John Ford Rhodes High School

For the Class of '99

By: Antoinette Mostly

1998

YOUR GOAL HAS BEEN FULFILLED
PUTTING ALL THE PAIN ASIDE
YOU WOKE UP EVERY MORNING
AND AT FIRST YOU HAD NO PRIDE
YOU SAID "TODAY I AM A FRESHMAN
A SOPHOMORE I'LL SOON BE.
A JUNIOR THEN A SENIOR, MY MOM'S SO PROUD OF ME."

1999

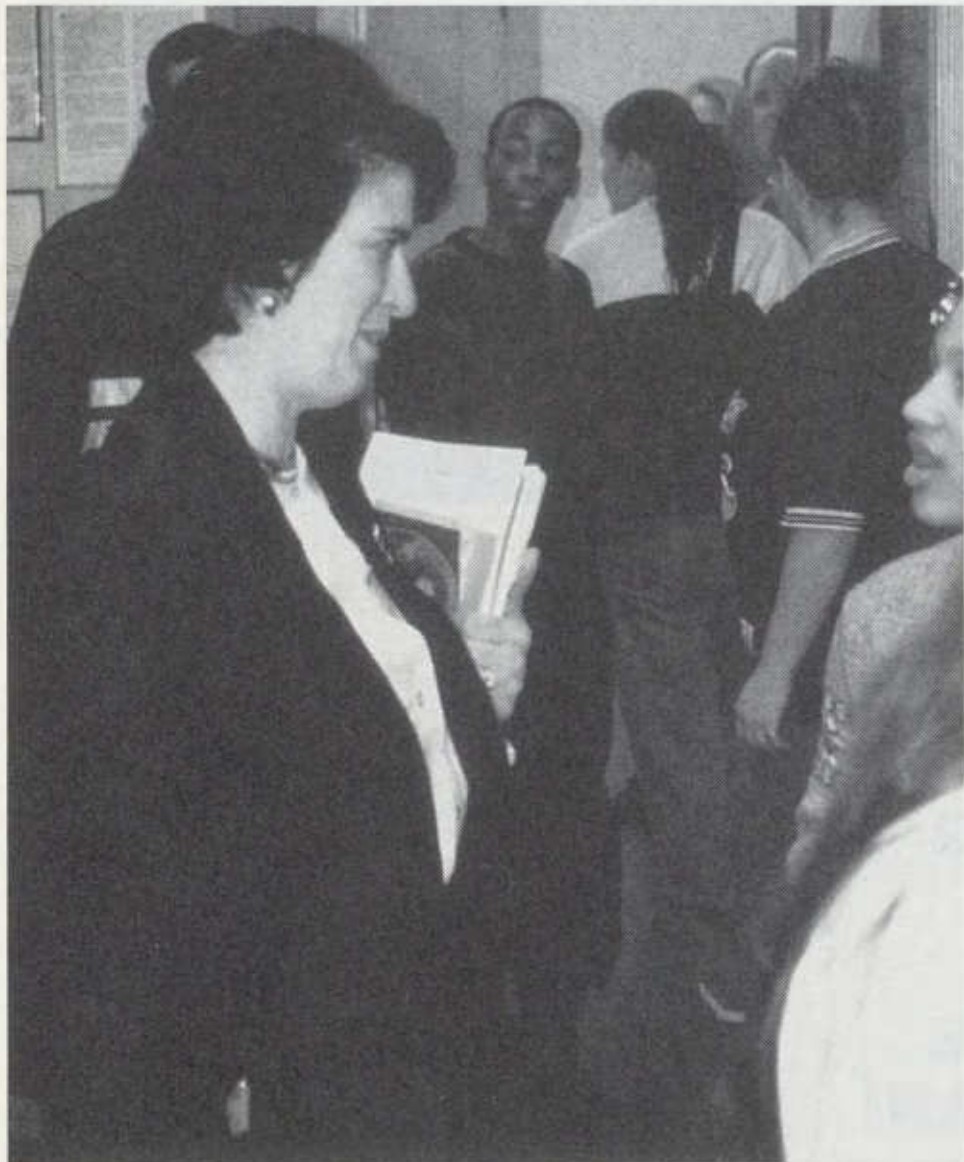

I KNEW WHEN I GREW UP
I'D BECOME SOMETHING GREAT
BUT WITHOUT THIS MAGICAL
CERTIFICATE I'M ONLY SECOND RATE
I'VE BEEN WAITING FOR THIS DAY
AND IT'S NOT LASTING VERY LONG

