Foundations

We at Rhodes are part of a long tradition of excellence in education which began forty-nine years ago under the leadership of Neil D. Mathews.

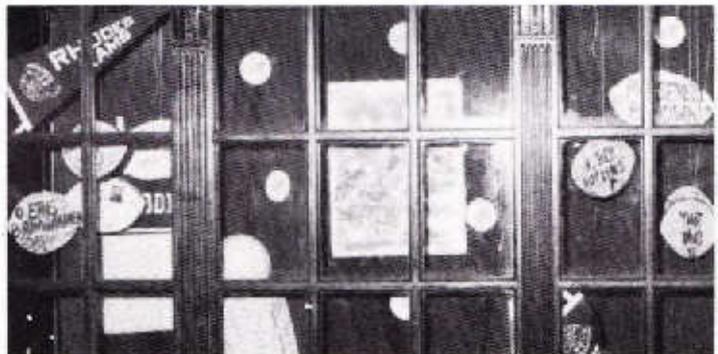

As our first principal, Mr. Mathews served as a model for all Rhodes students with his enduring loyalty, dedication and concern for scholastic excellence. His tradition is carried on to this day in the award which bears his name. The Neil D. Mathews scholarship is awarded each year to a deserving student in the senior class.

James Ford Rhodes is considered to be the first American political historian. Our school, which opened in 1932, commemorates his contributions to present historical views. His ideals have served as an ongoing inspiration to each graduating class.

UNITED WE STAND

- ... New Friends
- ... New Experiences
- ... New Beginnings

Each school year is a new beginning. This year is our new beginning. For the seniors it is the start of a new era. We will graduate this year and we will enter the "real world."

Although it seems like an ending, graduation is really a Genesis, a fresh start.

IS...

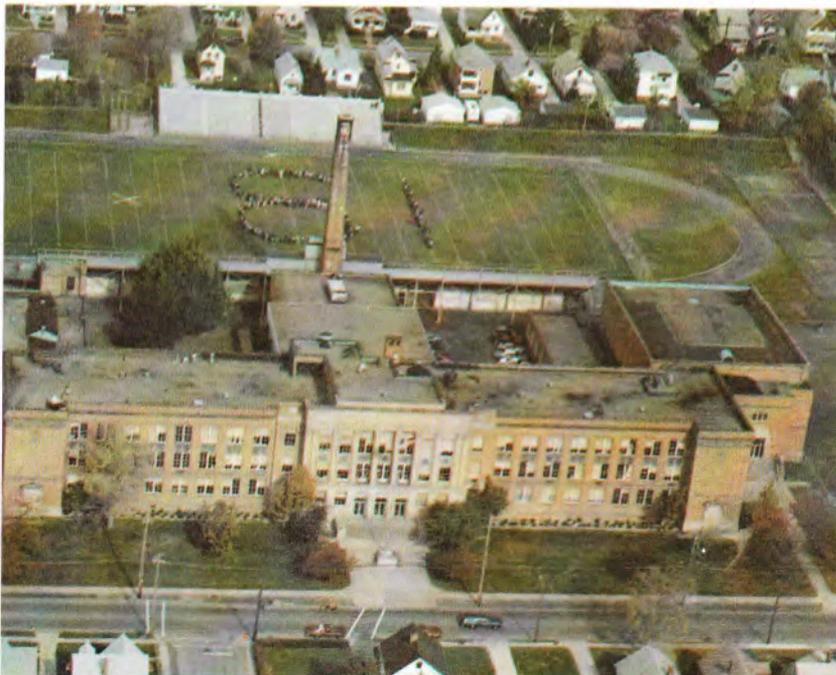

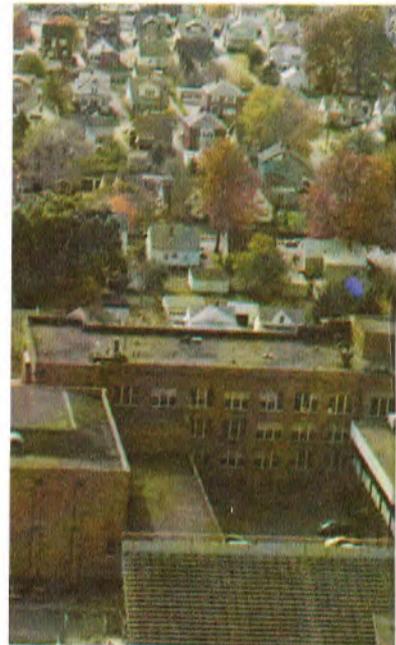

... a time of growth and change ... young yet old, naive yet mature ... afraid yet confident ...

