

Consequences for the Faithless

Num 14:11-24

Grapes

Giants

Grasshoppers

Key Concept

God is faithful both to forgive and to punish faithlessness.

Moses sends 12 spies into the Promised land
(Num 13:1 – 20)

Israel continues to grumble, complain, and rebel until the rebellious generation dies
(Num 15 – 36)

The people refuse to enter the promised land, threatening to stone their leaders
(Num 14:1 – 10)

The spies return, but 10 of the 12
spread a bad report
(Num 13:21 – 33)

Today's Lesson
Moses intercedes before God, but there are consequences
(Num 14:11 – 38)

Location of Mount Sinai

Route of Exodus

Ammon

(Today's Jordan)

Moab

Canaan

(Today's Israel)

Edom

Egypt

Goshen

Wilderness of Paran

Mount Sinai

(Mount Horeb)

Egypt

Midian

Red Sea

Egypt

Land of Moab

- Why did God condemn the Israelites to 40 years wondering in the desert?

1 year for every day the scouts explored the promised land

- What happen to the ten men Moses sent to explore the land and then incited rebellion against the Lord?

They were struck dead with a plague before the Lord

- T/F After hearing the Lord condemn the Israelites to wandering in the desert for 40 years, they rose early and returned to the wilderness? False, Num 14:44
- At what age of those included in the registration were condemned to death in the wilderness? 20yrs and older

- Which tribe was not represented by the 12 spies? Levi

- Moses changed whose name to the meaning of “God will save you” before the spies departed on their mission?

Joshua – originally was Hoshea

- Moses tasked the spies with bringing back fruit and a report but, not what?

An assessment as to whether the people should enter the promised land