow."

Nominated for treasurer of the communist party, Lorna Schubertstoi accepted when she found out there was no social chairman office.

Adele Schmidtovich is singing "I got the bell-bottom blues" since her sailor boy has been on duty for the last 15 years.

Pardonee, may we, see see Pauline LaFontaineovich do ze can-can of 'er dance studee-o! Her assistant is Janice Hannastoi, inventor of zee new dance—zee "Honey Hug."

Shocking everybody in sight is John Kovelstoi, who dug up his old dry-cell set.

Barbara Playfordovich is having another snowball fight with "Bobbie."

Roberta Clarkov has become a walking encyclopedia now that she's memorized all those notes she took in school.

Clevelandgrad is experiencing an epidemic of food poisoning and chief cooks for the cities souplines Bill Kopenski and Tim Dick-ski are under suspicion.—Boys' chef training!

Comrade Musicians Carole Vargastoi, Beverly Bachmanovich, and Anne Reislanski have former a three-girl polka band and have been booked by Agent Gerry Gutwirthov to watch the submarines come in at the Sky-Way Lounge!

"Rollie" Kracoeki is bouncing around on the Tell-a-Traitor screen shouting, "Tennis, anyone!"

Proudly displaying that "frat" pin she waited so long to get is Evie Boehmovich.

Joan Schillingerstov has lost her way among other things.

Mary Lucaskov is just getting over the Ohio State Psychological test.

In college Marcia Morrystoi is having a "swell" time studying chemistry. Seems her new professors name is Hendersonski!

Joseph Bojorekov, Dave Dominov, Ray Di-Niccolovich, and Ron Davisovich are sitting around a table playing a game. Ooops! Well, that's one less to liquidate—Russian Roulette.

Carole Stalterov has just completed a new slang dictionary, defining "West Tech," "would-ja," and Mr. Jacobs.

Comrade Auto Stylist Lois Novystoi says two-tone green will always be in vogue.

Anne Woodovich married John Axeovich and is now raising a couple of chips off the old blockovich.

Working their way up, Carol Gallagherski and Mary Ann Holmakov now own the cigarette counter and the soda bar at the Standard Drug Store.

Nancy Gail Davis still has a two-word vocabulary: "precious," and "darling." She's a case of a "wasted word wealth."

Comrade Nancy Roweski now owns 59 different pairs of glasses—she must have eye trouble.

"Madman" Dave Marsinicov, used car salesman, is being driven home again. He sold his last car.

Joseph Lozinakstoi is still a good Joe to know.

Receiving a used toga as a reward for translating Virgil's Axeneid into Arabic is Adelle Lysaghtovich who took four years of the stuff. Or was that Latin????

The Tell-a-Traitor has picked up Mary Stevenski and Joy Walzakov, painting the town "red" as all good little commies should do!

Commisar Janet Kautzski is president of the Y.W.C.A.—Young Women's Communist Association.

George Stiboraovich sure had a good sun-tan while in high school. He still hasn't faded.

Comrades Marie Orakov, Mildred Oskypokovich, Joyce Mansonstoi, and Maxine Kitkov are on the screen and are still very quiet. It's the quiet ones that are dangerous—still water runs deep.—etc.

Commisar Ray Hartmanski of Physical Education was assassinated by his pupils because Ray never stopped counting until he reaches at least 150.

Comrade Carole Kuchtaovich is making stoles in a stole factory.

Comrades Nancy Weberov, Dorothy Cashinski, LaVerne Smiarstoi, and Pat Koranovich are on the screen reading the same book, "How to Make Friends and Influence People."

Thespian Bob VanCourtovich is starring in a new movie, "Conquering Casanova," in which Comrade Singer Mell Cookski plays "Hillbilly Heaven" on his uke.

A bird refuge has been opened by Martha Pangracestoi.

A refuge for office workers has been opened by Shirley Mahanyiski and Anne Sekerakov after years of assistance to Miss McGinness and Mr. Siffritov.

Ron Deutchski has hired Bob Wielandski to defend him on the charge of singing a criminal song "Deutschland liber alis." Ron says he was singing Deutch loves liver always.—Oh, well!

Dolores Rybnicekski is related to Liberace—George!

Comrade songstress Pat Keilski has revived an old song and made it a new hit—"Lispering."

A very popular fellow is Bob Bowmanov, who was made director of internal revenue and is surrounded by cute, curvy figures.

Comrade Barbara Riceski ended up in a pudding.

After 7 years of searching the Tell-a-Traitor has not been able to locate Don Boguski and he is presumed out running cross-country.

The hardest person to find is Esther Gigante, but even this elusive one was caught by the all-seeing eye of the Tell-a-Traitor!

The secret police have done their work and all the traitors of the June class of 1954 are in the dungeons of the American Kremlin.

No one will be spared the treatment!

Everyone will get a dose of communist liquid-ation!

So break out with the liquid!

June '54 Class Will

The '54 Class in this little ditty
To the students behind leave our deepest pity;
But since we are walking at last through the door
To the students behind we leave even more.

MENTAL QUIRK I

- Sympathy A—We bestow unto the 12B's 160 "tidy" lockers and hope that they make good use of the paper clips, shoe strings, comic books, and stale pretzels.
- Sympathy B—The good deeds of the Rhodas, Alphas, and Sigmas are imparted to the younger members.
- Sympathy C—The 12A troubadours and troubadettes of the choir, octette, and triple trio leave behind their royal robes, the "innards" of which will be hard to fill.
- Sympathy D—The "Atoms" and Eves of the graduating class present Mr. Henderson with a new set of tinker toys.

MENTAL QUIRK II

- Sympathy A—Jim and Dick yield their pre-warmed bench seats to any prospective football heroes.
- Sympathy B—Sandy Miles donates her "rippling" laughter to all those who come after it.
- Sympathy C—Danny entrusts his Confederate flag to Rita.
- Sympathy D—Job Turchanic inherits the athletic ability of Philip Pinnow.
- Sympathy E—"Vesty" Linderman, the model's model, sacrifices his title and hand-me-downs to Gorgeous Gallagher.
- Sympathy F—Dave Lorek returns his "squirrel" to the trees.
- Sympathy G—Bob "Toni" Bowman passes on his secret of "hard to manage hair" to Irene Vourliotis.

MENTAL QUIRK III

- Sympathy A—The Airbourne takes off. Good-bye Mr. Moritz.
- Sympathy B—As a reflection of pleasant memories, Marcia Morris leaves a bouquet of forget-me-nots to Mr. Henderson.
- Sympathy C—Great hopes are left to the lost Mr. Gaiser who may still be down at the Zoo searching for the definition of a "Welzie Allen."
- Sympathy D—A ball, a chain, and the pole position in the Sadie Hawkin's Day Race is left to Mr. McCullough.
- Sympathy E—To Mr. Folkman we dispose of the task of paraphrasing Shakespeare.

MENTAL QUIRK IV

- Sympathy A—Tom Garner leaves the O of the NROTC to anyone who can fill it.
- Sympathy B—After watching John Gerdel play "defense," a bundle of Joy cannot be given away.
- Sympathy C—John Matousek takes with him his half of the lost chord, the rest belongs to Anthea Liberace.
- Sympathy D—Lorna Schubert dedicates her personality to the next recluse who thinks she can use it.
- Sympathy E—Job leaves Alice.

MENTAL QUIRK V

- Sympathy A—The authors, Glenn and Adelle.