Our friends are the alpha and omega of our high school experience.

Our Community

AΩ

The last three years that I have spent at Rhodes I have established lifelong friends and memories I will hold onto for the rest of my life. I am very proud of this school and I'm glad I can call it mine. Though I will be moving on with my life and spending another four years in college, I will never forget the wonderful times and the good education I got by growing up at Rhodes High School.

Sandy Bruggeman

... I have learned that co-operation works both ways. You can't expect to get anywhere if you don't put in your own efforts to get there.

Joe Pivato

High school gives you the tools and like every craftsman you must use these tools to build your future.

Julius Lukacs

The Afters of Tomorrow

Just a little more, please a lot more
 Knowledge, a little more fun.
 Could it be real? Is it for play?
 Give and take an ounce of knowledge day by day.
 I am not afraid of the afters of tomorrow
 They should be full of happiness but could be filled with sorrow.
 Choices to be made, responsibility has begun
 Education is a painful, continual all important work to be done.
 By example and sharing, by kindness and caring — but above all by respect.
 Try it. Take my life away,
 it is my knowledge that I will protect.
 Could it be real? Is it for play?
 Give and take an ounce of knowledge day by day.
 I heard the world whisper that it is very hard to get way up on top.
 I promise the world . . . I'll use what I have . . .
 And get what the world has got.

Cheryl D. Cofield

Death is inevitable so have fun and enjoy
 while you can.

Kathy Gall

Rhodes has proven to me that life cannot be fulfilled without the beauty of friendship.

Tom Mravetz

I have learned many lessons and been impressed by a few educators. I'm glad I'm moving on — it's time for a change.

Rhodes High

The time has come for us to part,
 Our individual lives we must start.
 The Years we have spent together as one,
 Will remind us of the things we have done.

Remember: Car washes, skating parties and bake sales

Busing notices that came through the mail,
 Staying awake until two, studying for a test,
 Then just trying to do one's very best.

Two years of strikes by the teachers,
 Loyal fans sitting in the bleachers.
 Volleyball and football in the fall,
 And then in winter, track and basketball.

When we look back upon these years,
 The memories may bring forth tears.
 In our heart 'till the day we die,
 We shall hold a part of Dear Old Rhodes High.
 Susan Long

Nonconformity is the key to all great discoveries. Never be afraid to be different, and always speak your mind.
 David Sprague

It is very hard for people to be different within Rhodes. In order to be accepted and liked, everyone must move with accepted styles. This is unfortunate, but I hope we will learn to accept people for what they are, and learn to search for new and innovative ways of expression.

Jeannine Woos

We came to America from India two years ago. Not knowing anything about American ways, we were anxious to find out. We were put in a Lau Compliance class, with other foreign students. Miss Ghattas, our teacher, was so understanding and patient with us. She really helped us a lot. We are very thankful to have had this special class and special teacher.

Mahrug and Shahrug Nazeeruddin

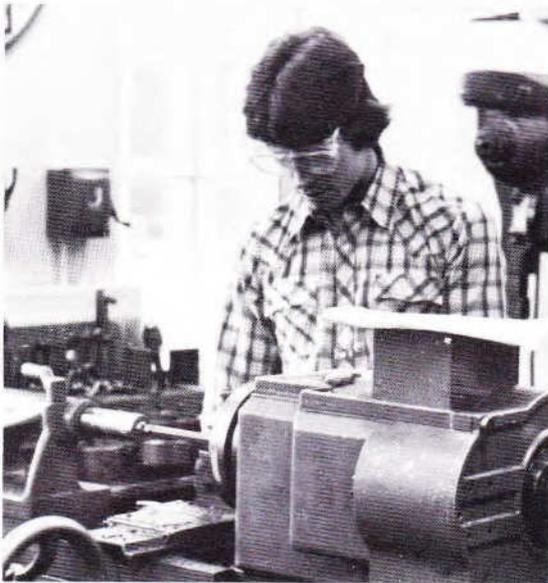

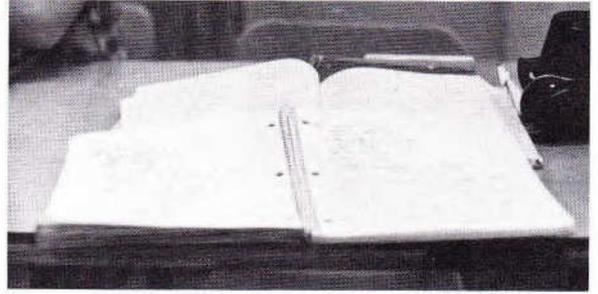

My years at Rhodes have shown growth in both my height and shoe size.

