“Act well your part in life -- there all the honor lies.”

RHODES HYMN

Dear old Rhodes High
Thy wisdom lights our paths
Thy friendships true
Stay with us to the last.

We stand united
In thy purpose true
Loyal and faithful
To the white and blue.

DEDICATION

We, the graduating class of January, 1958, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. William Martin. Although he retired in June, 1957, he has vividly remained in our thoughts.

For three and one half years he served as homeroom teacher for our boys. Always understanding and well liked by all, he attended numerous class activities and was a great aid to our class — “our guiding light”.

Members of the Class of January, 1958:

A prominent American industrialist recently said: "In any society, the real pay-off will continue to come to the person who concerns himself first with blazing the trail ahead and not with keeping the road behind open." In the coming years it will be natural for you to look back with varying degrees of pleasure upon your days at Rhodes, but we hope that the time you have spent here will have made it easier for you to look and think ahead, for there can be no progress without vision and there will be little vision unless you think ahead and think greatly about your job be it ever so humble. It is not too much to hope that all of you may find some way in which you can be trail blazers.

Best wishes to each of you.

Sincerely,

NEIL D. MATHEWS

The members of our class will always thank you, Mr. Blum, for the wise guidance and counsel you have given us. You have understood us in a way that few adults can. You patiently helped us to conquer our faults instead of condemning us for them, and you have showed us how to cultivate our better points in order to prove worthy of the trust that you placed in us. We will always remember you for this, and we hope that you will remember us as a class that tried to live up to the high standards you set for us.

We are grateful to you, Miss Palmer, for the personal interest that you took in each and every one of us. With your fine sense of humor and your friendly smile, you won the friendship and trust of us all. Your enthusiasm inspired us, and through your urging we achieved things we did not realize we were capable of. We will always remember you as a teacher and friend who was ever ready and willing to help us solve our problems. We thank you sincerely.

When a person reaches his senior year in high school, a tiny doubt worms its way into his mind. What does the future hold in store for him? In what way is he best suited to meet the challenge of life? At the time when these important decisions have to be made, we feel the need of someone to help us make the right one. You, Mr. Ferguson, were the one who gave us the help we needed. Taking into consideration our abilities, our natures, and our desires, you set us on the right track to a successful future and did much to ease the doubts we had. We shall always thank you for helping us when we most needed it.

YE LASTE WILL AND TESTAMENTE

We, the party of the first part, being of sound mind and body (despite four years of brain-battering), do hereby execute and publish this last will and testament.

CLAUSE I

To the party of the second part, namely our esteemed and hallowed Faculty, we bequeath the following items:

To Mr. Mathews we leave two dozen broken park signs.

To Mr. Sifritt we leave various and sundry long playing needles.

To Mr. Hoffman we leave a discombobulated shovelhead.

To Mr. Levine we leave German Knowledge Pills.

To Mr. Forster we leave a portable wall.

To Mr. Stevens we leave a pair of purple-dotted gym trunks for after school work-outs.

To Mr. VanNortwick we leave an anchor for his Volkswagen.

To Mr. Henderson we leave Teddy Poly.

To Miss McGinnis we leave her sister.

To Miss Manning we leave a cane to assist in pyramid climbing.

To Mr. Seginec we leave a guppy.

To Mrs. Sancetta we leave a white elephant.

To Mr. Ralls we leave a five hundred pound candy bar.

CLAUSE II

To the party of the third part, namely the Underclassmen, we bequeath the following items:

To the student body in general we leave the teachers.

To Modern Problems students we leave some new modern problems.

To the students eating lunch in the cafeteria we leave a stomach pump.

To new Chemistry I students we leave new nasal cavities. (Wooo—that chlorine.)

To all Speech students we leave you pebbles to babble on.

To everyone we leave a truckload of "last name first" cards.

CLAUSE III

To the party of the fourth part, namely Miscellaneous, we bequeath the following items:

To Dan Burton we leave a case of non-carbonated Bireleys.

