JANUARY CLASS 1956

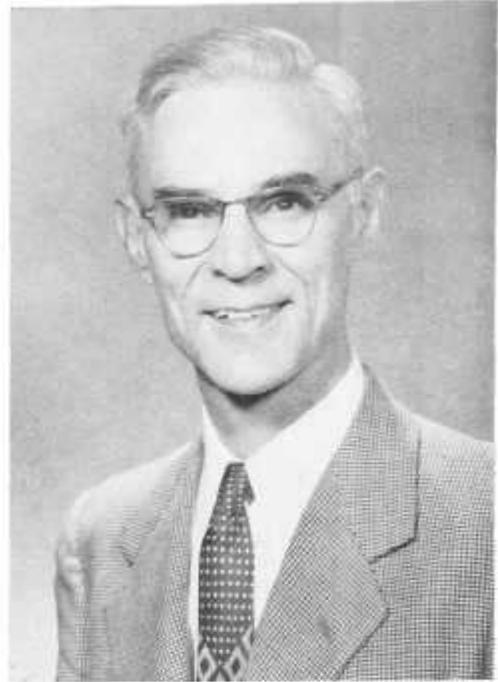

RHODES HYMN

Dear old Rhodes High
Thy wisdom lights our paths
Thy friendship true
Stays with us to the last.

We stand united
In thy purpose true
Loyal and faithful
To the white and blue.

From the very beginning when you welcomed us as confused freshmen until the last few inspiring moments, we will always remember you, Miss Millard and Mr. Jacob, as a real part of our class. Instead of supervising our activities you have joined in them, proving that you are sincerely one of us.

Because you were always so willing to help solve our problems, both in and out of school, we thank you, Miss Millard.

We thank you, Mr. Jacob, for doing many gratefully appreciated things for us, such as not giving us homework on the nights of special class activities.

To you both we dedicate our yearbook.

NEIL D. MATHEWS

To Members of the Class of January, 1956:

We hope that these past few years at Rhodes High School have helped in some degree to prepare each of you to take your place as an effective citizen of this great nation of ours. We hope that your work here has improved your capacity to do your own thinking and that, as a result of your thinking, you constantly will be alert to the responsibilities and duties of citizenship. Thus will you join the ever-growing number of Rhodes graduates of whom both your school and your community are justifiably proud.

Best wishes to each of you.

NEIL D. MATHEWS,
Principal

MISS HIER

MR. GAISER

MR. FERGUSON

We wish to express our thanks to you, our advisors.

Thank you, Miss Hier, for helping us over the trying times. You always found a solution to our problems. Your willingness to help was appreciated.

Mr. Gaiser, thank you for understanding us. You proved the things we did could be understood.

The advice and information you have given us about our aims, Mr. Ferguson, will stay with us always.

We hope that we have done as much for Rhodes as you have done for us.

Sincerely,

The Class of January, 1956

Class Will

We the class of January, 1956, being of questionable sanity, stand before the court making our final try for clemency and hereby make and publish our last will and testament.

THE WITNESSES TESTIFY

To Miss Jenney we leave the solution to this snap mental problem . . .

(___/38495670891156970234.6785930239411
/ —(1111.57483923)^{4.5687}23.5687934

To Miss Davis we give one ticket to Thule, Greenland.

To Mr. McCullough we present a cheer-leader's outfit for the benefit of the boys on the bench.

To Mr. Merriman we leave a new battery for his coal miner's hat.

To Mr. Van Nortwick we leave a ten-years' supply of gasoline (1 quart).

To Mr. Jacob we leave a seat next to Abe at The Lincoln Memorial.

To Miss Millard we leave "Frieda" to add to her collection of elephants.

To Mr. Sifritt we surrender all our "thrill pills."

To Mr. Tanko we present an army cot so he may sleep at Rhodes and thus keep "Rhodians" all hours of the night.

We leave Stanley . . . TOO BAD!!!

THE JURY DECIDES

Al Richards leaves a bronze replica of his beautiful legs to "Hawkeye" Henderson.