BUT YOU KNOW THAT I'LL REMEMBER
IT WHEN IT'S DONE AND GONE.
I'LL SIT BACK WITH MY KIDS
AND REMINISCE ON THINGS,
THE FUN I HAD AT SCHOOL
AND THE JOY IT USED TO BRING

I'LL START AT ELEMENTARY, INTERMEDIATE
THEN HIGH, AND THINK ABOUT HOW HARD IT WAS TO HAVE TO SAY GOODBYE
MY YEARS AT JAMES FORD RHODES
WERE ABSOLUTLEY FINE,
BUT THE BEST YEAR OF ALL
WAS THE CLASS OF
"99"

Golden Dedication

When the yearbook staff met this year to brainstorm about the books dedication, our record was established. The shortest meeting in yearbook history and the quick decision was unanimous. One name was mentioned and no discussion, argument, or question came forward.

The staff is proud to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Fran Golden, the guidance department chairperson. A welcome addition as well as a woman of not only beauty, style, and grace, but also compassion for all those around her.

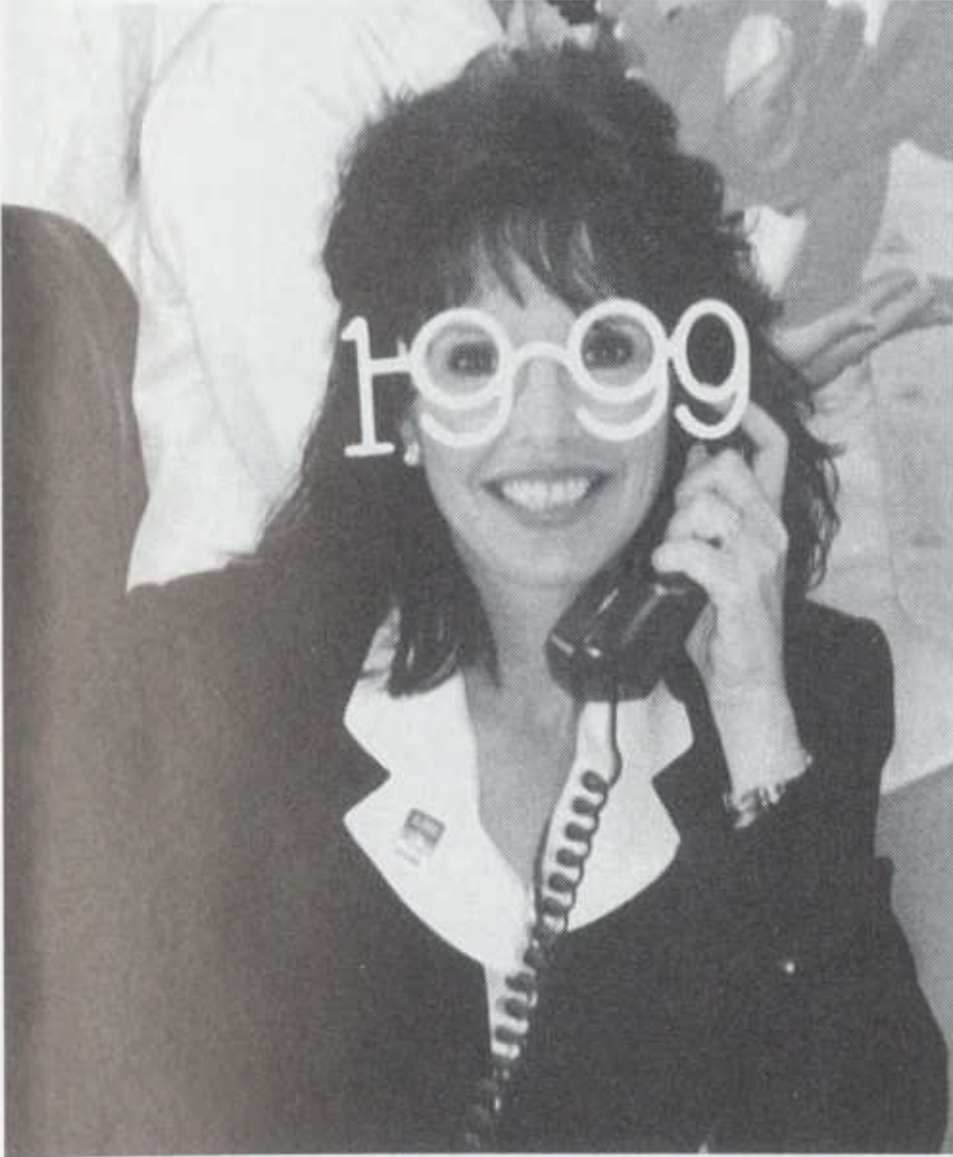

She always has a kind word, a smile or a helping hand for any who needs it. Whether transcripts are needed, financial aid sought, personal troubles solved, tests proctored, committee meetings attended or just a sounding board on a bad day, "Fran" is there.

