The Spirit of '67

*My school has a spirit
Froed by a rousing cheer,
A clapping of hands,
Or a broad smile of victory.
My school is spirited,
In time of demise,
On the athletic field or in the classroom,
And there is always a swelling
Pride of awe when the Alma Mater is sung.*

To Your Class

June, 1967

During your years at Rhodes you have been attending classes, learning many things, participating in many school activities, and making many new friendships or continuing old ones. This yearbook, which will become an increasingly valuable treasure as the years go by, records by picture or words some of your activities during your stay at 5100 Biddulph Avenue. However, your yearbook cannot record all the pertinent facts about your character, industry, loyalty or perseverance.

Now you face a future beyond high school. Have you been developing a championship attitude toward life? If so, you should be able to do your best thinking and your best work when the going is toughest. That's the true champion. If you really want to live full and successful lives, probably nothing can stop you but your own lack of faith.

I wish to express my thanks for the cooperation and help the members of your class have offered Rhodes High School. This cooperation is an indication that you have learned to enjoy working with others. It indicates, too, that during the same time you have been showing respect for other persons you have been giving them the opportunity to enjoy and respect you.

It is my hope that your practice in working toward worthwhile goals in our school will be useful to you in your future activities.

Good luck to each of you.

J. J. Stillinger

ERIC ROESEMAN
January 9, 1950—June 22, 1966

He rested his head upon the lap of Earth
A youth of Fortune and Fame unknown
Fair Science frowned not on his humble birth
And Melancholy marked him for her own.