The class departs wondering whether Carole Gladrow's dog wears cashmere.

Doug Naumann leaves everyone with broken eardrums and confetti in his hair.

To up and coming Rhodian glamour girls Loreene leaves her secrets of making short hair long . . . quick!!!

Dave Neale leaves his "German sayings" to future football teams.

We leave without Ruth Schmidt . . . she is still combing her hair.

Pat ReMalia and Dot Wilczynski leave . . . the best of friends.

Johanne Zelenka and Jerry Chajkowski leave their chauffeurs' licenses.

"Tennessee Tish" leaves Murphy to the biology lab.

"Crazy Oz" leaves Wally going crazy.

Bev Wolf and Bob Schmidt leave . . . the 12A class hot on their trail.

THE JUDGE STATES

We leave Crystal Beach and its "friendly" patrons to all unsuspecting females.

To the 12B girls we leave the map to the exchange cabin from the "Rhoda raiders."

We leave the good times at Betty Ann's cottage.

The Metas leave you with this thought . . . "Keep it legal!"

Tears and sympathy are left to the underclassmen who are without the use of Toni Crisafi's cabaret.

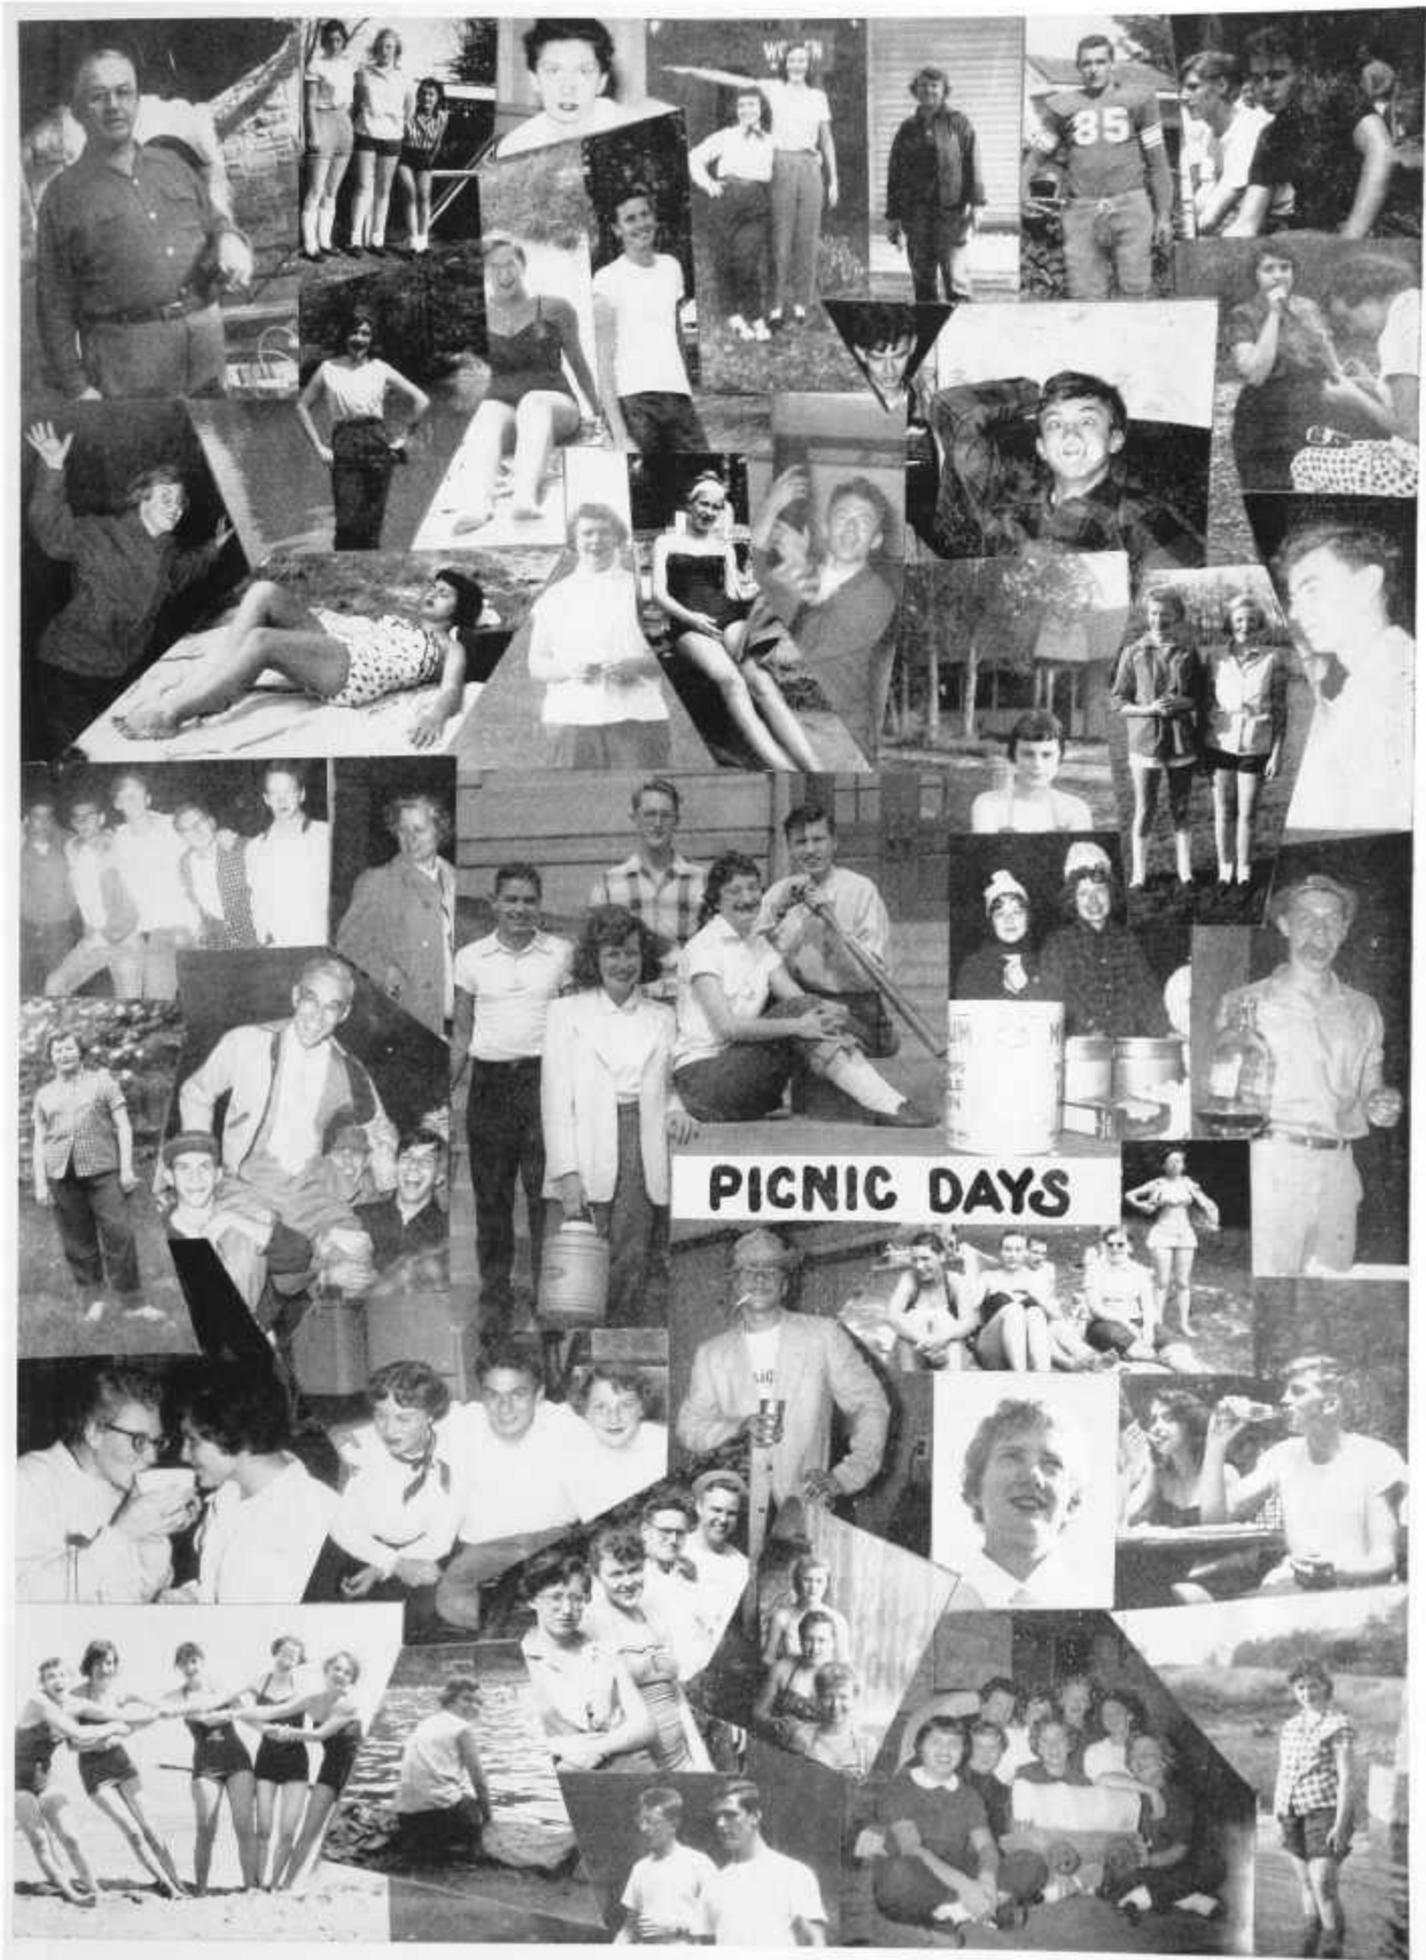

