THE BEGINNING . . .

DEDICATION

MR. JAMES TEMPLIN

He arrived at Rhodes 27 years ago as a teacher. One year later he took on the responsibility of Senior Class Advisor, and he has faithfully devoted his time and talents for the past 26 years.

The Senior Class will never be able to repay his patience, kindness, and understanding. He will be forever close to us and in our hearts.

With many thanks, we dedicate the 1982 Golden Anniversary Aries yearbook to . . .

"TIMBER"

. . . A NEW BEGINNING

FAREWELL

We stand upon the threshold,
the beginning of a dream.
Twelve years have passed us by,
like the currents of a stream.
We leave behind the sorrow,
that the tears have washed away,
And in our hearts let it be only laughter that remains today.
While some places lose their meanings
and the faces that fades away,
It's the good times we remember and the lessons that will stay.
The pride that fills the hallways is shared among our friends
For it is only in our memories
That James Ford Rhodes will live again.