To some enterprising student Jim Bog-nar leaves his electronic brain.

To Tom Gerdel we leave a load of paper towels.

To George Yaworsky we leave the Order of the Red Garter in the Ukrainian Boy Scouts.

To Dennis McSeveny we leave a barrel of football cleats.

To "George" we leave new gravel for the track.

To whom it may concern we can't leave our happy memories because we want them ourselves.

To the party that we missed we leave a bottle of gin.

CLASS HISTORY

February 17, 1954

The freshmen burst into good old J.F.R. 117 strong with Tom Froby leading the line as the object of a Review "Gallup Poll" on typical 9B's. Seems that Tom dislikes girls. Great changes are yet to come.

Work and Winners are Connie Koehn, Sonia Sasarak, Joyce Weintz, Stan Sokol, and Dave Sommer.

March 24, 1954

9B homeroom 104 takes intramural basketball crown for 9th and 10th grades. Team includes Mel Zelek, Spike Maisey, Dave Rodusky, and Stan Sokol.

April 9, 1954

Our first National Honor Society Induction Ceremony witnesses 22 members accepted for membership.

April 28, 1954

Freshmen trackster Spike Maisey tallies as Rhodes frosh defeat Parma 54-32.

May 26, 1954

Toni Vavroch and Mary Ann Enderlein are first of our class to make the Honor Roll.

Coaches appreciate the new athletic supply room through aching backs of "do-it-yourselfers".

June 10, 1954

Doreen Bartch helps put the Delilahs out in front for their second Junior League Tournament championship to spend the summer helping out in Red Feather agency work.

September 29, 1954

The names of Jane Gelzinis and Jackie Metzger appear from the masthead of the Rhodes Review.

Ramlings drop opener to Ignatius but promises of better football still to come are heard from Julius Kovacs, Ron Ferguson, and Mel Zelek.

October 6, 1954

Ron Ferguson scores as frosh defeat Lincoln 21-0. Our girls do some scoring of their own in taking Junior League Basketball Championship. Team is Mary Lou Chorba, Bev Eiben, Toni Vavroch, Doreen Bartch, and Marge Squire.

October 27, 1954

Toni Vavroch masquerades as Mr.

Touchdown-J.F.R. for Rhodes Review and is found attending to Citizens' Club problems.

February 16, 1955

Jim Bognar and Nola Lasher join the class. They are transfers from Wilbur Wright Junior High. Nola participated in All City Orchestra, had entered the Science Fair, and played in the All Ohio State String Orchestra at Columbus in the 9th grade.

The Girls Glee Club gains Toni Vavroch as second soprano.

March 10, 1955

Connie Koehn of Student Council helps decorate for "Shamrock Shuffle". Publicity member of the Council is Toni Vavroch who also has a hand in the decorating.

March 30, 1955

Nola Lasher and Gale Peters enter City Instrumental and Ensemble Contests as two-thirds of Rhodes Piano Trio which will travel to St. Louis in April.

April 20, 1955

Josephine Claxon represents girls in posture contest. Stan Sokol and Toni Vavroch don wreaths in becoming Latin Clubbers. Doing double takes also nets Stan a place in Masque and Gavel Club.

The celebrated Rhodes Piano Trio returns from exciting travels abroad—well, at least to St. Louis.

May 4, 1955

As usual our class is first in another way. We are to be guinea pigs for the new speech classes beginning in September.

May 18, 1955

'The R.P.I Stoolie' names Dimples Vavroch as new member of Molls Leaders Club.

Also Tough Guy Tekesky backs Bubbles Claxon in bid for Track Moll.

New Rhodes Review editor is currently being solicited.

Mr. Dave Dickens is a new member of the Citizens' Club.

June 2, 1955

Trackmen who received varsity letters at the banquet include Steve Tekesky, Spike Maisey, and Ron Ferguson.

September 28, 1955

"West Virginia school-boy star" becomes our Senior Adviser. Right, Mr. Templin?