Future

To laugh often and love much;
To win the respect of intelligent persons and the affection of children;
To earn the approval of honest critics
and endure the betrayal of a false friend;
To appreciate beauty;
To find the best in others;
To give of one's self without the slightest thought of return;
To have accomplished a task, whether by a healthy child, a rescued soul, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition;
To have played and laughed with enthusiasm, and sung with exultation;
To know that even one life has breathed easier because you have lived;
This is to have succeeded.

Higher Education . . . Employment . . . Armed Services . . . Marriage.

These are the possible roads for our futures. Each of us has a specific goal involving one or more of these. Our years here at Rhodes have helped one and all in preparation for the future. As we now leave, we begin anew.

This is the Genesis of Ourselves.

DEDICATION

Giving . . . Caring . . . Understanding . . . Advising CHEC . . . Operating the ticket booth at basketball games . . . Chaperoning proms . . . Attending skating parties . . . Aiding people in the community.

The Senior Class of 1981 would like to thank Miss Kuebler for her patience, guidance, and constant willingness to extend herself to others.

To the Class of 1981:

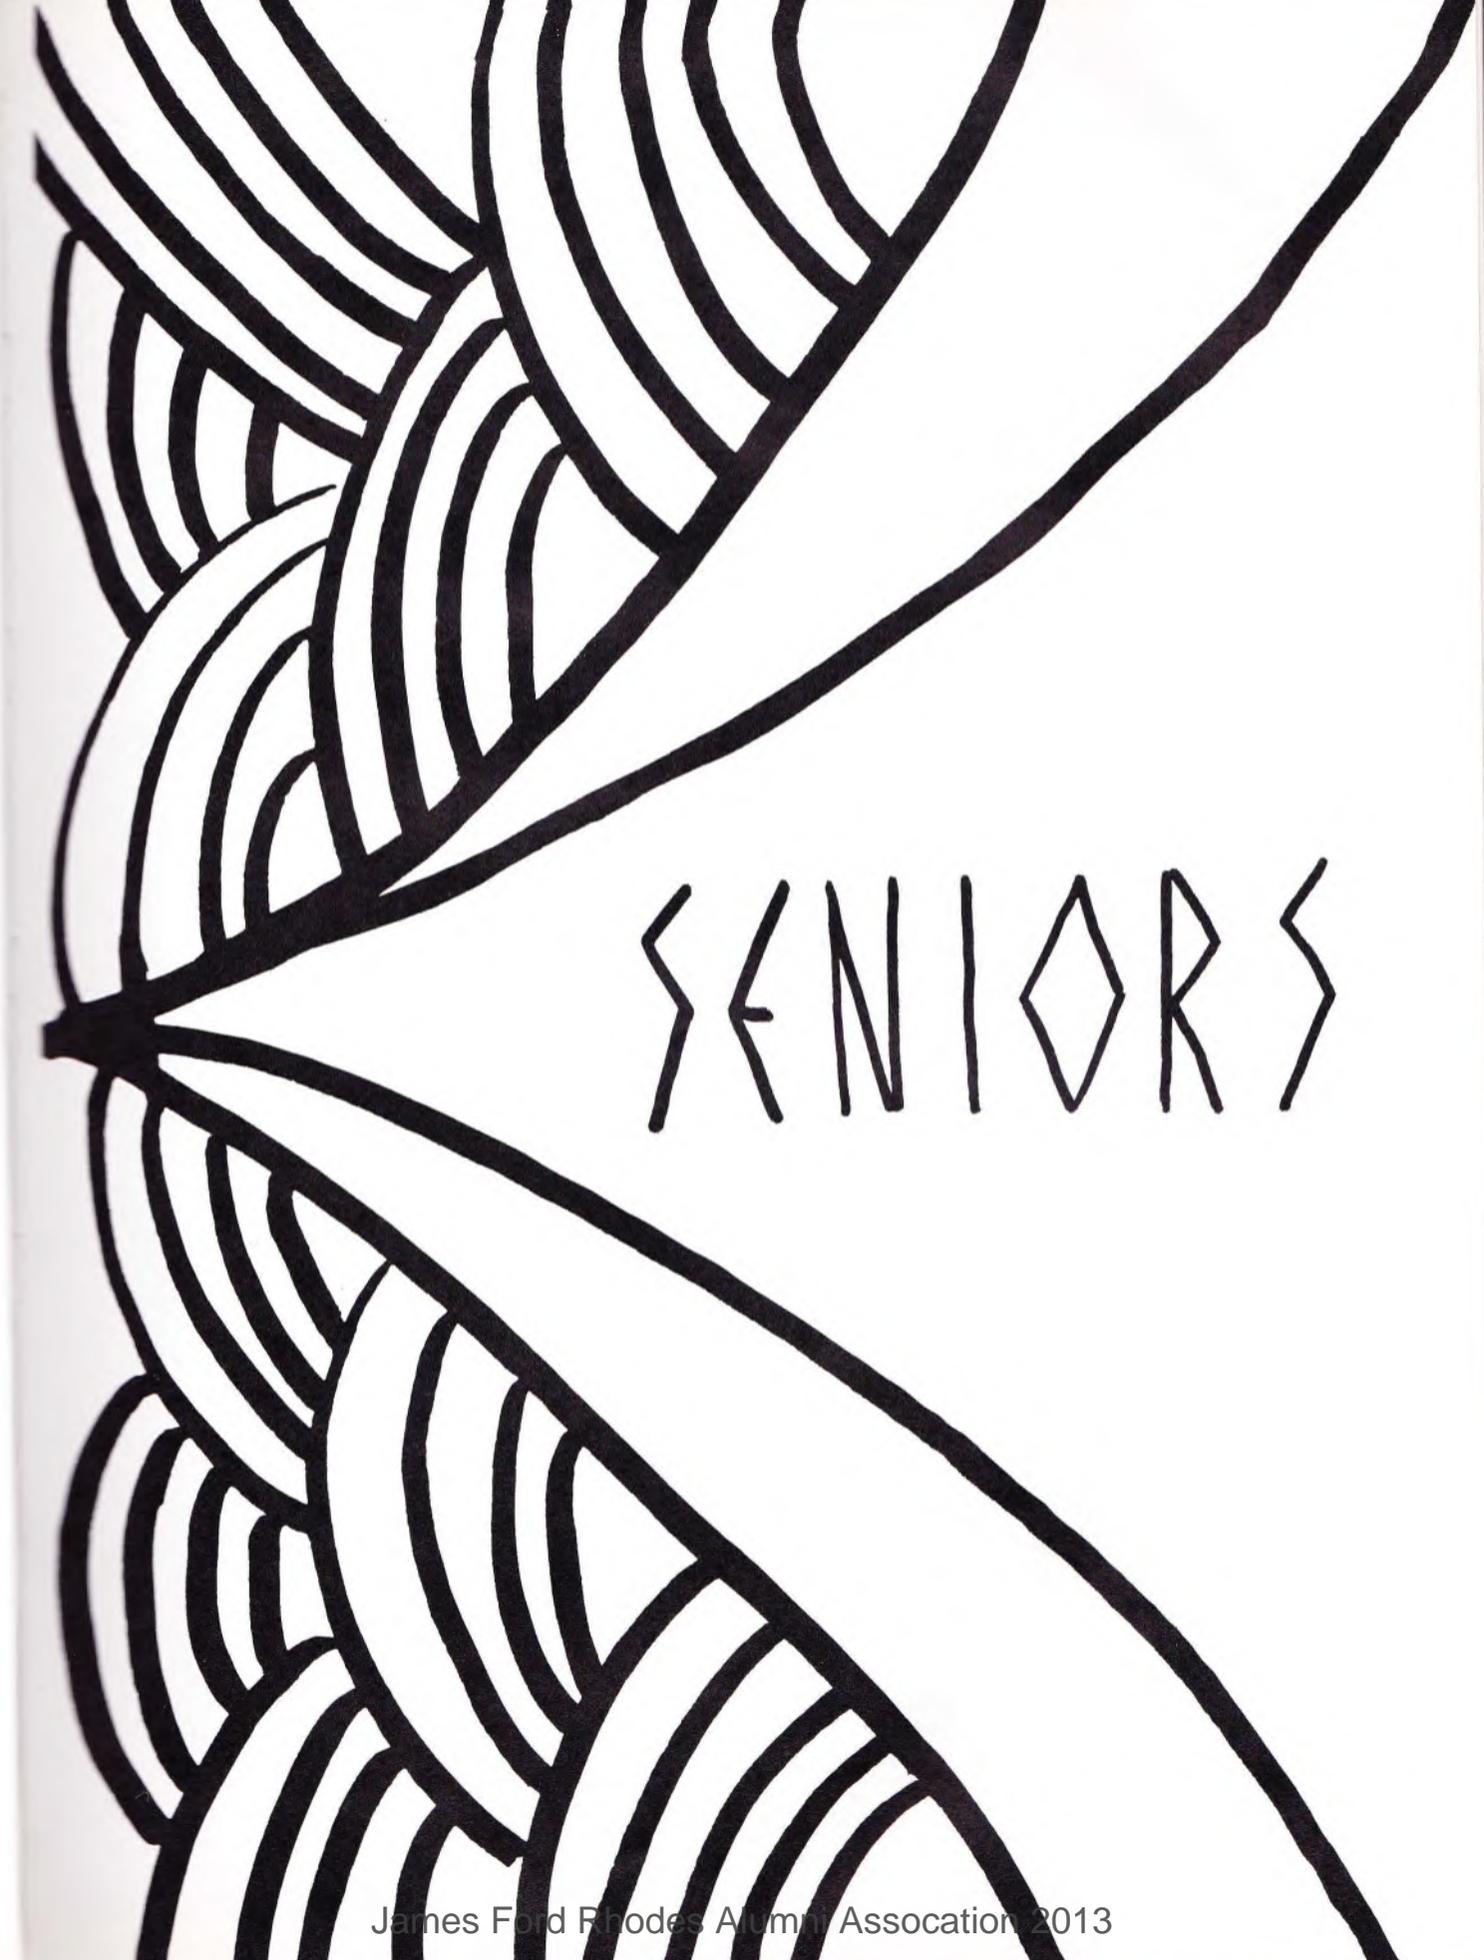

Dear Seniors:

Rhodes High School is justifiably proud of you. Your spirit and hard work have overcome many obstacles in your path to this graduation year. So, we expect great things from you as you become an important chapter in the history of James Ford Rhodes High School.

Senior Class Officers

Graduation marks a time in our lives when our high school years have ended and we begin the quest to find what the world holds for us.

The Class of '81 in itself is very special, as it was the first class to graduate under successful desegregation. This class has provided the school with many honors, both athletic and academic.

The future belongs to us, and we can make of it whatever we want.

Matt Nakon

The greatest privilege ever offered me was the opportunity to be a student at Rhodes High. The performance of teachers and students as well, prove that when you are willing to give it all you've got, you can have it all. The quiet courage to accept change afforded me a generous amount of knowledge that only a school like Rhodes could offer.

Cheryl D. Cofield

Through its activities, Student Council has played an important role in bringing students from all parts of the city together. Desegregation was a new beginning for all of us, and we can be proud that it worked peacefully here at Rhodes.

