Welcome to the Lutheran Church of the Covenant!

Here are a few notes to make you feel more at home as we praise the God of new life!

Bulletins are available to be picked up at the back of the sanctuary.

We encourage you to participate throughout worship by speaking the bold print and singing along with the hymns. Headings preceded by an asterisk * indicate when you are invited to stand, as you are comfortable.

All are welcome to come forward for communion. The ushers will guide you. Juice and gluten-free wafers are available; please let your server know if you need either of these.

A basket for offerings is at the rear of the sanctuary.

A children's table is located at the back of the sanctuary, where you'll find some books and activities to help children feel more at home in worship.

*Blessing

Good and gracious God, on this holy night you gave us your Son, the Lord of the universe, wrapped in swaddling clothes, the Savior of all, lying in a manger. On this holy night, draw us into the mystery of your love. Join our voices with the heavenly host, that we may sing your glory on high. Give us a place among the shepherds, that we may find the one for whom we have waited, Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, in the splendor of eternal light, one God forever and ever. Amen! Jesus Christ is born today!

*Communion Prayer

*The Lord's Prayer

Gathered together tonight by the birth of Christ, let us pray as Christ taught us:

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and forever. Amen.

*Candle Hymn of Praise

- 1 Good Chris - tian friends, re - joice with heart and soul and voice;
2 Good Chris - tian friends, re - joice with heart and soul and voice;

give ye heed to what we say: Je - sus Christ is born to - day;
now ye hear of end - less bliss: Je - sus Christ was born for this!

ox and ass be - fore him bow, and he is in the man - ger now.
He has o - pened heav - en's door, and we are blest for - ev - er - more.

Christ is born to - day! Christ is born to - day!
Christ was born for this! Christ was born for this!

*Prayer of the Day

Holy God, tonight we celebrate your presence on earth. Tonight, open our hearts to the sparks of your presence still in this world. Open our eyes, that we might behold your presence in the least likely of places, and among the least likely of people. God with us, kindle your spark within us, that together we may shine forth your light, we might banish the shadows of this world, and we might be the continuation of the Christmas miracle: Emmanuel is in this world, God is with us, now and evermore. Amen.

Let us give thanks for all the faithful departed who have been bearers of the Word made flesh. Give us grace to follow your holy ones in lives of faith and commitment, that we may we join with the hosts of heaven in singing the praises of this holy night. Shine your light and peace, O God.

All these things and whatever else you see that we need, grant us, O God, for the sake of him who died and rose again, and now lives and reigns within the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Sharing of the Peace

The peace of the Lord be with you always. And also with you.

*Offertory Hymn: Give Thanks

(please stand as the offering is brought forward)

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of eight staves of music. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first two staves contain the first line of the hymn, the next two staves contain the second line, and the final four staves contain the third line. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a mix of quarter, eighth, and half notes. The final staff ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Give thanks with a grate - ful heart, give thanks to the Ho - ly One,
give thanks be - cause he's giv - en Je - sus Christ, his Son.
Give thanks with a grate - ful heart, give thanks to the Ho - ly One,
give thanks be - cause he's giv - en Je - sus Christ, his Son.
And now let the weak say, "I am strong," let the poor say, "I am rich," be - cause of what the Lord has done for us. And now let the weak say, "I am strong," let the poor say, "I am rich," be - cause of what the Lord has done for us. Give thanks!

Psalm 96

Everyone on this earth, sing praises to the Lord, sing and praise God's name.

Day after day announce, "The Lord has saved us!"

Tell every nation on earth, "The Lord is wonderful and does marvelous things!"

The Lord is great and deserves our greatest praise!
Other nations worship idols,
but the Lord created the heavens.

Give honor and praise to the Lord,
whose power and beauty fill his holy temple."

Tell everyone of every nation,
"praise the glorious power of the Lord."

Announce to the nations, "The Lord is King!"
The world stands firm, never to be shaken,
and God will judge its people with fairness."

Tell the heavens and the earth to be glad and celebrate!

Command the ocean to roar with all its creatures
and the fields to rejoice with all their crops.

Then even every tree in the forest will sing joyful songs to the Lord.

Second Reading: Titus 2:1-4

God's readiness to give and forgive is now public. Salvation's available for everyone! We're being shown how to turn our backs on a godless, indulgent life, and how to take on a God-filled, God-honoring life. This new life is starting right now and is whetting our appetites for the glorious day when our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, appears. He offered himself as a sacrifice to free us from a dark, rebellious life into this good, pure life, making us a people he can be proud of, energetic in goodness. God's Word for God's people. Thanks be to God

Text: Isaac Watts, 1674–1748

Music: ANTIOCH, English melody, 18th cent.; arr. Lowell Mason, 1792–1872

There were shepherds camping in the neighborhood. They had set night watches over their sheep. Suddenly, God's angel stood among them and God's glory blazed around them. They were terrified. The angel said, "Don't be afraid. I'm here to announce a great and joyful event that is meant for everybody, worldwide: A Savior has just been born in David's town, a Savior who is Messiah and Master. This is what you're to look for: a baby wrapped in a blanket and lying in a manger."

At once the angel was joined by a huge angelic choir singing God's praises:

Glory to God in the heavenly heights, Peace to all men and women on earth who please him.

As the angel choir withdrew into heaven, the shepherds talked it over. "Let's get over to Bethlehem as fast as we can and see for ourselves what God has revealed to us." They left, running, and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger. Seeing was believing. They told everyone they met what the angels had said about this child. All who heard the shepherds were impressed.

Mary kept all these things to herself, holding them dear, deep within herself. The shepherds returned and let loose, glorifying and praising God for everything they had heard and seen. It turned out exactly the way they'd been told!

This is the good news of Jesus! Praise to you, O Christ .
