Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That we allow the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts and transform our lives. "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John 14:26) The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your mind, heart, and soul affects your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

To Cry Out with Joy to the Lord! is to recognize and thank Him for His abundant gifts. As we cultivate gratitude, we create space for even greater joy in our lives. Please consider making your gift in the parish, or online at www.archgh.org/dsf, and join our mission to be Christ's hands and heart in our community.

eGiving makes it easy to give, anytime, anywhere

You can use our parish's online giving platform, Faith Direct, to deepen your commitment to the church and the ministries you care about most. Your recurring gifts will sustain our mission month after month. You will also help our parish by cutting costs for envelopes and paper and allowing our staff to spend less time processing cash and checks and more time on ministries.

It's easy to get started. Here are the ways to sign up:

Pentecost Sunday (Year C)

“Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.”

Today is Pentecost Sunday, for us Pentecost culminates our journey to Easter. The journey began with Lent and ends with the outpouring of love the Savior promised us as he completed his mission on Earth. Jesus did not abandon his apostles, even when leaving from this world to return to his Father in heaven. Ten days later, at Pentecost one of his most significant promises – the promise to send the Holy Spirit in abundance on them – was extraordinarily realized.

After Pentecost, the apostles were never again the same. The outpouring of the Holy Spirit affected dramatically on their convictions and on their enthusiasm to carry out Jesus’ wishes. The effects were at once noticeable to the watching and listening crowds.

The apostles were filled with the Holy Spirit and given the gift of speech. As they spoke, their listeners – many of whom were foreigners – could hear and understand them in their own languages. The apostles now acted as members of a united and committed community. Although Christ had established the Church while still on earth, at Pentecost it became manifest in the world for the first time. It became obvious that God was working powerfully through the Church.

At Pentecost, the Church earnestly began its mission to the entire world. This mission centers on preaching about the saving name of Jesus and about the wonders of God. God’s greatest wonder is that, through the suffering and death of Jesus the Messiah, people are saved from the consequences of their sins: (alienation from God). Jesus’ fundamental promise to his apostles was that they would never be without his presence and his help. He knew that they would be unable to contribute successfully to the universal mission that he had given them unless he sent the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit would bring courage to his disciples and restore unity and harmony between people. There is evidence of this in John’s Gospel when Jesus, after rising from the dead, said to his apostles: ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those, whose sins you retain, they are retained’ (Jn 20:22-23).

Significantly, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Church at its beginning corresponds to the earlier coming of the Holy Spirit on Jesus at the beginning of his public ministry when he was baptized in the River Jordan. In the same way that Jesus was always accompanied and guided by the Holy Spirit during his earthly life, so too is his Church as it brings repentant sinners to him. Repentance is necessary for salvation.

The feast of Pentecost celebrates a promise realized. It acknowledges that the Holy Spirit is at the heart of the Church’s life. Because that is so, the Church cannot ultimately fail in its task of witnessing to Jesus’ death and resurrection. It will eventually succeed in communicating the message of God’s salvation to everyone in the world.

The sacrament of confirmation, which celebrates the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and its gifts in our sacramental lives is the sealing of the graces, also given in baptism. We received this Grace as our personal Pentecost experience when we are transformed into witnesses to the teaching and example of Jesus and his Church. We willingly take on the responsibility to share our Catholic faith with others.

The Feast of Pentecost is a wonderful celebration of the missionary Church. Let us reflect on our call to missionary discipleship putting forth our spiritual gifts in our homes, schools, and workplaces. We must be willing to show that we are serious about our confirmation (Pentecost) responsibilities. Using the gifts of the Holy Spirit, to be sent as missionary disciples, leading us to make the urgency of the gospel message of salvation a reality for everyone we meet on our journey.