THE FRONT PAGE

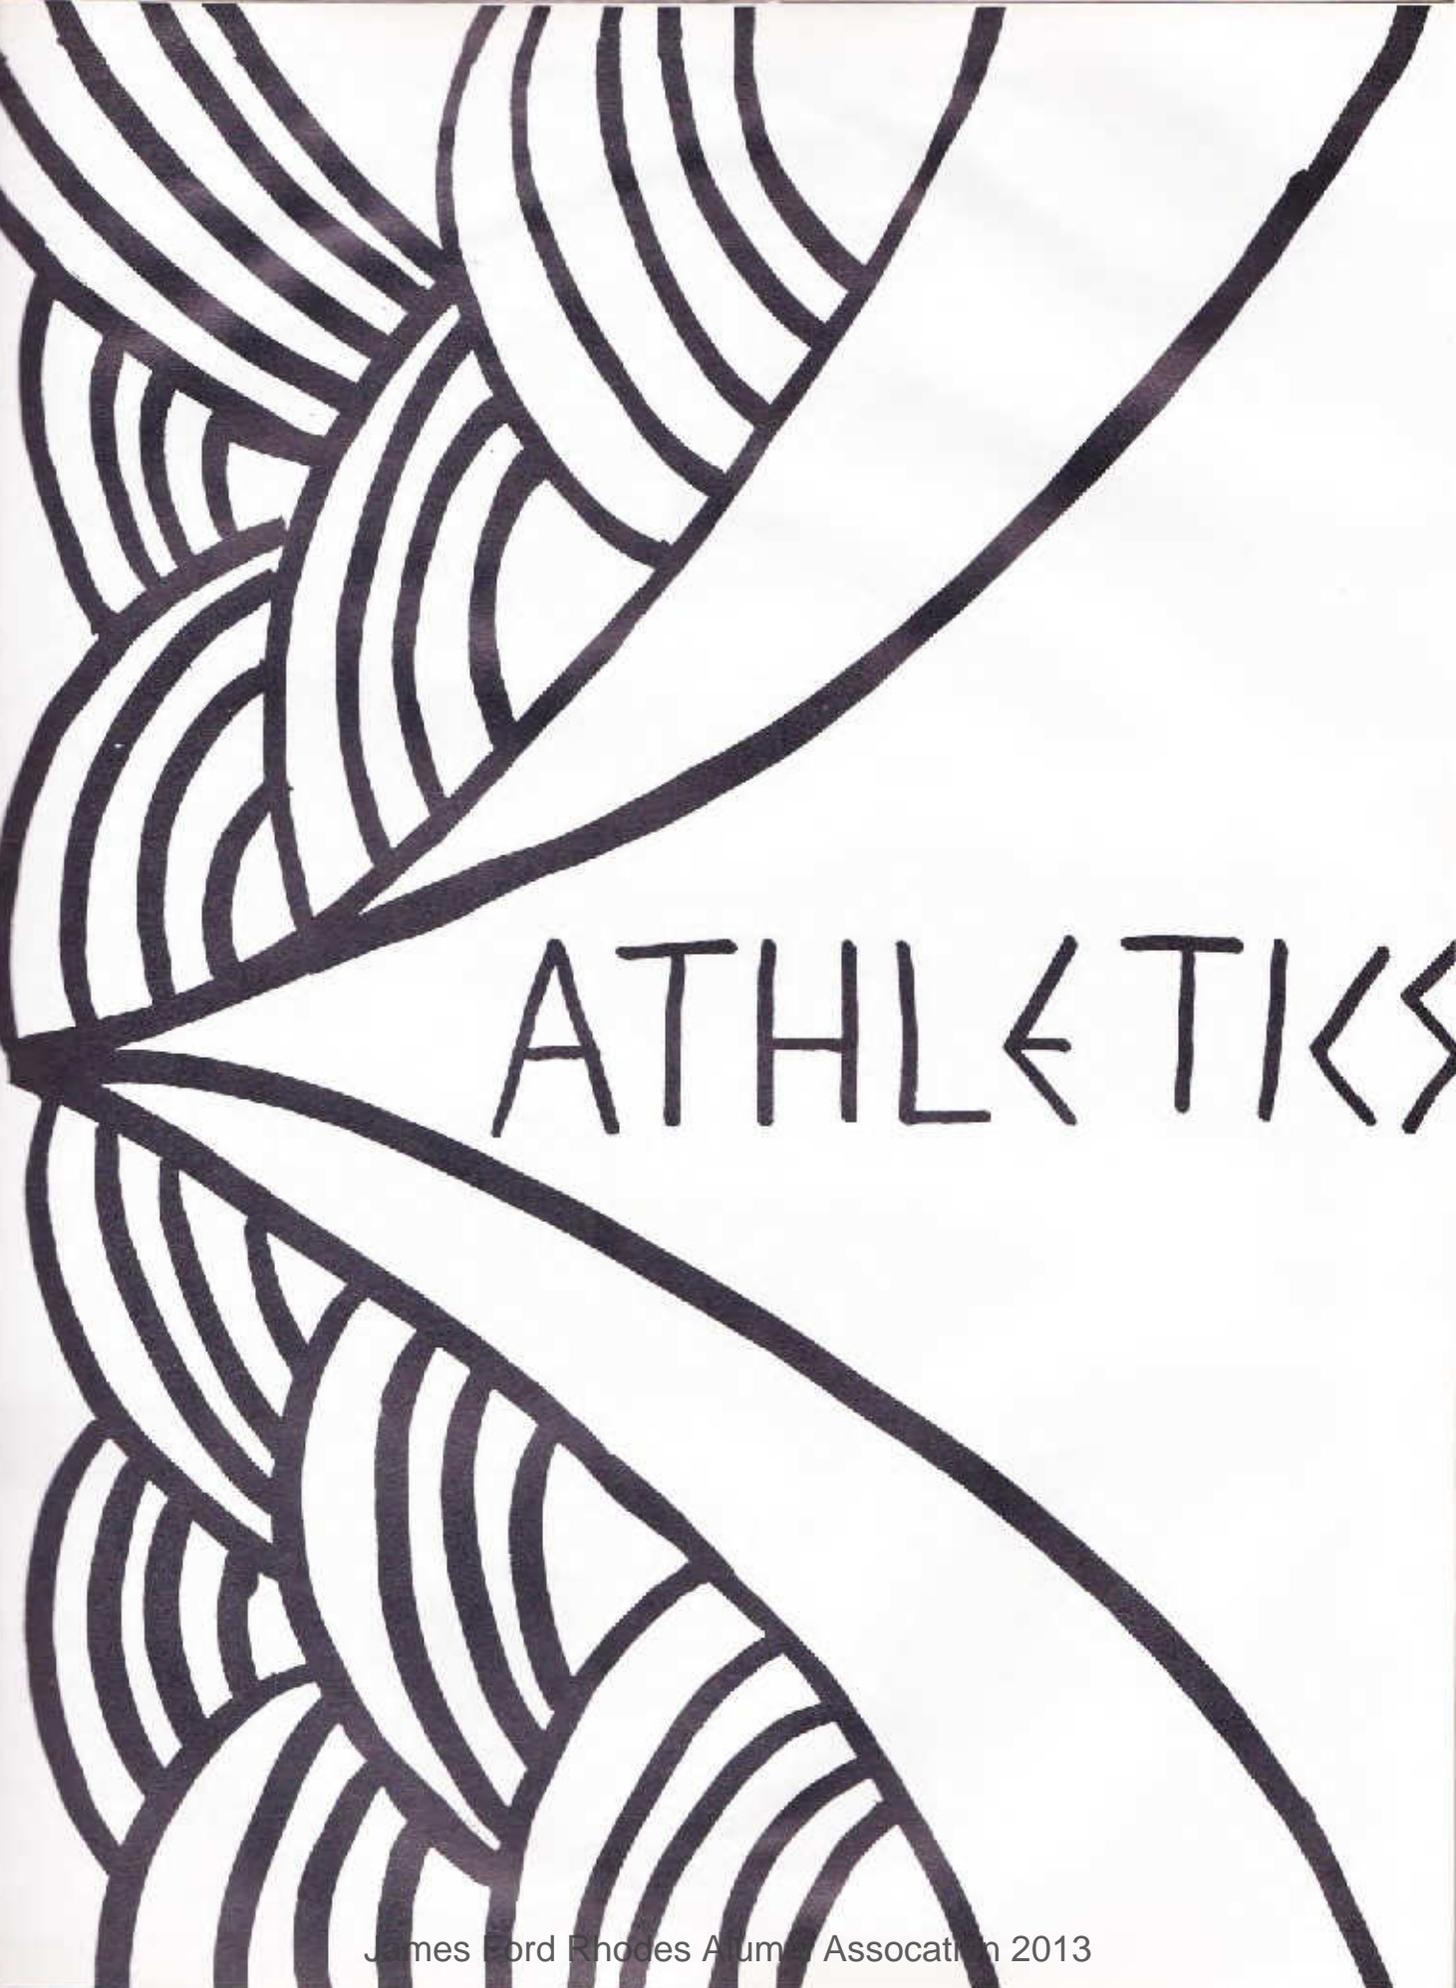

When Lemmon takes an evening conker in a national newsroom he gets his real report by all future America news, leading to a fireworks of excitement and fun, easily attained by any film.

The comedy is a page-turner with even double crosses. It's a must-see for lovers of his long-time, a fitting tribute for such first-pair comedy.

DIVERSIONS

CHOPPER 5 to the rescue

The class of '81" did it! On November 3, 1980, this years senior class assembled on the football field to form a giant 81. The WEWS helicopter Chopper 5 helped to make this project a success. The helicopter landed in the east parking lot, and the Ripcho Studio photographer climbed in. Our story was important enough to appear on the news telecast that night. The class of 1981 is newsworthy!

B L O O D

Rhodes students demonstrated their generosity on December 5, 1980, when the Red Cross brought its blood bank to our school. We surpassed our goal of 50 pints. Although there were several sore arms, it was a worthwhile experience. The entire Northeast Ohio area benefited from the blood given.