Steve Tekesky takes mile run in Lakewood Meet. Ron Ferguson and Spike Maisey place in other events.

Dave Dickens and Toni Vavroch rate in Review's Rhodexo as "couple of the week".

Stan Sokol begins career in Rhodes Review on sports page.

October 12, 1955

Our pretty majorettes now have Fran Murino in their midst. Esther Rivellino is a majorette alternate.

Virginia Sitek and Dan Sadowsky are rated "couple of the YEAR"!

J.V.'s led by Dave Dickens, Bob Leibold, Dave Sommer, Jules Kovacs, Ron Ferguson, Mel Zelek, Don Brown, Dave Rodusky, and Stan Sokol are racking up wins.

Toni Vavroch has the honor of being student leader of the Madrigal Singers.

October 22, 1955

Steve Tekesky (who else?) sets school 2 mile record in 10' 7.9" at Senate Meet.

November 2, 1955

Who but Mrs. Sancetta could prod the girls' homeroom on to a Community Fund victory? None we are sure. Thank you, Mrs. Sancetta.

November 5, 1955

Steve finishes 2nd in State Cross-Country Meet. Where'd he go?

November 16, 1955

Jim Bognar is added to list of All City Orchestra members of which Nola Lasher is already a participant.

The newly formed Science Club claims Nola as member-secretary, too.

December 7, 1955

Tom Froby garners lead role in Booth Tarkington's play, 'Seventeen'.

Georgene Lewis and Mary Ann Skwarlo try their hands at Junior Achievement.

December 21, 1955

Everybody makes Rhodes Review as paper goes all out in front page holiday greeting spelled by the names of Rhodians. Remember the fun you had trying to find your name?

Girls Leaders Club takes in Marlene Stefonsky and Doreen Barch.

January 19, 1956

Georgene Lewis is a member of the Senior Y-Teen cabinet.

Citizens' Clubbers for the semester are Connie Koehn, Stan Sokol, and Dave Sommer.

February 21, 1956

Toni Vavroch warms second soprano chair in Senior Choir. Basses Dick Liszy and Jules Kovacs own chairs in choir, too.

Girls Glee is represented by first soprano Connie Koehn, second soprano Joan Cianciola, and second alto Doreen Barch.

March 14, 1956

We have a P.A. announcer in our midst, Joan Cianciola.

Congratulations, Jules, you're the proud —no, no! Secretary of Foremans Club. While our man Stan Sokol is lapping in Latin Club funds as treasurer of that group.

April 11, 1956

Well here we are again, girls. Guess where—in Federated Funds?

Game of the year. Student-Faculty volleyball championship. Nola Lasher is on the big end of a 47-8 score. Nola is a member of the Samsons while Doreen Barch and Toni Vavroch are Delilahs. One of these two teams always comes out on top of the girls' intramurals scramble. This time the intramural winners played the faculty in a rough and tumble exhibition in the boys' gym.

April 25, 1956

Fran Murino, Esther Rivellino, Jim Bognar, and Nola Lasher, play and perform in a variety of Pop Concert activities.

Toni Vavroch receives a superior rating in vocal Solo and Ensemble Contest. Connie Koehn, Doreen Barch, Marlene Stefonsky, Bob Leibold, and Don Brown have graduated to Senior Choir.

May 9, 1956

'Carson Corners' comes to town bringing Toni Vavroch, Dave Sommer, Dick Liszy, Dave Dickens, and Tom Froby, the company.

Spike Maisey has turned singer for Boys Glee. Other songbirds are Joyce Weintz, Marge Squire, Esther Rivellino,

Fran Murino, Bev Eiben, Jane Gelzinis, Sonia Sasarak, and Jackie Metzger.

May 25, 1956

Our boys back girls in Track Queen Contest. Tom Gierosky and Spike Maisey both had girls in the event. Marge Squire took part also.

