THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Besides his Gospel, Saint Luke also wrote the Acts of the Apostles. Today we get to hear the ending of one and the beginning of the other, for Jesus' ascension marks the transition between the two. As Luke writes, the Gospel deals with what Jesus said and did while on earth and Acts begins with Jesus giving his disciples a mission. As we carry on this mission, let us realize how Jesus is still present with us today: in each other, in those in need, when we gather in his name, in the Eucharist, and in the proclamation of the word. Listening to his word now, let us be aware of his constant and enduring presence.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That with every decision I make, I take one step closer to God. "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (Revelation 22:13) This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work, or at school. Living gratefully and generously is an intentional lifestyle. Every decision you make either moves you closer to God or farther away. Choose wisely.

The Feast of the Ascension (Year C)

The Feast of the Ascension marks the completion of Christ's work of salvation. Having carried out his mission on earth Jesus returns to his rightful place at the side of the Father. Even though he no longer lives with us the work of God continues in the world with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles which we celebrate in a week's time. You might think that there is something a bit peculiar about the Ascension, something a bit strange about the image of Christ rising vertically to the heavens. The words used in the Acts of the Apostles are that 'he was lifted up while they looked on until a cloud took him from their sight.' Even though during his life on earth we know that Jesus could perform miracles and, after the resurrection, could even appear and disappear at will, the idea of him rising vertically up into the sky is hard to credit. I was once amused at hearing a priest friend of mine describe the Ascension as, 'The Feast of the Vertical Take-Off.' If you get a chance to see the Coptic art picture in our Book of the Gospels, it amusingly showing a pair of feet poking out of a cloud in an effort to depict the Ascension. However it is portrayed, the Ascension of Jesus is a historical fact.

Whether Jesus actually made a sort of vertical take-off or whether he disappeared in some other way, is not the focus. The important thing for us is that Jesus has accomplished the work of salvation and it is now our role to get on with making that salvation a reality for everyone in the world. If we think of the Nativity as marking the beginning of Jesus' work, then the Ascension marks its completion. Sadly, in former liturgies, the Feast of the Ascension ended up being treated as a minor event. Some years ago, even when it was a Holy day of Obligation, the Ascension was generally one of the worst attended of them all.

The Church, therefore, in her wisdom offered the option as in this local Archdiocese and State, so the feast has been transferred to the nearest Sunday so at least it is celebrated by more people who listen to the account of the Ascension in the scripture readings and have its meaning and purpose explained to them by the homilist. The Ascension does not seem to be regarded with the same importance as Pentecost or Corpus Christi, which generally occur around the same time. In our liturgy today we try to celebrate the Ascension with a certain solemnity, and we sing proper hymns which draw our attention to the importance of the feast. It is vital to realize that this was a bodily return to heaven. Jesus is not like us who leave a dead body behind while our souls return to God. The significance of the feast is that Jesus returns to the Father with his body intact. The key point here is that Jesus retains his humanity.

Christ adopted our human form, he lived with us, he dies and rises from the dead and with this body he returns to the Father. Jesus is still both human and divine ever afterwards. We in our turn, are on the Last Day will be reunited with our bodies in a glorified form and are enabled to live with God forever in heaven. So, you can see that this lovely Feast of the Ascension is celebrating some important things. What it means has great significance for each one of us. The events of the first Ascension Day mean that our humanity is fully recognized and sanctified by God. Despite all that has happened, despite our fall from grace, regardless of all the sinfulness, we are now redeemed and the way to eternal life is opened for us. And this eternal life is not just for a spiritual part of ourselves, but it is for the whole of us, for our bodies and for our souls.

It is also instructive to look at the actions of the disciples in today's celebration as Jesus was withdrawn from them. It says in the Acts of the Apostles, that they were still staring into the sky when the angels came to give them an explanation. I have often heard it said that this is how we should live our lives in the post-Ascension world, with our eyes fixed on heaven. Well, maybe not both our eyes on heaven, as we need one eye to see the things on earth, the things that are in front of us. What we need is to keep our eyes on the things that are right before us while we live out our lives here in this world. However, we need to keep our eyes on our final destination to make sure that we do not lose sight of it. We ought always to make sure that we keep an eye on our final goal, the "kingdom of heaven." Where Jesus has gone, we will surely follow and it is vital for us to keep the desire to attain that goal, to be with him for all eternity, as well as throughout the entirety of our lives here on earth.