Brawls and "Big Boys" go to the junior varsity . . . compliments of Manners.

The 12A explorers leave their torches from the "midnight hike" to future Indian scouts.

The 12A girls leave their successful pizza recipe to the Foreign Affairs Club.

After much ponderous deliberation, the jury re-enters and the foreman reads the verdict . . . NOT GUILTY!!!

Class History

Eight semesters ago our class started to fit another piece into the great puzzle of life. After much fun and work, we have attached it to the puzzle. Looking back on the past four years we all have many happy memories.

January 1952

As our class saw the halls of Rhodes for the first time, KATHY THIESS also saw America for the first time. She had come to America only ten weeks before entering Rhodes.

As a 9B, ROBERT BENISEK represented his homeroom in Student Council.

March 1952

As we witnessed our first National Honor Society induction we were impressed at the deep significance of its goal. Many would try to reach this goal and as the years went by many succeeded.

April 1952

As 9B's, we witnessed the only student faculty day in the history of Rhodes High. The teachers outclassed the students in almost every sport. Stars were our own Miss Millard, Miss Adams, Mr. Hoffman, and Mr. Jacob.

September 1952

In the 9A, STELLA RIVELLINO was made a member of the Student Council Publicity Committee. At this time, BETTE NOTTKE began office work. She has worked in the main office three semesters. One of her duties was to deliver Miss Hier and Mr. Bryan's personal letters to choice students.

November 1952

DOROTHY WILCZYNSKI playing Masquerade Party guessed the identity of four masked Rhodians one of whom was ARLENE BUDKO.

December 1952

While studying diligently on a December day we heard the beautiful carols of the Senior Choir. Those who were in the ninth grade chorus, hoped that they would some day be members of this inspiring organization.

January 1953

Among those who became members of the Boys' Leaders Club in the 10B were RODNEY ROBERTS and JIM WHITE.

February 1953

As a 10B JOAN BRADLEY was one of the first members of our class to hold an office in a club—treasurer of the Library Club.

