

WELCOME TO THE RUHALA CENTER

Since 2004, the Ruhala Performing Arts Center (RPAC) has brought New York show business professionalism to the Greater Lansing area, based on the extensive career of artistic director Mark Ruhala. Mr. Ruhala is an award-winning director/choreographer and producer who has worked on Broadway, off-Broadway, in Film, TV, Ballet, Opera, Cabaret, and Videos, throughout the world. He worked for the National Endowment for the Arts as a panelist adjudicating grants. Mr. Ruhala founded the Broadway Training Center in New York, a not-for-profit performing arts center, and served as the Executive/Artistic Director for 13 years. Mr. Ruhala has a Master of Arts from State University of New York's Empire State College. His thesis synthesized theatre practices with epigenetic biology, quantum physics, positive psychology, and cognitive science to suggest a new paradigm for the theatre. The Ruhala Center continues to break new ground with innovative theater programs based on the Ruhala Learning Method.
