SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

John 1:29

Today we are reminded to listen for Jesus' call to follow him. Isaiah realized God's call of service, referring to himself as God's servant, commissioned to proclaim God's salvation to the ends of the earth. Paul recognized that God willed him to be an apostle and today we hear him tell the members of the church in Corinth that God calls them to be holy. John the Baptist points to Jesus as the Lamb of God and Son of God, the one to follow instead of him. May we listen for his call so that we may respond, "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

Special Collection for the Church in Latin America

Since 1965, Catholics in the United States have built relationships of unity and love with Catholics in Central and South America and the islands of the Caribbean through their participation in the annual special collection for the Church in Latin America. On the weekend of January 24-25, Archdiocesan parishes will take up this collection in order to support ministries that bring Christ's mercy to prisoners, train catechists in remote rural areas, and build up pastoral programs that address the crucial needs of refugees and victims of natural disasters. Please be generous.

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.

AmenStewardship Reflection

That we may faithfully live as God's stewards, fulfilling the plan He had for each of us as He formed us in the womb. "Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..." Isaiah 49:5 God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

Stewardship Intention Card

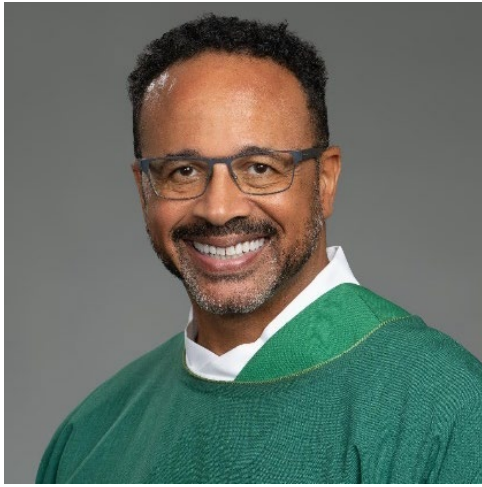

As we begin the new year, let's take time to reflect on the Blessings we have received in 2025. You are invited to commit to giving back in the new year by completing a Call to Stewardship Intention Card. These cards were mailed in your January Envelope packet. If you do not receive envelopes in the mail, we have yellow intention cards in the vestibule of the church.

If you will need a copy of your 2025 contribution statement for tax purposes, please call the Parish Office at (713) 738-2311. Statements will be sent only upon request.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME (A)

January 18, 2026

A Christian Does Not Go on Vacation During Ordinary Time

Happy Sunday! When the Church enters Ordinary Time, it is easy to misunderstand what that means. The word ordinary does not mean unimportant or uneventful. It means ordered, a season focused on living out what we have received from Christ.

When we say that a Christian does not go on vacation during Ordinary Time, we are speaking figuratively, not literally. Rest, renewal, and family time are good and necessary. What we are cautioned against is taking a spiritual vacation; stepping back from prayer, discipleship, and responsibility simply because the season feels less dramatic.

After Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, and the Baptism of the Lord, Ordinary Time begins as a season of mission. These sacred moments formed us, strengthened us, and reminded us of who we are as baptized believers. Now the question becomes: What will we do with what we have received?

In today's first reading, the prophet Isaiah reminds us that God's people are called to be "a light to the nations." This calling is not seasonal. It does not pause between major feasts. The light we receive from Christ is meant to be carried into everyday life.

Brothers and sisters, Ordinary Time is where faith becomes practical. It is where discipleship moves from celebration to consistency. It is easy to be joyful during Christmas and hopeful at Easter. Ordinary Time challenges us to remain faithful when life feels routine, demanding, or uncertain.

This is the season where fruit is grown. Christian maturity is formed in patience, integrity, forgiveness, and quiet acts of love. These ordinary moments are where the Gospel becomes visible.

The good news is that God never sends us without strengthening us. The same Christ who forms us through the sacraments also empowers us to live as witnesses in the world.

At St. Francis Xavier, we are called to be light, not only during special seasons, but every day. Ordinary Time reminds us that faith is not something we pause; it is something we live.

Let us embrace this season not as ordinary, but as essential. Amen.