March 1953

Demonstrating her artistic ability, JACKIE CREGO made posters in sign writing class advertising the operetta, "A Waltz Dream."

April 1953

At the spring concert, we found that another one of our class had vocal talent. CAROLE GLADROW was one of a trio which sang with the Senior Choir.

May 1953

Chosen to represent our class in the annual Posture Queen Contest sponsored by the Girls' Leaders Club were SANDRA RUNGE of homeroom 202, and PAT GREEN of 312.

September 1953

Because of their interest in tennis, LOR-EENE BILY, SHARON RODER and BETTY HRIVNAK participated in the annual Flora Stone Mather Tennis Tournament.

At this same time, other members of the class showed their athletic interest when they became members of the Junior Varsity Football Squad. They were GENE BOGUSH, TOM CHAMPION, CARL PHILLIPS, DAVE LEETY, DOUG NAUMANN, BILL KURKA, STEVE TELISCHAK, FRED BEECH, JERRY CHAJKOWSKI, JOE HADACEK, DAVE NEALE and RALPH VRANA.

The German Club had many enjoyable activities in store for its recently initiated member, ROSEMARY EHRINGER.

After being on the Rhodes Review staff since a 9A, MARILYN RYBAK became business manager of the Rhodes Review. She later took the job of advertising manager.

October 1953

Our class showed more talent when HELEN HADACEK received an honorable mention twirling medal. She soon was added to the roster of Rhodes majorettes.

November 1953

This was the month of the annual Charity Game. We had cheered our team on during all the games of the season. We were awarded for our cheers when as 10A's we came home victorious. We had won the game from the Benedictine Bengals.

Back stage assistance was found when EVE PRIEBE, BETTY HRIVNAK and MARLENE RUSCH assisted in the production of "Night of January 16th." Playing the part of Jane Chandler was BEVERLY WOLF.

December 1953

The Phi Beta Delphians, a Y-Teen Club, was brought into existence with four 10A's as its officers. They were RUTH SCHMIDT, president; BETTY HRIVNAK, secretary; SHARON RODER, treasurer; and ALICE OLSON, social chairman.

January 1954

Recognized as high bowler in the Girls' Bowling Tournament was 11B, LOIS SMITH.

The newly formed Road Knights drafted one member from our class, JOHN GALAYDA.

February 1954

Becoming a member of the Triple Trio was one of the highlights in LAUREL CHIPKA's high school life. She later became a member of the Madrigal Singers.

Although SANDRA KOKERT became a member of Senior Choir she had to leave Rhodes to attend North Canton High School. She returned, however, in a year.

The forming of the new Sportsman's Club was highlighted when JAMES MATLACK was elected president. TOM KRISE was one of its first members.

April 1954

On the first day of this month, JOAN HAETTICH, MARIAN HERRMANN and JOANNE LUCAS were among the Rhodes girls who attended the annual Flora Stone Mather Tea.

More athletic ability was displayed when DOUG NAUMANN, DAVE LEETY, BILL KURKA and JIM WHITE participated in the Rhodes Decathlon.

Among those who organized the Rhodes Dance Band at this time were JOHN MAIER and DICK OSBORN.

September 1954

As a new semester began, JANICE JAN-OVIK began accompanying the Rhodes A Cappella Choir each day the third period.

October 1954

Among those participating in a modern dance concert for the girls were IRENE VOURLIOTIS and ALEXANDRA SALKOWSKI.

After being a member of the Latin Club for a year, AIJA BORGA was elected treasurer of the club.

In the 11A we were given the privilege of organizing our class. The officers were FRED BEECH, president; BOB CROCCO, vice president; SHARON RODER, secretary; DOUG NAUMANN, treasurer; and PAT GREEN, social chairman.

The Brooklyn Merchants held a Halloween window painting contest in which KAROL JARINA won a prize of fifteen dollars.

November 1954

After two and a half years, our class attended its second National Honor Society Induction. The thrill and solemnity was doubled as we heard the names of ALICE OLSON, DONNA WILKER, FRANK MESZAROS, and RALPH VRANA announced.

