“Brush up on your dining skills” is a one-night dining experience. For two- to two- and a half hours, the family or adults enjoy a four-course dinner with the fifth course being the “finger bowl” (no food). There is a SOUP course, SALAD course, MAIN course, and DESSERT course. Etiquette training is given with each course and also throughout the evening. Dining skills taught include how to correctly use the spoon, knife, fork, dessert fork and spoon, how to pass food, appropriate conversation, uses of the napkin, and how to properly eat a roll. Before the dinner begins correct handshake and proper introductions, how to seat a lady, put on a coat and open doors correctly are taught. It is an evening filled with lots of good food and fun dining instruction!

Cost: $199 (includes up to four people)
$ 50 for each additional guest

Time: 2 hours (sometimes 2½ hours)