The bowling team of Joyce Weintz, Connie Koehn, Doreen Bartch, Toni Vavroch, and Marlene Stefonsky take honors in city-wide bowling meet.

September 26, 1956

The Ram Varsity squad for this fall boasts Dave Sommer, Spike Maisey, Bob Leibold, Stan Sokol, Ron Ferguson, Mel Zelek, Dave Rodusky, and Jules Kovacs.

Leading the musicians' squad as Veep and Assistant Secretary of Band respectfully are Jim Bognar and Connie Koehn. In Orchestra Nola Lasher is President and Dick Lisy, Librarian.

Our hams, Tom Froby and Dave Dickens, cast P.A. news daily.

Stan Sokol is promoted to Co-Sports Editor in Rhodes Review work.

October 17, 1956

Student Council takes another crack at starting a Social Room. Seeking leadership we elect Steve Tekesky, President of our class. Other officers are Mel Zelek, Vice President; Bob Chocola, Treasurer; Fran Murino, Secretary; Esther Rivellino, Social Chairman. Included in the Social Committee are Marge Squire, Sonia Sasarak, Virginia Hunter, Doreen Bartch, and Glen Boltz.

October 24, 1956

Our first class picnic outing held at Snow Road Park. Remarks—real cool!

October 31, 1956

Our pretty little Fran Murino is elected Football Queen. Nice going, Fran!

12-A CLASS PROPHECY

Wide Wide World

Narrator: Today we are visiting Boltzo, Antarctica in observance of the International Geophysicochemicalbiological year.

At one time this was a thriving community, but the bulk of its habitation, in their search for Rhodesporous, pushed on south when the supply in the town vicinity became exhausted. Boltzo now only exists as a supply center in Allenglen.

The year . . . 1978. It is Saturday night and the town's people have gathered at Lisy's saloon to watch the imported sensation, Marge "Bubbles" Gough. Wait!! What's the commotion down there? The town drunk, Jim Bognar, is being bounced by Tom Rexin, head bartender. Tom's other bartenders, Frank Maraldo, and Dave Hobus assist him.

The feature show is about to begin. Here come the girls!! In the chorus line we find Marlene Janz, Loretta Hanson, Georgene Lewis, and Beverly Eiben. Erwin Martin supplies the piano accompaniment.

In another section of town, at the general store, the town's people are sitting around the cracker barrel. Members of the Women's Temperance League are discussing the town's welfare. Virginia Hunter, captain, is giving orders to her sergeants, Mary Lou Chorba and Mary Ann Cresante. Here comes Deacon Don Brown. Irene Wolzok, the proprietor, asks him if he'll lead the group in a few hymns. The other folks present are listening to the latest hit, "That Lucky Ol' Sun." Times have changed.

There's Karl Steiner dancing with . . . why it's Fred Whitman. Spike Maisey, foreman of the Boltzo mines has just rushed in shouting, "We've hit a new vein!!!"

The town's people are going wild! Sgt. Montie Cutlip is at his wits end trying to quell the mob. Deputies, Dave Dickens, Byron Fike, Don Maraldo, and George Novy come to his aid.

Drs. Loreen Dickau and Pete Romanchak are frantically at work in their home laboratories, rushing to develop a badly needed intradigitexer. (An intradigitexer???)

Here come the hurly-burly miners, Ken Flannagan, Jim Kazol, and Bill Servicky. Following them is their "straw" boss, Marlene Stefonsky, who really cracks the whip.

They enter the saloon, clamoring for sasarilla. Connie Koehn, Bognar's colleague in drink, staggers in just in time for a last snort before reporting to her boss, Stan Sokol, town mortician. Stan's motto is, "Use my convenient lay-away plan."

The Town Council is frantically at work to bring the people back to order. Mayor Glen Boltz and his cabinet members, Mary Ann Skwarlo, Dave Krailo, Elaine Dietrich, and Larry Eaton, have called an emergency meeting.