December 1954

At the close of the football season, BOB SCHMIDT was elected football captain for 1955. At the annual football banquet, DAVE LEETY received a golden statuette for being chosen "Rhodes Most Valuable Back."

Turning Chinese for an evening we held our first informal. "Ching's Fling" and the spaghetti dinner will always be remembered.

January 1955

Joining our class in the 11B were HENRY ZICKUHR, LOUIS NOVOTNY and GENE O'HARA.

February 1955

At this time the tea room held several 12B girls. Among them were MARY ANN BOOHER, JANICE HOFFMAN, JOAN BRADLEY, PAT GREEN, JOHANNE ZELENKA and ANITA SCRIVENS.

The Metas again elected new officers, they were JOHANNAH WAHL, president; DOROTHY WILCZYNSKI, vice president; and JOAN YUZVA, secretary-treasurer.

Another club which elected new officers this month was the Future Teachers of America. Among the newly elected officers was JACKIE TIMCHICK, treasurer.

March 1955

Witnessing our third National Honor Society Induction, we were proud to see LAUREL CHIPKA, RUTH SCHMIDT, CAROL HEITZ, JANICE JANOVIAK, ROBERT SCHMIDT, BILL KURKA, and WALTER LAZUKA walk to the rail.

It was again time to elect officers. Because of his excellent leadership ability, FRED BEECH was re-elected class president. Serving with him on the executive committee were ALLAN RICHARDS, vice president; ALICE OLSON, secretary; CARL PHILLIPS, treasurer; and KAROL JARINA, social chairman.

April 1955

As 12B's we walked into the Rhodes gym to see rain drops. The pleasant atmosphere of "April Showers" is unforgettable.

May 1955

The Rhodes Review now published the unforgettable RPI Stoolie. Photographer, CARL PHILLIPS, was seen taking pictures of many unusual sights.

Because of his excellent ability in tennis, RONALD BANA was awarded a letter.

September 1955

As we began our senior semester, several

As we look over the years we will always remember our picnics, informals, our prom, class day, and commencement along with many personal incidents each of us has experienced. We will also remember James Ford Rhodes High School and the class of January, 1956.

members of the class were elected to honorable positions. JOHN MAIER was elected most valuable band member, ALICE OLSON became president of the Girls' Leaders Club, DONNA WILKER became editor of the Rhodes Review, and ANTOINETTE CRISAFI was elected president of the Library Club.

Several people were added to our class at this same time. They were PAT BARB, LOREE BUERGER, JUDITH DREHER, BARBARA HANN, ADELLE ROMAY, RICHARD HUNDZA, BILL CHINNOCK and CAROL HEITZ.

Although the job of manager took up much of his spare time, JIM WENZ happily accepted his opportunity to join the boys' octet of which JOHN MAIER was already a member.

During the month of September a great change took place at Rhodes. Mr. Scott, printing teacher, Athletic Director, and friend of all Rhodians, left James Ford Rhodes to become assistant principal of John Marshall. He left behind PAT REMALIA who had served as his secretary for two years.

October 1955

For the third and final time, we elected our class officers. The executive committee was FRED BEECH, president; ALLAN RICHARDS, vice president; RUTH SCHMIDT, secretary; WALLY LAZUKA, treasurer; JOAN BRADLEY, social chairman; and DONNA WILKER, yearbook editor.

The 12A social committee, headed by JOAN BRADLEY, consisted of PAT GREEN, DOROTHY WILCZYNSKI, ARLENE BUDKO, IRENE VOURLIOTIS, DAVE LEETY, ROBERT HORVATH, JERRY CHAJKOWSKI, and RODNEY ROBERTS.

November 1955

As we witnessed our fourth and final National Honor Society Induction we were proud to see eleven members of our class performing the ceremony. We were also proud to hear the names of AIJA BORGA, DAVE LEETY, JOHN MAIER, PAT REMALIA, and MARILYN RYBAK announced as new members of this honorable organization.