She is a modern day superhero. Today's world cries out for role models and there is no one better than Fran Golden. We are so fortunate and proud to have her.

Administration

Principal
Mrs. Freilino

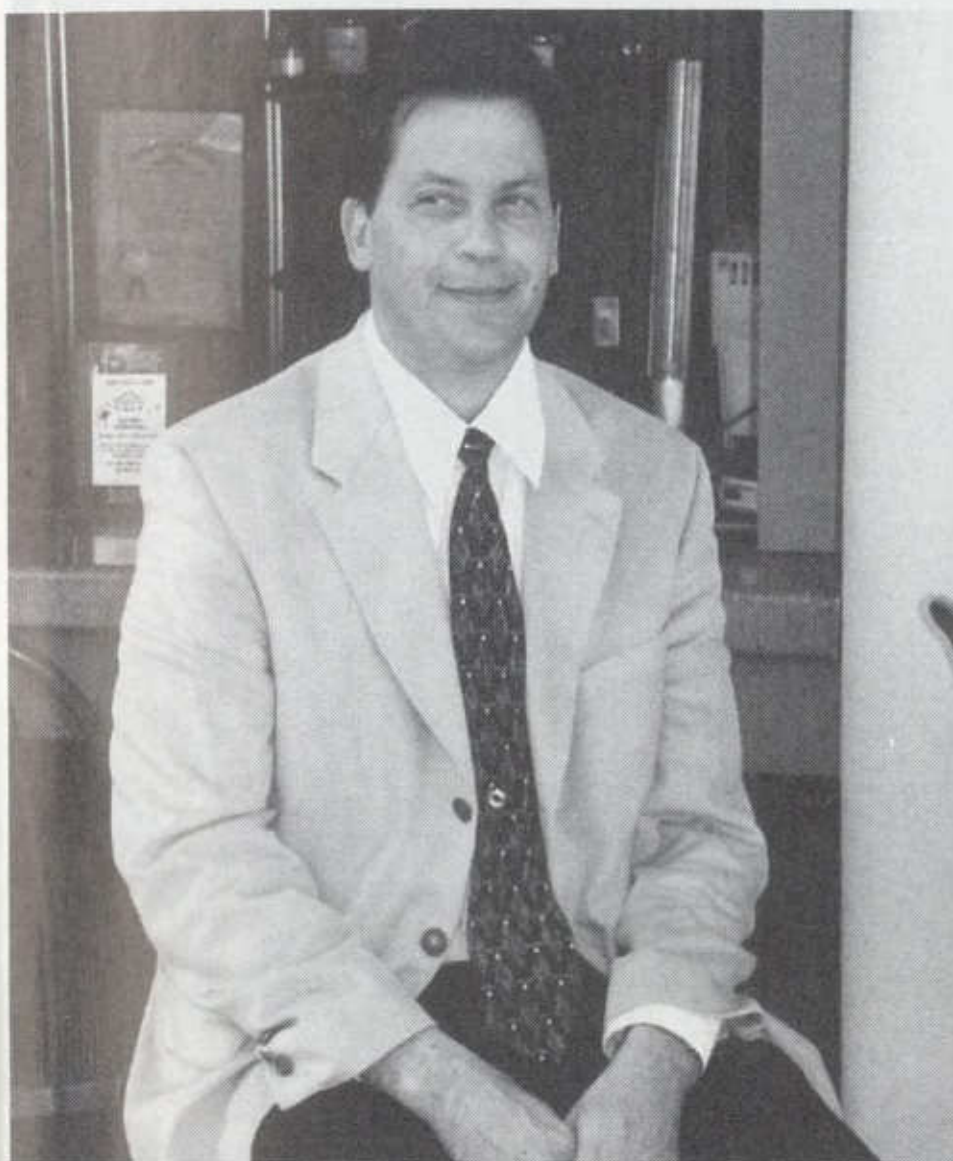

The administration of James Ford Rhodes congratulates the class of 1999 and wishes you happiness and success. We are so very proud of the academic and social maturity you have achieved as graduates. It is sad, however, to realize that you won't be a daily part of life at Rhodes.

