

Little Acorns Newsletter

March 2026

A warm welcome to the children that have joined us in the Little Acorns room. Our lovely staff team are Sophie, Heidi and Karmara. Please reach out to us if you ever have any questions or queries. We look forward to sharing all your childrens memories with you through the parent zone app. Please check this daily as this is where you will find all updates.

Reminders

what I need for nursery: spare clothes, wipes, a water bottle, yummy lunch, nappies if needed, and wellies for the garden.

In our lunch boxes we cannot have any items containing nuts such as chocolate spread, if there is any food containing chocolate such as brioche rolls, can these please be labelled with ingredients.

what we are learning

Our new book topic will be Supertato. We will be learning about the golden rules and why they are important. In this story the children will be learning about friendships, feelings and turn taking. At home: read the story with family and discuss how actions may make them feel. Take a photo and share on parent zone sharing an act of kindness.

Upcoming events