12 A Class Prophecy

Reaching to the stars, the January Building, founded in 1966 by Leona Millard and Francis Jacob, towers above the changing city of Cleveland, Ohio. To honor the graduates of January, 1956, this tall and massive building is occupied solely by members of the class.

The floor plan of this unique building is as follows:

Basement—Swept from the top of the class to the bottom of the building, Frank Meszaros is the lowest paid janitor.

First floor—Twenty-eight year old Henry Zickuhr is known as a 35 year Press carrier. Oops! Somebody goofed!

Amid an elaborate display, Pat Green advertises her new product—a deodorant called "Tish"!

Sitting exhaustedly behind a walnut-lined desk, Robert Andy Schmidt earns his scant living as a professional stamp lickier. His secretary, Barbara Hamilton, sits on his lap.

Second—Promoting his 210 denier, 1 quage lingerie, Tom Champion blushing demonstrates his wares.

Fifth—Crash! All Helen Hadacek's twirling pupils drop their rolling pins in unison. Rolling pins are more useful than batons!

Seventh—This floor is devoted entirely to the first and only indoor drive-in, operated and serviced by the owner, Jerry Chajkowski. This Seventh Heaven has only one disadvantage, a back seat driver, Jerry's wife, Jackie Timchick.

For all who want to see better, Tom Krise sells handy can openers for opening hard top convertibles.

Eighth—John Maier, Pepsogate toothpaste model, greets all comers with a brilliant smile.

Adding to the stylish atmosphere, Joan Bradley, sweater model, Joan Lucas, pajama model, and Bette Nottke, silhouette model, parade demurely through the aisles.

Ninth—Richard Hundza, Mr. America of 1966, exhibits his Herculean form to flabby-gastered spectators. In the audience is the great movie star, Marlene Rusch.

Tenth—Miss Frances of Bing Bong School, the former Miss Lynn Rybak, entrances all youngsters from 4 to 40.

Eleventh—The new JFR research center is located on the eleventh floor. Janice Hoffman, the world-famous peroxide tester, collaborates with Betty Hrivnak, who has established a record as the world's fastest test tube cleaner.

Because of her adept tasting sensitivity developed in the Rhodes High Chemistry class, Pat ReMalia has acquired the profession of water taster.

Thirteenth—Bob Horvath paces the hospital floor—for the thirteenth time!

Dr. Naumann passes out allergy shots. After receiving them for 20 years, he's pretty proficient at it.

Behind the counter of the Smith Brothers and Sister cough drops, Lois Smith is a third owner of the new mint-flavored variety.

Fourteenth—Situated on the fourteenth floor are thousands of desks. Behind the largest is Dave Neale, tooth pick manufacturer.

Sitting on a stool is Jim White, pencil pusher.

Loree Buerger modestly sits behind the Congressional Medal of Honor (with the desk on it.) She is the perfect executive.

Sandra Kokert, union head, listens demurely to the boisterous counsel of her lady lawyer, Alexandra Salkowski.

Seated in a far corner, Sandy Runge efficiently types away. She holds the two-fingered world record, 250 words per minute.

Fifteenth—In his glass-walled office, Gene Bogush, the bi-annually elected mayor of Cleveland, puffs vigorously away at his cheap Black Havana cigar.

Sixteenth—Behind his 20 gallon vat, Bob Benisek is diligently frosting cherry pink cup cakes.

Barbara Hann, roast chicken fryer, is busily preparing the day's supply of 85 chickens.

Ron Bana, world-foremost soup strainer, demonstrates the intricate works of his art.

Standing by for immediate service is Arlene Budko, top flight soda jerk.

Seventeenth—Mary Ann Booher makes aprons for taffy pullers.

Eighteenth—Toni Crisafi operates a Russian cossack dance hall. Head bouncer is John Galayda, and working as waiter between performances is Louis Novotny.

Twentieth—Joan Haettich, life long dispenser of bugs, now runs about smelling bug bombs to make sure they're strong enough.

Next to a chimney, Jim Matlack carefully tests "all filter—no tobacco" cigarettes.

Twenty-third—Dressed in black crepe, amid the embalming fluids, Judy Dreher earnestly seeks a victim.