They call in the manager of the Claims Office, Julius Kovacs, to hear their decision. The claims will be stopped until the turmoil has subsided. Kovacs is ably assisted by Virginia Sitek, Tom Gieroski, and Pat Timchick. The bulk of the bookwork is handled by his private secretary, Esther Rivellino.

Rushing in for the news for the latest issue of the "Daily Dirt" are Jackie Metzger, Jane Gelzimis, and Sonia Sasarak, co-editors. They are followed by their photographers Doreen Bartch, Marge Squire, and Dolores Dzuramin. They learn that the strike was discovered on Bob Liebold's penguin ranch by his cook, Nola Lasher.

Gathering penguin eggs she came upon the valuable metal. Cubing ice on a local glacier, Toni Vavroch and Joyce Weintz saw Nola go "plum loco." Alerting the other cubers, Barbara Ferrell, Ursula Janke, and their boss, Dave Sommer, the cubers ran to Nola as she yelled, "Eureka, Eureka."

The kitchen help, Carol Dorner and Geraldine Garner alerted Harold (Spike) Maisey who brought the news to the town.

Tonight a special banquet will be given in Nola's honor at Dick Bibel's ice house, the "hottest place in town." Waiters and waitresses, Dave Rodusky, Dave Host, Fran Murino, and Linda Keils, are setting the tables.

The party is about to commence. Wait, here comes bespectacled Steve Tekesky, head assayer, followed by his somber co-workers Tom Froby, Mel Zelek and Ron Ferguson, and their secretary Joan Cianciola.

Steve asks to make an announcement. His words stun the crowd. "The strike isn't Rhodophorous. The metal is nothing but Iggyphorous, which is absolutely worthless."

Boltz, Zelek, Ferguson, Leibold, and Rodusky.

Taking up the baton for the third consecutive time, Nola Lasher is President of Orchestra.

Fran Murino takes up her baton again as one of the seven majorettes.

October 29, 1957

Speakers at the N.H.S. induction are Stan Sokol, Doreen Bartch, Connie Koehn, Jim Bogнар, and Nola Lasher. Those inducted are Marge Gough, Ursula Janke, Marlene Stefonsky, and Dave Sommer. Congratulations to them.

"And a good, good morning to you," beams our announcers Dick Lisy, Dave Sommer, Dave Dickens, and Tom Froby.

Stan Sokol, Jim Bogнар, and Nola Lasher rank high in Ohio State Psychological brainwashing. This means they have good chances of working themselves to death at college, being pessimistic about that particular test.

Besides all mannerisms of flu, viruses, and tse-tse fly epidemics, the painters have invaded the drab interior of Rhodes with beautiful new pastel shades that are fast giving us a new face

Bows to the officers of Senior Choir. President, Dave Sommer; Vice President, Jules Kovacs; Treasurer, Dick Lisy. Miss Vavroch has already taken her bow as Secretary.

October 30, 1957

Plans for a production by our dramatics class see Tom Froby, Dick Lisy, Dave Sommer, Virginia Hunter, Jules Kovacs in the play "Men Are Like Streetcars."

Again our girls ranked high in the Community Chest Drive. Our boys led the male portion of the school for the second consecutive year.

Not to slight beauty among our ranks, we congratulate Esther Rivellino on being elected Football Queen attendant.

* * * *

Many activities not listed here have been part of our class. To those who in their own silent ways have participated and upheld the true Rhodes spirit without due recognition, we say thanks.

Plans for the future are the Informal and Prom dances. The Informal 'Winter Wonderland' will be held on Saturday, December 14, 1957. The Prom date is set for Saturday, January 18, 1958. And lastly, but most happily, our class awaits that big day—January 21, 1958. This date will be the most significant of all our lives as in leaving these halls of learning we go our ways with the lessons not found in any book. The defeats and worries, questions, endeavors, victories, joys, and friendships are now a part of us. Always keep smiling—because in our smiles rests the future of tomorrow and America.

Our high school days are ended.
