THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Death and resurrection take center stage in today's readings, beginning with a family being tortured and killed in a scene of terrible honor. Yet, each reading is full of hope. Each brother in the first reading is willing to die, trusting in the resurrection. Paul asks for prayers that he be delivered from those who would do him harm. Jesus assures his questioners that to God, even those who have died are alive. Let us look for that hope as we listen to scripture today.