Twenty-fifth—Because of her personal interest, Joan Yuzva manages a "46 and Over" shoppe. Within its confines, gleeful Janet Rohde and Karol Jarina wind spools of threads, thousands of them.

Twenty-seventh—Jim Wenz has found a use for all that hot air. He is now a Balloon-Blower-Upper.

Twenty-eighth—Deeply engrossed in her latest novel, Kathy Thiess attempts to write a sequel to "Emil und der Detektiv."

Thirtieth—Passing out tips to his track team, Gene O'Hara is the new Olympic track coach.

Because of his immense ability, Bill Chinnock was appointed the building's gym instructor. His official wrestling referee is the former Australian tag team title holder, Pat Barb.

Thirty-fourth—Crazy man Crazy! In the midst of the peanut patch, Fred Beech, head Goober pea picker, is followed faithfully by his right hand man, Steve Friday Telischak, accomplished peanut salter.

Thirty-seven—Her lust for gold has led Anita Scrivens to the discovery of how to melt Old Gold—(cigarette wrappers.)

Thirty-ninth—His artistic talents have led Bob Crocco to the exacting profession of "Stop" sign designing.

Working along harmoniously with him, is Carl Phillips, a picture framer. (He was framed!)

Fortieth—The fortieth floor music room echoes with the bellows of the first couch bassoon player, Donna Wilker.

Competing with the noise is Joe Hadacek, bathtub crooner.

Steadily piping away, Janice Janoviak can be heard—every hour on the hour—throughout the building.

Oh, yes, every 15 minutes, Marian Herrmann opens wide, singing, "The Terror of Class of '56!"

Forty-second—Buried in her success, Johanne Zelenka works hard as head cutter for the Stadium Confetti Corporation.

Forty-third—Residing in their winter quarters, are the ever popular Rosemary Ehringer and Carol Heitz. Rosemary is Clarabelle the clown, delighting millions in her daily performances. Carol recuperates from a difficult bout with laryngitis which she acquired while working as the laughing lady at Euclid Beach Park.

Forty-four—In the expensive office of Stella Rivellino, cement contractor, Johanna Wahl tries unsuccessfully to sell her untried and untested invention, the round brick.

Forty-six—Tearing out her hair, Jackie Crego, woman ice man, fearfully watches her office fill with water from the quickly melting ice.

Forty-seven—Reading tales about her worshipped hero, Paul George Bunyon, Irene Vourliotis envisions a future as a female lumberjack.

Forty-eight—Rodney Roberts, bald headed barber, specializes in hair cuts on credit. He uses the quarter an inch plan. Prof. Osborn is having his annual haircut.

Forty-nine—Patiently waiting for all trans Siberian phone calls to Cleveland is Loreen Bily, cracked, telephone operator.

Fifty—Dave Leety, ready, willing, and experienced, is the lovelorn advisor for all high school students.

Fifty-one—The Kiwanis Club is again holding its annual Pancake and Sausage Supper . . . and there's Sharon Roder playing Aunt Jemina.

Fifty-two—In conference with Bill Kurka, recruiting officer of the French Foreign Legion is Wally Lazuka, buck private. Wally's a little out of breath. General Kurka requires that all visitors walk up the 52 flights of stairs.

Fifty-four—On the barren 54 story, one can see a cross section of the January '56 class. Dorothy Wilczynski, Rye Krisp addict, Allan Richards, taffy puller, Ruth Schmidt, doughnut hole pusher, Adelle Romay, clock winder, and Beverly Wolf, spider trainer, wander happily about, guarded only by one man wearing a white coat.

Fifty-five—Carole Gladrow, grease monkey's wife, owns the splendid, gorgeous, milfluous, beautiful, handsome, wealthy pent house. Coming free with the pent house, is dear Miss Priebe, flower sniffer.

Fifty-six—Never reaching Broadway, Aija Borga is contented with dressing the hair of the movie stars.

Flagpole—12:05 A.M.

Three innocent prognosticators seriously contemplate suicide!