You will be missed. Please be confident in your ability to achieve goals, whatever they may be. You have learned to be independent thinkers, to lead and to stand up for your beliefs. You have pulled together to help each other like no other class has done! You are exactly the way we hoped you would be!

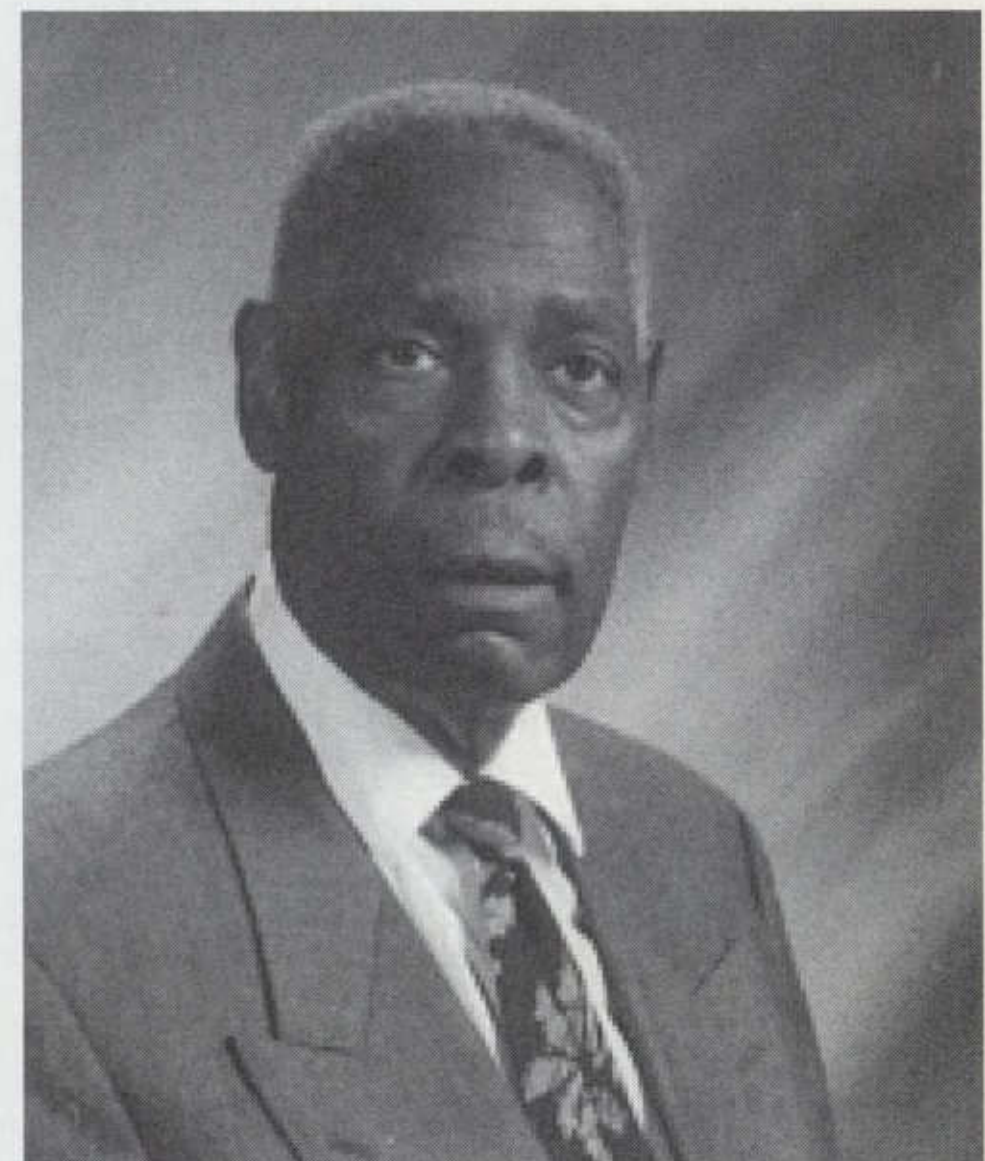

You be "gone in 99" but you will remain "Rhodes Scholars"
Love you!

Winter Jam

Will someone please dance with me?

Hey, guess what? I created the post-it!

This dance is groovy!

This is my song!

Get down, get funky!

