STEPPING OUT

IN DEDICATION TO

MR. OLIVER HOFFMAN

We truly appreciate being treated as “young adults” instead of “old children.”

Your friendly concern has encouraged us to confide in you.

When the students were polled as to why their vote had been cast for you, they quickly replied, “He’s a really great guy!”

So to you, Mr. Hoffman, a really great guy and a friend, we dedicate this yearbook.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF JUNE 1969

James Ford Rhodes Alumni Association 2022

JAMES FORD RHODES HIGH SCHOOL

5100 BIDDULPH AVENUE · CLEVELAND, OHIO 44144

PRINCIPAL:

J. J. STILLINGER

ASSISTANTS:

MICHAEL D. MASSA

MARJORIE M. HINE

Over the mantel in the home of a neighbor when I was a child these words were enclosed in a picture frame:

"Three pleasant things --
To be here
To be here together and
To think well of one another".

Well, seniors, it has been pleasant to be here with you for three years and we do think well of you.

We have encouraged you to develop your interests and talents so that you may live a full and useful life. We call attention to the fact that use of knowledge is much more important than acquiring it. You have probably sensed this because, along with all your fun at Rhodes, you have indicated a seriousness of purpose.

Your leadership and cooperation where school goals are involved have been much appreciated. We needed your help and you have offered it. Your cooperation is an indication that you have been showing respect for others. In turn, you have been giving them an opportunity to enjoy and respect you.

Take good care of this yearbook. It will always be a treasure for you. Perhaps you can bring it to a class reunion--five, ten, twenty, twenty-five years from now.

Thank you for any part you have played in keeping Rhodes High School a strong school. Best wishes to each of you.

HONOR STUDY HALLS

IN OPERATION

Our class has watched the establishment of honor study halls from a pilot program to one of the most efficient and extensive student-run systems in the entire city. The 90% enrollment has enabled teachers to spend more time in classrooms and conferences, but even more important, it has developed in students a sense of honor and responsibility.

SCHOLASTIC LEADERS

Chuck Rudar

Norman Lange Ellen Bray

We feel that this year's top students are especially unique in that not only were their scholastic achievements commendable, but also they were totally involved with the school in athletics, service, and clubs. We hope that their accomplishments will inspire underclassmen to even bigger and better things.

HALL OF FAME

These students have achieved a 3.000 or better accumulative average.

IN MEMORIAM

ROSE MARIE BENDER
August 27, 1951—March 19, 1968

She passed away like morning dew
Before the sun was high;
So brief her time, she scarcely knew
The meaning of a sigh.

As round the rose its soft perfume,
Sweet love around her floated;
Admired she grew—while mortal doom
Crept on, unfeared, unnoted.

Love was her guardian Angel here,
But Love to Death resigned her;
Though Love was kind, why should we fear
But holy Death is kinder?

Hartley Coleridge

WE'RE WITH THE TEAM IT'S ACADEMIC

Rhodes' landslide victory on It's Academic over Brecksville and Mentor was the culmination of weeks and weeks of hard work and effort. As high schools compete in interscholastic athletics, boosters tend to forget about others who are serving the school in equally important ways. We're proud that Jim and Marty, members of our senior class, did such a fine job representing our school. We thank them for caring and helping keep Rhodes on top!

Let's work up the old pep now.
