Time Will Reveal

We started the school year with uncertainties, excitement, and great expectations. Time went on and revealed new hopes and new dreams, new questions and new answers.

Perhaps this yearbook will reveal each one of your hopes and each one of your dreams. Perhaps it will reveal to you your most kept memories and the 1983-84 year as we remember it best.

Michelle Benton,
ARIES, Editor.

Dedication 1984

We the graduating Seniors of the Class of 1984 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Frank Conge without whose willingness to take a chance and unending support there would not have been a beginning.

And Especially To . . .

Mr. Edward McAudy

Without whose hard work, diligent efforts, unending patience, and unrelenting belief there could not have been an ending. TO BOTH OF YOU. YOU WILL ALWAYS HAVE OUR DEEPEST APPRECIATION AND RESPECT. SENIORS '84'.

Faculty

No, my neck's not bent.

Another boring day in class.

Ron, you're talking my ear off.

You thought you'd sneak up on me.

Noooo!

You stepped on my toe.

I'm so happy.

My cheeks aren't fat.

Where's the beef!

Administration

Mr. Farley J. Seldon
PRINCIPAL

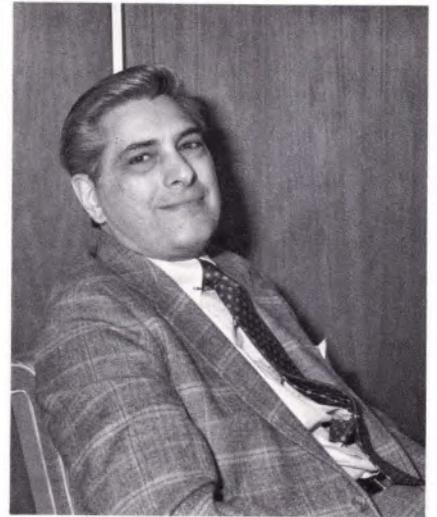

Mrs. Morgan

Dear Graduates:

Graduation from high school is a great day in your lives and a day of pride and joy in the history of our school. You have reached this first big milestone not only because of the teaching and guidance of your teachers, but also because of your parents and your own interest in your future.

I wish you continued success in all future endeavors.

Sincerely,
Mr. Seldon, Principal

Homecoming

Rhodes' 1983-84 Offensive line: (left to right) Terry Carter, Joe Saplak, Rick Gilfillen, Joe Molek, Dan Royko, and Jeff Saplak.

Janice Rutlidge gives her all at the Homecoming Rally for the mighty Rams.

1983-84 Homecoming Queen Finalists: Valerie Williams, Sylvia Brown, Pat Brown, Bertha Wherry, and Marchelle Burgess.

Main Events

"Hold On To Your Dreams"

Nick and Tomeka decided that the D.J. at the Homecoming Dance wasn't going to ruin their fun.

Marchelle Burgess, Homecoming Queen and Jeff Baciak, Campus King share a slow dance.

We're having a party!

This Is . . .

"Anybody want to buy some M&M's?"

"Gotta dollar for a Big Mac?"

Many of our fans had to have a few beers before they could watch the crushing defeat of our Rams at Homecoming.

Ram Country

"I can't believe it, we made a touchdown!"

Gail Kormos, a dedicated fan, says that she will come in any type of weather to see the Rams fake a football game.

C.O.C.A.

C.O.C.A. is the committee organized to combat absenteeism. Members of the Cleveland Browns are actively involved in trying to improve the attendance record in the Cleveland Public Schools city-wide. We salute their time and efforts.

"Amen, preach it Reverend!"

Dan Doborwoski

Dan Doborwoski came to Rhodes a guest of Mr. Pompeani. The science classes were invited to attend the informal meeting. Dan briefly focused on meteorology, but soon the questions from students targeted on television and its industries. Although this visit was intended as a science interest, the tone soon became light. To an observer it appeared that Dan is warm and friendly and easily developed a good rapport.

Winter Fantasy Snowball

The 1983 Winter Fantasy Snowball was presented by the Yearbook Staff. Inclement weather threatened to keep us at home, but about 85 die-hard souls braved the elements to set it out. Special thanks go out to those who showed up and rocked the Wiley Room. This four hour event was very well regarded, although financially it was disastrous. Where was the Spirit?

Alumni Vs. Big Chuck & Lil John

Big Chuck and Little John take time to pose for our photographer.

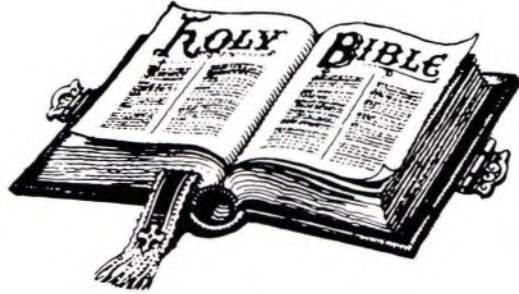

"Wendall, Wendall hear our call, sink it, sink it, sink that ball."

Wendall Reaves, Tyrone Owens, and Stan Jones sit in anticipation.

It has been a very good year for me. Due to work with the yearbook, I have come to know a large portion of the student body. The yearbook is the most important publication in a school because it captures the true feelings and spirit of any given school year. I have tried my best to help the students put out a quality book of which we can all be proud. There are bound to be problems with any project and we had an ungodly share of them. I would like to give thanks to Ms. Glaiter for her good advice, Mrs. Butler for her encouragement, Mrs. Brandt for just about everything, Mr. Seldon for his cooperation, and Ms. Unetich for her wonderful patience. I would like to give thanks to my staff for their dedication, work, and inspiration. We knew it was tough but we hung in there. Very special thanks go out to 2 outstanding staff members. My editor, Michelle Benton, who was the ideal person for the task. There could have been no one better. And my photographer, Pat Bunch, who was my right-hand man and jack of all jobs. His assistance was most invaluable and there could never be another to replace him. Forgive me if anyone was forgotten, but to anyone who offered assistance, Thank You.

Sincerely, Mr. Edward McAudy.

"We're only a week late. Celebrate!"

Wow, I'm so confused.

Being a patron is an old-fashioned way to keep good things going strong. In today's modern age we see many of our activities and institutions slipping away. Here at Rhodes those activities no longer in existence include: baseball, Y-teens, wrestling, soccer, intramurals, the Lettermen, and even academic standards such as Latin. The support from teachers, business, students, and families help keep tradition going. We can no longer afford to lose anymore of these traditions. Last year there was no yearbook, and for several years there was no school newspaper. The list of patrons lets the students know who truly cares and is willing to reiterate this theme with their financial support. Be supportive. Thanks!

In one way or another we have all learned. We can all say we have attained at least one of our goals, found the answers to at least some of our questions, and realized some of our dreams. My wish for each one of my fellow Seniors is that your hopes, dreams, wishes, and desires will all in time . . . REVEAL.

Michelle