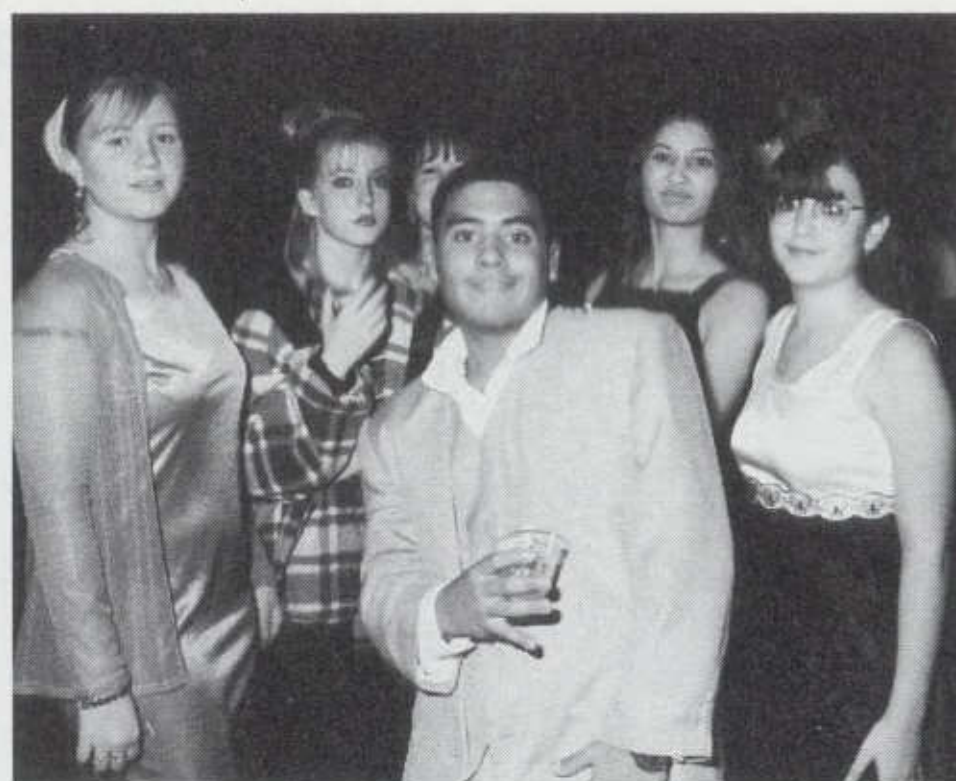

Christina and Melinda take a break to strike a pose.

Katie says CHEESE!

Octavia and Desere do the TransExpress.