B A N K

CHRISTMAS

Rhodes has many talented musicians and vocalists as evidenced by our fine orchestra, band and choir. They joined together to put on the annual Christmas program on December 18 for the P.T.A. and on December 23 for the student body. An unique touch was added by the hearing-impaired chorus, who performed "Silent Night" in sign language.

Christmas spirit was brought to Rhodes by the Student Council Cabinet. The main hallway was adorned with the lovely tree pictured on this page, which was put up by the cabinet.

RALLY

On December 18, 1980, athletic Rhodians were cheered on by fellow students at a Winter Rally. This rally honored the football team, both the boys' and girls' basketball teams, girls' volleyball team, the bowling team, and the cross country team. This rally paid tribute to those teams whose seasons had ended and to those whose seasons had just begun.

Ron Addison, a 1972 Rhodes graduate, visited Rhodes on December 19, 1980 while in the Cleveland area for a track clinic.

Addison is currently working at the Athletics

West, and plans to compete for a place on the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team. Addison was accompanied by world class runner Mary Decker, who currently holds the world record for the indoor mile.

Aries '81 would like to thank the following people for helping to make our yearbook a reality.

For encouragement: Miss Nugent, Mrs. Morgan, Mr. Zeidler, Mr. Brown and Mr. Pinkney.

For photography: Ripcho's Studio, especially Wayne and Al; Dave Contreras and Bob Eminger.

For technical assistance: Steve Scruta and Steve White, representatives of Taylor Publishing Company; Mrs. Shakoor and Miss Glaiter, former yearbook advisors; Miss Balmes, art teacher and consultant; Mr. Lidrbauch, printing teacher and composer of the commencement page; Bob McKinney, artist and creator of the sketch of Mr. Davidson; Mary Petkac, artist and creator of the division pages; Jodi Maile, artist and, with Bob McKinney, creator of the sketch of Rhodes High; Kathleen Marvis, Katherine Suk, Charles Otis and Jeanette Antesberger, layout assistants; Mr. Turella and the Rhodes Review staff.

For general assistance: Mrs. Brandt and the staff of the Media Center; Mr. Bonza and Miss Sasarak, chaperones at skating parties; all those staff members who helped supervise the group pictures of the senior class taken in the stadium and on the front steps of the school; Miss Unetich, English teacher and source of some senior quotations; Mr. Arena, Mr. Winters and Mr. Herrmann.

For assistance with bookkeeping and records: Mrs. Brado, Mrs. Skutnik and Mrs. Thornburgh.

For providing the helicopter which allowed Wayne from Ripcho's to photograph the '81; Gary Ritchie and the Channel 5 television station.

For the definition of "Success": Ann Landers.

For the record

Deadlines have prevented us from adequately chronicling all changes and events at Rhodes during the 1980-81 school year. Therefore, in order to make our yearbook as complete a record as possible, we wish to list the following. Staff changes February, 1981:

Retirees: Mr. Davidson, Mr. Saxon, Mrs. Young.

Transferees: Mr. Brown, Mr. Pinkney, Mr. Lakis, Mr. Southgate, Mr. Svingos, Mr. Banks.

New staff: Teachers: Miss Holmstrom, Mrs. Jerdonek.

New programs: Reading: Mrs. Gagliardi (Mrs. Shumate, teacher assistant)

Upward Reach, Mrs. Longino

Job Development, Mrs. Burnley

Advisor to NHS: Mrs. Ogletree

V.I.P.'s not photographed:

Clerical staff: Mrs. Skutnik, Mrs. Thornburg.

Custodian: Mr. Coleman

Substitutes: Miss Lucso, Mrs. Stuart, Mr. Leach

Events: Student Council Flower Exchanges: Valentine's Day and St. Patrick's Day.

And finally, please note that the students featured in the superlatives section and the items listed in the senior survey were decided by a vote of the senior class taken January 22-23.

A Last Glimpse

Three years at James Ford Rhodes have come and gone. The Class of 1981 is the latest link in a chain which encompasses a forty-nine year tradition of excellence. Throughout these years we have witnessed changes in the world and in Rhodes High School, as well as many personal changes, which have left their mark in the form of new friends, ideas, and standards. This book is an expression of the dreams and realities of the past three years. We leave here with a firm foundation of experience, yet we leave a part of ourselves behind as we begin a new chapter in our lives. There is so much to express in so little time; and what can be said, when we can't say, "See you in September?"

*Now this is not the end.
It is not even the beginning of the end.
But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning.*

--Winston Churchill
