The Disciple Maker Index Survey is Open! Our parish is on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ as a parish community. Together we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parish can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith. The very first step in this process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities, and that is where the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) comes in! The DMI is an important survey tool that invites you to reflect on your discipleship journey.

Go to the following link to take the DMI survey today:
www.survey.catholicleaders.org/d/d03g8b

– Your input helps strengthen our parish
– Results help leadership prepare for the future
– A report of the findings will be shared with you

If you prefer a paper-copy, you may pick up your survey in the Lobby of the Church and the Harris Center. To submit the completed paper survey, please drop off in the Mail Drop. We are blessed in so many ways.

Please continue to pray for this intention and for the growth and protection of our parish.

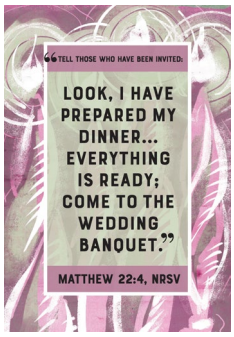

Please Pray for...

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's readings are sure to whet our appetites. Isaiah speaks of "juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines." In the psalm, God spreads a table before us. Jesus' parable features a wedding feast given by a king. Even Paul mentions that at times he has been well fed and lived in abundance. All this prepares us, as always, for the eucharist meal we will share, where we will partake of Christ's own Body and Blood.

DEATHS IN Our Family

Earl Howard Johnson passed away on October 7, 2026, at the age of 72 yrs. Mr. Johnson is the brother of Theresa Baltrip and Patricia A. Piper. A Funeral Service is scheduled for October 17th in Beaumont, TX. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.

Stewardship Reflection

That we learn to depend on God to supply for our all needs. "My God will fully supply whatever you need…" - Philippians 4:19 God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works, and treasure, then see how God provides for your needs.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME(A)

"The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you, came in here without a wedding garment?" Matthew 22:12

Respond to God's invitation and be properly dressed.

In today's Gospel, our Lord Jesus is preparing us for the end of time, for eternity, and for citizenship into the Kingdom of Heaven. But entering the Kingdom requires us, first, to respond to God's invitation and, secondly, to be properly dressed.

1. Recognize and Respond to the Invitation.
We hear the invitation in the conclusion of the Sermon on the Mount, when Jesus tells us and His disciples: "Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and do them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house on the rock" Matt 7:24. Jesus also tells us: "Behold I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me" Revelation 3:20. We are invited to open the door of our hearts and allow Jesus to come in and fellowship with us.

2. We Must Be Clothed for the Occasion.
It was the National Football League (NFL) exit seen around the world at MetLife Stadium. During a football game against the New York Jets, Tampa Bay Buccaneers football player Antonio Brown, who was considered one of the greatest wide receivers of his generation, became frustrated on the sideline. Late in the third quarter, with his team trailing by two touchdowns, 24-10, Brown took off his jersey, shoulder pads, gloves, and shirt and threw some of them into the stands. He then ran through the end zone toward the locker room while waving at fans. If we are to be saints, we ought to be like the NFL team, the New Orleans Saints. Trust and believe whenever the Saints take the field, they're going out there to win! These players were recruited to win. They were drafted to win. They know they are going to get hit as soon as they step onto the field. The quarterback knows the defense is coming after him to sack him. The running back knows he's going to get tackled. The wide receiver knows he's going to get hit. But they don't quit. Some of them even have to be carried off the field on a stretcher. Getting hit is part of the game—and enduring those hits is part of the journey toward victory. But it is us saints, who sometimes give up! We are told to: "Endure hardship like a good soldier for Jesus Christ" 2 Tim. 2:3. Romans 13:14, says to, "Clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ." The "wedding garment" represents doing the will of God and putting our faith into action. If we are going to be saints for Christ, we cannot take our jersey off and quit. To strip off the garment is to deny Jesus, who recruited and drafted us to work in His Father's Kingdom. If we suffer with Him, we will reign with Him. If we deny Him, He will deny us (cf. 2 Tim. 2:12). And in case you were wondering who won the game: the Buccaneers scored 18 unanswered points. On the winning score, quarterback Tom Brady led a 93-yard touchdown drive in the final minutes to secure the comeback victory, 28-24, even after Antonio Brown had already stripped off his gear and left the field. Don't fool yourself: people don't need you to be successful. Immediately after the game, head coach Bruce Arians stated that Antonio Brown was "no longer a Buc." Brown later told TMZ news, "It probably wasn't necessary or professional" in the way I left the field. That was Antonio Brown's last game in the NFL. No other team wanted him. His football career, which had earned him millions of dollars, was over. Why? Other teams knew they could not count on him.

Can God depend on you to be faithful and do His will, even during hard times? The man who was not dressed in a wedding garment, was cast out "into the darkness outside" Matt. 22:13. When you quit on God, when you deny Him, you have no place in His Kingdom. Jesus made it clear to us: "Many are called, but few are chosen" Matt. 22:14.

Time: 10:00 am - 1:00 pm

Dear Community Partner,

The Sunnyside Multi-Service Center is pleased to invite you to participate in our upcoming Breast Cancer and Domestic Violence Fashion Show, a special event dedicated to honoring survivors, raising awareness, providing education, and connecting our community with vital resources and support.

This meaningful event will shine a spotlight on survivors of breast cancer and domestic violence, celebrating their strength, courage, resilience, and journeys of overcoming adversity.

We would be honored to have you join us as a

GUEST SPEAKER & COMMUNITY RESOURCE PARTNER.

Your voice, knowledge, and experience can help provide our attendees with valuable information, encouragement, and resources that may make a lasting difference in someone's life.

Together We Can Make a Difference

We are asking our invited partners to take part by:

- Sharing important information related to breast cancer, domestic violence, prevention, awareness, and available support services.
- Providing information about resources and services available to survivors, families, and individuals in our community.
- Offering words of encouragement and empowerrement to those whose lives have been touched by these experiences.
- Supporting our efforts to create greater awareness while helping survivors know that they are not alone.

Hope Healing Strength Empowerment

This event is more than a fashion show—it is an opportunity for our community to stand together, honor survivors, educate others, and promote hope, healing, strength, and empowerment.

We look forward to having you join us ase we celebrate survivors and bring awareness to these important causes.