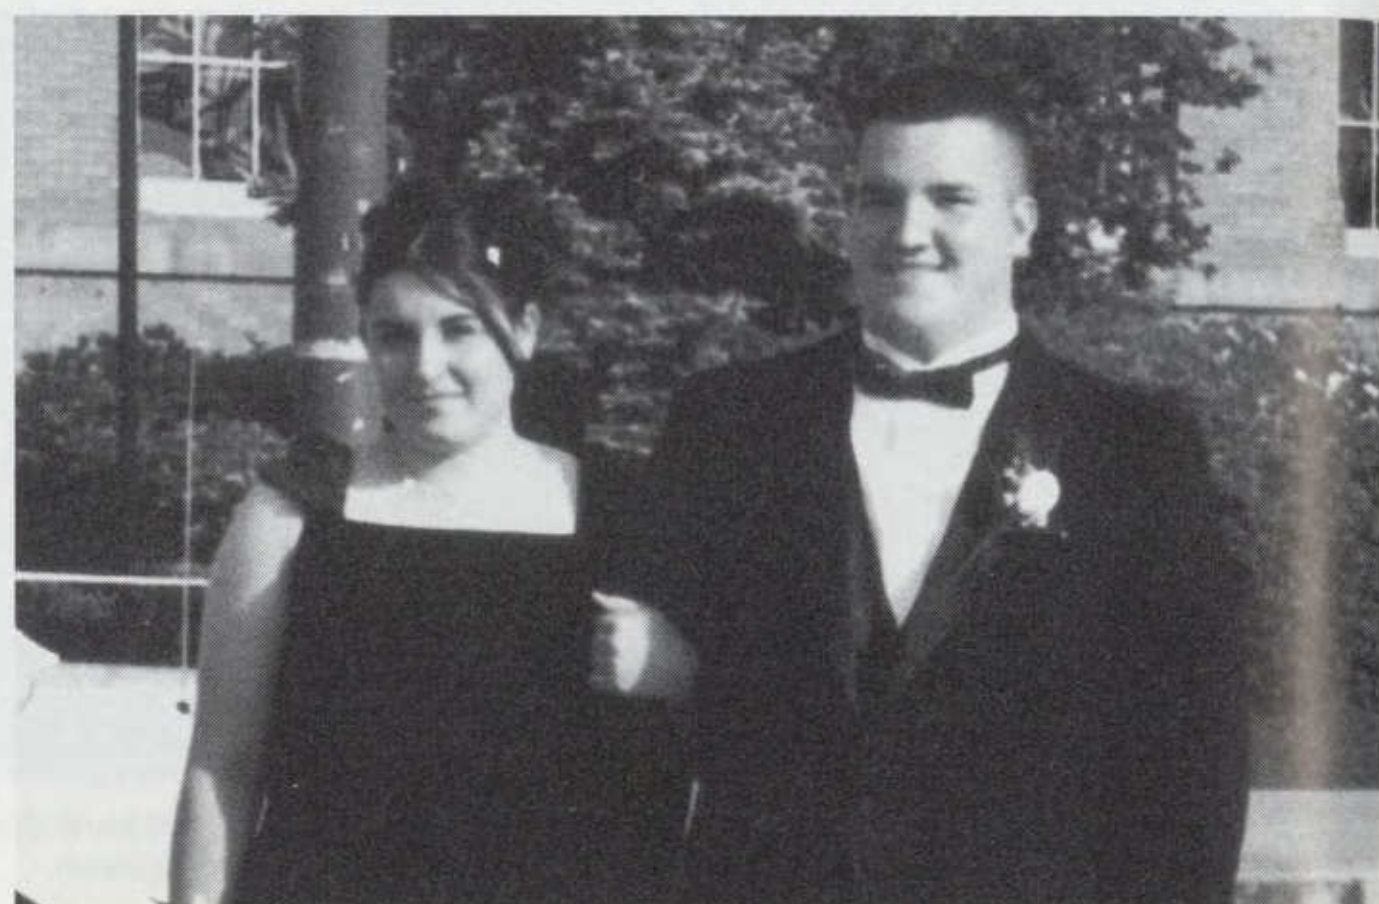

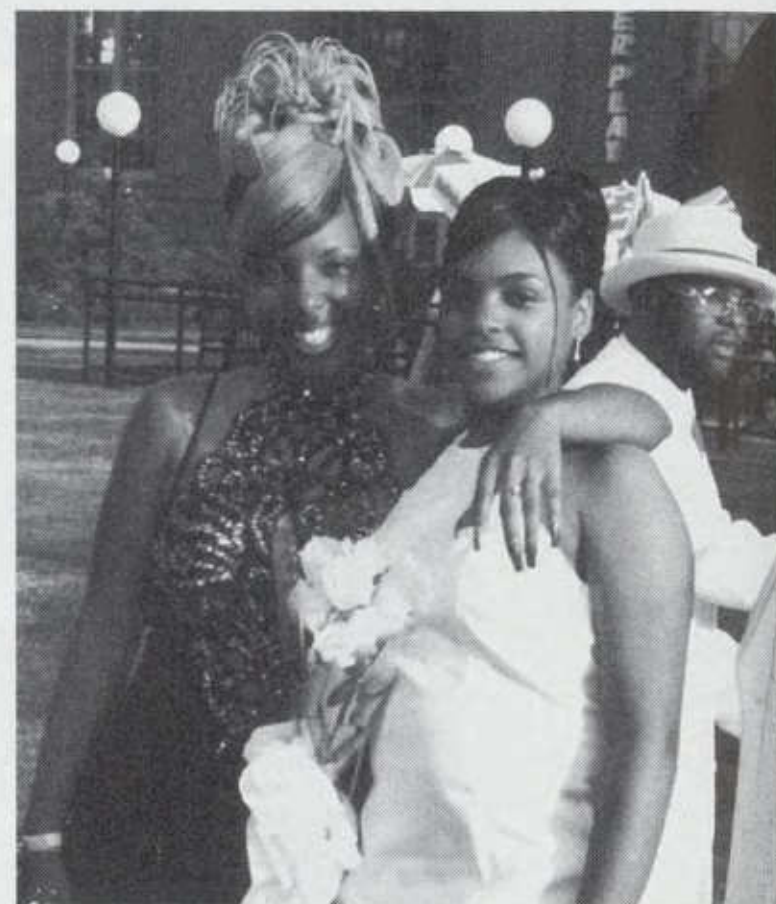

Hey, these girls just can't get enough of me!
