THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Much is demanded of a disciple, but great are the rewards. Elisha's benefactors furnish a room for the itinerant prophet, and he goes on to make them an extraordinary promise. Saint Paul tells the Romans that those baptized in Christ are baptized into his death but will also live with him in eternal life. Jesus tells his apostles that each must take up his cross, and they will be rewarded with everlasting life in the kingdom. Are we willing to be his disciples as well?

50th Anniversary 1970-2020

"Extend mercy towards others, so there can be no one whom you meet without helping..." - St. Vincent de Paul

In 1833, Blessed Frederic Ozanam founded the Society of St. Vincent de Paul along with 6 friends. To fund the activities to help the poor, they took a secret collection using a black bag. They passed it from person to person until each one had given their share. Because the Society does not receive DSF funding, Bishop Markovsky allowed us to have our first Black Bag collection in 1970; 50 years later, we continue the tradition of the Black Bag Collection. We ask that you join and donate to our Annual Black Bag Collection July 11-12, 2020.

 ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT
 8:00am to 5:30pm

Did you know that Catholics can make an Act of Spiritual Communion?

When unable to receive Holy Communion, pray the prayer below:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

That we use our gifts in the way that God intended for us. "...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." Matthew 10:38 Pope Benedict XVI said "The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness". "Comfort" puts me first. "Picking up your cross and following Jesus" puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!

FATHER'S DAY INTENTION

In Memory of:
 Dave J. Moss, Sr and Calvin Lynch
 By:
 Dave & Daphne Moss & Family

In observance of Independence Day, the Parish Office will be closed on Friday, July 3rd.

In Forgetting Self, We Find Self

Happy Sunday!

“Whoever loves father, mother, son, daughter more than me is not worthy of me.”

At first glance, this sounds a little harsh. But Jesus is not saying that we should not love our family members. He wants us to love them just as He loves us. What He is saying is that He must be always first in our lives. If we choose to follow Jesus, we must love Him and be dedicated to Him so much that even our closest loved ones will never get in the way of our total dedication to Jesus. Brothers and sisters, this is not an either/or situation. It is both/and. Because the more we love Jesus, the more we will love other people.

Jesus says, “Whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.”

He is not saying, “If you choose to follow me, I will make you suffer.” Everyone, Christian and non-Christian alike, lives with a certain measure of suffering. There is no such thing as a pain-free life. When Jesus asks us to take up our cross, He invites us to see our cross as more than unavoidable suffering.

Suffering is a mystery that we cannot understand. Why did Jesus suffer so to redeem us? But we know His suffering redeemed the world. When we join our suffering to His, rather than just tolerating it, in some way our suffering becomes redeeming for us and others too. It makes a huge difference whether we take up our cross in faith or just drag our cross. Besides, it is a lot heavier when we drag it.

Can good come from our suffering as it came from Jesus’ suffering? Yes. Why else would Helen Keller write, “I thank God for my blindness, for through it I have found myself, my work, and my God.”?

“Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”

I like even better the earlier translation of this statement, “He who seeks only himself brings himself to ruin, whereas he who brings himself to nothing for me discovers who he is.” Jesus is giving us the key to self-discovery and happiness. We all want to be happy. So, let’s find the key.

We are born into this world as self-centered and self-absorbed babies concerned about ourselves. Our lifelong struggle is to move away from being so self-centered and self-seeking. Jesus shows us how. He is the model of who we can be. His whole life was given in service to others. His whole orientation was opposite of our self-centeredness. Jesus tells us His way is our way. His way will bring us to self-discovery and happiness.

Is Jesus saying that it is in forgetting self that we find self, and that it is in losing our life that we find it? Exactly, and our own experience bears this out.

- The more we seek our own happiness, the less happy we are.
- The more we are focused inwardly on ourselves, the more miserable we become.
- The more we forget about making ourselves happy, the happier we become.
- The more we become concerned with the happiness of others, the more we experience joy and fulfillment.

At first glance, this does not seem to make good sense. It should be the other way around. But our own experience proves that it is true. Our most unhappy times have been when we turned in on ourselves, we were concerned only about ourselves, and we made ourselves and our needs the center of our attention. Our happiest times are those when we forget ourselves in love and service to others.

What profound truth in this one statement by Jesus (“whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”) It is a profound truth that holds the key to our happiness. Jesus has given us the key. Now it is up to you and me to use this key.
